SPORTS THURSDAY EVENING

Inspection Today of No. 10 Field Battery.

Something About the Corps and Who the Officers are.—Col. Montzambert of Quebec will visit the Camp Today.—A pretty Spot to Tent in.

Whether the average artillery man is artistic or not may be questioned, but not the fact that the surroundings of the camp ground are beautiful. A prettier spot it would be hard to find than the field at the head of town, where Col. Dibblee and his battery are now performing their annual manoeuvres. There is a distinct elevation from the road to the point where the tents are pitched, while a much more noticeable hill rises abruptly, at their back on which stands the officer's marquee. Back of that again is a handsome grove, which is used as a natural stable for the horses, and an excellent place it is for them. The view from this hill can scarcely be excelled. You get a glimpse of the river above in its winding course, the Upper Woodstock bridge, and far away the buildings and fields around Newburg.

The soldiers do not have a great deal of time to admire the scenery, but other things equal it is just as well to be busy in a pretty place as in some low flat spot, where an ant-hill is regarded as a mountain.

There are a good many recruits in the battery this year, but what of that? Are we not told that

"—a raw recruit, might chance to shoot Great General Bonapart—y."

There are plenty of old heads to instruct the new 'soldgers,' and to 'cuss' at them moderately, after good soldier fashion. This battery can boast of having every one of its officers a school of gunnery man. Thus every officer in charge has been well instructed in his work.

Col. Dibblee, Surgeon Hand and Lieut. Good are the only commanding officers. There is room for a captain, another lieutenant, and a veterinary surgeon. But appointments are not got for the asking. The authorities are very strict and he who holds a commission in the Field Battery must have qualified and qualified well for it. Of the staff of sergeants, the head is Sgt. Major Scott. Then comes Quarter Master Sgt. Fields, who is practically Quarter Master, and is one of the most energetic and capable men in the force. Farrier-Sergt Arnold fills up the compliment of staff sergeants. The battery is made up of four sub-divisions with these officers:—No. 1 Sgt. Toms, Corp. Alfred Dibblee, Bomb. M. Ryan; No. 2 Sgt. Dysart, Corp. Brewer, Bomb. Bruce Dibblee; No. 3 Sgt. Smith, Corp. Geo. Baker, Bomb. Jas. Baker; No. 4 Sgt. Vanwart, Corp. Ivan Smith, Bomb. Al. Hayden. Sgt. Dysart met with an accident in camp the day after going in. His horse fell on him and he was laid up for several days with a sprained ankle. The first day was occupied in marching into camp pitching tents, forming sub-divisions, next day there was recruit squad drill, carbine exercise for guard, standing gun drill, harnessing, mounting and dismounting. As each day passed the more difficult parts of the drill were taken up.

Today and tomorrow Col. Montzambert the inspector from Quebec will be present, when the review will take place.

Reveille sounds at 5.30 a. m.; roll call 5.45; rations 6.00; "boot and saddle" 9; gun parade 9.30 to 12; gun parade 2.30 to 4.40. first post 9.30; last post 10.00; lights out 10.15.

Major Andrew Armstrong Paymaster for the district visited the camp on Monday afternoon, and the men were put through muster parade. They turned out 76 men and 30 horse.

On Thursday evening after tea, the battery will give an entertainment of sports, such as was held a few years ago. There will be a military ride, sword exercise, tumbling, wrestling on horseback and on foot, blanket toss, tug of war between the right and left divisions, sparring contest, etc. A feature of the exercises will be scaling the wall. This means going over a high wall, some thirty feet, by means of a pyramid of soldiers. The battery will endeavor to secure the band to help them out. Besides the sports there will be musical selections. Camp breaks up on Saturday.

Prize Winners.

The closing examinations of the town schools took place on Wednesday last. There was a very fair attendance of parents and friends of the scholars. In the College building the two schools were assembled in Mr.

Harrison's room. The medal for the best essay on the Victorian Era presented by Mr. Wm. Connell was awarded to Guy McAdam. In grade 9 there was a competition on the Victorian Era, for a medal presented by Mr. L. P. Fisher. It was won by Vera Connell and in the absence of Mr. Fisher, presented by Mr. W. S. Saunders. Miss Bessie Saunderson was awarded the medal given by Mr. W. W. Hay for proficiency in Latin, for grade 9. Claude Brown of Upper Woodstock took Mayor Hay's medal for mathematics, in the 10th grade. In the 9th grade a prize—Macaulay's History of England—given by Major Vince fell to Grace Pitt. Mr. Wm. Dibblee presented the prize. Kenneth Connell won a handsome medal give by Carr & Gibson for proficiency in English Literature. Mr. Charles Appleby made the presentation. The graduates from the Grammar school this term are Guy McAdam, Kenneth Connell, Roy Milmore, Jessie Vince, and Alice Queen.

In the Broadway school a silver medal presented by Dr. Manzer for the best composition on Canadian History was won by Mamie Connor. For good attendance the following received book prizes: Lottie Allingham, Willie Nicholson, Victor Bedell, Adam McKinley and Arthur Slipp. Dr. Manzer offers his medal for next year on the same subject, the winner to grade with an average of 60% in all branches.

Married in Worcester, Mass.

A correspondent writing from Worcester, Mass., on July 1st says:—Last evening the home of Elder I. F. Barnes, 178 Austin St., was the scene of a very pretty and attractive wedding. Surrounded by a bower of ferns and laurel with the entire room decorated with flowers of various kinds the happy bride and groom took their places with their immediate friends and relatives of this city gathered around them. Elder I. F. Barnes then spoke the words that made Mr. Woodbury C. Raymond and Miss Alice L. Dickinson husband and wife. The bride was prettily and attractively attired in cream cashmere trimmed with ribbon and lace, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. With joy depicted in every countenance they received the congratulations and good wishes of their friends present after which refreshments were served. They expect to remain for a few days in Worcester with their friends and relatives and after visiting some of the points of interest here will take a trip to Boston and other cities and from thence to Old Orchard Beach, Me., after which they will return to their home in Woodstock, N. B.

June Wedding.

Another of those happy events took place on Wednesday June 30th at 7 p. m. at the residence of James Gray, Good Corner, when their eldest daughter, Alveretta, was united in marriage to Hugh G. Ervin, of Andover. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Sellar assisted by Revs Ives and Fiske. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens. As the bridal party came down stairs and entered the parlour, taking their place beneath a very beautiful arch which had been erected, the wedding march was played. The bride was handsomely dressed in white broadcloth, trimmed with laces and ribbons, and carried a pretty bouquet. After the ceremony the guests numbering about fifty sat down to tables bountifully laden with everything to satisfy the wants of the inner man. Among the presents were cheques from the groom, father and brother, of the bride, silver tea service, oil paintings, and many other pretty and useful things. On the following day the bridal party left for their home in Andover, where a reception was to be held.

Wedding at Waterville.

Waterville was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Wallie W. Birmingham, of Lower Brighton, and Miss May Palmer, pledged themselves for life under the vows of matrimony. The marriage ceremony was celebrated at the bride's home by Rev. William DeWare. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Palmer, and the groom supported by his brother, F.H. Birmingham. The bride was the recipient of many useful presents.

A Greenfield Bride.

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the residence of Robert Wakem, Greenfield, Wednesday June 30th., when his daughter Emma was united in marriage to Mr. Warren Kianey. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. E. Flewelling. The bride was becomingly attired in cream nunsvailing, and was the recipient of many useful and handsome presents. The happy couple are followed to their new home in Knoxfor, by the best wishes of a host of friends.

Railway Matters.

There is considerable talk in railroad circles over the announcement that the Hon. Mr. Blair has given the C. P. R. a year's notice of his intention to terminate the agreement under which the C. P. R. train from Montreal now runs through to Halifax and return. The arrangement has been in existence for seven years. Under it the C. P. R. train from and to Montreal was hauled over the I. C. R. by an I. C. R. engine and with an I. C. R. train crew as a regular I. C. R. train. For this the I. C. R. paid to the C. P. R. car mileage or rent, aggregating about $65,000 annually. Of course the I. C. R. got the benefit of the local traffic. A part of the agreement enjoined strict neutrality on the part of both C. P. R. and I. C. R. agents as regards business for competing points. What the result of the termination of the agreement will be cannot now be stated. It may result in a new and more equitable arrangement for running the train to Halifax, or it may be the Canadian Pacific Railway will make St. John their terminus and the I. C. R. will run a connecting train. It may be that the two lines will fall to agree. Should this happen the C. P. R. would probably devote all their energies to making St. John their terminus, and would try and cut the I. C. R. out of through business, sending any for Halifax by the D. A. R.—Globe.
