NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

PENOBSCOT NORTH BRANCH.

As it is the fashion now-a-days for the various lumber camps to have a scribbler I think I will make my bow and say my little piece and retire from the stage for the evening. We will introduce ourselves by saying we belong to J. M. McNulty's operation on the North Branch of the Penobscot. Said McNulty is the manager of the firm of Wm. Engles & Co., of Bangor, and as white a man as ever a lumber Jack drew pay from and an all round good fellow.

There are three camps here on Towns 6-R 17 and 6-R 18. At No. 1 camp Alex. McLeod is foreman and a first class one he is and no mistake. For under boss Jack McCutcheon just about fills the bill. Fred Salmon of Bangor presides over the culinary department and while he does not defy competition, challenges it and is open to all comers in any class. Jimmy McNulty is time keeper and store keeper. And for teamsters they have every class from Connors in the feather weight to John Peters in the heavy weight (240) class.

No 2 camp is run by Rob Lynch with an able foreman in Joe Dufore of Edmundston, N. B., he has our old friend Louis April as suiling and jolly as ever for cook. Nearly all his crew are St. John river men.

No. 3 camp situated near "Baker Bog" is ably conducted by Jas. Dubey of Old Town formerly of Van Buren. Jim has a rattling good crew mostly Bangor and Old Town Frenchmen. He too has a heavy weight teamster in Ellis Abel of Calais, Me., weight 230 lbs. F. W. Dubey is time keeper and cook. Altogether there are about one hundred men and 24 horses at work now besides a number of portage teams hauling from Moosehead Lake and "Canada." Mr. McNulty visits us about once a month and those visits are generally short as he has several other operations to look after beside the "Company's" mill at Orono. Perhaps as busy a man as is on the job is our head clerk and book-keeper. He is supposed to visit each camp at least once a week and generally does, but with looking after the "tote teams" delivering goods from the store house, going to Lubec or somewhere else, he is mostly hard to locate.

We would like to hear from some other camps through the columns of our old and valued friend THE DISPATCH which is always sure to find its

The Very Proteus of All Diseases.

IT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS GRIPPE.

Paine's Celery Compound the Only Medicine That Can Cope with the Dread Visitor.

The old enemy gripe is now prevalent in many sections of the land, and, as in the past, it is the same old insidious foe—cruel and deadly.

The late eminent English physician, Sir Morell MacKenzie, held that gripe was the result of "poisoned nerves." Sir Morell compares it to an extraordinary disturbance in the telegraphic system produced by a thunder storm, which is nothing compared with the freaks played by the living conductors in the human body when the governing centres are out of gear.

It is certain that the majority of medical men now agree about the theory of "poisoned nerves," which explains the almost infinite variety of the attacks that mark the disease. The profound impression made on the nervous system by the poison explains all the after effects of the malady, and more especially that curious loss of vital energy experienced by victims of gripe.

In past seasons, when gripe was epidemic, the ablest and most thoughtful doctors prescribed Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine that acts directly on the body, cleansing them from all deadly poisons, toning and bracing up the entire system. In this way fresh vitality is quickly bestowed and sound health way to a camp, if there is a Carleton County boy there.

MIDDLE SIMONDS.

The farmers in this vicinity are very busy ploughing and threshing.
The boys are beginning to think of leaving for the woods. What will the girls do?
Hanford Shaw, while on his duty the other day with a crazy man got cut very badly on the arm.
Frank Kelley has gone to Island Falls.
Nellie Jones has gone to Fredericton to learn the dressmaking trade.
Alison Shaw is going to Boston to work in a store.

BRISTOL.

S. K. Farley having sold his farm in Gordonsville to Douglas Schriver has moved into Bristol, and taken the house formerly occupied by G. S. Wiggins and Mr. Schriver has moved to Gordonsville.

G. A. Brittain has returned from a visit to Minneapolis, and other parts in the West. Joseph Curtis went to the lumber woods with a crew last week, and will carry on operations on the same grounds where he worked last season.

Gil Brooks had his eye badly injured by having some carboic acid dropped into them by mistake a few days ago. Dr. Somerville is in attendance. Fred Phillips has removed his family into the dwelling over his store which he formerly occupied.

D. V. Boyer went to Caribon last Monday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law Mr. Henry Bell whose death occurred at that place.

Gladstone Merritt has returned from Hampstead Queen's Co., where he has been for some months.

J. F. Morton was in Bristol on Monday in the interests of the "Woodstock Press."

Judson Tompkins has moved his family from Florenceville, and now occupies the rooms over the R. R. Station.

MEDUCTIC.

Another piece of the village sidewalk has been repaired. Next! It's your turn.

Mrs. C. A. Grosvenor, who bought the Colpitts property, is putting it in thorough repair. She is building a new kitchen part, with barn and woodshed, when completed, she will have a very pretty home.

Harry Herrin will have his new house enclosed in a day or two.

Guy S. Moore left, since last writing, for Sackville Academy.

The many friends of Miss E. Wiggins are glad to welcome her home again.

S. C. Wiggins who was so seriously hurt a few weeks ago is able to be around again.

Miss Glenn and Miss Sherwood are visiting Mrs. Clyde Glenn.

Our genial townsman, H. F. Marsten has been gazetted issuer of marriage licenses. If the marrying business keeps up as well in the future as in the past six months there will be money in it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Grosvenor and Miss Eva French are expected home this week. They will be gladly welcomed to the place once more.

The next thing needed here is an express office, who is going to get it, come some business man take an agency, it is needed.

BOILS BANISHED

Mr. O. J. Murray, Charlottetown, P. E. I., writes: "About six months ago I was troubled with painful boils and got one bottle of B. B. B. which completely cured me."

The Traveller's Tax.

The Railway News has been in the habit of attacking with laudable consistency the commercial travellers' tax, unhappily and unwisely imposed by the town of Woodstock. THE DISPATCH shortly ago, suggested that the attacks of the News were perhaps unduly vicious, but the News considers, by repeatedly bringing the odiousness of the tax before the public and before the town, its removal is the sooner to be looked for. However this may be THE DISPATCH wishes to record its opinion that the commercial travellers' tax is a huge blunder. It is hard to get the people who pay the taxes to think so, and we fear that repeated attacks from outside sources are more likely to intensify than to weaken this sentiment. We are slow to change—perhaps too slow, and the harder we're licked the more stubborn we become.

Some Will Be Disappointed.

It is scarcely conceivable that the publishers of the Family Herald and Weekly

Star, of Montreal, will be able to supply all comers with their beautiful premium picture "The Thin Red Line," the most thrilling and life like battle picture in the annals of the British Army. The picture is reserved for Family Herald and Weekly Star readers. None others can have it. It is said by those who have seen the scramble that the rush for the picture is phenomenal.

A London editor has been chatting with Rudyard Kipling about Cecil Rhodes, whom Kipling regards as "the greatest of living men." His admiration of Rhodes is as exalted as his contempt for the Dutch Boers is profound. "What would the Rhodes party do if their opponents should come to outnumber them in the government?" said the interviewer.

"Oh, I suppose they'd have to buy a few of the Dutchmen," said Kipling.

There's Style

In Glasses as well as in Dress.

The deep-rooted objection to the use of glasses on the ground of unsightliness is entirely removed by the artistic effect produced by modern methods. Improperly-fitted frames are at once a disfigurement and a menace to health; the effect of a perfect glass being annulled or distorted by this means.

I carry a large and well-selected stock Spectacle and Eye-Glass Frames, in Gold, Gold-Filled, Non-Tarnishable Alloy and Nickle Steel, and guarantee a Perfect Fit in both Frames and Lenses. Prices reasonable. Rimless and Special Frames made to order. Eyes tested Free.
