

HEART PAINS

The Heart and Nerves are Often Affected and Cause Prostration of the Entire System.

A Kingston Lady Testifies to Her Experience in the Use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

People who suffer from any disease or disorder of the heart nervous system, such as Palpitation, Skin Beats, Smothering or Sinking Sensations, Sleeplessness, Weakness, Pain in the Head, etc., cannot afford to waste time trying various remedies, which have nothing more to back up their claims than the bold assertions of their proprietors.

These diseases are too serious to permit of your experimenting with untried remedies. When you buy Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, you know you have behind them the testimony of thousands of Canadians who have been cured by their use. One of these is Mrs. A. W. Irish, 92 Queen Street, Kingston, Ont., who writes as follows:

"I have suffered for some years with a smothering sensation caused by heart disease. The severity of the pains in my heart caused me much suffering. I was also very nervous, and my whole system was run down and debilitated. "Hearing of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills being a specific for these troubles, I thought I would try them, and therefore got a box at McLeod's Drug Store.

"They afforded me great relief, having toned up my system and removed the distressing symptoms from which I suffered. I can heartily recommend these wonderful pills to all sufferers from heart trouble."

Laxative Pills cure Biliousness, Dyspepsia and Constipation. Every pill perfect.

Fur-Bearing Countries.

Though the times seem against the survival of the fur-bearing animals, they are not all equally threatened with extermination, and occasionally, when human energy is diverted from trapping and hunting to some remunerative pursuit there is an actual increase of these creatures over very wide areas. The furs are so precious, and the countries in which they are found are so remote and uncultivated, that the only possible rival to the fur trade is the discovery of precious metals. By a curious coincidence, such discoveries have recently been made, both in North America and in Manchuria and South Siberia, close to the greatest fur-producing districts of the Old World and the New. Gold more precious than the precious sable, has been discovered in enormous quantities, demand caused by electric lighting and at Klondike. Copper, which is almost a precious metal, owing to the demand caused to electric lighting plant has for some years been worked in North British Columbia. These discoveries have caused a disturbance in the old routine of the fur hunter; and in Northern Canada and North British Columbia the marten, the otter, the bear, the beaver, and the other fur-bearing animals are once more recruiting their numbers, because all the Indians have ceased to be trappers, and prefer to make money by canoeing and carrying "packs" to the new mines.

One great fur-producing region of the Far East will doubtless be spoilt in a few years. This is Manchuria, especially the northern province, and the forest covered regions between the Tsungari and Ussuri rivers, and the Cinghan mountains. This district will in a few years be well known to the public, both from the construction of the Russian railway and the establishment of steamers, which even now run on all the great rivers. From the remotest times it has been the great reservoir of fur-bearing animals for the rich Chinese. Even the late Gen. Gordon's dress of honour, presented by the Emperor, was not considered complete without sable tails in the hat; and for unnumbered centuries the fur hunters of Manchuria have supplied an enormous stock to the markets of Peking.—Cornhill Magazine.

A FISHERMAN'S LIFE.

Saved to Wife and Family By Dodd's Kidney Pills.

He Was Dying With Kidney Disease—No Doctor Within Fifty Miles—A Stranger's Gift of Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

PLEASANT BAY, C. B. Jan 53rd.—A well-known resident of this place, who has lived here, man and boy, for forty years, and has followed his occupation as a fisherman, on the dangerous waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, since his childhood, sends regularly to Sydney for a supply of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Asked by a newspaper representative what his object was in doing this, he said; "A fisherman's life is one of continual danger. I have experienced that for myself. Some years ago I was caught in a storm on the Gulf and exposed to the terrible weather for two days and a night.

"Soon after this I was laid up with Kidney Disease and Rheumatism and was confined to my bed for four months. There is no doctor within a good many miles of us here, and I thought I was going to die. So did my wife and my friends.

"Fortunately, a stranger who came here to 'write up' the place for a New York paper, called on us one day. He saw the position I was in, and gave me three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills from his own supply.

"I used one box and part of another, and was then able to resume my work again, with renewed strength and vigor. Dodd's Kidney Pills saved my life. If it had not been for them I would have died and left my wife and family unprotected. Since then I have guarded against such a possibility by keeping a supply of Dodd's Kidney Pills on hand. I wouldn't be without them for $1,000."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only safe-guard against all Kidney Diseases. They can be got at all drug stores, for fifty cents a box.

The End of Witchcraft.

Sir Matthew Hale, it is true, had hanged two poor women at Cambridge in 1664, but a few years later Lord Chief Justice Holt set himself strongly against such charges, and in every case tried before him directed the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal. In a celebrated trial at Guildford, in 1701, not only was the supposed witch found not guilty, but her false accuser, one John Hathaway, was condemned to a year's imprisonment and to stand in the pillory three times. Yet horrible to relate! a woman named Hicks and her daughter, a child of nine, were hanged together at Huntingdon on July 28, 1716, for raising a storm of wind in league with the devil.

The last judicial sentence for witchcraft in England was in 1736, one Jane Weuham being actually found guilty, according to the indictment of "conversing familiarly with the devil in the form of a cat." The judge however, procured a reprieve for poor old Jane, and she was ultimately released, to end her days in peace.

Last the Witchcraft Act was repealed for the United Kingdom in the same year. It was quite time. For only nine years earlier, in 1727, a woman was brought before Capt. David Ross, deputy sheriff of Sutherland, charged with causing her daughter to be shod by the devil, and so making her lame both in hands and feet. The fact having been proved to the captain's satisfaction, the old woman was put into a tar barrel and burned at Dornoch. The weather being cold at the time, we are told that she "sat composedly warming herself by the fire prepared to consume her, while the other instruments of death were getting ready."

The last attempt to execute a witch in England ended disastrously for the perpetrators. In 1751, at Tring, two old people named Osborne, man and wife, being suspected of witchcraft, were seized by a crowd, stripped, cross bound, and thrown into a pond. Both died of this brutal treatment. But the Witchcraft act had been repealed, and a verdict of wilful murder having been returned against one Colley, the chief instigator of the assault, he was in due course tried and hanged.

The repeal of the Witchcraft Act was regarded by many persons with considerable misgiving. John Wesley, in 1768, enters in his journal "the giving up witchcraft is in effect giving up the Bible."—Cornhill Magazine.

Why Suffer

When Your Agony and Torture Can Be Permanently Banned by Paine's Celery Compound?

Neuralgia Surely Cured By the Great Medicine.

Able Physicians Recommend It.

Able physicians after a satisfactory experience with Paine's Celery Compound, have come to the conclusion that it is a true specific for that merciless tormentor—neuralgia. Neuralgia indicates a low or depressed state of vitality, and nothing so rapidly weakens and exhausts the system as pain that prevents sleep, and keeps the body and mind in agony and torture.

Neuralgia being a nerve disease, is most common in the face, and frequently the entire head suffers excruciating pain. Attacks of neuralgia are very uncertain; sometimes they come and pass quickly away; often the pain and agony will continue for weeks and months.

When there is a lowering of vitality, when sleeplessness, anxiety, malaria and debility are at work, and when there is exposure to wet and cold with rheumatic tendencies, neuralgia is sure to prevail.

Paine's Celery Compound being a nerve medicine and nerve food, it reaches the root of the trouble in a way that no other medicine can do. The most terrible and long standing cases have often been completely cured by the use of a few bottles. Paine's Celery Compound has in thousands of cases saved lives after the best medical exertions failed. If your life is a continued misery from neuralgic tortures, be wise and use a once nature's true nerve medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. Beware of substitutes; Paine's is the kind that cures.

Father—Here you are back from Klondike without a penny, and you said you would not return until you had made a fortune! Son—But I did make a fortune. Father—Who did you do with it? Son—I had to pay a hotel bill before I left Dawson City.

CRAMPS AND COLIC

Are always promptly relieved by Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Sassafras—the best Diarrhoeic remedy in existence.

No Long Delay.

They were at the front gate in the moonlight, and he asked her to be his wife. With outstretched arms and a throbbing heart he awaited her reply.

"George," she said in a nervous whisper, "you must give me time—you must give me time."

"How long?" he asked. "A day, a week, a month, a year?"

"No, no, George!" And she scanned the sky quickly. "Only until the moon goes behind a cloud."—Comic Cuts.

PLUNGED TO HIS DEATH.

Institious Disease Lurks Everywhere.

A bright young man in Grey County, Ont., thoughtlessly plunged into the lake at a summer resort when the blood was above the normal heat. The shock stopped the kidneys work. Poisons which should have been carried off were circulated through the system. Dropsy was the result, and one bright autumn the mourning badge was on the door, and a promising young life was snuffed out. He trusted himself to skilled physicians, but they failed to do what South American Kidney Cure would have done. It clears, heals and puts and keeps the kidneys in perfect action. A specific for all kidney ailments.—Sold by Garden Bros.
