For Wives to Remember.

That Adam was made first.
That "he pays the freight."
That "blessed are the meek."
That nine men in ten detest gossip.
That all angels are not of your sex.
That confidence begets confidence.
That men sometimes have "nerves."
That there should be no place like home.
That it takes two to prolong a family jar.
That the least said is the soonest mended.
That with all his faults you love him still.
That you should have no secrets from him.
That thousands have troubles of their own.
That he's "all right when you know him."
That woman's best weapon is her weakness.
That home is more than half what you make it.

That he is just as anxious to get rich as you are.

That wives are usually favored in this country.

That his typewriter cannot help it if she is pretty.

That he likes to hear that the baby is his dead image.

That six pairs of slippers are enough for any man.

That a man likes neatness in your attire at all times.

That candy in excess is worse than rum in moderation.

That you should not run up bills without his knowledge.

That "a baby in the house is a well-spring of pleasure."

That she who puts on the gloves should know how to spar.

That he is not in love with every woman he glances at.

That it is best policy to let him believe he is "lord and master."

That your relationship to him is closer than to your mother.

That a prompt and pointed answer does not turn away wrath.

That he does not get sleepy the same moment that you do.

That there are drop boxes on the nearest corners.

That you should not expect him to light the fire in the morning.

That you can't keep books and there is no use of your trying.

DR. A. W. CHASE IN CONSULTATION.

TEST THE KIDNEYS

They Are the Great Feeders of Our Bodies—the Purity of the Blood is Dependent on Their Cleansing Powers.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the Only Combined Kidney and Liver Pills—What They Have Accomplished is But a Guarantee of What They Will Do.

There's a time to all, old and young, man or woman, when poor health brings trouble, anxiety, and burdens hard to stand up under, and one's efforts to rid himself or herself seem only to be baffled at every turn, and we are prone to grow discouraged.

That is not the time to give up—but the time for action, the time to seek out the seat of the trouble, and act as your best judgment and the experience of others will help you, guarding against mistakes in the treatment adopted for your particular ailment.

READ WHAT AMOS CARTER,

MELBOURNE, ONT., SAYS:

Spasms Lasted for Hours at a Time—Left Great Aching and Soreness—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills Proved His Deliverer.

I was for over six months troubled with very sharp pains in the region of my kidneys, the spasms lasted for half an hour at a time, and left me with great aching, soreness and pain. I tried many remedies, but they did me no good. I commenced taking Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills according to directions. I had not much faith that they would cure me, but after taking one box I noticed a change for the better. It may seem incredible, but after taking the second box the pains all left me entirely, and I have not had them since.—Amos Carter, Melbourne.

Price 25 cents per box, all dealers.

Penny In The Slot Banks.

Early next year, says the London Mail the man who has a penny to put by for a rainy day will not find it necessary either to save up a shilling or to walk round to the penny bank. He will be able to drop it into a slot machine on the sidewalk, or at a railway station, and then by working a lever, he will be provided with a deposit receipt, upon any number of which he may realize at his convenience. Alfred Faulding the promoter of the penny-in-the-slot bank, told a reporter all about his scheme.

"I am convinced," he said, "that there are thousands of people in London alone who would gladly save a little if they only had a convenient means of putting their old coppers into secure and profitable keeping. At present, when one considers how large the population of London is, but comparatively few people think of taking their pennies along to the bank, while the number of those who hoard their pence until they have saved enough to constitute a savings bank deposit is also small.

The Medical Profession Recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in the American Journal of Health, February 10th, says:—"Among the proprietary medicines deserving recognition is Dr. Chase's Ointment, a remedy for Piles, Eczematous skin eruptions of all kinds, for which it has been used with marked success and has effected remarkable cures in many obstinate cases which seem to baffle the skilled medical attendant."

HENRY DRUMMOND.

Evangelist—Professor—Author.

BY LYMAN ABBOTT.

The following portrait of Henry Drummond, Evangelist, Professor, and Author, is good.

Perhaps the most conspicuous service which Henry Drummond rendered to his generation was to show them a Christianity which was perfectly natural. You met him somewhere, a graceful, well-dressed gentleman, tall and lithe, with a swing in his walk and a brightness on his face, who seemed to carry no cares, and to know neither presumption nor timidity. You spoke, and found him keen for any of a hundred interests. He fished, he shot, he skated as few can, he played cricket; he would go any distance to see a fire or a football match. He had a new story, a new puzzle, or a new joke every time he met you. Was it on the street? He drew you to watch two message-boys meet, grin, knock each other's hats off, lay down their baskets and enjoy a friendly chaffer of marbles. Was it in the train? He had dredged from the book-stall every paper and magazine that was new to him, or he would read you a fresh tale of his favorite, Bret Harte. Had you seen the "Apostle of the Jules," or Frederic Harrison's article in the "Nineteenth Century" on "Ruskin as a Master of English Prose," or Q.'s "Conspiracy Aboard the Midas," or the "Badminton Cricket?" If it was a rainy afternoon in a country house, he described a new game, and in five minutes everybody was in the thick of it. If it was a children's party, they clamored for his sleight-of-hand. He smoked, he played billiards; lounging in the sun, he could be the laziest man you ever saw.

If you were alone with him, he was sure to find out what interested you and listen by the hour. The keen brown eyes got at your heart, and you felt you could speak your best to them. Sometimes you would remember that he was Drummond the evangelist, Drummond the author of books which measured their circulation by scores of thousands. Yet there was no assumption of superiority nor any ambition to gain influence—nothing but the interest of one healthy human being in another. If the talk slipped among deeper things, he was an untroubled and as unforced as before; there was never a glimpse of a phylactery nor a smudge ofunction about his religion. He was one of the purest, most unselfish, most reverent souls you ever knew, but you would not have called him a saint. The name he went by among younger men was "The Prince;" there was a distinction and a radiance upon him that compelled the title.

A DRUGGIST'S FAITH.

What's Most Called For Must Be the Best Remedy.

A druggist's testimony of the popularity of a remedy is the strongest kind of a proof that it will do what it promises. Paul Liningood, druggist, of Allentown, Pa., says: "Dr. Agnew's remedies have sold away beyond my expectations. You can quote me for saying that Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is the best seller for catarrh I have in the store. Many of my customers praise it highly." It is a great remedy and has a continental reputation.—Sold by Garden Bros.

Something Wrong.

"This coffee does not seem quite right dear said young Mr. Humminton to the best little bridie in the world.

"I know it don't," replied his inexperienced little wife, with tears in her voice. "And I can't imagine what is the matter with it, either. It is the first time I ever made coffee, dear, and I'm afraid I have done something wrong. The seeds have been boiling quite half an hour, but they just won't get soft. What do you suppose is the matter?" —Pittsburg Chronicle.

CRAMPS AND COLIC

Are always promptly relieved by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry—the best Diarrhoea remedy in existence.

Loaf Gingerbread.

Melt one pound butter, slightly warm one pint molasses, one-half pint milk, one table spoonful ginger, one table spoonful cinnamon and beat for ten minutes. Add one table spoonful saleratus water and two eggs beaten to a cream, alternately with sufficient flour to make a stiff batter like that of pound cake. Beat hard and fast until very light, pour into three pound cake pans and bake in a quick oven. Brush with syrup while hot.

Changed Her Tune.

The good lady—"Oh, you wicked child! Why did you strike that little boy?"

Tommy Tibbles—"He said he'd bet the Spaniards could lick us if they had as many men on their side as we have."

The good lady—"Why, the brat! How does it come that you let him up without smashing his face?"—Cleveland Leader.

Kidney Pains All Gone.

What Did It?

Doan's Kidney Pills.

How Do You Know?

A Kingston Man Says So.

Mr. W. J. Pappa, 112 Barrie St., Kingston, Ont., writes as follows: "Having been troubled with kidney disease for years, and not having received any permanent relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I take great pleasure in letting others similarly afflicted know of the wonderful curative properties possessed by Doan's Pills. Before taking them I was troubled at night by having to rise, but can now sleep, and do not feel weary in the morning. I hope that this may induce other sufferers from kidney or urinary troubles to give Doan's Kidney Pills a faithful trial, for I know that no other remedy could have acted so well as they did in my case."
