JOHN TUPPER, a colored man and a deaf mute, was found dead in his bed in the house where he lodged on Bridge street, on the 14th inst. The body was cold when found and the man had evidently been dead for some hours. An examination satisfied the physician who was called, that death resulted from an attack of apoplexy. Tupper was a harmless fellow, and possessed of considerable humor, which he expressed by gestures which were remarkably apt in conveying his meaning. He was an old time and familiar character in this section having been here from time to time for many years. He was between sixty and seventy years old.—Star Herald Presque Isle.

THE MARITIME PURE FOOD COMPANY of Woodstock, popularly known as the Woodstock Canning Factory, has sent a very fine selection of their goods to the St. John exhibition. There are 108 cases, comprising 19 different articles of goods in cans and glass. Harry G. Noble, of the firm of Noble & Trafton, will look after the exhibit. Mrs. Greene, the Manager's wife, will probably also aid in calling attention to the goods. The Small & Fisher Co. sent a carload of goods, down the other day. It consists of one threshing machine and horsepower, complete, one shingle machine, one drag and sawing machine, one rotary mill carriage, one feed mill. John Fisher has the exhibit in charge, for the present.

A DISGRACEFUL DISTURBANCE was created on the corner of Main and Bradley streets on the 7th. A number of young men were intoxicated, using profane language and annoying a peaceable old man, a pedler named Kelly, to such an extent that citizens had to interfere lest real injury should come to him. Complaint was laid before Magistrate Barnett who issued a warrant charging three young men of the village with being drunk and disorderly on the street and abusing an old man. Deputy Sheriff Foster performed the arrest, and a trial was held in Burt's Hall before Justices Barnett and Brown, many witnesses were called. One of the prisoners was guilty of no disturbance, and he was dismissed. The other two were fined $6.25 each, and on payment of the same were let go.—Hartland Advertiser.
