SOMETHING ABOUT SPAIN.

It is said that the dispatches from Cuba, appearing in many of the large American papers are utterly unreliable. However this may be, many of us are apt to think of Spain as a country without responsible government. Such is not the case. The legislative authority of the kingdom is exercised by the Sovereign and a parliament called the cortes. The Senate or upper house is divided into three classes, (1) members by right of birth or office, grandees (2) members nominated by the king for life, (3) members elected by the state corporations, and by the most highly taxed subjects. This last class may be equal to the other two, which cannot exceed 180.

The chamber of deputies are elected for five years, in the proportion of one for every 50,000 of the population. The electors must be twenty-five years old, and have paid a land tax equal to $5 for one year, or an industrial tax of $10.00 for two years.

The kingdom is divided into provinces, and in each province is a lieutenant governor appointed by the crown. There is a council in each province, the members of which are elected by members of the commune. As long ago as 1857 primary education was declared compulsory on all children of school age, and made free to the poor.

It will thus be seen that Spain has a liberal constitution.

MANY WOMEN DECEIVED.

At the present time many manufacturers of crude and unadulterated package dyes are making lively efforts to induce the wholesale and retail druggists and grocers to buy their dyes.

These common dyes are quoted at such low prices that some profit-loving dealers are tempted to buy them. The profit-loving dealers then take care to sell these adulterated dyes to the inexperienced and careless at the same price as the popular and reliable Diamond Dyes are sold for.

This iniquitous and deceptive work has caused a vast amount of loss and trouble to many in Canada, and will continue as long as women are foolish enough to take anything that is offered them.

If home dyeing work is to be a successful and money-saving work, every woman should see that she gets the Diamond Dyes, as they are the only guaranteed package does in the world.

Reflection of a Bachelor.

Men are naturally modest; women acquire all the ever get.

A man likes to know that his wife says her prayers at night more than he likes to see her do it.

Nobody ever saw a man who didn't know what he knew or a woman who knew what she didn't know.

When you call on a girl and say you bet you know what she's thinking about, she most always blushes.

As soon as a man gets through stuffing a girl's sleeves into her winter coat he has to begin tying her shoe ties.

At some time in her life every woman cries because her husband won't take some medicine she has heard is good.

EIGHTY IN EVERY HUNDRED.

Suffer More or Less from that Most Offensive of Diseases, Catarrh—That Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is a Wonderful Remedy is Testified to by Thousands who Have Been Cured Outright—Mr. Alex. Edmondson of Rosemouth, Ont., says:

"I have been troubled with catarrh for a great many years. Have suffered greatly from it. I had tried all the so-called cures, but never received any relief from them. Seeing Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder largely advertised, I determined to try it, although very sceptical about any relief, but I was greatly and agreeably disappointed, for from the first dose I received very great relief, and today I can honestly say that it has cured. I keep it constantly in the house, and we find it a quick cure for cold in the head. It gives almost instant relief. I have no hesitancy in proclaiming it the best cure for catarrh, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers from this malady." Sold by Garden Bros.

A Singular Advertisement.

An advertisement appeared in The Newcastle Courant of Jan. 4, 1770, as follows: "This is to acquaint the Public—That on Monday, the first instant (or Monthly Meeting) night of the Free and Accepted Masons of the 22nd Regiment, held at the Crown near Newgate (Newcastle), Mrs. Bell, the Landlady of the House, broke open a door (with a poker) that had not been opened for some years past, by which means she got into an adjacent Room, made two Holes through the wall, and by that stratagem discovered the secrets of Masonry; and she knowing herself to be the first woman in the world that ever found out the secret is willing to make it known to all her sex. So any Lady who is desirous of learning the Secrets of Freemasonry, by applying to that well-known woman (Mrs. Bell, that lived 25 yrs. in and about Newgate), may be instructed in all the secrets of Masonry."

A SUMMER SPECIFIC.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry cures cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, canker of the mouth and all bowel complaints of children or adults. It is a soothing, effectual and never failing medicine, which gives immediate relief and speedily effects a cure.

Every misjudged action will be explained one day, if not here, yonder.

A Personal Estimate.

When Reid was managing editor of "The New York Times" he had an office-boy whose cheek was colossal. Greatness never embarrassed him, for he was no respecter of persons. One day he entertained in the reception-room a waiting visitor, whose patronizing way nettled him. All kinds of questions concerning his life and occupation were fired at him, and finally he was asked how much he earned a week. His reply was "Fifty dollars," which caused the interrogator to whistle. At that moment the visitor was summoned by Reid, to whom he related his experience with an office-boy who said he made fifty dollars a week.

Reid rang the bell. Enter boy.

"Did you tell this gentleman that you made fifty dollars a week here?"

"I did not tell him any such thing."

"What!" exclaimed the gentleman. "You mean to say you didn't tell me a moment or two ago that you made fifty dollars a week?"

"Never said any such thing."

"Why, you little liar, you!"

"What did you tell the gentleman?" put in Reid.

"I told him I earned fifty dollars a week, but you pay me only three dollars.—New York Press.

NOTHING BETTER.

Miss Emily Craig, Almonte, Ont., says:—I have never found anything better than your Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for pains in the stomach or diarrhoea. A few doses cured me of severe diarrhoea after other medicines had failed. We always keep it in the house and have every confidence in its virtues.

We must be continually sacrificing our own wills, as opportunity serves, to the will of others; bearing, without notice, sights and sounds that annoy us; setting about this or that task when we had far rather be doing something very different; persevering in it often when we are thoroughly tired of it; keeping company for duty's sake, when it would be a great joy to us to be by ourselves; besides all the trifling, untoward accidents of life; bodily pain and weakness long continued, and perplexing us often when it does not amount to illness; losing what we value, missing what we desire; disappointment in our persons, wilfulness, unkindness, ingratitude, folly, in cases where we least expect it.

Messrs. Edmondson Bates & Co.
Dear Sirs,—I find your goods taking remarkably well with my customers and they appear to give every satisfaction, as indicated by the fact of our having sold one-half gross of your Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills alone during the month of August.
S. S. SMITH, Souris, Man.

A Chinese Superstition.

The strange unwillingness of the Chinese to afford help to a drowning man, or anyone in absolute peril of his life or otherwise, is based on the belief that the ghost of the last man killed always acts as "watchman" of the hades or purgatory into which, according to Chinese belief, the spirit of the departed first enters, and from which he can only be relieved by the arrival of a fresh ghost. If, therefore, a man's life be saved from accidental death, the spirit of the person who died immediately before him is, in a manner, cheated out of his relief, and will assuredly haunt the person whose misplaced humanity has condemned it to fresh term of dismal servitude. This belief also obtains among the Highlanders of Scotland.

TWO BOTTLES CURE PIMPLES.

GENTLEMEN,—For a long time I had pimples breaking out all over my face. I was told about B. B. E., and started its use. After taking one bottle I was much better, and the second bottle made a complete cure. I have recommended it to others of my friends, and they have found it uniformly satisfactory.

IT STRIKES HOME!

Chase's Ointment Cures All Skin Irritations.

GRACE ELLA.

"My little daughter, Grace Ella, aged three and a half, was a dreadful sufferer from eczema for three years. We tried a number of alleged cures and several doctors, but all without effect. Her's was indeed a bad case. Her little body was entirely covered with rash. One day our local druggist, Mr. Wm. E. Thistle, recommended me to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. I did so, and four boxes effected a complete cure and saved our child."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is just as effective for piles, salt rheum and sores of all descriptions. For sale by all dealers and Edmondson, Bates & Co., manufacturers, Toronto; price 60 cents.

There is nothing to equal Chase's Linseed and Turpentine for severe colds and lung troubles. Large bottle 25 cents.

The Moon Mountains.

The number of craters on the moon's surface is very large. A large lunar map by Schmidt, published in 1878, includes about 32,000 of these formations, some of which are very deep. They are surrounded by ramparts, or walls, raised above the general level. The mountains are proportionately high; one peak, named Newton, has an elevation of 24,000 feet. There are also rising mountains varying from 10 to 50 miles in diameter. The surface also displays a number of ray-centres, particularly at the time of full moon, when they may be seen to great advantage. These consist of a bright central object, with luminous radiations stretching in different directions.

Scurfy Head.

If a child's head is scurfy, do not comb the hair, which is apt to scratch and irritate the scalp, but brush gently. After washing the head thoroughly, dry it, and apply Dr. Chase's Ointment.

She (sentimentally): "What poetry there is in fire!" He (sadly): "Yes; a great deal of pretty poetry has gone there."
