

It is said that the reason the U. S. government hurried the fleet away from Tampa was that it was too expensive keeping it in Florida Water, while others think they were afraid the Spaniards might get on to their scent.

Mr. Clements, the new Methodist minister is expected here on Thursday of this week.
Murchie & Sons' mill is running full time. They appear to find a good market for lumber.
Miss Susie Arscott, Halifax, is visiting her father Sam Arscott here.

JACKSONVILLE.

July weather so far has been all that could be wished. The heat has been quite intense, perhaps uncomfortable for some of the residents. But nevertheless we should be thankful for the fair weather. The work of the summer is done. Soon, the mower will take his place in the field of duty. Already the farmers are seen in their hay fields while we see others making busy preparations. It all seems the observer of the proverb "make hay when the sun shines."
The strawberry's in the surrounding vicinity have been quite plentiful and many a busy housewife has laid in an abundant winter supply of that delicious fruit.
The school of this place closed on the 30th, with a public examination. The two schools occupied the room of the superior department. After opening remarks by Principal Gray the following programme was carried out:—Music from the organ; Miss Bessie Kinney; Recitation, Vacation by Hazel Tilley; Dialogue, Keeping Boarders by Messrs Malcolm Orchard, Norval Britton, Harry Palmer and George Tilley, Messrs Blanche Plummer and Marion Fowler; Music between the scenes being furnished by Miss Bessie Kinney; Reading, The Union Jack by Harry Havens; Duet, Two Little Girls in Blue by Ella and Vestina Spargo; Dialogue, A Silly Dispute, by Velma Tilley, Minnie Wheeler and Miss Ada Owens; Recitation, In Memoriam by Anna Tilley; Review, in Geography of classes B. and C. by Mr. Gray; Reading, A Fashionable School Girl, by Miss Idella Black; Recitation, Our Gracious Queen Victoria, by Alma Havens; Dialogue, Before and Behind the Scene, by Messrs Harry Palmer and Norval Britton, Misses Blanche Plummer and Hattie Harding; Recitation, A Foolish Little Maiden, by Millie Bessie; Song, The Old Kentucky Home, by Miss Bessie Kinney; The music being furnished by Mrs. Gray; Recitation, Trouble in the Amen Corner, by Miss Marion Fowler; Exercise, by Six Girls and Boys; Short addresses then followed by Messrs Elisha Slipp, Charles Plummer

Brock Vail, Edward Good and Rev. Mr. Dystant terminating with an appropriate address by the Rev. Mr. Corey and remarks from the Principal Mr. Gray. After the singing of the National Anthem the school was dismissed. About 70 visitors were present and all expressed their enjoyment of the entertainment and congratulated the public on their success.
Mrs. Joseph McCready returned on the 30th from St. John where she has been spending the past five weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Seely left on 30th for Brown's Flat with the intention of attending the Bulah Camp Meeting.
Rev. Mr. Spargo was in P. E. I. last week attending the Methodist Conference.
Mrs. Pearley and her daughter Miss Laura visited their relatives in this place last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith of St. John and daughter Miss Sadie were the guest of Mr. David Smith last week.
Miss Ada Owens returned to her home at Newburg Junction on the 30th. Miss Idella Black also went to her home in Bloomfield on the same day.
A number of the pupils of the superior Department worked the exams. for Normal School at Woodstock this week, among whom were Misses Hattie Harding, Blanche Plummer, Idella Black and Miss Marion Fowler. Messrs Norval Britton and Malcolm Orchard, we wish them success.

EAST COLDSTREAM.

Our school, taught by Miss Jones of Benton, was examined the other day. There was a large attendance of general public, the parents &c., expressing themselves highly grateful with the attainments of pupils in all the different branches taught—reading, writing, arithmetic, &c. At the close, addresses complimentary both to teacher and pupils were delivered by Squire Ed. S. Gilmore, Charles Crandlemire, George Lunn, Henry Sewal and Mrs. Benjamin Kent.

ESDRAELON.

Squire Gilmore shows the best potato field in country or seed land ploughed in and planted uncut, every third furrow.

GLASSVILLE.

On the afternoon of Wednesday 6th July, Presbyterian church held the usual annual congregational meeting. There were eleven present.

EAST WILMOT.

East Wilmot is a very prosperous farming community between the villages of Centreville and Florenceville. Here every body seems busy and contented and everywhere you will see evidence of prosperity.

Building seems to be the order of the day at present. Wm. Cogswell is "tearing down and building greater" and has now well under way a very commodious barn with shed attached, with the large basement barn recently built will give ample accommodation on his stock farm.
Geo. Lewis is hauling the frame and other lumber from Gilmore's mill, Florenceville, for a large barn. Wm. Lewis has completed a snug hog house. W. C. Lewis has one well under way. Sam Cogswell has lumber for a carriage and machine house on the ground. Sam Gallagher has perfected his out buildings by the erection of a large hog house.

Samuel Dungee and wife, Sam Cogswell and wife, George Belyea and wife, and C. H. Good on his wheel made a very pleasant trip to Grand Falls a short time ago.

The Ladies of the Baptist Sewing Circle of Centreville met at Mrs. Elbridge Good's on Friday. They have been very successful having earned over eight hundred dollars.

Mrs. J. Margison and little daughter recently returned home from Victoria Hospital F'ron where Bernicia had an operation performed on a deceased bone in her arm and Mrs. Margison on her eye.
Mr and Mrs. E. Good have been visiting the father of the later R. Belyea of Monticello Me., who is ill.

Lieutenant Margison returned from Camp Sussex Saturday.

Allison McCain has a handsome baby colt which shows a fine pacing gait.

We miss J. W. Cheney who sells for the Massy Co. from our midst after doing business in this place for some years, he has now removed his head quarters to Centreville.

The children are enjoying a welcomed vacation. Our school will be taught again by Miss Kate Cahill.

William Smith attended the provincial examination for Normal school.

H McCain's milk wagon passes here and convey the milk to his factory at Tracey's Mills.

Mrs Hannah Cogswell has been for a week at the Rieerside Campmeeting, Blairton.
Guy Lewis had a pleasant visit of two weeks at Windsor.

It was the country merchant's first visit to the wholesale establishment that supplied him with goods. "Your letter heads," he said to one of the proprietors, "show this to be a ten story building, but I see now that half of the stories are lies."

They Knew.—Sunday-school Teacher (illustrating the "still, small voice"): "What is it, dear children, that makes you feel so uncomfortable and unhappy after you have done something which you ought not to do?"
Dear Child: "A liekin'."

Further Information Wanted.—Danforth: "An organist says that a cow moos in a perfect fifth octave, and that a horse neighs in a descent on the chromatic scale." Williston: "I wonder what his technical terms are for the yowling of a tomcat on a back fence?"

Tornado Thresher and Little Giant Horse Power.

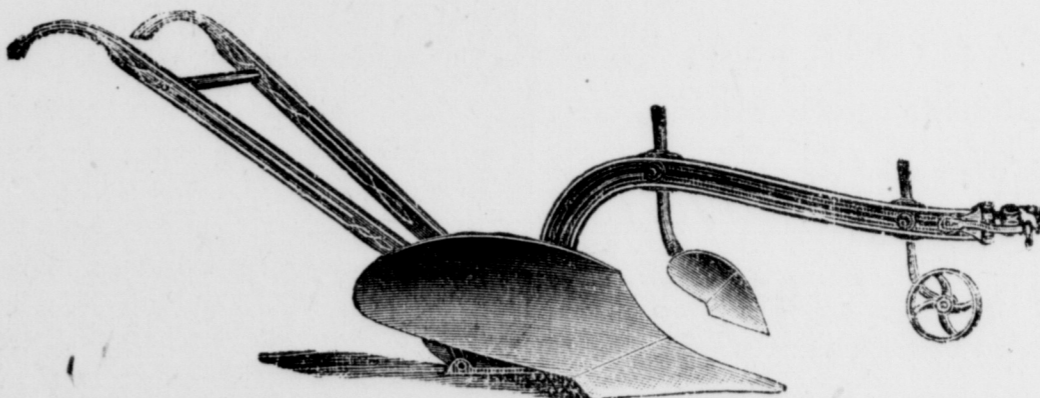

After spending many years in the study of, and thousands of dollars in experimenting on Threshers, we have succeeded in building a machine which possesses in the greatest degree all the essential and desirable qualities of a perfect thresher and cleaner. We have the best machine in the world. It threshes out all the grain from the straw, and cleans without wasting it. We furnish a whip with each machine that prevents waste of grain.

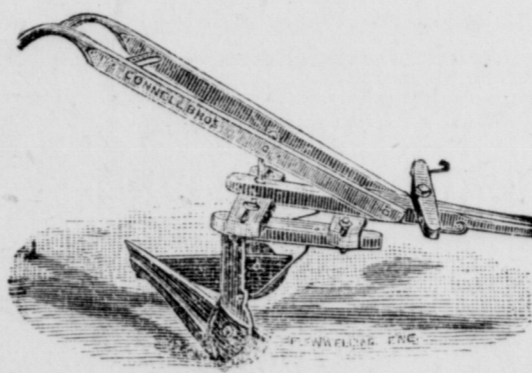

This is our CHILLED PLOW, Steel Beam, in two sizes with Moldboards harder than the hardest steel.

This is our STEEL PLOW, in two sizes, with moldboards of Finest Cast Steel with soft centre.

This is the SYRACUSE PLOW, Two Sizes, with Moldboards of Finest Cast Steel with Soft Centre.

STEEL HORSE HOE, the only one that does not clog or rust; always wears sharp and never breaks—in fact THE modern Hoe.

We also make the CAST IRON HOE.

Our TORNADO THRESHER and LITTLE GIANT HORSE POWER will thresh faster and clean grain cleaner than any other machine in Canada; it is the Lightest and Strongest Machine in the market.
