North Branch Penobsecot.

As all the shanty correspondents seem to have either become defunct or joined the "Canadian Contingent," I will try to start the ball rolling in hopes that some other fellow may take a grip on his pen and tell us what the others of the ilk are doing and how they are doing it. The firm for which we have the pleasure to work is J. M. McNulty of Orono, Me., and everyone who knows "Jim" knows him to be a hustler from Hustleville. He has five camps here beside several on the West branch, Pine stream, Shin Pond and East branch, but we will only speak of the North branch. At No. 1 camp Bob Lynch, of Edmundston, is foreman and with his Madawaska crew makes a combination hard to get away with. "Bob" is a log hauler and has no use for irons. Louis April who has been with Mr. Lynch four years still presides over the culinary department in a way that cannot fail to give entire satisfaction. Here we have an office in which reside Mr. and Mrs. McLeod of whom we will speak later, a store house thirty by one hundred and ten feet, a blacksmith and woodworking shop and stables for logging and portage teams.

At No. 2 camp J. F. Ranney takes charge of the woods department and "Charlie" Tardy, of Montreal, presides over the cook stove in a way that would bring tears of envy to the eyes of the most finished french chef. He has his wife and little daughter of seven years in the camp with him.

Jas. A. Dubey, of Old Town, again has control of No. 3 camp this winter and has a crew of boys which are hard to equal and impossible to beat for the reason they will not be downed by any crew on Penobscot or other waters. F. A. Dubey is cook and although a new beginner promises to put many of the older cooks to shame in the near future. "Jimmy" has a nice cottage built in which he and his wife and father and mother reside for the winter. Mrs. Dubey, jr., was Miss Alice Regan of Van Buren and a well known society lady of that

No. 4 camp has Frank Prouty for boss and he has already demonstrated the fact that he is after logs and intends to hold his end up with the best of them.

Robby Hughes is just starting in at No. 5 and so we cannot say much about him but he has a reputation as a hustler that any man might be proud of.

Alex McLeod is walking boss and the way he looks after things leaves no room for doubting his ability. Mrs. McLeod fills the position of book keeper, and as far as we can find out has the unique distinction of being the first lady bookkeeper to fill that position in a lumber camp. Not only is she a competent accountant but a thorough lady in the fullest sense of the word.

V. P. Jackson, who was with the firm last last year as clerk and bookkeeper is still here and is kept pretty busy getting around to the various camps and looking after the toteing from Canada and Moosehead Lake.

We had quite a snow storm on Sunday the 12th inst, and it has been a great help to the teams in skidding. Quite a quantity of the lumber being cut is for the Great Northern Pulp and Paper Co. of Millnocket. Without exception this has been the finest fall for lumbermen within the memory of the oldest

A Story of Canadian Boys in South Africa. Canada is excited as never before. Every-one is asking for information and The Earle Publishing Co. of St. John, N. B., are bringing out an authentic history from the discovery of Africa down to date including its occupation by different nations, the great "treks' of the Boers, their habits, customs, treatment of slaves, complete sketches of the lives of all British generals connected with African history, President Kruger, General Joubert, Cecil Rhodes, Dr. Jameson, Bight, the world's wealthiest man, the great native warriors, the founder of Ladysmith, Canadian officers, the causes that led up to the present war, the thrilling events of Laings Nek and Majuba Hill, the conquest of the natives, the story of the troubles of 1881-1884, the whole superbly illustrated. Much of this truthful narrative reads like a fairy tale while parts thrill the reader with all the horrors of the war. The illustrated history, strength, and resources of Great Britain on one sile, and the dogged determination of the Boers on the other, make this contest one of the most graphic and memorable in history. #### A Chance for Shippers.

To the Editor of THE DISPATCH:-Sir,-I have read from Mr. Hammond Watson, Curator Canadian Section Imperial Institute, Imperial Institute road, London, S. W., a communication stating as follows: 1. A Midlands firm, with a large provincial connection, wishes to hear from exporters of Canadian turkeys. 2. A Scotch firm is seeking a Canadian manufacturer of wood pulp who can export regularly. They would either be willing to act as representative for the whole of Scotlaud, or purchase the pulp themselves.

Asking names of manufacturers of mouldings wishing to export, for the reason that there are plenty of buyers there.

If there are any persons who desire to avail themselves of the above enquiries they would do well to write to Mr. Watson, whose address is as above, or they could address Mr. C. A. Duff Miller, agent general of New Brunswick, 17 Leather Market, London, S.

Yours truly, H. R. EMMERSON.
