

THE DISPATCH.

VOL. 4. NO. 19.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., OCT. 6, 1897.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

Tailor-Made Suits and Overcoats.

We want you to particularly note, in connection with our Fall Suits and Overcoats—1st, the Style; 2nd, the way they are put together; 3rd, their absolute fit; 4th, their littleness of price. They are modeled after Latest Styles, the cloths from which they are made are what fashion says shall be worn and the prices are really lower than they should be. These are not statements—facts are here—proofs are here in the most wonderful collection of Ready-to-Wear Suits and Overcoats we have ever shown.

Men's All Wool Suits, Single and Double-Breasted, $4.00 to 15.00.

Overcoats of Beaver, Melton, Nap and Tweeds, from $3.50 to 15.00.

Men's Ulsters, all shades, $4.25 to 11.00.

Your money back if you want it.

Oak Hall, One Price, Woodstock.

PATRONIZE

Your own Optician. He's always here. You know him. You know where to find him. He's responsible. He's as intelligent as the average long haired stranger with the Russian alias. He keeps in touch with the most advanced optical thought. His methods are those used by Dr. Buller and the best authorities on Optics in America. Testimonials from all parts of the county. See that of the Editor of the "Hartland Advertiser" in this issue.

Spectacles and Eye Glasses from 25c. upward. Spectacles Repaired; Lenses Replaced.

W. B. JEWETT,

Graduate Optician, Woodstock, N. B., 37 Main Street.

OUR FIRE SALE

Will last a few days longer. We are not exactly giving away goods, but we are selling them at a Remarkable Reduction. The damage on these goods was so slight that it is not noticeable. They were slightly disfigured by water, but we have cleaned them up so that it would puzzle an expert to know that they had been damaged at all. Nevertheless, the fact that they went through a fire makes them less saleable than they were before, and we offer them to you at almost your own price. Our store has been crowded during the past week with purchasers, and they have all been delighted with their bargains. It's your turn next. Don't put it off until the last minute, but come now. This is an excellent opportunity to secure a Wedding Present. All of our Silverware and Clocks are included in this sale. We are situated on QUEEN STREET, opposite the Aberdeen Hotel; will be at our old stand in about a week.

CARR & GIBSON,

WATCHES, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE and JEWELRY.

We are Strictly In It.

Come and see those ELEGANT SUITS Just Received, at GREY'S.

Having bought our Clothing from the best Clothing House in the Dominion, we are therefore able to show the best goods obtainable. No old goods in stock here. A few, for instance:

SENT TO DORCHESTER.

Victoria County Young Man Who Caused Terror.

He Broke Up a Happy Party and Ended by Using the Knife.—Arrested After Much Difficulty and Sent to Penitentiary for Three Years.

The September Circuit of the Supreme Court opened at Andover on the 28th ult., concluding on the 30th. His Honor Chief Justice Tuck presiding. Stephen E. Appleby in charge of the Crown business.

There was only one civil case in the docket The Town of Grand Falls vs. Wm. Petit. This was an action of ejectment brought to recover possession of certain public lands in the Town of Grand Falls. There was no jury and very little testimony given. The case rested entirely on matters of law. On the conclusion of the case, the Chief Justice said, that without expressing any opinion on the questions of law, he would give judgment for the plaintiff with leave reserved to defendant to move the full court in November next either for judgment in favor of defendant or for a new trial. F. W. Kerston Attorney and Allison B. Connell Counsel for Plaintiff, Fred LaForest for Defendant.

The criminal docket was unusually large. The Queen vs. William Griffith, shooting with intent to maim.

The Queen vs. William Griffith, obstructing a railway.

The Queen vs. George Griffith, obstructing a railway.

The Queen vs. Wolhart Klokkendale and Jerome Davenport, stealing an ox.

The Queen vs. Sheppard Morrill, stabbing with intent to maim.

The Queen vs. William Lovely, unlawfully wounding a cow.

Before the indictments were sent to grand jury it was discovered that the sheriff who had summoned the grand and petit jurors, was related to the Griffiths. This fact would have had the effect of rendering void any convictions that might have been made. The parties were then recognized to appear at the next court in March to take their trial before a jury properly constituted.

The case against Lovely appeared to the Chief Justice and crown prosecutor too trifling to bother with, therefore no indictment in that case was sent before the grand jury.

The grand jury found true bills in the cases for stealing and stabbing.

On the trial of Klokkendale and Davenport for stealing the ox, the jury acquitted Davenport and convicted Klokkendale, who received a sentence of three months in gaol. Thomas Lawson for Davenport, T. J. Carter for Klokkendale.

On the trial of Sheppard Morrill for stabbing, the prisoner was found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. He was defended with marked ability by Thomas Lawson. It appeared on the trial that on the evening of the 10th of February last there was a dancing party at the house of Charles Cochran in the Parish of Drummond. Among the guests were the prisoner and his brother Douglas Morrill, both of whom are regarded as outlaws in the county. They brought the eternal whiskey bottle in their pockets, which they passed around freely, and very early in the evening a large number of the men present were more or less under its influence. As one lady witness put it, nearly all the men present, except the unfortunate man Tompkins who was stabbed, appeared to have been drinking. Very little dancing was, or could be, indulged in. The Morrill brothers took charge of the house and what was intended to be a pleasant party was pandemonium. About ten o'clock a fight was in progress in the kitchen between the Morrills and some of the guests. Tompkins who was in the other room with his wife and most of the ladies and the more sober of the men, went out to quell the disturbance. Sheppard Morrill had his fist raised to strike a man, Tompkins caught hold of his arms to prevent the blow. Douglas Morrill then struck Tompkins in the face, who then let go of Sheppard and grasped Douglas by the throat. Sheppard then drew a knife and plunged it into Tompkins' back, making a bad wound, six inches long and one inch deep at the deepest part. A warrant was at once issued for his arrest, but the officers of the law were unable to arrest him until about a week before the trial. He went fully armed and threatened to destroy any one who attempted to capture him. The prisoner is twenty-two years old, tall, slender, straight as an Indian, and was fairly well dressed and not a very bad looking fellow. He was accompanied at the trial by his father, a brother

(not Douglas) and his fifteen year old wife, whom he had recently married, as he usually did everything, by carrying her off in spite of the protestations of her parents.

The court adjourned on Thursday evening about nine o'clock.

For The Sidewalk.

The young people who are interested in the completion of the East Florenceville side walk gave a chicken supper in B. Frank Smith's new warehouse last Thursday night. The attendance was much better than expected and the receipts were over twenty-five dollars. Among the ladies who contributed largely to its success were Mrs. B. Frank Smith, Mrs. Ben McIsaac, Mrs. Sam Darkis, Misses Susie Murphy, Lyn Semple, Kate Jameson, Ina Semple, Ada Tompkins and Jennie Burnham. Chal. Hartley, who has been one of the moot active workers on the sidewalk fund, looked after the door. After supper there was some dancing. Miss Susie Murphy, Miss Vail and Miss Hattie Wheeler took turns at the organ. Later in the evening there was a three round sparring match, under the Marquis of Gooseberry rules, between Lorenzo Clark and Charles Lewis of the Brighton Engineers. B. Frank Smith was timer, starter, judge, referee, and a few other things. He performed his duties excellently. It was a hot fight but neither man was very severely punished. They both walked home afterwards. Probably one third of the guests were members of the Brighton Engineers. Everyone enjoyed the affair.

Change in Time Table.

Passengers will do well to remember that the usual fall change in the C. P. R. time table went into force on Monday. The usual morning train for Houlton, St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Fredericton and St. John leaves at 6.20. At 9.05 a.m. a mixed leaves for Aroostook Junction, Presque Isle, etc. The express from St. John, St. Stephen, St. Andrews, Bangor and Montreal arrives at 12.27 p. m., and leaves for points north after unloading passengers. The mixed from Gibson leaves at 3.20 p. m., the train from St. John, St. Stephen, Quebec, Montreal and the West leaves at 4.22. At 5.00 a mixed train leaves for McAdam, starting from the old station. At 9.05 p. m. a train leaves for Debec and Houlton. Of arrivals a mixed from McAdam comes in at 7.40 a. m., a mixed from Presque Isle at 1.25 p. m.; express from North 4.22 p. m.; a mixed from Houlton at 5.50 p. m.; mixed from St. John, Boston, etc. 10.30 p. m.

"The 'Suburban' which has been such a popular service during the summer will be continued, running in the afternoon instead of the morning. It will leave Woodstock for Bath and intermediate points at 4.40 p. m.; arriving in return, at 8.45. Standard time is here given.

An Interesting Insurance Pamphlet.

W. J. Murray the Maritime manager of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association has issued a pamphlet dealing with the features of life insurance. Much that is puzzling to the ordinary policy holder is made clear and no one holding a policy can fail to benefit by reading it. The old line companies come in for sharp attack and criticism. Their methods and their practices are dealt with in a scathing manner while such terms as "Legal Reserve" and "Profits" come in for a large share of the author's attention. At any rate whether a policy holder agrees with Mr. Murray or not his pamphlet is remarkably interesting and worth sending for. Captain Manley provincial Manager for New Brunswick, St. John, or G. F. Watson, Agent for the Association of Woodstock, will be glad to furnish copies of the pamphlet free on application.

It's not the cough, but what it may end in, that makes it so serious. The cough may be cured, the serious consequence prevented by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Price, 25 cents, at all druggists.

LOTS OF CANDIDATES.

Six Men to Fill Three Seats in County Council.

Two Offer for Re-election, the Rest New Heads.—Names of Candidates in Other Parishes Adjoining.—Broadway Question Before Town Council.

The nomination of county councillors for the ensuing election on Tuesday next took place in the various parishes throughout the county on Monday last. For the representation of the town were nominated:—

Alex. Henderson, John A. Lindsay, Thos. Flemming, W. S. Saunders, Wm. Queen, Hugh Gallagher.

All these candidates put in their own nomination papers excepting Wm. Queen who was nominated by John McFarland.

The affair went off very quietly. There were no speeches, and no candidate was asked, openly, at all events to declare himself on any particular issue. Why this silent way of doing things should be, THE DISPATCH is at loss to tell. Aspiring candidates for the town council are now required to give an account of their work. Why should the same not be requested of the representatives in the county council? It will be, in time, no doubt.

In the parish of Northampton their were nominated:—

D. S. Gibson, W. O. Cluff, John Colter, Jarvis Bull, Robert Hemphell, Charles Connell.

BRIGHTON—C J Connelly, R W Richardson, Gideon Phillips, Henry Teddie.

WAKEFIELD—L R Harding, Frank R Shaw, Albert Bell, J A Lindsay.

SIMONDS—Nathaniel Shaw, William Rideout, Randolph Grass, Lebaron Mooers, Frank Kearney.

KENT—E F Shaw, A F Giberson, James Tracy, C E Gallagher.

WOODSTOCK PARISH—James Forest, Ansel Faulkner, Joseph Speer.

WILMOT—Harrison Stokoe, G W White, J F Cheney, John Williams.

PEEL—G W Melville, David Phillips, William Tompkins.

WICKLOW—Leonard Cronk.

Other parishes not heard from.

WILL FIX BROADWAY.

Delay Urged By Some Councillors.

There is the usual trouble in the town council. Lots of work is required to be done, and money is scarce. The taxes are to be collected with relentless severity. After the 15th inst. all taxes must be paid or executions will immediately issue. But still there will not be money enough.

It is a strange thing that we can never get a town council who will see that this is a growing town, that unforeseen expenses will arise, and that we cannot run it as cheaply as we did, unless necessary improvements are neglected. As Coun. Jones pointed out, we hear the same "old story." Rigid economy, and a balance at the end of the year, are promised on the day of election. The mayor never, no never will sign an over draft. When the end of the year approaches it is found that these good resolutions cannot be kept.

When Coun. Ketchum moved that the work of opening up Broadway on the western side opposite Fred. Moore's place be at once proceeded with, an agreement having been reached with Mr. Moore, and the time for doing the work being opportune, Coun. Graham raised the objection that there was no money to do this. He thought it could stand over till next year.

Coun. Ketchum was firm. If the work was not now done complications might arise which would make it difficult to do next year. There was much talk about the street and he thought the public had a right to demand that the work be done and over with.

Coun. Jones strongly backed up the chairman of the committee.

Coun. Lindsay thought if the street committee cleared out the ditch on the east side it would be sufficient for this year.

Couns. Flemming and Henderson favored Coun. Ketchum's motion, and Coun. Graham finally gave in as far as to say that if the town team could do the work he had no particular objection to it being proceeded with.

Coun. Jones thought the road ought to be put through no matter at what cost.

Coun. Ketchum said the town team could not do the work alone, although it could give much help.

It is was finally decided to proceed with the work at once. His Worship favoring that proceeding, and no councillor voting nay.

Coun. Lindsay asked the papers to let the public know that the council wanted all accounts against the town to be in by Dec. 1st. Coun. Lindsay moved, seconded by Coun. Graham, that the rental of the house over No. 2 engine house after the 1st of May next be $75.
