NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

MAPLE VIEW.

W. H. Ellis, of this place, accompanied by his daughter, Helen, started for St. John yesterday en route for British Columbia. Miss Ellis intends staying at St. John for some time. She is very popular among us and will be much missed from our midst.

Miss Sadler is home again after an extended tour through the province.

A. Mills, an enterprising merchant of Woodstock spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Miles Flanders is spending a few days at Woodstock.

During the storm Saturday evening three large moose wandered into our Settlement from Sisson Ridge. They traversed the main road for a way then passed through Mr. Sadler's fields to the river. They were some twenty minutes passing across the clearing to the woods over the river, and though they were viewed by several hunters not a gun was levelled as they leisurely walked away, it being closed season. Deer and Caribou also seem quite tame, having been frequently seen on the main and open fields.

Miss Annie Flanders is visiting friends at Woodstock and Centreville.

The young men are coming from the woods. Messrs. George Moray and Fred Sadler came home last week.

The snow is fast leaving and the roads are in a bad condition.

KIRKLAND.

William Tracey has gone to New Hampshire.

James H. McAnarlin has taken his departure for British Columbia.

Messrs. Robert Bustard and Henry Anderson have returned from N. H.

Mrs. Nelson Russell was visiting at the Corner, recently.

Mrs. Annie Gidney had a mat drawing and a wood splitting party. It was very largely attended.

Mrs. Gidney has some very pretty house plants, she has a handsome oleander in bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and boy from Littleton, have been visiting her father, Mr. David Kennedy.

GRAHAMSVILLE.

Daniel Graham sr., is very ill. He has cancer in the stomach. Dr. Sterling was called to see him.

The dwelling house of John Hawkes sr., was burned on the 22nd with nearly all its contents.

Mr. Hawkes and his wife were alone and there was a high wind. He ran for help and when the people came it was too late to stop the fire.

James Hawke's eldest daughter has been very sick with erysipelas. Dr. Sterling was summoned to her bedside.

Mrs. Thomas J. Graham has been very ill from heart trouble.

BEECHWOOD.

Mrs. N. S. Sipprell, of Mattawamkeag Maine, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Jonas F. Kearney for two weeks past returned home on Saturday last.

Sol Tracy, of Upper Kent, is moving in the Post house today (Monday) on Mill street.

Henry Maskell while on his way to the Goer on Sunday saw two fine deer near E. Kearney's back barn.

William Lee of the C. P. R. is visiting friends in the village.

Geo. W. Woodard has gone over on Penobscot waters to stream drive.

Fredie Demerchant was visiting friends in Fort Fairfield last week.

David Hatheway went over to Fort Fairfield on Sunday to work.

Geo. V. Kearney was visiting relatives in Perth and Andover last week.

Avard Kearney jr., has been visiting friends in Mars Hill.

Melvin Maskell of Fort Fairfield was visiting relatives in the village last week.

D. Irvine of Newville paid the village a visit on Thursday last, looking after the interest of his office.

The snow is nearly all gone and it has left the roads in a very bad state.

This is an extra good season for making maple sugar. F. E. McNally of this place has already made several hundred weight.

Frank Haining went to Woodstock on Monday.

Alonzo Maskell has gone on the section again to work.

Wm. Kearney spent a few days of last week in Mars Hill, Maine.

Abel Demerchant has on several occasions heard an animal at night in the woods near his house.

The screams of it will terrify the stoutest heart. He has also seen its tracks in the snow but can not tell what it is.

BRISTOL.

A. W. Phillips returned home on Saturday from a trip through the upper provinces.

Alva Phillips left on Monday last for Vancouver. Several other young men are talking of joining the exodus.

Allan Tompkins and Fred Robinson of Bridge-water have been visiting Mr. W. B. Tompkins of this village.

George Davis a young man working in Brittain's Factory, got his hand caught in a cog wheel, a few days ago, and lost the ends of two fingers on his left hand.

Rev. A. H. Hayward preached in the Hall on Sunday evening after an absence of some weeks, and Rev. A. G. Giberson preached in the Primitive Baptist church the same evening.

Charles Whitney one of our old residents was quite severely injured on Monday evening last, by being struck by the "Hobo" train going north, a short distance above this station. Mr. Whitney was walking on the track near the railway bridge, and did not hear the approaching train, which struck him and threw him to one side, fortunately the injuries sustained were not serious but it was a very narrow escape.

George Boyer took a trip up the Tobique river last week.

The Sunday school are preparing for a concert to be held on Easter evening in the Hall and Rev. Mr. Hayward will give a short address.

G. A. Brittain has been ill for some days, but is now able to be around again.

Blanchard Phillips and Robin Boyer are engaged in the maple sugar making, on Saturday they gave a candy party out at their camp, and had had quite a number of visitors.

BATH.

Mrs. G. A. Giberson fell from a sleigh last week and hurt her shoulder and arm quite badly.

Miss Kinney from Nova Scotia is in the village. She has her card out for dress and cloak making, at G. A. Giberson's.

Thomas Bohan was first one out with a wagon on Tuesday 22nd.

The shipment of hay, oats and meal is still continuing every day.

Rev. G. A. Giberson is holding special meetings in Phillips Hall. Quite a good interest is being felt.

Frank Nixon, from Glassville, a blind musician is visiting friends here.

Charles Pearce of Johnville returned home last week from the West.

Richard Curry, one of our citizens is at present in New York having a tumor removed from his side.

Percy Cass and Ziby Giberson have gone to Wicklow on an exploring expedition on Mr. Drawer's farm. We hope they will strike a Klondike.

SOUTH TILLEY.

James son of John Walker had a narrow escape last Wednesday. He and Mr. Walker were hauling logs. The father was driving a span of colts. His hat blew off and while after the hat the colts started to run away James got ahead of the colts and attempted to catch them by the head but in doing so fell and the load of logs crossed over him. He was badly bruised but no bones were broken.

For a time it was feared he was injured internally but so far no serious symptoms have developed. Dr. Wiley is attending him.

David Creighton jr is laid up with a severe attack of La Grippe.

The roads are about done for hauling lumber for this year. The snow has gone very rapidly the last few days.

Nearly all the teams in the settlement gathered Saturday and gave John Walker a days hauling with his lumber. Owing to reverses one way and another he had been unable to get from the yards the remainder of the logs he had cut before the roads failed. But after one day's untied effort they are nearly all out where they can be put to the river. We quite in thanking the friends for their timely help.

The ice is going fast and there is no sign of a bridge being put in either at the Narrows or Pokiook, a whole year has passed and so far as the putting forth of efficient efforts are concerned. We are no nearer a new bridge than we were last year at this time. We need a ferry or bridge right off, we do not want to be put to the inconvenience that we were last year.

BAIRDSVILLE.

The snow is leaving us rapidly, and the roads are in such a condition that there is neither sleighing nor waggoning.

Most of the boys have returned from the woods and are now talking of driving.

Henry Baird returned home Saturday, he has been keeping the depot camp for McNair this winter.

Moving has been the order of the day in this place. Mrs. W. B. Howlett bought James Lamoreaux's place, James Lamoreaux bought Wellington Kilpatrick's farm and Wellington Kilpatrick has moved to Andover.

Our Sunday school has been one of the "ever green" ones and has had good attendance.

Mrs. James Brayson who has been very ill is recovering slowly.

James Cassidy is the happiest man in our town. A baby girl has come to live with him.

Miss Emma Baird who has been at Presque Isle for some time past was called home on account of her mother's illness.

Mr. Shaw of Mars Hill held a "graphophone" concert here Saturday evening.

THE ROAD TO KLONDIKE.

It is Impassable and Many People are Turning Back.

SKAGWAY, March 8th, via Vancouver B. C. March 18th.

Garfield, one of the United States Custom conveys just returned from Summit White Pass, reports trail in a fearful condition. No progress is being made by anyone with outfits. It is a safe estimate based on personal inspection and opinion of old and reliable packers who have been here since August 1897 that not over twenty-five per cent. of those now on White Pass or Skagway trail or those on Chilcoot Pass or Dyea trail will reach Summit or the Lakes. People are returning from Skagway every day and going in via Wrangel. A day or so of mild weather and the trail will be heavy and impassable. No one should attempt it. A party who has just returned from Summit state that the trail between Skagway and Porcupine Hill, about nine miles, is impassable except by pack trains. Continuation of present mild weather will completely destroy White Pass and Chilcoot trails. The Canadian Pacific Railway is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Carter their Yukon representative, giving the following particulars regarding the situation at Wrangel on shipments destined to the Klondike via the Stickeen River. "Everything is landed on the wharf here and customs entry made. There are two small steamers the "Louisa" capacity 80 tons and "Alaskan" capacity 69 tons, making daily trips to the mouth of the Stickeen river (Cottonwood Island 7 1/2 miles from Wrangel with landing for unloading) and tug "Mocking Bird" handles lighter, capacity 40 tons making trips as sufficient freight offers. Rates from Wrangel to Cottonwood Island $5.00 per ton, $5.00 per head stock, $1.00 per dog, passengers $3.00 each. Feed for stock must be paid for. In reference to facilities for packing up the river, Neil Keith, in charge of Mackenzie & Mann's outfit has left with first contingent this week and intends to get up the river at once, making trail. Keith will return here and report progress and say whether freight can be accepted from outside parties for transport to Glenora and at what rate, and will advise you at the earliest possible date. At present each party must pack their own outfits and freight, and about 150 have left here this week under these conditions. The river is broken and all conditions are at present most favorable. Every facility is afforded by the U. S. Customs officials to allow parties to get through quickly and without any expense being entailed through U. S. Customs. The usual brokerage of course has to be paid. Wharfage fees at Wrangel are merchandise $2.00 per ton, horses 50c. each, dogs and baggage free."

Yukon Military Force.

Ottawa, March 26.—The composition of the Yukon military force will be: Dragoons 15, artillery 45, infantry 140. The officers will be: Major Evans, R. C. D., in command; Caps. Gardiner, R. C. D., quartermaster; Caps. Bustall, Thacker and Ogilvy, R. C. A.; Surgeon-Major Foster, 67th Battalion, medical officer; and Major Talbot of the Voltigeurs, paymaster. The whole force will be regarded as infantry when in service. It will leave Ottawa, about the Middle of April.

The reason for the selection of fifteen dragoons from Winnipeg is that Major Evans stipulated that he could have some men with him of whose qualifications he was cognizant from the very start, hence he was allowed to select them from his own company.

Not unique—"What a wonderful painter Rubens was!" remarked Mr. Jones at the art gallery. "Yes," assented Mrs. Jones. "It is said of him that he could change a laughing face into a sad one by a single stroke." "Why," spoke up little Johnny in disgust, "my school master can do that."

The Bruce Herald has this severe, but not too severe, comment on farmers who leave implements exposed to the weather. During a trip north one afternoon last week, on the fast live stock express, a Walkertonian saw evidences of agricultural prosperity that cannot be mistaken. In a field near Cargill a pair of plow handles were pointing heavenward out of the snow. The conclusion arrived at was that the farmer was finishing his fall plowing under the drift. Near Pinkerton a hay rake was seen partially covered with snow. There appeared to be some doubt here, judging by the position of the rake, as to whether the implement was strong enough to gather up the immense yield. On nearing Paisley a binder was noticed standing in front of the barn, all ready to be pulled out into the waving grain. Other evidences of agricultural activity were visible from the swiftly creeping train. The marks of prosperity are quite apparent. When a farmer can afford to leave his implements exposed to the varied elements of a Bruce winter and make ends meet, he must be enjoying some measure of success in life.
