

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER CURED.

Mrs. Lydia A. Fowler, Electric Street, Amherst, N.S., testifies to the good effects of the new specific for all heart and nerve troubles: "For some time past I have been troubled with a fluttering sensation in the region of my heart, followed by acute pains which gave me great distress and weakened me at times so that I could scarcely breathe. I was very much run down and felt nervous and irritable.

"I had taken a great many remedies without receiving any benefit, a friend induced me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I had only been taking them a short time when I felt that they were doing me great good; so I continued their use and now feel all right. I can heartily recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for nervous prostration."

Mrs. Fowler adds: "My daughter, now fifteen years of age, was pale, weak and run down, and she also took Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for some time, and is now strong, healthy and vigorous."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, smothering sensation, dizzy and faint spells, nervousness, weakness, female troubles etc. Price 50c. a box or three boxes for $1.25. Sold by all druggists. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

Mr. Melville Miller, Bensford, Ontario, says: "Laxa-Liver Pills made a new man of me. I was troubled with indigestion and pains in the small of my back, and after taking Laxa-Liver Pills for about three weeks they completely cured me." Price 25c., all druggists.

You'll Regret It

If you let the days go by without getting those photographs taken which you have in mind. Time brings changes. Think what may happen. I give great care to obtain the most artistic and natural poses, and the ones most becoming to the subject. Besides this, my pictures have a reputation for fine retouching and superb mechanical finish. I have been particularly successful with children's pictures.

The Gold Output of The Klondike.

The Klondike district and Indian River output of gold is estimated as anywhere from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000. There is every reason to believe now that the latter figure will be very near the true mark. If private estimates of mine-owners are to be regarded as approximately correct, then the following creeks and tributaries should produce the amounts of gold named: Bonanza $7,000,000 El Dorado $10,000,000, Punker $2,500,000 Dominion $350,000, Sulphur $150,000; total $20,000,000.

Alexander McDonald will have more gold dust than any six miners combined. But the Bonanza King owes more than any twenty men in the Klondike, so that his pile will be materially reduced. The claims owned and represented by Ed Mazner will show up approximately $750,000 Stanley & Warden $500,000, Berritt Bros. $500,000 Charley Anderson $500,000. These are probably the heaviest producers in the Klondike country.

The story of how Charley Anderson became Elderado King is one of rare interest. Early in the fall of 1896 Anderson, with a party of boon companions, came up from Forty Mile, intending to locate claims on Bonanza. They found the creek staked from head to mouth, which fact so disgusted Anderson that he filled up on bad whiskey, hoping therefore to drown his disappointment.

While in a maudlin condition he fell into the clutches of some would be sharps, who easily persuaded him to invest $800, all the money he had, in No. 29 Elderado.

When Anderson came to his senses next morning he found himself possessor of the deed to the property named, but without a dollar in his pocket. The young Swede begged, implored and threatened his tormentors, but to no purpose.

Securing a grub stake, Anderson went to his claim and settled down to hard work. The first gravel showed good pay, and when bedrock was reached Anderson saw the fleecers had been fleeced.

When Anderson told of his good fortune the former owners of the claim devised sundry ways and means to get back the property. But the prospective rich man would have nothing to do with them. He eschewed whiskey, and to the present day he has not touched a drop.

Two months ago Anderson was offered $400,000 for the claim, not including the present season's work, $550,000 for dump and claim. His price is $750,000, and he will not consider any offer under this.

Lippy of Seattle is another favored son of fortune. He staked a claim on Bonanza, but a few days later traded it for his present property at El Dorado Hole, after a shaft had been sunk on the Bonanza claim but not a dollar fund.

With the first pan Lippy saw he had struck it rich, and although not possessing a dollar of ready cash, he had no difficulty in employing half a score of men.

El Dorado at the time was considered worthless. Two years have shown the property to be in every way superior to Sire. It is unsafe to predict anything in this country, but reliable miners do not hesitate to say Dominion Creek will ultimately prove to be richer than any stream so far discovered in the Yukon Valley.

Only a few claims are being worked this season, and everyone has proven to be almost fabulously rich. This is particularly true of properties situated above and between the two discoveries at No. 8.

Above the upper discovery nothing less than $9 to the pan is taken out, but at No. 31, below the upper discovery, an ounce is the average pan.

The statement is based on actual observation. Sulphur, wild yielding good pay, has not as yet shown up nearly so well as Dominion. The pups and gulches coming into these streams are being prospected diligently now. It is believed before summer is over many valuable and important strikes will be made.

It is thought in Dawson that the entire Indian River District will in time prove to be rich. By far the most important discovery of the year has just been made by Sam Pond, Latham and Fairbanks, all well known San Franciscans. These men have discovered a quartz ledge near the mouth of the White River, which will probably make them millionaires.

These are two ledges, one five and the other seven feet thick. Samples brought to Dawson by Latham show free gold in plenty, with here and there a nugget weighing from 20 cents to $1. A piece of quartz, the exterior of which gave no evidence of gold, was shown by an assayer to be worth $167 to the ton.

"The two ledges," said Sam Pond today, "run parallel for nearly three miles. A million would not buy us out now, for the simple reason that it is worth double that to us."

A Banker's Experience.

"I tried a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for a troublesome affection of the throat," writes Manager Thomas Dawson of the Standard Bank, now of 14 Melbourne Avenue, Toronto. "It proved effective. I regard the remedy as simple, cheap and exceedingly good. It has hitherto been my habit to consult a physician in troubles of this nature. Hereafter, however, I intend to be my own family doctor."

A WAR SACRIFICE.

Chicago Post.

When first I told my wife that we had better let him go, I never seed on mortal face a look o' keener woe! Jes' seemed as if her heart'd break, and in her eyes there come A sort o' wild, appealin' start that seemed to strike me dumb. An' when at last she swallowed down the chose so's she could talk, She said she gressed she never had jes' such a sudden shock, But she would leave it all to me, an' if I thought it best To let him go, she'd try to bear the burden in her breast.

I told her at a time like this when war was in the land That everybody in their way should lend a helpin' hand, An' since the Guvament had need o' Jack we'd order do Our share in the emergency by lettin' of him go. I knowed it would be lonesome 'round the ranch when he was gone, We'd miss the voice in mornin' song at risin' time at dawn, We'd miss his old familiar step a ploddin' 'round the place, An' miss, perhaps, the most of all, his earnest, honest face.

We talked about our Jack that night, my wife's eyes full of tears, An me a chokin in the throat like I'd not done for years, Fur I jes' want to tell you, pard, it's mighty tough to part, Perhaps to meet no more, with one that's nested in yer heart, But Jack is climbin' up in years, although yit big and strong, An' we decided in the end we mightn't have him long, An' as the agent offered us a price that wasn't low, We both concluded it was best to let the ol' mule go.

His Prospective Fate.

[From Puck.]

"Johnny Thieckneck," said the school mistress, solemnly, "that is a falsehood! Do you know what will happen to you if you tell lies?" "Yes'm," replied the culprit, nonchalantly: "I'll go to hell."

"Worse than that! You'll be expelled from school!"

Happy Deliverance.

[From the Chicago Record.]

"Toddes, I'm in a terrible fix. One of the wheels of my new trap broke down last night, and there isn't time to fix it. I'll have to go to the races in that little top buggy of mine."

"What's the difference, Longlake? If you go there in a little top buggy that'll be the fashion hereafter."

Saves Thousands of Lives.

Four years ago Jacob Dewitta, of Hay Island, was dragged to the verge of death by dreadful heart disease. He was given up to die. From vigorous manhood he had gone to a broken dependent wreck. He procured Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, used it faithfully, and to-day weighs 218 pounds, and lives to bless the day the great remedy was recommended to him. It relieves in 30 minutes.—24.

A HEALTHY WOMAN.

Nine-tenths of all the suffering and disease in the world comes from the kidneys. Yet how few people there are who take any care of these delicate little organs. Backache, lame back, headaches, listlessness, all signs of kidney trouble, are almost universal.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Tone and regulate the kidneys and help them to throw off the poisons from the system.

Mrs. A. Brown, P. O. Box 200, Dresden, Ont., says: "For years I suffered from dropsical trouble which caused me much distress. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box of them at Switzer's Drug Store. Before commencing to take them I was unable to button my shoes on account of my swollen condition, but by the time I had finished the first box I could do this without inconvenience. I have now taken a second box and have no hesitancy in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills for any Kidney or Dropsical trouble." Price 50c. a box, $1.50 all Druggists. Slow But Sure.

[From Puck.]

You said we'd win in a walk," said the first citizen.

"Er—well," replied the man who predicted that the war would be over in 30 days, "we're not displaying any unseemly speed, are we?"

When we see the mantle of our own guilt on someone else, how quickly we condemn ourselves.

Great ideas travel slowly and, for a time, noiselessly as the gods, whose feet were shod with wool.
