The district has just been the scene of an im-The district has just been the scene of an important religious awakening under the leadership (humanly speaking) of Rev. Amos Hayward assisted by Mr. Deming, a young man of promise, looking forward to the ministry. Mr. Hayward, sympathising with the expressed wishes of christian friends has been holding a series of meetings in the hell extending over nearly a forthight; and in the hall, extending over nearly a fortnight; and we have every reason to believe that these meetings of christians of all denominations have been productive of much good—that in short, they have been signally blessed, both to the old and the young. Numerically, they were a great success, the hall, on every occasion being well filled; and it must have rejoiced the heart of every lover of the Redeemer's cause to see gathered together so many old christian professors and others essaying for the old christian professors and others essaying, for the first time, to cross the boundary line of the Kingdom. During the meeting season, Mr. Hayward received into the church by baptism four new members—all esteemed triends, who will prove a great acquisition to the Baptist church. He will continue his active mission work, visiting and confirming the churches in other sections of Aberdeen and it is the earnest prayer of all, that the blessing of God may be with him.

La grippe seems to be the order of the day; among the sick ones may be mentioned W. A. Taylor, Col. Upton, Mrs. Wm. Peters and others.

Miss Hattie Wheeler and Miss Edith Porter, who had the misfortune to sprain their ankles while sliding, are able to be out again.

Those young ladies who travel the Greenfield road will do well to take a boat along with them, so that there will be no need for having to walk fences to get over the water-holes. A sled-load of young people visited Peters & Estey's sugar camp, on Saturday afternoon; the proprietors were very courteous and clever; having satisfied their voracious appetites for maple candy, and having thanked the proprietors for their kindness, the young people, after many a bump and hurrah, arrived home without any serious mishaps.

There was good attendance at Council last Saturday evening, not with standing the condition of the roads. After the routine of business came the roads. After the routine of business came the answering and discussion of questions. Among the questions discussed were the following:—"How much lager beer will it take to produce intoxication?" To the Editor of The Dispatch:

MR. EDITOR, -Please let me have a little corner in your paper, for the purpose of thanking the members of L. O. L. No. 19, Jacksonville, N. B., for their kindness and liberality toward me. The spirit of fraternity, and true brotherhood, which is characteristic of our beloved 'Order' everywhere, found expression in this case in a money present of ten dollars, accompanied by other evidences of regard and sympathy. This is not, by any means, the first time I have had tangible proof, of the fact that the members of this Association' are not unmindful of each other's welfare. In a time of sore affliction years ago, I was a recipient of their kindness, again, this winter, in a time of equal trial, the little band at Jacksonville sent a suitable expression of their friendship although I have been anything but a regular attendant at the lodge meetings. My appreciation of their generous sympathy is none the less sincere because imperfectly expressed. W. G. Corey.
