G. W. VanWART, KING STREET.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

CENTREVILLE.

Nov. 2.—The rains of the past week have played havoc with the roads, and it is mud—mud—mud in every direction.

The boys celebrated Hallow E'en in the usual manner and Sunday morning witnessed many a curious and comical mixture of signs coupled with glaring and astonishing placards announcing changes in "business houses." It is rumoured that some of the girls of the village had a quiet hand in the work and are now enjoying the result of their pranks immensely.

Mr. Herb Clark has lately purchased a very fine driving horse by Robbie Lee. It is probably one of the best "roadsters" in the county. At any rate Herb is willing to try conclusions with the best of them.

Rev. Mr. Cahill preached an able and instructive sermon to the members of his congregation on Sunday morning. The Rev. gentleman is forcible and convincing; and easily takes rank among the ablest speakers in the Baptist denomination in N. B.

The membership roll in the R. T. of T's is still on the increase, and the interest is rapidly reviving. Mrs. Lunn and Mrs. Getchell were appointed a committee on entertainment and a good programme is expected. The paper is rapidly gaining favour and contributions are coming in from other places. The editor requests that all contributions be handed to him not later than Thursday of each week.

Rev. Mr. Smith, of Sackville, is the guest of Mrs. C. M. Sherwood.

Mr. Harry Clark is receiving congratulations on a domestic event—a son.

Mrs. Wilnot Harold leaves shortly to spend the winter in Los Angeles with her brother.

All our merchants are now doing business on the pay-down principle. The firm of G. W. White & Son having adopted that method today.

Rev. Christie Savage occupied the pulpit in the Methodist meeting house yesterday afternoon, and was listened to by a large and interested congregation. Mr. Savage left here about eleven years ago and finally settled in Oak Bay, Wis. There he became converted and entered the ministry. He has charge of a church there at present and is only home on a short visit to see his relations and renew old acquaintances.

At a meeting of the Centreville Council of Royal Templars, No. 79, held on Monday evening, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved:—That the members of this council deeply regret the departure for the West of our esteemed brother, Mr. H. B. Scholey.

Also resolved: That while lamenting his absence, we extend to him our earnest wishes for his future welfare; and the hope that he will meet with undivided success in his new home.

Further resolved:—That a copy of this be inserted in the press and sent to Mr. Scholey.

Signed on behalf of the whole council:

H. J. CLARKE
E. M. HAWKINS
H. W. PEPPERS.

BENTON.

A meeting of the Deanery of Woodstock was held here on Wednesday last. The clergy present were: Archdeacon Neales, Revs. S. J. Hanford, J. E. Flewelling, A. W. Teed, W. B. Belliss, G. F. Scovil. There was a celebration of Holy Communion in St. Mary's church at eight o'clock. Business meetings were held during the day. In the evening service was said at 7 o'clock, there being present between 120 and 150 persons. Rev. W. B. Belliss said the prayers, the 1st lesson was read by Rev. Mr. Scovil and the second by Rev. Mr. Teed. Rev. J. E. Flewelling preached a forcible sermon. The people of Benton entertained the clergy present at the different houses during the day. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, fruit and grain, which were put up for the harvest festival. Miss Bessie Neales was organist.

RICHMOND.

Mrs. H. Manzer, Andover, is visiting at the home of her father Mr. Andrew Stevenson.

The ladies of St. John's church held a farmers supper in the Orange hall on Thursday 22nd ult.

The new road around the McQuarrie hill has been completed.

The Richmond L. O. L. No. 109 intend holding a Farmers' Supper in the Orange Hall, Richmond Corner, on Thursday evening November 12th.

Addressing prominent members of the order and a good time generally is expected. Proceeds go towards finishing the hall. Should the evening be very unfavorable it will be held the next fine evening.

Come one, come all that hear this call, Help us to finish the Orange Hall.

We want the aid of every maid, who can cook an apple pie;

And the young gents who have the cents;

The tickets won't be high.

BEDELL SETTLEMENT.

The weather continues wet. The roads are a fright with mud. This is a fine settlement for bicycles.

Our annual school meeting came off great.

Enoch McDade shot a deer recently. Deer are very plentiful here especially two legged ones.

The farmers in this settlement have most of their turnips housed.

The social held in the Orange hall, Richmond, for the benefit of Mr. Bleakney proved a success.

Mr. John Kirk's ploughing frolic and dance were both well attended.

One of the greatest events of the season will be a supper held by the Orangemen in their hall, Richmond, on the evening of November 12th.

George Kennedy's crew of hay pressers are busy at work in this settlement.

FLORENCEVILLE.

Things are going about the same as when I last wrote you.

Lots of mud. No money, and twenty cents a bushel for oats seems to be the order of the day.

The Baptist people intend giving a chicken supper and fancy sale on the evening of the 20th in the old hall. Everybody come and get a clean bite and that is what you will get sure. And when the Baptist people say chicken they don't mean old hen. I am going if I can borrow a silver dollar. Prices to suit the times.

Prof. McLellan of New York gave a lecture on Phenology in the old hall one evening last week which was very interesting but the readings he gave some of the people were not very satisfactory so I am told.

Miss Lottie Wiley is here from Oregon visiting her sister Mrs. Tom McCain. It is pleasant to see her smiling countenance again after a number of years absence.

It is rumored that some of our young men intend going West in the near future.

Who said there was to be a party soon?

The primary department of our school was closed a few days last week, the teacher Miss Blanche Esty being in Fredericton visiting her sister who is at Normal school.

John McCain a well known resident of this place died on Tuesday last of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Grey of Mattawankeag with here child is visiting her mother Mrs. Samuel Taylor. She expects to stay all winter.

The dairy meeting of last Monday evening was largely attended and great interest was manifested.

C. L. Kearney who is clerking with Bohan Bros, Bath, spent Sunday at home.

A week ago Saturday night the R. T. of T. Council did not meet but on Saturday night last the young people turned out in good force and carried on the business in good shape. It was a better meeting than had been held for some time. The program was excellent.

Miss Annie Taylor who was married last Tuesday to Leonard Goodwin of Baie Vert, left for her future home on Wednesday accompanied by the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Apples are so plentiful and so cheap that the farmers are making cider on a large scale.

Mrs. W. Taylor made a flying visit to Woodstock on Saturday.

Wilnot Tweedie, Greenfield, died on Friday afternoon after a lingering illness.

BRISTOL.

Nov. 2.—Rev. A. E. LePage preached in the hall on Sunday afternoon and Rev. G. A. Gibson in the Free Baptist church.

Mr. W. M. Wetmore spent a few days in Fredericton last week, during his absence Miss Harmon of Peel had charge of the Telegraph office.

On account of some irregularities connected with the annual school meeting, Inspector Meagher has called another meeting for Saturday the 14th inst.

Miss Maud Dawson has organized a choral society to meet in the hall on Thursday evenings.

Mrs. M. A. Tompkins was called to Woodstock last week on account of the serious illness of her uncle Mr. W. B. Taylor.

Andrew Carr who has been carrying on the blacksmith business here during the last year, has closed his shop and returned to Centreville.

A barber shop has been opened in the Lockhart buildings near the station. Mr. John Tucker late of Glasville is the proprietor.

The members of Prince William, True Blue Lodge are preparing to give a concert on Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. Solomon Hunter, well known to many of the old residents, has been visiting friends here after an absence of over twenty years.

PERTH CENTRE.

Simply because Perth Centre happens to be crammed in between a steep hill on one side and the St. John River on the other, is no reason why it can't get a growth on.

Balmain Bros. have just completed a good sized warehouse here; Chas. Olmstead is building himself a store 23x30 with 20 feet posts, which he will occupy in the spring as a tailor shop; and the old Workman's Hotel is being remodelled and put in repair for occupation by John Campbell of Woodstock. A. L. Green has lumber on the ground to build a store 36x70 in the spring. He will put a plate glass front in his place.

The question of water works is being discussed on all hands as a means of reducing the insurance rate.

A Woodstock man is talking of coming here to erect a woodworking factory.

Albert Brewer with a crew of ten men is replacing the bridge across the Tobique at Red Rapids. The new structure has three spans of about 50 feet each. It will be finished in a couple of weeks.

HARTLAND.

Nov. 2.—Although late in the season building is still going on. The Foresters hall is being framed and will soon be erected. It is rumored that the ground floor will be used as a skating rink this winter. The three story building of Mr. Geo. Cox is being pushed forward. The Baptist church is about completed on the outside, the basement will be finished this winter.

On Wednesday evening Nov. 4th the Wilson Bros. Chords and Discords will play in Burts Hall. This promises to be a fine entertainment and all should attend.

A meeting was held in the F. C. B. church on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Young Peoples Aid Society, and was largely attended.

Allan Rideout occupied the chair. The following program was carried out:—Chorus, "Gospel Bell"; N. Barnes; duett, "One Day Nearer Home" by Misses Kelly and McAdam; recitation, Arnold McFarland; chorus "Pass it on"; recitation, Ella Thistle; quartette "Speed Away." After which the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Boyer, returned missionary, gave a very interesting account of the work in India.

Hallow E'en passed off quietly, it being very dark and rainy not much mischief was done.

Last night a concert was given in the F. C. B. church in aid of the Union Sunday School Library Fund. The night was very dark and the streets muddy, consequently not nearly as many were out if conditions were otherwise. However the house was pretty well filled and quite an appreciable amount was netted. A reading by Miss Hay was rendered exceptionally well; Mr. Asmund Gordon gave a couple of recitations well worth listening to; Miss Etta Thistle with her reading did well. Messrs Morgan and Alexander rendered a vocal duett in excellent style, and were called back. Mr. Bert Lint and Miss Watson delighted the audience with an instrumental duett cornet and banjo. Rev. J. B. Gough in his address spoke of the Sunday School Library as it was and should be.

Prof. McLellan will give a lecture on phenology in Matheson's Hall tonight.

A peculiar accident happened the ferry boat last week. A man took the boat over at about eleven at night and sent it back alone. As it got over into the channel it got itself in some trouble by some means or other. After struggling at the ropes it finally broke away. At day break pursuit of the fugitive was begun. It was finally captured at a point five miles below Woodstock. In two days it was brought back and is now running as of yore.

MIDDLE SIMONDS.

We have lately had a lecture from Rev. Mr. Caper.

Mr. Harvey Palmer is making some repairs on his house.

Mrs. Couillard has gone to Richmond to visit friends.

WANT A DAILY MAIL.

Hawkshaw, Poklok and Shogomoc after Fair Dealing.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trade, Messrs. H. Paxton Baird, J. T. A. Dibblee, M. P. P., and J. T. Garden were appointed a committee to look into the question of the mail service between Woodstock and Hawkshaw and draw up a memorial to be sent to the Postmaster General on the subject. The committee met in Mr. Dibblee's office recently. Mr. A. Bowman of Hawkshaw was present, and Dr. Colter, ex-M. P., was also present to aid in the matter. Mr. Dibblee stated that on the very night of the meeting of the Board of Trade he had received a telegram from Mr. Bowman saying that a letter which he had written to Mr. Bowman had been three days in reaching its destination. It was posted in Woodstock on Oct. 23rd and reached Hawkshaw on the 26th. The distance between Woodstock and Hawkshaw is 27 miles. Mr. Bowman on behalf of the people of Shogomoc, Hawkshaw and Poklok laid claim for a daily mail. It was pointed out that if the daily mail went from Woodstock to Hawkshaw, instead of as now from Woodstock to Meductic, there would only be twelve miles additional to the trip each way, and the grievances of the Hawkshaw, Shogomoc, Poklok people would be redressed. Finally a petition was drawn up, praying for a daily mail between Woodstock and these points, which Mr. Bowman has taken to his district to get signed. A similar petition will be circulated in Woodstock, and both will be sent to the Postmaster General. Dr. Colter will also interest himself in the matter.

Under the present mis-arrangement the problem is, Where does the letter travel, that takes three days to go from Woodstock to Hawkshaw a distance of 27 miles?

Personal.
