

A NURSE'S STORY.

Tells how she was cured of Heart and Nerve Troubles.

The onerous duties that fall to the lot of a nurse, the worry, care, loss of sleep, irregularity of meals soon tell on the nervous system and undermine the health. Mrs. H. L. Menzies, a professional nurse living at the Corner of Wellington and King Streets, Brantford, Ont., states her case as follows: "For the past three years I have suffered from weakness, shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart. The least excitement would make my heart flutter, and at night I even found it difficult to sleep. After I got Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I experienced great relief, and on continuing their use the improvement has been marked until now all the old symptoms are gone and I am completely cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Anemia, Nervousness, Weakness, Sleeplessness, Palpitation, Throbbing, Painful Spells, Dizziness or any condition arising from Impoverished Blood, Disordered Nerves or Weak Heart.

Fifty Years a Duke.

The Duke of Argyll, who has just celebrated the 50th anniversary of his accession to the dukedom, enjoys the well deserved reputation of being the most aggressive and quarrelsome man in the United Kingdom, and there is scarcely a person of any prominence, living or dead, contemporary to Queen Victoria with whom he has not at one time or another been in bitter conflict. He has quarrelled with the Queen, with his family, the leaders of both political parties, with the principal scientists of the day, and last, but not least, with the church, his attitude toward the latter being at one moment so hostile that on one memorable occasion the Bishop of Glasgow wrote a letter to the duke expressing his intention of refusing holy communion to his grace on the following Easter Sunday. The only similar act of episcopal severity toward a peer of the realm on record is the case of the present and Lady Shrewsbury and Talbot—the earl being the premier earl of the realm—who was refused holy communion at a country church in the County of Cheshire in consequence of orders received by the rector from the Bishop of Chester, who insisted that the elopement and divorce that had preceeded the marriage of the earl and the countess were of a nature to debar them from receiving the sacraments.

The Duke of Argyll has had a career that has been almost as busy as that of Mr. Gladstone. He became an author at 19, chancellor of a great university at 28, a Cabinet Minister at 29. He has been three times Keeper of the Privy Seal of England, has been Secretary of State for India, and Postmaster-General, is Keeper of the Great Seal of Scotland and hereditary Master of the Queen's Household in Scotland, besides holding the title of "Admiral of the Western Isles." Moreover, he holds more nobiliary titles than any other Scotch nobleman. He is an artist of no small merit, a master of geology, ornithology and natural history, and so clever a scientist that Darwin considered it necessary to issue a volume of refutations of the duke's criticisms on his theory of descent. He is so imperious that the Scotch are convinced that he owns the earth, and one can well believe the story of the highland peasant who, when Princess Louise married the Marquis of Lorne, declared that "the Queen must be a mighty proud woman to have her daughter wed the son of the Mac-Callum More." He has been thrice married, dresses in a shocking manner, is exceedingly thrifty and has been known to dine off a dish of tripe, with six servants in his livery superintending this truly ducal repast.—Chicago Record.

BLACKS THAT ARE BLACK.

Three Favorites of the Diamond Dyes.

The Diamond Dye Blacks are scientific successes that are everywhere appreciated by the ladies.

Diamond Dye Fast Black for Wool stands ahead of all other wool dyes for fulness, richness and depth of color. All-wool goods when they have become rusty and soiled can be restored to a deep jet black, equal to the best French blacks, and fitted for long years of wear.

Diamond Dye Fast Black for Cotton and Mixed goods is the only black in the world for dyeing cotton and all mixed fabrics. It gives a permanent and never fading color.

Diamond Dye Fast Black for Silk and Feathers is a triumph of the chemical art, and has surprised the world. All silk goods and feathers that are faded, spotted and spoiled can be dyed a lovely jet black with this special dye, making old things look equal to new goods.

The Diamond Blacks are the best in the world. Ask for them and refuse all imitations and poor makes.

The February Canadian.

The Klondike seems to be the leading theme in the February "Canadian Magazine." J. Gordon Smith contributes a general article on the region; there are some quotations from Mr. Ogilvie's forthcoming book; and Thomas S. Scott, one of the engineers who assisted Major Walsh across the mountains, writes humorously of his "Experiences in the Chilkoot Pass." Some twenty valuable illustrations and maps accompany the articles. The article on "The Fenian Invasion of Quebec, 1866," by John W. Dafeo, of the Montreal Star, will be entertaining to those who remember those troublous times, and to all military men. Some historical pictures accompany the article and add to its value. A contribution entitled "The Solicitor-General of Canada" is accompanied by pictures of Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, Hon. David Mills, E. L. Newcombe, Hon. J. J. Curran and Sir Charles Hibbert. Tupper. Robert W Shannon, until recently editor of the Ottawa Citizen, writes of "Anglo-Saxon Superiority" with special reference to a book recently published in Paris by a leading Frenchman. Madame Sarah Grand, the famous novelist, contributes a short article, on "The Modern English Girl," and it is worthy of being read by every Canadian maiden. Montcalm, Wolfe, and their great struggle form the theme of Dr. Bourinot's fourth paper on "The Makers of the Dominion of Canada." The stories and departments are as interesting as usual.

Old People's Troubles.

Hard for the old folks to move about—constant backaches to bother them in the daytime—urinary weakness to disturb their rest at night.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Strengthen the Kidneys and help to make the declining years comfortable.

Mr. W. G. Muford, Chestnut Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I., writes: "For the past two years I have had much trouble with disease of the kidneys and non-retention of urine, was dropsical and suffered a great deal with pain in my back. I have been greatly benefited by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Not Anxious to Work.

A seedy-looking man entered a Prospect street restaurant Tuesday morning and marched up to the proprietor.

"Mister," he said with a pitiful quaver in his voice, "I want work enough to enable me to earn my breakfast."

The kind-hearted proprietor, moved by his evident distress, gave him a hearty meal.

After the wayfarer had finished the last morsel the restaurant man approached him. "Well," he said, "what kind of work can you do?"

"Garden making," replied the stranger, as he took his hat and prepared to start.

The proprietor smiled bitterly.

"I suppose," he said, with a decidedly sarcastic intonation, "that you'll be around here next Fourth of July and tell me that you are a shoveller of snow."

But the stranger rambled away without a word.—From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Years of Suffering From Rheumatism Relieved by One Dose of Medicine.

"For many years," writes Mrs. N. Ferris, wife of the well-known birch manufacturer, of Highgate, Ont., "I was sorely afflicted with rheumatic pains in my ankles, and at times was almost disabled. I tried every thing, as I thought, and doctored for years without much benefit. Though I had lost confidence in medicines, I was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure. To my delight the first dose gave me more relief than I have had in years, and two bottles have completely cured me. You can publish this letter."—Sold by Garden Bros.

Study Them.

"I'll bet that man who just got off the car eats with his knife, wipes his mouth on a corner of the table cloth, and doesn't bathe oftener than once in three months."

"Why?"

"I noticed that when he got on he come in the front way. Now any man that will enter the front door of a car on a stormy day ought to live in a barn. But that wasn't all. He wouldn't move up, in order to make room for a man who got aboard just after him, and when he got off he went out the front door, leaving it open. You can bet all the money you will ever earn that folks who do such things have the instincts of pigs. They may wear good clothes and have plenty of money, but if you could examine them you would find that they have bristles. Just make a study of the next person you see do those things, and find out if I am not right."

BRONCHITIS CURED.

MESSRS. T. MILBURN & Co., Toronto, Ont. DEAR SIRS,—I have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil for my children when they had bronchitis, and always with great success. I use it also for sore throat, and can say there is nothing to equal it as a sure cure. MRS. JAMES O'BRIEN, Huntsville, Ont.

Some Devious Definitions.

AN EX-ALDERMAN SPEAKS.

MR. JAS. HAGAN, the well-known ex-alderman of Kemptville, Ont., says: "For some years I have been greatly troubled with pain across my back. Urinary troubles caused me much loss of sleep, and I suffered from a tired, worn-out feeling. DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS gave me relief in a short time. The pain in my back has disappeared, and I feel that I would be doing wrong not to recommend them to others suffering as I did. They are the best medicine I ever used."

Stained Floors.

Stained floors should be restained at least once a year. Have the floor thoroughly scrubbed and dried before going over with the paint and varnish. To secure the best results the stain should be put on first and allowed to dry before the coating of varnish is added. A mixture of warm water, soap and household ammonia is the best fluid one can use for cleaning board floors. Never use a scrubbing brush on a painted, stained or varnished floor. Use a soft mop. Ink spots may be easily removed by rubbing them with spirits of salts, and grease will disappear after an application of fuller's earth.

It's not the cough, but what it may end in, that makes it so serious. The cough may be cured, the serious consequence prevented by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Price, 25 cents, at all druggists.
