Who Died on 24th Sept. Ut.

Our little one, our only one,
A parent's joy and treasure,
Has gone from us no more to be,
Our hearts' supremest pleasure.

They've laid her in the silent grave,
With sods above to cover,
But on our breasts they do seem pressed
For Oh! we did so love her.

We thought our hearts would break with grief
When from our home they bore her,
Left desolate by cruel fate
Which never can restore her.

No, not on earth, our darling babe,
Can we once more behold her,
As late we might ere fell this blight,
And to our bosoms fold her.

Peace! peace! Oh peace our aching heart
Life's joy seem gone forever,
That grave so small doth hold it all,
And peace shall find us never.

But God forgive immoderate grief
In us, thy pity needing,
Thy mercy finds a way that binds
The wounds so sore and bleeding.

So teach us calmly to submit
Confiding in thee, wholly,
Our babe at rest in Heaven blessed
With angels pure and holy.

And grant to us most gracious God
We yet may enter there,
Our babe to see, with her to be
Where all is pure and fair.

THE NERVES TELL OF DANGERS AND PERILS.

Paine's Celery Compound

Repairs the Nerves and Tissues,
Banishes Disease,
Gives Fresh Red Blood and Perfect Health.

The nervous system is a wondrous complication, and should at all times work with perfect harmony. When the working of the nervous system is unimpaired, good and vigorous health is always maintained.

The woman who suffers from nervous prostration, hysteria or hypochondria, has nerves affected that communicate directly with the brain, and if care is not exercised she may become a fit subject for an asylum.

It should be well understood that dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles and blood diseases have a profound effect on certain groups of nerves. These nerves or sensitive agents give us the first true warnings of dangers and perils.

When the nerves indicate the first symptoms of disease, the ailing man or woman should without loss of time make use of Paine's Celery Compound, nature's true nerve food, blood cleanser and flesh builder.

Medical experience points to Paine's Celery Compound as the true and unfailing banisher of disease, the only medicine that thoroughly builds up the broken down nervous system, that dissipates debility, sleeplessness, neuralgia, rheumatism and blood troubles. It is the friend that brings perfect digestion, sweet sleep, tranquillity and mental peace. If you have not yet used or heard of Paine's Celery Compound, ask any of your friends or neighbors who have received new life from its use; they will gladly and joyfully recommend it.

Too Bashful to Wed.

Miss Viola Houser, Tamapua, brought suit against John F. Arner, also of Tamapua, for breach of promise. They were to have been married last July, but the prospective groom was too bashful to go through the ceremony and refused to marry the girl. His bashfulness is said to be the only hindrance in the way of the wedding. Miss Houser claims $5000 damages for her wounded heart, but will wed Arner at any time and stop the legal proceedings against him.—Philadelphia Times.

No one need now endure the tortures of indigestion and dyspepsia. Within reach of all is an unfailing remedy which enables a person to get the full benefit of the food eaten. Introduced into the human system it is simply incomparable as a natural aid to the digestive apparatus. Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets are mainly composed of this grand fruit juice. They cure indigestion and dyspepsia positively. They are eaten as candy and give instant relief. Box of 60 Tablets, 35 cents.—For sale by Garden Bros.

DR. GAUTHIER ENDORSES DR. CHASE'S Kidney Liver Pills

The statement that Mr. Major owes his life to . . . DR. CHASE'S Kidney Liver Pills

Dr. J. T. A. Gauthier, of Valleyfield, Que., writes: "I, the undersigned, certify that the contents of this letter, in regard to the cure of Mr. Isadore Major, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, is correct."

Here is Mr. Major's letter: "After 20 years of suffering from backache and kidney disease I owe my life to Dr. A. W. Chase. I had tried an endless variety of remedies to no avail, and on the recommendation of a friend began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two pills that night and two next morning gave great relief, and I continued their use until now I am completely cured. My friends are surprised and pleased to see me well again, for I spent hundreds of dollars in vain trying to get cured. Before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills my back ached so I could not put on my shoes and couldn't lift 20 lbs. My shoulders were sore, I had headaches and a bad taste in the mouth. These troubles are now entirely gone and what I say I am ready to prove. I have told my friends of my wonderful cure, and many have been greatly benefited by using these pills."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the greatest kidney cure the world has ever known. One pill a dose, 25c. a box at all dealers, or Edmandson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Cooked Towels in Vienna.

One of the best known citizens of Santa Clara, who has been a long time in Europe, brings back a number of funny stories about Vienna.

"In that city," he says, "poker and cocktails are playing the duce with men and women, especially these prepared cocktails. I was in a Viennese liquor place where one of the men spoke a little English.

"Buy a bottle of cooked towels?" he asked me.

"Gracious, what is that?"

"Not know cooked towels? Surely, monsieur is an American?"

"I am."

"Why cooked towels is the name of your drink. The great American drink."

"Do you mean cocktails?" I asked.

"Ah mon Dieu, no. Cooked towels. See here's the inscription."

"We call these cocktails, my friend."

"Ah, thank you, I thank you. I ask the American ladies and gentlemen to buy the cooked towels and the laugh at me. Now I know. It is cocks tails. Ah, that is good to know; cocks tails."—Exchange.

Honest Advice Free to Men.

The DISPATCH is requested to publish the following: All men who are suffering from overwork, excess or youthful errors, are aware that most medical firms advertising to cure these conditions cannot be relied upon. Mr. Graham, a resident of London, Ont., living at 437 1/2 Richmond St., was for a long time a sufferer from above troubles and after trying in vain many advertised remedies, electric belts, etc., became almost discouraged and hopeless. Finally he confided in an old Clergyman who directed him to an eminent and reliable physician, through whose skillful treatment a speedy and perfect cure was obtained.

Knowing to his own sorrow that so many poor sufferers are being imposed upon by unscrupulous quacks, Mr. Graham considers it his duty to give his fellow-men the benefit of his experience and assist them to a cure by informing anyone who will write to him in strict confidence where to be cured. No attention can be given to those writing out of mere curiosity, but anyone who really needs a cure is advised to address Mr. Graham as above.

"It's the devil for any one to tell me a secret, for it is sure to come out in print."—HAZLITT.

It is quite customary to sneer at the clergy, but on the whole they are a pretty good lot of men. This was plainly shown in the recent accident to the Scotsman in the Straits of Belle Isle. The accounts in the papers all agree that the clergymen on board, behaved most heroically, and not only did all they could to save life and property, but, as was proper, considering their office, afforded all consolation possible of even a higher kind, to the shipwrecked passengers. Their conduct reflects credit on the cloth and will not soon be forgotten. I have pointed out in this column that it is always dangerous to be proud. Not long ago all kinds of execration was cast on the seamen of an ocean liner which collided. The seamen were foreigners and they behaved like brutes. Now, alas, we have another instance, but this time we have not foreigners to blame. In the case of the Scotsman the crew were "scabs" but they were British scabs. And they behaved as brutally as human beings could behave. Some people say human nature is much the same the world over, and I begin to think they have a good share of truth on their side.

The Hull P. Q. Dispatch has this rather amusing "skit" on Col. Sam Hughes, who was in such a hurry to go to the Transvaal:—The military enthusiasm of that great Canadian keeper of the British Lion and all his get, Col. Samuel Hughes, M. P., has experienced a chill, and some of the western exchanges are applying hot applications. The Colonel was posing simply as a patriot, and called on fellow-Canadians to enlist under his banner for service in the Transvaal. Everything was situated with glory, until the Ottawa Citizen while engaged in writing up the memoirs of Samuel Hugher, M. P., journalist, statesman and soldier, or an advance obituary notice of General Sir Samuel Hughes, V. C., of Boer fame, ran across the 98th section of the Army Act which decidedly jolts our hero in the "slats." In fact under that section Colonel Hughes may be prosecuted, imprisoned and fined for calling for recruits on his own behalf. Here's a humiliating pickle indeed. Mr. Hughes' intentions being good he has our sympathy, and this great journal will be pleased to exercise its influence with the war office in his behalf. In fact if we have to sit up nights till Xmas this great exponent of Canadian Militarism will not occupy a prison.

There were a pair of beautiful peacocks at the Exhibition and their plumage was admired by young and old. One spectator, and they say he was more or less of a famer, was heard to say, "Them's the beautifullest looking turkeys I ever saw." The truth of this was vouched by a man who is noted for his truth telling qualities.

A CHILD CAN USE THEM.

Easy to Dye With Diamond Dyes—
No Disappointments or Failures—
Colors are Fast to Sun, Soap and Washing.

Do not for a moment imagine that it is a difficult matter to do your own dyeing. It is true the work will be hazardous and disappointing if you use the imitation and crude package dyes sold by some dealers, but when Diamond Dyes are used it is but little more trouble to get fast and lovely colors than it is to wash and rinse the goods.

Do not allow your dealer to sell you imitations of the Diamond Dyes, on which he makes large profits, but insist every time on having the true, reliable and genuine Diamond Dyes that have stood the tests of long years in our Canadian homes.

"Well, am I in the right road?"

"Reckon you air."

"Tell me," said the traveller, "have you any other business besides 'reckoning'?"

"I reckon I has!" was the final reply.—Atlanta Constitution.

ITCHING PILES...

Positively and permanently cured by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is an absolute cure for piles, and has never been known to fail to cure the worst forms of this disease which has baffled medical skill for ages.

This statement may sound rather strong to persons who do not know the superior merits of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment, but it is perfectly true, and heartily endorsed by the grateful testimony of thousands of men and women who have been cured by it after years of suffering, and after trying many preparations and consulting the best doctors.

Mr. H. Bull, Belleville, Ont., says: "I take pleasure in stating that after thirty years of suffering with Itching Piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely cured me. I tried every remedy that was advertised, with little or no benefit. But as I have told different persons who were afflicted with Itching Piles, Dr. Chase's Ointment made me well."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has a record of cures in the history of medicine. It is the only cure for any case of piles. For sale by all druggists, or Edmandson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
