

LOCAL TOPICS.

DR. MANZER has decided to let cut in prices stand till December 1st.

TANGLEFOOT Sticky and Poison Fly Paper, Hellebore and Pure Insect Powder at The Baird Company's.

ARTHUR WOODLEY, Montreal, is staying with George E. Phillips of the Northampton Creamery. He is learning the butter making business.

IS YOUR LIFE INSURED?—If not it should be. Remember the Temperance and General Life Assurance Co. It is the best company for the best risks. Adv.

THE A. F. & D. A. will hold their annual meeting in Cal. Hall, Glassville, on Saturday the 29th at 7.30 p. m. Business, auditing of accounts and election of office bearers for ensuing year.

TWO LOTS of vacant crown lands, one in Carleton Co., the other in the town lot of Grand Falls, will be sold at auction at the crown land office, Fredericton, on the first Tuesday in November.

REV. JAMES ROSS preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. On the evening of the first of November, next Tuesday, there will be a meeting of the congregation to discuss the question of extending a call to a minister.

THE PUBLIC will be pleased to know that Mrs. Clark's Grist Mill at Avondale has commenced running again. The mill has been thoroughly repaired and has also added some new machinery which gives the mill a much larger capacity for grinding than heretofore.

H. P. WETMORE, traveller for Bauld, Gibson & Co., Halifax, had an overcoat and gloves stolen at the Royal Hotel, Springhill, N. S., on Monday evening last. Mr. Wetmore has billed the proprietor for the value of the same which is $32.00.—Railway News.

NOW is the time if you wish your sleigh repaired and painted up, and have all ready for use the first snow. Over 60 pungs nearly done, the best stock, finish and up-to-date pungs in the province, the most modern coverings and mountings, Chestnut and Hipwell.

THE BEST results obtained with every sitter at Keith's photo studio over Noble and Traflet's grocery store, Main St., Woodstock. Our platinum photos are sure to please and prices are very reasonable. Kindly make appointments for sittings. Dull weather no objection.

DR. J. McNALLY formerly practising at Bath and who has recently returned from a course of study in surgery in England and on the continent, was in Woodstock last Thursday. The Doctor is looking well and he has all the modesty of a gentleman who knows a great deal of his profession.

BAD EYES are what we are looking for. If we can't fit your eyes satisfactorily, nobody can. We are graduate opticians after having made a special study of optical work. We hold a diploma from the Optical Institute of Canada not a common dealers certificate furnished by a spectacle manufacturer. We fit eyes scientifically. Examination free. Charges for glasses reasonable.—Carr & Gibson.

THE TIME EXTENDED.—Dr. G. B. Manzer having found that a number of people have desired to take advantage of his great cut in prices that was to have expired on the last day of November, but have been unable to do so on account of the shortness of the time, has consented to let the cut remain open till December 1st. All persons desiring to take advantage of this are requested to call as early as possible.

G. E. PHILLIPS, of the Northampton creamery, has erected a building at Simonds and will have a skimming station in operation there this week. He has two or three other places in view where he will erect stations within a year. Mr. Phillips has a cold storage warehouse nearing completion. He will put in about 100 tons of ice this winter. He will put in a box plant early in the spring and make all his own boxes for exportation purposes.

LAST WEEK the DISPATCH noted a runaway accident in which S. C. Wiggins of Meductic was badly hurt his jaw being broken. He was obliged to put up at Geo. Watson's Jacksontown. His friends will be pleased to hear that Mr. Wiggins is making good prospects towards recovery and expects to be moved to town shortly. His sister Miss Eloise Wiggins of Lewiston, Me., arrived in Woodstock on Monday and is now assisting in nursing the invalid.

JUD. HALE reports the first snow storm up Tobique. Says a St John Exchange.

Winter seems to be setting in early this year. On the 15th it snowed all day at Edmundston, Madawaska, but owing to the ground being soft the snow rapidly dissolved. It was visible, however, for several hours. Mr. C. N. Beal, of the firm of C. N. Beal & Co., of this city, who was at Edmundston on Tuesday, stated he had observed a foot of snow on some of the cars which came in over the Temiscouata railway. Mr. Rankine, of Messrs. T. Rankine & Sons, who came down to Edmundston on Tuesday, reports good sleighing at Riviere du Loup.

THE LATE MRS. FOWLIE.—Mrs Fowlie, who died at Little Branch, Black River, on the 14th, at the residence of her son, had attained the ripe age of 89. Mrs. Fowlie (Jane McKnight) was a native of Scotland. She was married to the late George Fowlie, mill-owner, Little Branch, Black River, and was left a young widow with nine children, seven of whom survive her. The eldest son is Professor of Natural History in Queen's University Kingston. Mrs. Fowlie was a true Christian and a great lover and reader of the Holy Scriptures. She bore her long illness in faith and resignation, and has passed away respected and beloved by all who knew her. The funeral was very numerous attended.—Chatham World. [Mrs Fowlie was the grandmother of A. J. Fowlie of the Woodstock Business College.]

The pulp mill expert is coming and so is the pulp mill.

PAINLESS extracting, at Dr. Manzers, by his celebrated Ithdonthurt, only 25 cts.

RATEPAYERS of the several parishes are advised to have their taxes paid before Nov. 1st, and save costs.

MAIN STREET merchants are taking a new step in the right direction by cleaning up the gutter in front of their business houses.

THE LIBERAL CONVENTION committee has secured a rate whereby persons may buy return tickets at one fare to Woodstock from any station from Benton to Kilburn inclusive, good to return next day.

JUST RECEIVED at R. W. Balloch's, ladies black and coloured kid gloves, embroidered handkerchiefs, torchon laces and other novelties; he can also give you extra value in heavy cloth capes, dark fawn, green and black at $3.35.

THE DISPATCH is requested to state that William Forsyth, challenges Mered Brewer to a series of eleven games of checkers for $50 a side. Mr. Forsyth will be at the DISPATCH office this (Wednesday) evening to arrange particulars if challenge is accepted.

C. M. SHERWOOD is offering a few new stoves and second hand show cases at very low prices, to clear. His new dress goods and trimmings are just what the ladies have been looking for, while his mammoth line of fur goods and ladies cloth jackets, are walking off at a lively pace.

W. B. BELYEA has greatly improved the appearance of his place by removing the fence on the corner of Main and Chapel streets. At one he stroke is adding to the looks of his own property and improving the general appearance of the town. Let others follow the good example.

MISS KATE CLARK went to St. John last Thursday to the Hospital. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Mary D. Clark B. A. On Sunday Drs. McIntosh, Morrison and Ellis, performed an operation on her ear which according to last report was a success. She is now resting comfortably.

A RECENT number of the Rat Portage Weekly News contains an interview with G. P. Phillips, inspector of steamboat boilers for the department of marine. He had returned from a trip on the McKenzie river, going to its mouth in the Arctic ocean. Mr. Phillips is a brother of H. W. Phillips of Woodstock.

THERE HAS BEEN a report going around lately that the McLean Stamp books would not be redeemed. This is to give the same an emphatic denial. Every filled book will be cashed upon its being presented at the Ceylon Tea Co. store. Customers should insist that their dealers give them the stamps when making cash purchases.

JAMES CARR met with a very serious accident on Wednesday morning last at his mill on the Gibson branch. He was attending to some little matter near a saw, when his glove became caught in the saw, and his right hand was drawn in, the fingers being cut off. Mr. Carr had to walk some distance, nearly two miles, and then drive into Woodstock, where his wounds were attended to. He has lost all the fingers of his hands, and suffers much at times. It is hoped, however, that he will soon be out.

C. P. CONNELL and Warren C. Bull, both residents of Northampton, figured in a case in the police court last week. It appears there was a dispute over the ownership of some harness. Mr. Bull met Mr. Connell on the road one day and tried to take the harness off the former's horse, Mr. Connell resisting. Subsequently he had Mr. Bull arrested on a charge of assault. After hearing the case the magistrate imposed a fine of $20 and costs on defendant, who then announced his intention of appealing.

CURRIE BROS. of Andover, Victoria county, have executed an assignment for the general benefit of their creditors to Robert F. Randolph of the firm of A. F. Randolph & Sons of this city. The unsecured liabilities are in the vicinity of $4,500, and the assets, not including real estate, are estimated at between five and six thousand dollars. The real estate is subject to a mortgage of $1,200. Some of the principal creditors are J. Hayden & Sons of Woodstock, Dr. Wiley of Andover, Randolph & Sons of Fredericton, Warner & Co., W. P. Murray, Chemical Fertilizer Co., Miller & Co., T. H. Estabrook and several other wholesale houses of St. John. Morris B. Craig, general trader at Perth, Victoria county, has made an assignment to Sheriff Tibbitts. His liabilities are about $2,500. A meeting of the creditors was to be held on the 22nd inst. at Andover.

BORN.

MUNRO.—At Pictou, on Oct. 12th., to the wife of A. D. Munro, a son.

DIED.

GRIFFITH.—At Woodstock, on the 21st inst., of cholera infantum Harold Leeman, son of Charles and Amelia Griffith, aged 5 months.

MCCAULEY.—At Williamstown, October 6th., of appendicitis, James Vincent, aged 20 years, 6 mos. and 6 days, eldest son of John P. and Jane McCauley.

A FULL SET of artificial teeth at Dr. Manzers, for $10.00.

LOST.

Between Ezra Ingraham's and Eel River on Friday night last, a heavy wool lap robe. The finder will please leave at this office or at the store of JOHN McLAUGHLAN, Woodstock.

Another Carload of Christmas Goods Just Arrived, which will be sold Very Cheap for Cash at A. HENDERSON'S, Queen St., Woodstock.

Subscribe for THE DISPATCH.

If this Trade Mark,

The Big Red W.

Is branded on the mould board you can be sure the Plow is a genuine Wilkinson. Take no other—you want the best. Handles easy, pulls easy, wears longer than cheap plows. Sold only by us and our agents.

Balmain Bros.,

Woodstock, Florenceville, Bath, Perth, Grand Falls.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

CANTERBURY STATION.

A. W. Tennant who is relieving M. Bohan at the C. P. R. office Houlton was in town Monday.

W. M. Law is in charge of the office here. Miss M. London, who has been spending her vacation in Boston has returned home.

The Misses Law spent part of last week with relatives at Debec.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton spent last week in Montreal.

P. Donovan's house is rapidly nearing completion and adds much to the appearance of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. E. London gave the first chicken stew of the season at their cottage at Skiff Lake a few nights ago. Among the guests were the following:—Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, Hawkshaw; Miss Graham, of Prince William; Messrs. Hugh Murray, Benton; Theodore Murchie, St. Stephen; Horace McNally, Presque Isle; Miss Liss Dickinson, Miss Alice Johnston, Miss Lawson, Miss Josie Lawson, Miss McDonald, Miss Law and Miss Mabel Law, Messrs. David Jamieson, J. Mitchell, Geo. Price, Willie Scott, Sages Grant, Canterbury. "When night lay dying in the lap of morn" the guests departed for their homes having spent very enjoyable hours.

Belle Law who has been sick for the past week is convalescent.

Miss Nellie Estey has been obliged to close her school on account of sickness.

Mrs. E. H. Keith who has been visiting her parents has returned to her home in Rhineland, Wisconsin.

Mrs. C. H. Jamieson, of Stillwater, Minn., is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Jamieson.

The mud of the past few days has reduced the young ladies of this place to despair and they are now wondering if in addition to buying and partly sawing the lumber they will have to finish laying the new sidewalks.

Among the commercial men at the hotels this week were Mr. W. L. representing Gamican & Co., Montreal, Mr. Brown, Geo. S. DeForest, & Co., J. Edwards, for S. Hayward, St. John, W. V. Moore, Clarke & Co., St. Stephen.

EVERETT.

Fall weather has set in, and the roads are getting quite muddy.

Lottie Everett has taken a flying trip to the dentist's, Dr. W. E. Gardiner, at Fort Fairfield, she expects to return in a week.

The Baptist church at Riley Brook was dedicated last Sunday. A numerous crowd gathered. A number came from Arthurette and Long Island through the storm on Saturday. Rev. Mr. Phillips, Mr. P. Edington, Mr. Noble and Mr. Murray were present.

One of Mrs. Geo. Padgett's twin babies is reported quite ill.

The peddlars still keep up their usual trips up the Tobique. Mr. Doucan is at present storm stayed at Riley Brook.

Leonard Everett's little 3 year old girl gave them a great scare on Tuesday last by drinking tincture of iodine. Her mother, while cleaning down a shelf, put the box with the iodine in on the table near by, not thinking of the little one. She took the cork from the bottle. It is not known how much went down her throat but a large amount was on her mouth and dress. An emetic was given, the child was all right in a short time.

Messrs. Charlie, Harry and James Watters left this place at daylight last Wednesday morning on their way to Riley Brook, where they will take up their abode again at threshing and sawing wood.

Robert Clyde has had a bad swelling on his face, cold being the cause.

MEDUCTIC.

Measles are reported from various sections of the country. The first cases in Meductic have recovered but others are reported.

Miss Grace Ingraham spent last week with Mrs. Marsten.

There has been a series of pleasant parties during the past week. Wednesday night at Mrs. Shaw's. Miss Alma Way, gave a very pleasant party on Thursday. On Friday evening a surprise party visited Miss Maggie Ingraham and on the same evening Miss Ruth Young received a number of her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Marsten has been spending several days with her mother.

E. Moore is away on business.

W. E. Dickinson one of our genial blacksmiths who went part of his house and shop last year is now busy upon the remainder. When Mr. Dickinson gets it completed it will prove a creditable addition to the village.

E. Higgins our other genial blacksmith had a narrow escape from a serious injury having received a horse kick full in one eye. He has one eye highly colored as a result.

Henry Heron has leased the house lot belonging to A. J. Marsten and formerly occupied by him and has commenced building a house for himself.

Much sympathy is being felt for S. Camp Wiggins and his mother on account of the serious accident which befell him. His many warm friends soon hope to welcome him back to the place restored in health.

Rev. Mr. Sherwood is helping in special meeting in Westmorland County therefore there was no service yesterday in the Reform church.

T. Edwards one of our leading business men has shown that he takes an interest in the village as a whole as well as his own business. The sidewalks had become almost impassable but Mr. Edwards had repaired all the walk from his residence to his place of business. It is hoped that others will follow his example.

A Reputation

FOR honorable dealing has made our store headquarters for Prescription work. People know that our medicines are thoroughly reliable in every respect and that our prices are most reasonable. We will be glad to have the public investigate that our point regarding prices of prescriptions for we know that such an investigation will prove the truth of our assertion.

GARDEN BROS.

Druggists.

FOR SALE.

Steam Saw Mill and Water Power, a 70-horse power Engine and Boiler, practically new, Rotary Mill, Shingle Machine, a Planer and Matcher, all in the best of running order. I believe this to be one of the best localities in the county to establish a grist mill. Apply to R. KIRKPATRICK, Debec Jct, N. B.

Great Britain's Favourite Battle Picture.

It seems a fact that the Family Herald and Weekly Star have secured the famous battle picture "THE THIN RED LINE" as a premium picture for their subscribers this season. Lucky subscribers to get such a picture and such a paper for one dollar a year. "THE THIN RED LINE" carried all Europe by storm. The coloring of the Highland costumes has been beautifully executed and every face is a study—a picture in itself. "THE THIN RED LINE" is 17 x 30. Every British subject wants this picture as soon as he sees it.

The long experience as a practical Accountant and Commercial teacher, of its principal; the thoroughness of the work that is being done; the reasonable rates of tuition, and the very low figure at which board may be had, are some of the things that are making the popular college of the Maritime provinces. Present attendance, more than double that of last year; Send for FREE catalogue, Address, W. J. OSBORNE, Principal, Fredericton, N. B.

FREDERICTON BUSINESS COLLEGE.

CARLETON COUNTY LIBERAL ASSOCIATION!

A meeting of the Liberal Association of Carleton County will be held in the Opera House,

WOODSTOCK,
ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON,
OCTOBER 28TH,

Opening at 2 o'clock.

All the Vice Presidents of the County, representatives from the various local organizations, and the Liberals of the County generally, are earnestly requested to attend. Matters of grave importance to the party will be considered, and a number of interesting addresses will be delivered.

Let there be a grand Liberal rally.
Per order,
JAS. WATTS, JOHN HARPER,
Secretary, President.
Woodstock, Oct 12 1898.