NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

BIRCH RIDGE.

Thomas Knowles, J. P., is building his new barn. He hopes to have it built by the end of next month.

On Sunday morning last a young caribou left the woods for fifteen or twenty minutes and roamed leisurely within a short distance of T. West's house.

Last week an oyster supper was held at the house of Henry Gallop. The participants had a jovial time.

Arch Knowles and Robt. Gillespie have each bought a light wagon. Some of our prepossessing maidens may look forward to many a drive.

John Griffith, the peddler, was in here this week. Albert Dunster has entered the peddling line. He makes fortnightly trips up the river. Let us wish him success.

Have we got burglars in this settlement? I am informed on good authority that some person or persons forced the door and broke the lock of John Gantner's house, now in possession of Charles Dunster, on Tuesday June 21st. I do not know further particulars at present.

KIRKLAND.

A large number of people from Greenville and Union Corner were fishing at Slater's bridge on Friday 17th inst., they carried a good supply of pickrel home with them.

D. Mott collector for Massey Harris Co. was in this place today which is the 18th. He says frost has killed large quantities of beans along the various places he has been travelling.

William Tracey has come home from New Hampshire, he is looking well and hearty.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Henderson from Debec were visiting friends in Kirkland and vicinity.

David Hipwell of the firm Chestnut & Hipwell, was in Kirkland on Tuesday the 21st on a business trip.

There was a picnic at the Orange Hall on the 22nd for the school in Kirkland. The teachers and pupils of the schools in Maxwell and Monument Settlement were invited.

Mrs. Ed. Grandall and Mrs. Graham from Grahamsville are in Kirkland.

There was a public missionary meeting in the Temperance Hall on the 23rd, it was the third anniversary of the missionary society in Maxwell Settlement.

T. Givan has closed his school for holidays. He will teach the school the next term.

The Orangemen of Kirkland are invited to Canterbury Station to spend their 12th. They intend going if nothing prevent.

EVERETT.

Miss Lottie Everett and Miss Rena Ross left to visit some friends down river also to attend district meetings at Kilmarnock.

Leonard Everett left here to meet his wife and family at Perth when they will return to this place to live or stay.

Odbur Padet is quite low with consumption. G. W. Orphan's little girl who was scalded very badly is now gaining rapidly under the skillful treatment of Dr. W. E. Gardiner and the good nursing of her mother.

Dr. Gardiner and family who have been visiting at the Dufferin have taken their departure. It is hoped they will arrive at their home at Limestone, safe.

Adam Vanerbit has returned to his home at Rocky Brook where he will be taken care of by his mother. He has had a serious attack of sickness and the doctors have done all they could for him.

Road work is the order of the day as the supt. has laid out his allowance of money.

Arthur Everett has remodeled the interior of his house. The paperers have gone, he is now awaiting the painter.

Mrs. Faulkner of Sisson Ridge has gone to Riley Brook.

Harry Watters made a flying visit through this place this week. He has returned home taking with him his little niece Laura Watters to spend a short time with her grandma.

Mrs. Edith Blue of Oxbow took a trip to Riley Brook one day this week accompanied by her little boy.

Mrs. Will Tapley has returned to her home at Riley Brook. She had been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson at Burnt Land Brook. She was accompanied by her three children.

ANDOVER.

Dr. Welling has moved his barn to the opposite side of his lot, has dug a fine cellar under his house and built a stone wall, raised the roof of his ell and made all preparations for receiving the water works when it is put in.

There is a rumour afloat here that the C. P. R. is to haul large quantities of wheat down this way by the Temisconata Ry. It is said that the C. P. R. will build a new and stronger bridge over the St. John about half a mile above the present one, do away with Perth Station make their general station for the Tobique Valley and their own road at Andover. It is also said that the local government will take the present bridge off the company's hands as the highway bridge is not in good conditions.

Senator Baird P. Lynch, J. B. Porter M. P. P. Claude Cameron are painting their houses.

In the last five or six years there has been a general and very marked improvement in Andover, particularly in the residences. Andover is justly proud of possessing so many fine residences.

At the annual meeting of the rate payers on June 4th, Wm. Curry was re-elected to the board of commissioners which is now composed of himself, A. E. Kupkey and Dr. Welling who is chairman and T. J. Carter secretary. The board issued a call for tenders, to be in by 4 o'clock P. M. June 30. Three per cent of the amount is to be deposited with tender. On the last call for tenders, they were filed by J. B. Porter and John E. Stewart, Rodgers and Fewer Bros. Kitchen and Shea and J. N. Wallace, none of these tenders were accepted on account of some dissatisfaction with the specifications.

UNION CORNER.

The semi annual examination of the school in this place was held on last Wednesday afternoon. In connection with the exam, a very interesting programme was carried out, consisting of dialogues recitations, etc., which were very entertaining to the many visitors present. After school was dismissed all present were served with ice cream and cake. Our teacher Miss Blanche Elbott is held in high esteem by her pupils and will continue to teach the school another term. She leaves for St. John to attend the Provincial Teachers' Institute. J. R. Barton intended accompanying J. S. Merrithew to Florenceville to attend N. B. Western Baptist Association but was detained by the death of Mr. Merrithew's sister Mrs. M. Shephard. She was buried in the Baptist cemetery McKenzie Corner. The funeral was well attended. An earnest and impressive sermon was preached by Pastor C. Currie from I. Thes. 4:13. This service prevented Mr. Currie from attending association also.

BATH.

On Thursday 23rd, inst. Bath was honored by the arrival of His Lordship, Bishop Sweeney, of St. John. The Bishop was accompanied by Father Chapman of Woodstock, Father Gallagher of Silver Falls and Mr. Murphy a theological student of St. John. The party proceeded to Johnville and took up apartments with Father Murray, the next morning confirmation was bestowed on seventy three applicants. Before confirmation Father Murray celebrated mass, and Father Gallagher, who is an old Johnville boy delivered an eloquent sermon, which was highly appreciated by his many friends. The church was crowded to the doors by a congregation of Catholics who turned out to do justice to the occasion, and honour to His Lordship, who is the founder of Johnville and after whom Johnville was named. After confirmation the Bishop congratulated the people on their large congregation and admonished them to stick to their farms. On Friday afternoon the Bishop and party drove into Bath taking the express for their several homes.

Walter Cummins of St. Stephen with Frankie paid a visit to Bath last week.

Cornelius Gallagher and wife of Woodstock were visiting friends in Johnville last week.

The Parish of Kent can boast of a road scraper, but we have some doubts, when looking at some of the work done by it, whether the parish can boast of its work.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Henry Conoran and Miss Kate Kilfoil of Johnville, which will take place on Wednesday 29th, inst.

Severe Bronchitis Yields Promptly to Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

I used your Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for severe attack of Bronchitis. I got better from the time of taking the first dose. Having a family of young children, my doctor's bills have annually come to a considerable sum. I believe a bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup occasionally will aid me in reducing them very materially.
