

TOBACCO HEART.

MILBURN'S HEART & NERVE PILLS

HAVE you been smoking a good deal lately and feel an occasional twinge of pain round your heart? Are you short of breath, nerves unbinged, sensation of pins and needles going through your arm and fingers? Better take a box or two of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and get cured before things become too serious. Here's what Mr. John James, of Caledonia, Ont., has to say about them: "I have had serious heart trouble for four years, caused by excessive use of tobacco. At times my heart would beat very rapidly and then seemed to stop beating only to commence again with unnatural rapidity. This unhealthy action of my heart caused shortness of breath, weakness and debility. I tried many medicines and spent a great deal of money but could not get any help. Last November, however, I read of a man, afflicted like myself, being cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I went to Roper's drug store and bought a box. When I had finished taking it I was so much better I bought another box and this completed the cure. My heart has not bothered me since, and I strongly recommend all sufferers from heart and nerve trouble, caused by excessive use of tobacco, to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a fair and faithful trial." Price 50c. a box or 3 boxes for $1.25, all druggists. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

LAXA-LIVER PILLS cure Constipation, Biliousness and Dyspepsia. Price 25c.

You'll Regret It

If you let the days go by without getting those photographs taken which you have in mind. Time brings changes. Think what may happen. I give great care to obtain the most artistic and natural poses, and the ones most becoming to the subject. Besides this, my pictures have a reputation for fine retouching and superb mechanical finish. I have been particularly successful with children's pictures.

MARCO BOZZARIS.

Marco Bozzaris, the Epaminondas of modern Greece, fell in a night attack upon the Turkish camp at Laspi, the site of the ancient plateau, Aug. 20, 1823, and expired in the moment of victory. His last words were: "To die for liberty is a pleasure and not a pain."

At midnight, in the guarded tent,
The Turk was dreaming of the hour
When Greece, her knee in supplication bent,
Should tremble at his power.
In dreams, through camp and court he bore
The trophies of a conqueror;
In dreams his song of triumph heard;
Then wore his monarch's signet-ring,
Then pressed that monarch's throne—a king;
As wild his thoughts, and gay of wing
As Eden's garden bird.

At midnight, in the forest shades,
Bozzaris ranged his Suliot band,
True as the steel of their tried blades,
Heroes in heart and hand.
There had the Persian's thousands stood,
There on the glad earth drunk their blood
On old Plataea's day;
And now there breathed that haunted air
The sons of sires who conquered there,
With arm to strike and soul to dare,
As quick, as far as they.

An hour passed on—the Turk awoke;
That bright dream was his last;
He woke—to hear his savior's shriek.
"To arms! they come! the Greek! the Greek!"
He woke—to die midst flame and smoke;
And shout and groan, and sabre-stroke,
And death-shots falling thick and fast
As lightnings from the mountain-cloud;
And heard, with voice and trumpet loud,
Bozzaris cheer his band;
"Strike—till the last armed foe expires;
Strike—for your altars and your fires;
Strike—for the green graves of your sires;
God and your native land!"

They fought—like brave men, long and well
They piled that ground with Moslem slain
They conquered—but Bozzaris fell,
Bleeding at every vein.
His few surviving comrades saw
His smile when rang their proud hurrah,
And the red field was won.
Then saw in death his eyelids close
Calmly, as to a night's repose,
Lake flowers at set of sun.

Bozzaris! with the storied brave
Greece nurtured in her glory's time,
Rest thee—there is no prouder grave,
Even in her own proud clime!

FITZ-GREENE HALLECK.

To Move a City.

Mr. W. E. Curtis, the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record, writes this week of a scheme of the Japanese government ordering the destruction of the city of Teckcham, Formosa, and removal of all its inhabitants to a new location. The city is situated on the northwest coast of the island and has been frequently subject to pestilence. In 1896 and 1897 plagues visited Teckcham with enormous fatality. This fact being called to the attention of the government an investigation was ordered by sanitary experts who reported that the city was built upon a swamp, whereupon an order was issued to the governor, to select a new location as convenient to the old one as possible, where the natural conditions were healthful. A new city was laid out, and each property holder in the old one was assigned a site that corresponded in area with that he occupied at Teckcham, and was given 12 months to remove his buildings and belongings. Sewers, roadways and sidewalks, public buildings, water works and all other public improvements were laid out by the government in the new city without expense to the people, but they were required to pay the cost of the removal of their own property. Most of the houses and other buildings in Teckcham are built of very light wooden material.

A CONVERTED PHYSICIAN.

With the Aid of South American Kidney Cure, Nurses his "Hopeless" Cases back to Health.

A prominent physician writes this of diabetes: "Personally until very recently I have never known an absolute cure." But this same physician says further that he has noted the wonderful work accomplished in patients of his by South American Kidney Cure; patients whom he had ceased to treat because in his estimation there was no cure and no hope. What a tribute this is to be the medical genius in the compounding of this great remedy—this kidney specific. It soothes, heals and cures the diseased parts. Does it quickly and permanently. Sold by Garden Bros.

ON THE SHELF.

Oh! once I shone in royal state
The cynosure of eyes,
The choicest piece of hall marked plate
Was not a rarer prize.

The centre of the snowy board,
The place reserved for me,
While in my cut glass zone was stored
A spiced variety.

Now banished to the topmost shelf
Of this most dingy place,
With grief, I recognize myself
A Castor—in disgrace.

Along with Lady Soup Tureen
And Spoons de Souvenir,
Decanters tall—we exiles all
Are vegetating here.

For individual upstarts now
Hold continental reign,
And bouillon cups have made their bow
And bourgeois sway maintain.

But fashions come and fashions go,
And time is on the wing;
Who knows? within a year or so
We may be "just the thing"

Some More Carleton County Boys Out West.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 30th, 1898.
THE DISPATCH is a welcome visitor to the C. C. boys in Vancouver and in the issue of July 27th was an article giving an account of some of the boys in Nelson, B. C., and vicinity and it occurred to me that a similar account of the boys in Vancouver might be interesting to some of your readers, at least.

Ernest Thomas and Jack McGann of Benton, Will McCready and Harry Wiley of Jacksonville, Harry Birmingham of Florenceville, Lee Nicholson, Connell, Rob Hanington, Glassville, and George Kennedy of Richmond are all working at the Royal City Mills, one of the largest saw-mills in the place. Sam Givan of Debec bought a team and has a contract hauling shingle-bolts. Lee Sloat of Tracey's Mills and Ansley Lockhart of Bristol are working at the Hasting's saw-mill. Haddon Mills, Benton, and Norman Kennedy, Richmond, are at the saw-mills in Moodyville, on the North side of the inlet. Wendall Queen, of Woodstock, has a good position with the Dominion Express Co. Wm. Queen and Fred Sanborn left here on the 27th inst. for the newly discovered gold fields at Pine Ceek. Wages are low here. From $30 to $40 per month being the usual wage paid at the mills. A man has to pay from $4.00 to $5.00 per week for board and lodgings, so he makes no more than he could in N. B. A large number of the boys are "batching" or "shaking" as it is called here. They can live for less than half of what it costs them to board. I must not forget to mention Mr. Frank Burpee, of the firm of Letson & Burpee, Machinists. He is a son of John Burpee, Upper Woodstock. This enterprising firm have just erected and moved into a large and commodious machine-shop, their ever increasing business making this necessary. Last but not least, Mr. Garden, Mayor of Vancouver, is a native of Woodstock. He is a brother of Garden Bros., Druggists.

Doan Cures a Manitoba Man.

Mr. Alexander Fraser, Miami, Man., writes: "I cannot refrain from recommending Doan's Kidney Pills to any person troubled with kidney disorder, for I believe if they could cure me they could cure any case."

The Thin Red Line.

James Adams, a reader of the Family Herald and Weekly Star in Arbroath, Scotland, writes us as follows:

I wish to call your attention to a mistake in your description of one of your premium pictures. You said "The Thin Red Line" represents an incident in the Peninsular Wars. Now, this is not correct. It represents an incident in the Battle of Balaklava, one of the most spirited and exciting contests of the Crimean War fought on the 25th of October, 1854, and the following short account of it, written by the correspondent of the London Times. Dr. W. H. Russel, may be of interest to your readers: "The Russian Cavalry who had been pursuing the Turks on the right are coming up to the ridge beneath us which conceals our cavalry from view. The heavy brigade in advance is drawn up in two lines. The first line consists of the Scots Greys and of their old companions in glory, the Enniskillens; the second of the 4th Royal Irish, of the 5th Dragoon Guards, and of the 1st Royal Dragoons. The Light Cavalry Brigades is on their left, in two lines also. The silence is oppressive one can hear the clamping of bits and the clink of sabres in the valley below. The Russians on their left draw breath for a moment and then in one grand line dash at the Highlanders. The ground lies beneath their horses' feet, gathering speed at every stride they dash on towards that thin red streak topped with a line of steel. The Turks fire a volley at eight hundred yards and run. As the Russians come within 600 yards down goes that line of steel in front and out runs a volley of Minie musketry. The distance is too great the Russians are not checked, but still sweep onward through the smoke, with the whole force of horse and man, here and there knocked over by the shot of our batteries above. With breathless suspense every one awaits the bursting of the wave upon the line of Gaelic rock; but ere they come within a hundred and fifty yards another deadly volley flashes from the levelled rifle and carries death and terror into the Russians. They wheel about open files right and left, and fly back faster than they came. "Bravo, Highlanders! well done!" shout the excited spectators; but events thicken. The Highlanders and their splendid front are soon forgotten; men have scarcely a moment to think of this fact, that the 3rd never altered their formation to receive that tide of horsemen. "No," said Sir Colin Campbell; "I did not think it worth while to form them even four deep! The ordinary British line two deep was quite sufficient to repel the attack of these Moscowite Cavaliers." This furnishes the incident from which the picture is taken. It was painted by an Edinburgh artist, Robert Gibb, R. S. A. and is a work of great merit.

Grand Remedy For Coughs.

"I have used Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and found it a grand remedy for coughs and colds, and highly recommend it." O. M. DOHERTY, Canilla, Ont.

Montague, of Dunnville, Cured of Ulcerated Itching Piles.

Mr. Robert Montague, of Dunnville, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with Itching Piles for five years and was so badly ulcerated, they were very painful, so much so, that I could not sleep. I tried almost every medicine known when I was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box and from the first application got relief. Have used two boxes and am now completely cured."

[From Puck.]

Lena—Why are you in such a hurry for Jack to propose?
Edith—I want to have plenty of time to think the matter over before accepting him.

Eye Strain Illness.

Only those who have been relieved by the use of glasses understand what bearing the condition of the eyes has on the general health. There are children today sick because of eye strain. Their illness may be attributed to other causes, and they will go on being sick until the True Cause be discovered by the exercise of good common sense on the part of the parents. If your child complains of the eyes, see what the trouble is—I can tell you—it won't cost you anything, so there's no excuse for negligence.
