A WRONG IDEA OF... DYSPEPSIA

Throws all the Blame on the Stomach—The Real Seat of Trouble is the Intestines—The Permanent Cure is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is an old idea long since exploded that digestion is confined to the stomach. Modern scientist denies that the more difficult part of digestion and the more difficult part takes place in the intestines. This explains why dyspepsia is never really cured by preparations which merely aid stomach digestion and act only on the stomach.

It may have been noticed by those who have no appetite for breakfast that even if hungry on retiring it is an exception to have a feeling of hunger on awakening in the morning. It is probable that during the sleep the stomach contracts and this is probably why some persons cannot eat late at night.

Pain in the Back.

"I suffered with pain in the back for over a year and could not get it cured. Three bottles of your yard's Yellow Oil removed the pain entirely." Marshal Miller, McGeorge P. O., Man.

"Gee! I'm disgraced now! If I carry dip umbrella, dey'll say I'm workin' an if I drop it dey'll accuse me of takin a bath!" —New York Journal.

For the Household. FOR HOUSE PLANTS. "Tobacco water," says a woman whose house plants are a joy to the entire neighborhood, "is a most excellent wash. Take a handful of tobacco stems and steep them by pouring boiling water over them until the water looks like strong tea. When the water is cool, wipe off the leaves and stems with a soft cloth. This removes insects and keeps the plant in good condition. The infusion weakened still further may be poured about the roots with good effect."

TO HANG THE PICTURES. Often in hanging pictures the greatest difficulty is experienced in getting the screw to fasten securely into the plaster. Here is a simple remedy which many professional picture hangers follow in the course of a day's work: The hole made by the screw is enlarged and the edges of the plaster are thoroughly moistened with water. Then the space is filled with plaster of paris and the screw pressed in to the soft plaster. When the plaster became hardened the screw will be found to hold very firmly.

GOOD HEALTH MINE.

Most Valuable Discovery by a Prominent Halifax Traveller.

But Several Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills a Perfect Mine of Health—They Cure all Kidney Diseases.

ROCKINGHAM N. S., May 1st. —(By telegraph.) The rich mine recently discovered by the oldest traveler in Nova Scotia, Mr. J. H. Ireland, of Halifax, is said to have been known to the citizen of this town five years ago. An old resident states that he drew a new lease of life from the mine, at least four years ago. Others have made similar claims.

Mr. Ireland says he cares not how many people use the mine. He has named it the Good Health mine, and says that this is the most suitable title for it, as Good Health is enjoyed by all those who use its output—Dodd's Kidney Pills. There is no doubt about the genuineness of Mr. Ireland's cure. His friends—and he has hundreds of them—have remarked the improvement, and congratulated him upon it.

Besides the love of order, Mr. Gladstone seems to have possessed another feminine trait in his character, the horror of waste, whether of stationery, food, or money. He kept his own personal accounts, and was careful to know exactly how his affairs stood. Another remarkable feature in Mr. Gladstone's character, and one which might with advantage be followed by ordinary men and women, was the variety on his interests. To this he attributed his power of throwing off the cares of State and of retaining his abnormal vitality to an advanced age.

YEARS OF TORTURE Helped in a Trice, and Permanently Cured. Persistent use of Dr. Agnew's Ointment will eradicate almost every kind of skin disease. No matter how long standing, or distressing, it allays irritation with one application. It's the quickest cure known for eczema and salt rheum, and will cure blind, bleeding or itching piles in from 3 to 5 nights.—Sold by Garden Bros.

Noodle—Don't you say, professor, that physiology is the science that treats of the functions of the body? Professor—Yes, sir. Noodle—Then under the head of what dology would a study of mind come? Professor—(with malice aforethought)—Well in some cases it would come under the head of mythology.—Philadelphia North American.

An Interesting Case. Mr W G Phyll, proprietor Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington street, East Toronto, says:—"While living in Chicago I was in a terrible shape with itching and bleeding piles. I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in various ways by their treatments to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr Chase's Ointment. I used but one box and have not been troubled with pile in any shape or form since."

REED WILKES 9457,

Was sired by the great Red Wilkes 1749—Record 2.40.

SIRE OF

Ralph Wilkes, 2.06 3/4; Blanche Louise, p 2.10; Red Bell, p. 2.11 1/4; Abbott Wilkes, 2.12 1/4; Wabash, 2.13 1/4; Island Wilkes, 2.13 3/4; Prince Wilkes, 2.14 1/4; Red Line, 2.15; Allie Wilkes, 2.15; Wayne Wilkes, p. 2.16; Phil Thompson, 2.16 1/4; Red Lady, p. 2.16 3/4; 100 others in 2.30; and dams of Coleridge, 2.09 1/4; Evangeline, (4 yrs) 2.11 1/4; and 40 others in 2.30.

NELLIE CROW, dam of REED WILKES (4 yrs) 2.25 1/4; Albany Boy 2.23.

REED WILKES was bred by T. L. Crow, Nicholasville, Ky. Is a dark bay horse with a few white hairs in forehead, and coronet white; 15 3/4 hands high; weighs 1,150 lbs. In point of individuality, speed or breeding he ranks well among the produce of his famous sire, with an ideal conformation, best quality of legs and feet, coat that would grace a thoroughbred, disposition perfect, gait that could in no way be improved, and a horse of superb style, that transmits his qualities. He is certain to become a sire whose blood will be in demand at an early date.

His sire, Red Wilkes, sire of Ralph Wilkes, 2.06 3/4, and grandsire of John R. Gentry 2.03 1/4, the fastest stallion in the world, is by the records by far the greatest son of George Wilkes, as he has more 2.30 and more 2.20 performers than any other son, and he is also sire of more 2.30 and more 2.20 performers than any other living horse of his age.

NELLIE CROW, his dam, is a grandly bred mare, combining the three great brood mare strains—Mambrino Chief, Pilot Jr. and Clay, supported by the stout thoroughbred blood of Gray Eagle, Webster and Imp. Envoy. She produced four foals—REED WILKES (4 yrs) 2.25 1/4, and Albany Boy 2.23; the other two were fillies and never trotted, but kept for breeding. Nellie Crow trotted in 2.40 nearly twenty years ago, as a two-year-old, over a country half mile track, and her owner says if she could have been put in the hands of some of the trainers of today her record would have been 2.10 or better.

REED WILKES' record, which was obtained at four years of age, is far from a limit of his speed, as he has trotted a trial in 2.16 1/4. Geo. H. Bailey, State Veterinarian, said that he saw him when he made his four-year-old record at Lexington, Ky., in a stake-race against the best four-year-olds in the country, and that the last heat he could have made 2.20 had he been driven for it.

REED WILKES until further notice will stand at T. S. Briggs' stable, Oakville, Carleton Co., N. B.

Service fee $8 to insure, $1 cash down. $6 by the season. Single service $4, cash down. Mares at owners' risk. All mares holden for service fee of horse. All mares dispensed of will be consid red in foal.

"It's the devil for any one to tell me a secret, for it is sure to come out in print."—HAZLITT.

One cannot but sympathize with all efforts to preserve the quiet of Sunday. For myself I do not think innocent enjoyment a sin, nor can I think it is forbidden on that day. I must say that the strictest sect of the Sabbath observers, will find a hard nut to crack in the Seventh Day brethren, and I think while they flourished here they gave many a rigid Sabbatharian a bad quarter of an hour. Our Sunday is certainly not the Jewish Sabbath.

We have often heard of many jokes at the expense of young curates who read the lessons with the dreaded episcopal eye on them, and not a bad addition to the many already on file is the following, which I borrow from an exchange:—A nervous curate in an English church—the other Sunday announced from the reading desk, "Here begins the second chapter of the Duke of Boooteromy." His vicar looked severely at him, and the young man blushed, coughed and repeated, "The Book of Dukeronomy." There must have been germs of mispronunciation lurking in the air, for at a later period in the service the vicar read out, "I publish the mans of barriagar," etc. The curate beamed with satisfaction, in spite of the solemnity of the occasion.

While touching on these matters I am reminded of another little story on a similar line:—Another newspaper writer tells me that the bishop of Oxford tells of a lady of Somerset who bewailed the loss of a somewhat ill-bred but extremely wealthy neighbor, who had been very liberal in his help to her country charities. "Mr. X. is dead," said she. "He was so good, and kind, and helpful to me in all sorts of ways. He was so vulgar, poor, dear fellow, we could not know him in London, but we shall meet him in heaven." One can scarcely fancy such a silly remark being made, but the silliness of many leader of society people is really beyond the comprehension of even a mind reader. It is an awfully good story and the bishop showed his appreciation of humour by not keeping such a good one from the public.

Don't Tear Down—Building Up. The old-fashioned theory of tearing down disease was entirely changed by the advent of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which cures by creating new rich blood and nerve tissue. Through the medium of the circulation and the nervous system they strengthen and invigorate every organ in the human body.

A Sure Cure. Mrs. Youngman—I wish I knew some way to prevent the baby from sucking his thumb. Bachelor Uncle—Hum! Let me see. There ought to be plan already. Why, yes! I've thought of a plan already. "Oh, thank you very much! What shall I do?" "Chop it off."—Tit Bits.

A CARD. We, the undersigned, do hereby give to refund the money on a twenty-five cent bottle of Dr. Wills' English Pills, if, after using three-fourths of contents of bottle, they do not relieve Constipation and Headache. We also warrant that four bottles will permanently cure the most obstinate case of Constipation. Satisfaction or no pay when Wills' English Pills are used.

Strictly Selfish.

"Supposing you were in a big building and should discover there was a fire in it," said the timorous man, "what would you do?" "Well," answered the person with no soul above his own physical comfort, "I think I'd be tempted to go down and personally thank the janitor."—Washington Star.

Pain Ceased First Day.

Mrs. Mary O'Dell, 262 Dunn Ave., Toronto, writes: "I have used Milburn's Rheumatic Pills and they cured me of a severe attack of Rheumatism. The pain ceased after the first day's trial of the remedy."

She Had Had Experience.

"Ah!" he cried, kneeling at her feet. Say you will marry me and I will be your devoted slave for life." "Arise, Harry," she answered. "You will not do!" That was what my first husband said, and before we had got fairly out of the church he began telling me how he wanted me to wear my hair."—Chicago News.
