Important To Investors!

Notwithstanding the dulness of general business and scarcity of money during the past year, THE NORTH AMERICAN LIFE ASSURANCE Co. of Toronto, can show most gratifying results for 1896. The amount of insurance written is far ahead of any previous year, being over $3,500,000. Premium income has been increased $60,000. Although during the year $250,000 has been distributed among policy-holders, there has been no shrinkage of surplus, which stands well over $400,000. Endowment policies maturing in the past year show an investment return of 5% compound interest.

Those holding policies in such a prosperous and well-managed company are to be congratulated. For all information as to policy contracts and rates, apply to HUGH S. WRIGHT, District Manager, Woodstock.

TO BE LET.

That pleasantly situated tenement on Park street, in Wellington Ward, now occupied by Fraser Grant. Possession given Nov. 1st.

Crossley Down on Spirits.

At Windsor, N. S., recently there have been alleged spiritualistic manifestations. Evangelist Crossley, who was there, denounced them as frauds. The Moncton Transcript says: "It is stated that Judge DeWolfe, of Windsor, has commenced legal proceedings against Rev. Mr. Crossley, the evangelist, for some remarks made by him explanatory of the supposed spiritualistic manifestations at the meetings in the judge's house. Two eminent legal firms in Halifax have been asked to take Mr. Crossley in hand. The Presbyterian Witness hears that the evangelist is not at all reluctant to appear before 'Caesar' and give an account of himself."

Prominent Business Man of Peterboro Cured of Eczema.

Mr. Thos. Gladman, book-keeper for Adam Hall, Esq., stove and tinware dealer, Peterboro, writes the following facts:—"Have been troubled for nine years with Eczema on my leg, and at times the itching was something terrible; tried many eminent doctors and was pronounced incurable. I had given up hopes of even being cured when I was recommended by Mr. Madill, druggist, to try a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am happy to testify that after using two boxes I am completely cured."

Bryan at The White House.

President McKinley and his late opponent Mr. Wm. J. O'Bryan do not carry personalities into their political warfare. The New York World describes a visit to the White House of the unsuccessful, free silver candidate. Secretary Porter met Mr. Bryan with cordiality and conducted him immediately into Mr. McKinley's private room. With outstretched hands the President advanced to meet his late political antagonist, and a few moments were spent in the exchange of friendly congratulations and good-humored badinage.

"I am glad to see you are so busy," said the President, referring to Mr. Bryan's argument before the Supreme Court.

"And I am sorry to see you are so busy," rejoined the free-silver leader, as he looked at the crowd of office-seekers.

The President took occasion to thank Mr. Bryan for a copy of his recently published book. "You are not obliged to punish yourself by reading it," replied Mr. Bryan merrily.

Civil Service Reform.

OTTAWA, April 10.—Mr. McMullen gives notice of a bill which is calculated to bring about a revolution in the civil service. It provides for a board of inspectors of the civil service, consisting of three men holding office during good behavior, on the same tenor as the Auditor General and removable only on a joint vote of both Houses. The inspectors shall inspect the outside and inside departments of the service and dismiss all incompetent or superfluous officers. The purpose is to keep the service on a business basis. Their action will be non-partizan. It is the belief of Mr. McMullen that there are about 1,000 officers who can be dispensed with by the action of this independent board. While power of appointment lay with the government all appointments will be made conditional upon efficiency and actual necessity for appointees in the service. The government would of course retain the right to dismiss of their own motion.

O. S. Doan, of Clinton, says not to go on suffering as he did for years with Salt Rheum, when a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment will cure you. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured Hiram Frey, of Norwood, after suffering ten years with Eczema of the leg. Chase's Ointment also cured his little girl of Eczema on her face.

Good Time on Horseback.

The horse is not yet out of it in spite of the bicycle. A recent dispatch from Philadelphia says:—Harrison K. Caner and his brother-in-law, Tristram C. Colkett, both of Philadelphia, rode from New York to this city on horseback in six hours and fifty-two minutes, establishing what is considered a remarkable record for the trip. The feat was accomplished with relays of horses, each of the riders using four different steeds for the journey. The finish was made several hours ahead of the time expected, and, with the exception of a slight fall which Mr. Colkett experienced in the streets of New York, the trip was entirely without accident to either of the riders or their horses. The distance from start to finish was in round figures one hundred miles, and an average gait of over fifteen miles an hour was maintained.
