NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

Some one said Mount Pleasant was a dead kind of a place, but not so; Mount Pleasant is all right.
Road work has already commenced; the men all look happy and good natured.
Mrs. George Nickelson and her brother, Master Willie Trecautin, spent last week with friends in Fredericton.
Invitations are out to the wedding of Sammie Burlock, one of Gordonsville's most estimable young men, and Miss Ester London of the same place. We extend our hearty congratulations.
Elvin Laskey spent Sunday at David Phillips, Lansdowne.
Our dressmakers, Miss Hattie Parent, Miss Emma Foster and Miss Nellie Phillips, are kept busy.
Miss Carrie Burlock and her brother, Carleton, have returned from Lowell, Mass. They will spend the summer here.
David Trecautin seems to be one of our happiest men; the cause of it is a young son.
C. E. Drake of Avondale, Harry Campbell of Peel, W. L. Brown of Upper Brighton and Sammie Burlock of Gordonsville spent Sunday with friends here.

UPPER KINTORE.

Mrs. George Anderson died on Sunday June the 4th after an illness of two days. She was taken sick on Friday night. Saturday she became worse and the doctor was hastily telephoned for. Sunday morning she was much better and none thought the end was near, until Sunday afternoon when she became alarmingly ill. Two doctors were hastily summoned but human aid was unavailing, and she passed peacefully away at half past ten Sunday night. She leaves a husband, two children and a host of relatives and friends to mourn the loss of one who was so dearly beloved by all who knew her. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire colony in the sad bereavement.
Funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from her late residence, Rev. G. C. Pringle officiating.

BRISTOL.

J. A. Lindsay and D. A. Munroe, Woodstock were in Bristol last week.
S. E. Estabrooks has gone to St. Stephen in the employment of the C. P. R. and will spend the summer there.
Miss Ella Thompkins left on Monday for a visit to Prince Edward Island, intending to be gone about a month.
A band of gypsies were in the village last week, and camped near the Hall. After trading through the village they proceeded up river.
Ada Curtis, second daughter of Mr. George Curtis died on Sunday morning after a few weeks illness.
She was about 12 years old. The funeral will be held at the Primitive Baptist church this afternoon, Rev. D. E. Brooks officiating.
Mr. John Rogers is building a large new barn.
The frame was put up and all enclosed last week.
Ambrose Giberson is preparing to build a house and shop at the corner of the Main and Glassville roads.
Mr. Asa Brooker and Miss Ida O'Neill a popular young couple of Egypt were married on Thursday last.

CENTREVILLE.

Eliza Hawkins was in town on business Monday.
Dr. Greenleaf, Mars Hill, was visiting friends here Saturday.
Chester Black had the misfortune to break his new canopy top phaeton on Tuesday last.
Judson Britt has accepted the agency to sell machinery for McCormick Bros. We feel satisfied they have secured the services of a hustler.
G. P. Hovey has purchased E. L. West's handsome bay to drive on his milk wagon which he will start Monday next.
Dr. Shaw, V. S. assisted by Dr. Perkins performed a very delicate operation in removing a tumor from a mare owned by Wm. Carmichael of Digby.
A. A. Campbell is again able to be out.
Mrs. M. Prior has taken rooms in John Crandlemire's house where she will spend the summer months.
I. B. Freeman, Bridgewater, Maine, was in town Monday.
Miss Nellie Cormier spent last week in town the guest of Mrs. Judson Burt.
A concert was given in the Baptist church on Sunday evening last. The program was as follows: Prayer by pastor; reading by Wm. Denton; recitation, Johnnie Crandlemire; base solo, Judson Burt; trio, Geo. Briggs, Mrs. Straphouse, Miss Reid; dialogue, Wm. Trafford, Chester Holmes, John Kinney. $14.00 was realized which went towards foreign missions.

FLORENCEVILLE.

Not having seen any Florenceville items in this paper for a long time and, as in our estimation this is quite a town, we thought it a mistake that it should not have a place in your popular paper.
The farmers here are nearly through with their seedings, the weather being all that would be desired for their work.

It is said that this used to be the place but a great many of the most prominent buildings have been destroyed by fire and owners have moved elsewhere to rebuild. However I think its star of prosperity must be again in the ascendant as many buildings are beginning to be erected on the vacant lots.

Our clever physician Dr. Ross, has purchased a lot just below the Methodist church and is putting himself up a fine house. A little farther up the road, on a very pretty spot, Jas. McCain is building.

Stephen Ross is building a stone wall under his house.

Mr. McGaffigan has enlarged his store and remodelled the front of it. That his business is flourishing is apparent. Others would do well to imitate the taste displayed by that family in regard to their store and grounds around their residence.

A "Skimming station" has been built here which will lighten the work of the farmers' wives.
The station is under the management of Mr. D.
N. Estey, assisted by his daughter.

Miss Louis Hume contemplates taking a trip out to Revelstoke, to pay her brothers a visit.
Andrew and Mary McCain are home from Wolfville for their vacation. Mrs. W. L. McCain and Mrs. H. H. McCain were over to Wolfville to the closing exercises.

Jas. Peters is confined to the house with a lame foot.

The Baptist Choir looks rather lonesome now as their organist Miss Estabrooks is away on a vacation.

Miss Blanch Estey gave all her friends a great shock by her sudden departure for New York.

MEDUCTIC.

Shake Perley! P. Marsten is receiving congratulations of friends. The mother and little daughter are doing nicely.

J. Y. Dow is now in charge of the ferry for the estate of I. W. Marsten, the old ferryman, Chipman Phillips having sold out to that firm.

Guy S. Moore is home from Mt. Allison College.
The annual roadwork has been done under the supervision of Squire Grosvenor.

The village has been very much improved in appearance by a thorough cleaning up of the grounds and the planting of trees.

The new skimming station is now in full working order under the management of Jarvis Bull.
The daily milk supply is in the vicinity of 3000 pounds.

If it had not been for the prompt assistance of J. E. Porter, a young lad of Northampton would have been drowned. As it was he was unconscious when dragged from the water.

A large number of men of the corporation drive spent Sunday in the village.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Reformed Baptist church convened on Thursday evening in Meductic. Rev. W. H. Sherwood is the pastor of the church here, and beside him there were present Revs. Messrs Greenlow, of Royalton, Grovior, of Southampton, Trafon of Hartland, Coy, of Upper Woodstock, Colpitts, of Woodstock and Clements (Methodist) of Benton. Mr. G. B. Mc-Donald the home missionary was also in attendance. About fifty delegates were present from the various churches. All the meetings were very satisfactory. At the Sunday meetings, large numbers came in from the surrounding country as well as many from Woodstock. Among the latter were A. J. Marsten, Miss Ethel Marsten, Miss Lina Scott, and Dr. and Mrs. Jewett. The meeting was a success although the very lower part of the district was not represented, probably because the Aberdeen stopped running a week too soon. The next meeting will be Sept. 14th., at Lower Bright-ton.

RED RAPIDS.

Will Squires of Upper Kent has been calling on friends on his way up Tobique.
Miss Mattie Tweeddale of Arthurette, has been visiting here this week.
Mrs. Cronkite and daughter Mrs. Harry Clare of Presque Isle are visiting at Mr. Charles Roberts.
Mr. Pasca gave a music and magic-lantern entertainment one evening this week at Charles Willets.

On account of the rainy weather this week has been bad for bicycling.

THREE BROOKS.

Wm. Squires of Upper Kent, Car. Co., was in this place this week.
Mrs. S. Cameron of Andover passed through here to day enroute for Nictau on a visit to her sons also Mrs. Sutherland returned to her home at Nictau from Fredericton this week.
James E. Porter, M. P., of Andover, made a call in this place this week.

MAPLE VIEW.

We have had a great deal of rain lately but it was welcomed as the crops needed it so badly.
Mrs. G. T. McGibbon, Douglas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Flanders, of this place.
Miss Maud Roulstone of Plaster Rock gave a party on the evening of May 29th which was enjoyed by her numerous friends. Refreshments were served which increased the enjoyment.

We are looking forward with pleasure to the Quarterly Meeting to be held next Sunday at Lin-ton's Corner.
Hadden Shaw, Upper Kent, made a flying trip to this vicinity last Sunday.
On June 6th a number of friends were invited by the Misses Flanders to spend the evening at their home. With music games and refreshments the evening passed pleasantly and the guests departed well satisfied with their evening's enjoyment.

HOLMESVILLE.

Crops in this section of the country are looking fine. The late rains have changed the appearance of the country wonderfully. Hay promises to be a fine crop, wheat is doing well, and the other crops are moving on to perfection.
William Armstrong, who does a large business in buying sheep, was in the village today.
Howard Giberson was in town with a large assignment of cloth exchanging it for wool.
Mrs. I. G. Cox was called to Bridgewater her son, Dell being out by a circular saw.
Roger McElroy Esq., has commenced shipping his oats; he farms on a large scale.
Miss Mary Clark is home from Houlton, Me., on a vacation.
Sheriff Foster was in the village today.
John Hall Esq., our local Travler, is up the Tobique River selling goods. Tobique seems to be a regular Klondike for peddlers.
Chas. Fisher, of the firm of Fisher & Hatheway, passed through the village en-route to Tobique on a vacation.
Steven Broad, wife and Miss Abbie Broad, started on a trip to Tilley Settlement. They had a nobby turnout.
Willis and James Broad have gone to work on the extension of the B. & A. R. to Van Buren, Me.
Andrew Ruff, agent for Singer Sewing Machine Co., starts out in the interests of the Co. next week.
Miss Kate Dugan's new store is well filled, and they do a fine business in dress-making and trading.
Miss Parish of Andover is visiting her brother Sandy at Holmesville.
There are lots of little strangers coming into the Settlement this spring, who seem to make themselves right at home.
There is a good opening for a preacher in this village. We hope to have a call from some of them soon. The harvest is ripe, but preachers few.

CENTREVILLE.

The Baptist church, prettily decorated for the occasion, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, when Miss Bessie A. West, daughter of the late Chas. A. West of Centreville, was married to Alex. A. Campbell, one of Woodstock's most popular young men. The guests in-

PERSONAL.

P. O. Inspector Dr. N. R. Colter is in town.
Miss Stead of St. John is visiting Miss Bessie Neales.

F. H. Hale, M. P., has gone to England on a business trip.

Harry Wellington of Houlton visited Woodstock one day last week.

Fred A. Estey, Shogomoc, registered at the Aberdeen Saturday.
Dr. Pugsley returned last week from a pleasant visit to Kings County.

Miss Josie Deakin, St. John, is visiting Miss Mary Connell, Green St.

S. Watts and his bride arrived home yesterday from their wedding trip.

A. A. McClaskey St. John came in to Woodstock on the express yesterday.

Stanley Fisher and Charley Deakin, St. John, are the guests of R. B. Jones.

Lester Drysdale, C.P.R. station agent at Bath, spent Sunday at his home in Woodstock.

Charles E. Atherton has returned from Acadia College where he is taking the Art Course.

Arthur Thompson and W. A. Burden of Fredericton were at the Aberdeen Monday.

Will Saunders who has been studying medicine at McGill, is spending the holidays at home.

B. B. Feeley of Houlton, deputy collector of customs at that post, was in town last week.

United States Consul General Hon. John G.
Foster of Halifax was at Consul Denison's Monday.

Henry Gillin and wife and Frank W. Hogan and wife, Houlton, registered at the Aberdeen Monday.

John F. Tilton representing W. H. Thorne & Co., St. John is in Woodstock. He will start on his up river trip this week.

Mrs. A. P. McKinnie of Youngstown, Ohio, is home to spend the summer, accompanied by her sister Miss Florence Gallivan.

James McCartin, who has been very ill for some time with pneumonia, is on the mend although it will be two or three weeks before he is able to be out.

Fred P. Nelson of Houlton, the hustling pianos dealer of that town, was in town Wednesday night of last week. He was accompanied by his son C. V. Nelson.

cluded the members of the families of bride and groom and about sixty invited friends. Beside these the church was filled with people anxious to witness the ceremony. At the hour fixed, 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the church and approached the chancel where they were met by the groom and his groomsman J. M. Queen. As they entered the church the organist, Miss Sherwood, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was dressed in a pure white Swiss muslin trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and bridal veil looped with lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen West, sister of the bride, wore a cream and heliotropium trimmed with Valenciennes. Her hat was of fancy white straw trimmed with white net and pink rose buds. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and the bridesmaid a handsome bouquet of pink and white carnations. The ushers were Judson C. and Haddon S. Burt.
Rev. J. A. Cahill, assisted by Rev. A. H. Hayward read the service that blended the two lives together and at the conclusion as the bridal party left the church, the joyful strains of the wedding march again sounded from the organ, and the party entered their carriage and were driven directly to the home of the bride's mother where a reception was held and luncheon served. The reception was very pretty and tastefully decorated. During the reception Miss Sherwood rendered some very pretty and appropriate selections on the organ, which presented a mass of carefully selected flowers. The respect in which the bride was held by the community may be seen by the list of many and valuable presents which appears here: Silver fruit dish, Mrs. Leland Clark, Miss C. Fitzgerald, Miss Kate Cahill; glass berry set, Messrs Perry and Webb; medallion picture, Misses Harold; delt plaque, Mrs. L. J. Sherwood; medallion picture, Mr and Miss Vince; fancy milk set, Mrs. Fannie Lunn, H. W. Agnew; check, Mr and Mrs E. Bassett; $5.00 cash, Mr and Mrs Calvin Campbell; the groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch chain, and to the bridesmaid a gold ring set with rubies and pearls; Small & Fisher's present to the groom, $10.00.

MR. FAY of Boston, and Frank Gilman caught 65 good sized trout last Monday.

A PRESENT HELP TO SUCCESSFUL NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.

A McKim and Co's New Directory

There is no surer aid, or greater lever to business success and the making of money than an intelligent use of newspaper space for advertising purposes and their is no read-ier or more facile way of losing money—utterly, irretrievably, losing money, than by injudicious advertising.

In these days of keen, almost cut-throat competition, advertising has become almost as important a consideration to the business of the manufacturer or the merchant as the quality of the material of which his goods are made. They must be talked about, described by word and depicted by illustration, attractively and convincingly. The public no longer seeks the vendor; it must be invited, pressed, allured into purchasing.

"In days of old,"—and not very "old" either, advertising if done at all was recognized only a very secondary matter, anything was good enough, but now the best is hardly "good enough." The best newspapers must be carefully selected with a view to their suitability to the particular purposes required, the best descriptive matter, the best illustrations, the best days of the week, the best price, the best of everything is required to get the best that is to be had out of advertising.

Anything which aids the advertiser in getting at this "best" is very welcome in these high strung competitive times and we are therefore much pleased to see the 2nd edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory published by the well-known firm of Advertising Agents—Messrs. McKim & Co., Montreal.
After a somewhat hurried examination of it we find it to be what we could naturally expect from our remembrance of its predecessor, (for this is their second gazetter) that is to say, a well bound, well printed, well of information. It contains, in easy understood tabulated form, a list of every newspaper and, we believe, every periodical, etc., published in the Dominion and Newfoundland.
With the name of each publication is all information obtainable regarding it—circulation, political bias, size day of publication, population, etc.; all the information supplied by the publisher of the paper and in many cases information gleaned from outside sources which the publisher neglects to give out for publication. There are also fine lithographed maps of different provinces in which every newspaper town is prominently shown.

These maps, in the way they are gotten up are very useful, especially to advertisers.
They show at a glance where newspapers are thickly strewn and overlapping each other, or, where the newspaper towns are few.
The Directory contains some well thought out information, regarding advertising in general, enlightens the enquirer as to the Label laws and Custom Tariff, etc., etc. There are over 430 pages beautifully printed with new type (which we believe the publishers have bought especially for their Directory.) The paper is a clean white, of heavy firm texture, in short, the make up of the book is a credit to the compilers and their printers.

The circulation of such a work among British and American advertisers as well as at home must certainly be of great value to Canadian publisher.

Prosperous St. George.

From a recent letter received by a gentleman in this town from one of St. George's citizens we glean that "The Granite Town" has a regular boom on. There are some 250 men employed in the granite mills and quarries, all the mills are running on full time, the proprietors are "as good men as ever got into trousers" as their workman say of them, and lots of orders coming in show big work in sight. Besides the granite works, some 50 persons are employed in the lumber mills, which will cut two or three million feet this season, and the grist mill is grinding fast and well to feed the hungry who work. There are no mill men or boys in the place. What with superior water power, equal to any in the dominion, as an enthusiastic St. Georger says, prospective pulp mills and other factories it looks as if this flourishing town is more than all right.
