WOODSTOCK, N. B., JUNE 9, 1897.

ANOTHER "QUEEN" MATTER.

Had Her Gracious Majesty been in the council room of the loyal town of Woodstock, N. B., on Monday evening, she would perhaps have doubted whether there wasn't more lip loyalty than genuine loyalty in the "bloomin'" colonies.

There was nothing really enthusiastic in the reception of the proposition by Mr. Carr, that the council donate $100 toward the jubilee celebration, no wild waving of hats, no uproarious hurrahs, no strain of the national anthem from seven musical throats.

Nay! this grand opportunity of showing the attachment of Woodstock to the motherland was lost. Had Mr. Carr proposed that the mayor and councillors be indicted for high treason, like the famous seven bishops of old, he could not have settled a more gloomy atmosphere over the council chamber.

There was a "Queen" matter which awfully worried the mayor and council of 1896. Did the present council criticize them? Behold! they have a "Queen" affair of their own that causes them a bad quarter of an hour.

And won't the Queen be mad when she hears of it?

Persons owning dogs that worry or kill sheep should study the act relating to the same passed last year. It will be found that the owner of any sheep or lamb killed or injured by a dog, shall be entitled to receive damages from the owner of the dog, whether said owner knew or did not know that the dog was vicious or accustomed to worry sheep, nor is the passage of the by-law by the municipality necessary for the recovering of damage.

The City Council of Fredericton have prepared a Jubilee address, to be engrossed on parchment and presented to the Queen. Woodstock could scarcely afford one on parchment, but, one on brown paper, and sent as a circular to Her Majesty would not be expensive.

A Johnville resident complains that the roads in that parish are in a very bad state. We will not have good roads, or anything else good, until the excessive cost of running the local legislature is substantially reduced.

Mr. Laurier is now on the ocean en route to London, where he will occupy a prominent place in the Diamond Jubilee Celebrations. He will worthily represent Canada.

Sunday last was the 6th anniversary of the death of Sir John A. Macdonald.

A Letter to the Teachers.

Fellow teachers.—The success of the children's parade at Florenceville on the 22nd depends chiefly upon your energy and your interest in the event. Do not feel that it is only our celebration, it is not, it is yours; it is a celebration for the children, one at which they should be present, one which they will ever remember and look back again with pride and pleasant memories; it may be the great event in the life of each, certainly we will never again celebrate a Diamond Jubilee therefore it is necessary that there should be as many children as possible here, and the task of arranging for their presence must necessarily fall upon the shoulders of the teachers throughout the county.

It would require too much time and labour to write to each of you personally, and I would therefore ask you to consider this a sufficient invitation. The teacher or a guardian should accompany the children to see that they receive proper places in the parade. Each child will be given a flag, which it will carry in the parade and be allowed to keep as a souvenir. It would be as well to have the girls dressed as nearly alike as is possible all under fifteen years of age will be admitted. The children's parade takes place at 11 o'clock, and is separate from the general parade which is at eight o'clock, so there need be no fear entertained on account of horses. The distance walked will be short, especially as a large representation is expected from the villages of Hartland, Centreville, Bristol, Bath, and others.

I would be pleased if each of you would drop me a card, stating how many we need expect from your school, this will better enable us to make our arrangements.

Hoping that each teacher will do all in his or her power to assist us in this patriotic celebration.

I am, Yours Truly

D. W. HAMILTON,
By order of committee.

JOHN McLAUCHLAN offers a Jubilee handkerchief with every suit of clothes from $2.50 up. These handkerchiefs are of beautiful Chiao silk with a diamond jubilee design in the corner.

MAURICE TAYLOR of Florenceville narrowly escaped being killed one night last week. A jersey bull owned by his father got loose in the stable. When Maurice went in to tie him, the bull rushed at him and forced him into the corner of the stable. But for the timely assistance of his brother, who rushed to his help with a five tined fork he would have been goared to death.
