NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

EVERETT.

Beautiful rain, nice rise of water, farmers, lumbermen and boatmen busy; some ploughing, some threshing, some pressing hay, some boating, some cruising for their winter's chance.

F. H. and J. J. Hale passed up this week to their depot at Nictau.

M. M. Watson and Mr. Simonson of Centreville, made a business trip to Riley Brook this week.

Mr. Simonson, of Centreville, is at present repairing Mr. Watson's wheat run at Burnt Land Brook.

Saddler Boethers finished pressing the hay in this place and moved down.

Nicholson Brothers passed up with their new press to do the act for the farmers of Riley Brook and Blue Mountain Bend.

Henry Day is loading his boat at Plaster Rock for J. J. Hale.

CANTERBURY STATION.

The friends of Mrs. Frederick Grant, who died last Sunday, took place Wednesday at 2 p.m. The service was conducted by Rev. C. T. Phillips of Woodstock. Deceased leaves a husband, six daughters and five sons.

Henry Carr, who has been very ill the past week, is, we are glad to state, speedily recovering.

William Lyman, an aged resident of Hartin Settlement, died yesterday.

Three of our enterprising blacksmiths, J. and George Price, and B. Keith, have purchased the old Lunden lot where they have begun the erection of a large shop for the purpose of continuing their general blacksmith and carriage business.

George Hillman, failing to find a place better suited to his fancy, has returned to the old stand.

J. H. Carr & Sons are building a barn and storehouse on the rear of the lot adjoining the one occupied by Henry Carr.

John Black and J. Pinder, M.P.P., are billed to address the electors of Canterbury at Carr's hall on the evening of Nov. 10.

W. W. Orr, McAdam Junction, was in the village Moffat.

Charles Jamieson, of Stillwater, Minn., is visiting his parents here for a few weeks.

NORTHAMPTON.

Mrs. Frank Pinkham of Bangor is visiting her father, William Diblee.

Mrs. Oliver Rolston left for a few weeks vacation in Boston recently.

Joseph A. Wolverson left last Wednesday for Boston where he will remain for some weeks.

Mrs. John Bedell of Andover was spending a few days with relatives left for home on Friday last.

Misses Allie Gill and Maria Rogers were in Hartland last week attending the Teachers' Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Mozart Benn of Debec are spending a few days with the latter's parents.

George Phillips has received a new Little Giant Russian Separator for his creamery which is capable of separating milk about three times as fast as the one in use at present.

A young man by name of Warren London met with quite a painful mishap here recently. A practical joker took advantage of the former's absence and hid his pipe with gunpowder. London returned a day later went to the field to work and applied a match to the pipe. He has a number of bad burns to show as a result.

An old resident passed away in this parish last week, in the person of Edwin Bulmer. The deceased man was about 75 years of age and was living at the time of his death with his son Bamford at Kilmarnock. He leaves a wife and ten children living. He formerly occupied the place owned at present by Geo. E. Phillips, having moved there from Sackville in 1872. The remains were interred at the Sharp burial ground, the Rev. C. T. Phillips officiating.

There was no service in the school house last Thursday in the month as usual, on account of the night being stormy.

The DISPATCH has received the third number of the Canadian History pamphlets, published in St. John by G. U. Hay. This number contains the following articles:—General Coffin, I. Allen Jack, D. C. L.; Fort Cumberland, James Hannay; D'Auvilly's Expedition, Harry Piers; Nicholas Deny's Description of the River St. John, W. F. Gauong, Ph. D.; Incidents in the life of Lieut. James Moody, G. U. Hay, Ph. D.; Story of the Big Beaver, Rev. W. O. Raymond, M. A. There is no more earnest educational worker in New Brunswick than Mr. Hay, and the effect of these pamphlets is on a par with that of his other work.

WAR CLOUDS AGAIN.

Gloomy Feeling in London and Paris Markets.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—There was an unexpectedly gloomy feeling this morning on the stock exchange and the Paris bourse, both these markets being influenced, it is inferred, from the aggressive tone of some of the French papers. Besides this, something extraordinary seems to have happened, and it looks as if a crisis is approaching.

The British naval preparations are certainly being pushed with great activity. The British emergency squadron is gathering at Devonport with all possible speed. Seven battleships and one cruiser have been thus far designated to join this squadron. Officers and sailors have been hurriedly recalled from leave of absence, several battleships and cruisers at Portsmouth are taking their full crews and other warlike preparations are being made.

A number of signal men now on duty with the British channel squadron, which arrived at Gibraltar this morning, have been ordered home for service, it is presumed, on board the auxiliary cruisers if the latter are required for active service.

A sensation has been caused by the arrest this morning of a supposed Russian spy at a fort near Harwich. The man was already under surveillance and went to a redoubt where he tried to obtain some information from a sentry regarding the fortifications. He was promptly arrested and inquiries are being made regarding his antecedents.

It was also asserted that the commanding officers of the London volunteer regiments have received orders to prepare for immediate mobilization, and it was asserted that the different artillery corps have been informed as to the forts on the southern and eastern coasts to which they have been allotted.

The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says: "England has been and even now is so near war that the government has carried its preparations to the furthest limit of the preparatory stage. It has been arranged to call out the reserve and militia and to mobilize the volunteers simultaneously and to form large camps at various important railroad junctions, where rolling stock and locomotives will be concentrated."

Wedding at Belleisle.

Rev. D. B. Bayley, B. A., of Hartland, N. B., and Miss Eloise F. Charlton, one of Belleisle's most popular young ladies, were married in the Methodist church at Belleisle on Wednesday last. As the bride passed up the aisle, between two rows of her Sabbath school class, a wedding march was exquisitely played by Miss Dolly Shaw, of St. John, cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. H. Pickles, Rev. S. A. Bayley, brother of the groom, and Rev. Mr. McLean (Presbyterian) assisting. The bride was attired in cream silk, and wore a handsome veil and orange blossoms. She carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Jessie Sharp, the bridesmaid, wore cream silk, with heliotrope trimmings, and carried heliotrope chrysanthemums. The groom was supported by his brother, James Bayley, of Elgin.—Ex.

Correction.

A local appeared in THE DISPATCH two issues ago, advertising a "Nigger Show" at Meductic. It was put in in good faith. Since its appearance a letter has come from Meductic, taking exception to the local. THE DISPATCH regrets that the local appeared. It is impossible to avoid mistakes of this kind sometimes, however.

Apples From Fredericton.

During the month of October 650 barrels of apples were shipped from Fredericton to Boston.

MARRIED.

BARTER-LONDON.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Brookville, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26th, by Rev. A. G. Downey, Allen W. Barter, of Woodstock, to Clara M., eldest daughter of George G. London.

REID-HARMON.—At the residence of the bride's mother Mrs. Eliza A. Harmon, Peel Station, Oct. 31st, by Rev. A. H. Hayward, James Reid, auditor of the C. P. R. St. John, N. B., to Miss Ella Maud only daughter of the late C. A. Harmon, of Peel Station.

PORTER-BRADLEY.—At the Baptist Parsonage, Florenceville, N. B., Oct. 26th, by Rev. A. H. Hayward, Mr. Arnold W. Porter of Richardson & Co., Hartland, to Miss Sarah Elgin, daughter of Mr. John Bradley, Hartland.

DIED.

CABLE.—At East Florenceville, N. B., Oct. 22nd, of pneumonia, Ella Maud in the 27th year of her age wife of Stanley M. Carle and daughter of Frederick and Matilda Syphers, of Canning, Queens Co., N. B., leaving a husband and one child to mourn their loss.

Political Affection.

"Madam, may I kiss these beautiful children?" inquired a candidate for the coming by-election in the Midlands the other day, who was on a tour round the constituency as he leaned over the front gate.

"Certainly, sir; there is no possible objection."

"They are lovely darlings," said the would-be M. P., after he had finished the eleventh. "I have seldom seen more beautiful babies. Are they yours, ma'am?"

The lady blushed deeply.

"Of course they are the sweet little treasures! From whom else, ma'am, could they have inherited those limpid eyes, those rosy cheeks, those profuse curls, those comely figures, and those musical voices?"

The lady continued blushing.

"By the way, ma'am," said he, "may I bother you to tell your estimable husband that Richard J. Spouter, parliamentary candidate for this division, called upon him this evening?"

"Excuse me, sir," said the lady; "I have no husband!"

But these children, madam—you surely are not a widow?"

"I feared you were mistaken, sir, when you first came up. These are not my children. This is an orphan asylum!"—Tit-Bits.

It Is Indeed a Beauty!!!

We have received a copy of the premium picture given to subscribers of the "FAMILY HERALD AND WEEKLY STAR," of Montreal. It is the famous battle scene picture, by the celebrated artist, Robt. Gibb, entitled "THE THIN RED LINE." It is, indeed, a beautiful picture. "Family Herald and Weekly Star" pictures are always far superior to those given by other weekly papers. They are not out of place in the best art galleries of the world. The publishers of the "Family Herald and Weekly Star" have certainly surpassed all previous efforts this year, both in regard to the picture and paper. The "Family Herald and Weekly Star" and the picture, "THE THIN RED LINE" is certainly a great combination for One Dollar. The rush of subscriptions, renewal and new, has begun two months earlier than usual this year, so great is the anxiety for Canadians to be in possession of one of the pictures and to have their names entered on the "Family Herald" subscription lists.

True Conscientiousness.

My second cousin, Jabez, remarked Enoch Sogback, in a reminiscent way, was a man who always believed in being truthful, to the very letter. If a neighbor met him and said that it looked like rain, Jabez never answered "yes" or "no" till he had scanned the whole heavens carefully, to see exactly what the prospect was.

When he took dinner at anybody's house, and the hostess pressed him to eat more, saying as good housewives often do, that he had eaten hardly anything, he would gravely enumerate every item of victuals he had eaten.

When his first wife died he was inconsolable for a time, and went and had these words carved on her tombstone: "The light of my life has gone out." Well, about a year later he married again, and then he promptly had this line cut on the tombstone, just below the previous announcement: "But fortunately, I since have struck another match."

That was the kind of a second cousin Cousin Jabez was.—Tit-Bits.

There's Style

In Glasses as well as in Dress.

The deep-rooted objection to the use of glasses on the ground of unsightliness is entirely removed by the artistic effect produced by modern methods. Improperly-fitted frames are at once a disfigurement and a menace to health; the effect of a perfect glass being annulled or distorted by this means.

I carry a large and well-selected stock Spectacle and Eye-Glass Frames, in Gold, Gold-Filled, Non-Tarnishable Alloy and Nickle Steel, and guarantee a Perfect Fit in both Frames and Lenses. Prices reasonable. Rimless and Special Frames made to order. Eyes tested Free.

WOODSTOCK.

The New Brunswick Magazine for November has a fine portrait of the late Chief Justice Allen as a frontispiece, with a tribute to the memory of that honored jurist. A sketch of Robert Foulis, the almost forgotten inventor of the steam fog whistle and other things, by Percy G. Hall, will be read with much interest. Rev. W. O. Raymond continues his Portland Point sketches, and Mr. Hannay tells more about the First Families of the Acadians, while Mr. Reynolds describes the first and only attempt of a burglar to break into the Bank of New Brunswick. The Notes and Queries, Bibliography and Provincial Chronology will all be found of interest and value.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to start a furniture factory. Such a business should prove a success.
