

Women's Ailments.

Women are coming to understand that the Backaches, Headaches, Tired Feelings and Weak Spells from which they suffer are due to wrong action of the kidneys.

The poisons that ought to be carried off are sent back into the blood, taking with them a multitude of pains and aches.

DOAN'S Kidney Pills drive away pains and aches, make women healthy and happy—able to enjoy life. Mrs. C. H. Gillespie, 204 Britain Street, St. John, N.B., says: "Some time ago I had a violent attack of La Grippe. From this, severe kidney trouble arose, for which I doctored with a number of the best physicians in St. John, but received little relief. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I began their use and in a short time found them to be a perfect cure. Before taking these pills I suffered such torture that I could not turn over in bed without assistance. Doan's Kidney Pills have rescued me from this terrible condition, and have removed every pain and ache."

NOTICE OF SALE.

To Gideon E. Perkins, of the Parish of Wilmot, in the County of Carleton, Province of New Brunswick, and to the undersigned Administrators and assigns of Clara A. Perkins, deceased, in her lifetime wife of said Gideon E. Perkins, and all others whom it may concern: NOTICE is hereby given that under and by virtue of a Power of Sale contained in a certain Indenture of Mortgage bearing date the Twenty-Sixth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and made between the said Gideon E. Perkins and Clara A. Perkins of the one part, and the undersigned George W. White of the said Parish of Wilmot in said County and Province, Merchant, of the other part, and registered in the Office of the Registry of Deeds and Wills for the County of Carleton in Book V. No. 3 on pages 28, 29 and 30 of said Carleton County Records, there will for the purpose of satisfying the money secured by the said Indenture of Mortgage, default having been made in the payment of the same, be sold at Public Auction in front of the office of Wendell P. Jones, attorney-at-law, on Queen Street, in the Town of Woodstock in the County of Carleton on THURSDAY the TWENTY-FIRST day of DECEMBER next at the hour of two of the clock in the afternoon the lands and premises mentioned and described in the said Indenture of Mortgage as follows:—

"All that certain piece or parcel of land being a building lot lying and being in the village, Parish and County aforesaid to wit: Beginning at a Cedar stake on the north side of the great road leading from Centreville to the boundary line thence a southerly course from bound of said road one hundred and twenty feet thence east forty feet thence southerly one hundred and twenty feet to said road thence forty feet west along said road to place of beginning, being on the north side of land owned and occupied by John Simonsen." Together with all buildings and improvements thereon and appurtenances and privileges to the same belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Sort of Proprietor.

The stranger, who was travelling on horse-back through a rather unproductive though picturesque stretch of territory, paused to look at an especially pleasing view. A man with pale blue eyes and straw-colored whiskers turned out of a lane into the road, and after the genial manner of the country bade the stranger good evening.

"Do you live in this part of the country?" "I don't look like no summer boarder, do I?" was the blue-eyed man's reply.

"It's fine scenery around here."

"So I'm told."

"Is this your farm?"

"I dunno."

"But you ought to know whether you are the proprietor or not."

"Well, I guess I'm him. But I don't see no use o' your strayin' around to tell me of it. I've got responsibilities connected with this place, an' I'm reminded of 'em frequent enough without your mixin' in. When you call me proprietor, though, I don't want you to get the idea of somebody who goes around bein' monarch of all he surveys, an' if I want anything done I get my wife to give the order. The children an' the hired man will pay attention to what she says. There's two mortgages on the place, an' the assessor is the feller that used to spark my wife before I married her, so he don't bear me no good will now. Everybody says the place would go to pot if my wife wasn't such a superior woman an' my oldest boy wasn't so industrious an' my daughter wasn't so smart and energetic. Nary one o' them is the proprietors. They get the credit, though, every time the taxes an' interest is paid or we have meat and canned goods on the table for dinner. But when anything goes wrong an' there's anybody to be stood up an' sass'd an' threatened with the law, why, I'm the feller."

ST. JOHN NOW.

New Brunswick's Big Sea Port Fortified by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Banisher of Backache in on the Bay of Fundy—W. H. Bowser reported to have been Rescued—Dodd's Kidney Pills Victorious Campaign.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 28.—The despatch from Zealand last week and from Antigonish the week before announcing the rescue of Mr. Mills and Mr. Spears of those two places respectively, has been triplicated here by the announcement made by Mr. W. H. Bowser, of this city.

Mr. Bowser is a knight of the grip, being one of the best known commercial travellers in the Maritime Provinces. He is a jovial good hearted fellow and justly popular wherever he is known. It greatly gratified his many friends when they learned he was taking Dodd's Kidney Pills for the kidney trouble from which he was known to be suffering.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have such a reputation in this province both as a cure for the formerly incurable Bright's Disease and Diabetes and all other forms included in Rheumatism—Dropsy, Sciatica, Lumbago, Urinary and Bladder Complaints, Women's Weakness, and Blood Disorders, that nobody had any doubt of the result. And the result has justified their faith, for Mr. Bowser has given out the following letter for publication: "Re Dodd's Kidney Pills I beg to state that I have used them for pain in the back and kidney trouble and have found them to be all they are recommended, namely a positive cure for kidney troubles. I believe them to be a splendid tonic—good enough for me anyhow."

Baked Too Long.

A jolly old boy from the midlands entered into one of the hotels at the seaside, and seeing on the slab on the right a crab dressed on the shell with legs, claws and parsley ranged around, said to the landlord:

"What d'ye call that?"

"Crab," was the answer.

"Looks good; I'll have 'un, and g'ie us a pint of ale."

Bread and butter was added, and the diner left to his dinner. In about an hour the genial landlord entered the dining saloon to see if his guest was getting on all right; he found him chawing up the last claw, the chawer red in the face, but beaming.

"Like the crab, sir?"

"Yes, he was capital. I never tasted one afore, but I think you baked 'um a little too long, the crust was so hard. Let's have another pint."

He had eaten the lot—shell, claws and all complete.—London Spare Moments.

AFTER A COLD DRIVE a teaspoonful of Pain-Killer mixed with a glass of hot water and sugar will be found a better stimulant than whiskey. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. 25c. and 50c.

The New Footman.

A gentleman was going out one day in his carriage to call with his wife, when he discovered that he had left his visiting cards. He ordered his footman who had recently come into his service, to go to the mantelpiece in the sitting room, and bring the cards he should see there. The servant did as he was ordered, retaining the articles to be used as directed, and off started the gentleman, sending in the footman with the cards wherever the "not at home" occurred. As these were very numerous, he turned to the servant with the question:

"How many cards have you left?"

"Well, sir," said the footman, very innocently, "there's the king of spades, the six of hearts and the ace of clubs."

"The deuce!" exclaimed his master.

"That's gone," said John.

One of the Old Sciences.

"What's that there young man's business?" asked Mr. Parvenue.

"He's a tutor, I believe," replied his wife.

"What does he teach?"

"One of them old sciences, I s'pose," answered Mrs. Parvenue. "I ain't just sure what it is, but last night Mabelle told me he was giving her lessons in osculation."

"Well, I s'pose she's got to be educated," returned the old man. "I only hope he won't charge no fancy price for his lessons."—Chicago Post.

Mother's Favorite.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is mother's favorite remedy for croup, bronchitis, asthma, coughs, colds and sore throat. The Telephone Cure for Stammering.

There is a popular character in Pendleton who has a slight impediment in his speech. He talks eloquently, but he stammers some. He recently located in Pendleton because he admires Missourians, and he has found the right kind here. The other day he went to the telephone to talk to a friend in Portland. When the talk was finished the Portland man said:

"Well, old man, you seem to talk better since you went to Pendleton. You do not stutter anything like as much as you did."

"No," said the Pendleton man, clear and straight as a bell. "A man cannot afford to stutter through a telephone when to talk costs 75 cents a minute."—Pendleton Oregonian.

An Old Theory Exploded

The old-fashioned theory of tearing down diseases was once changed by the advent of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which cures by creating new rich blood and nerve tissue. Through the medium of the circulation and the nervous system they strengthen and invigorate every organ in the human body.

Not so Savage as he Looked.

Many years ago a number of Peoria Indians organized a show company and made a tour of East. They were mostly halfbreeds and all were thoroughly educated in English, but it was stipulated by the management that they must talk only in their native tongue, and when they got on their war togs they looked savage enough, indeed. Among the company was Will Labadie, well known in Galena, and one evening he was standing in the corridor of an eastern hotel dressed in his chief's robes and looking every inch the savage man of fiction, when he was approached by an elegantly gowned lady, and the following conversation ensued:

"How—"

"Ugh."

"You big chief in your own country?"

"Ugh."

"You go to Washington to see great white father?"

"Ugh."

"You cannot speak white man's tongue; you no speak English?"

"No, madam. I regret to say that I do not understand the language."

The poor woman was greatly surprised and embarrassed, but perhaps no so much as a bevy of girls on a latter occasion. In almost every town some of the audience would remain behind to get a better view of the awful savages. One night Labadie had taken his seat in the orchestra box after the show and four or five young ladies who were standing near commenced to comment on his personal appearance. How would you like to kiss him?" said one of the maidens, with a titter.

"Oh, girls! let's all do it just to see how it would feel to kiss a real indian!" whereupon Labadie turned calmly to them and said:

"Ladies, nothing would afford me more pleasure than to give you a practical illustration of the osculatory accomplishments of the red man."

There was a chorus of little screams, a swish of skirts and the theatre was empty.—Iowa Paper.

Leg A Solid Sore.

When it comes to healing up old running sores of long standing there is no remedy equal to Burdock Blood Bitters.

Bathe the sore with the B.B.B.—that relieves the local irritation.

Take the B.B.B. internally—that clears the blood of all impurities on which sores thrive.

Miss D. Melissa Burke, Grindstone, Magdalen Islands, P.Q., says:

"It is with pleasure I speak in favor of B.B.B. which cured me of a running sore on my leg. I consulted three doctors and they gave me salve to put on, but it did no good. Finally my leg became a solid running sore. In fact for nearly a month I could not put my foot to the floor."

"I was advised to use B.B.B. and did so. Three bottles healed up my leg entirely so that I have never been troubled with it since."

The number of people at present who speak English is said to be 116,000,000.

It is just thirty years since Mr. Chamberland entered public life.

Doctors say that cold ankles kill more women than nerves and disease put together.
