

DR. GAUTHIER ENDORSES

The statement that Mr. Major owes his life to . . . DR. CHASE'S Kidney Liver Pills

Dr. J. T. A. Gauthier, of Valleyfield, Que., writes: "I, the undersigned, certify that the contents of this letter, in regard to the cure of Mr. Isadore Major, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, is correct." "After 20 years of suffering from backache and kidney disease I owe my life to Dr. A. W. Chase. I had tried an endless variety of remedies to no avail, and on the recommendation of a friend began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. No pills that night and two next morning gave great relief, and I continued their use until now I am completely cured. My friends are surprised and pleased to see me well again, for I spent hundreds of dollars in vain trying to get cured. Before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills my back ached so I could not put on my shoes and couldn't lift 20 lbs. My shoulders were sore, I had headaches and a bad taste in the mouth. These troubles are now entirely gone and what I say I am ready to prove. I have told my friends of my wonderful cure, and many have been greatly benefited by using these pills."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the greatest kidney cure the world has ever known. One pill a dose, 25c. a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"It's the devil for any one to tell me a secret, for it is sure to come out in print."—HAZLITT.

Major General Hutton, of course sees this great journal and he must have read an editorial which appeared in the last issue. That is the reason, no doubt, that he announces that military instructors should speak French. He says: 'Until a sufficient staff of capable and experienced instructors, who can speak the French language, has been organized, it is unreasonable to expect that the French-speaking portion of the militia of Canada can meet the existing conditions. It is imperative to create a general staff of officers and an instructive staff of officers and non-commissioned officers, who have not only the experience and knowledge necessary, but who, while retaining the English words of command, have also the power of imparting instruction to those under them in their own language.'

It is sad to be lonely and friendless. Such must have been the sentiments of the poor little Italian boy who was the only victim of the sinking of the S. S. Portia, an account of which appears in recent papers. In the hurry and scurry which quite naturally overcame all hands, as they left the sinking ship for the boats, no one had a thought for the friendless lad. Nobody thought of him for sometime afterwards, probably, because the first reports to the press were to the effect that no lives were lost. Away in sunny Italy perhaps, a mother will mourn the death of her boy. Most deaths are sad, but when have I read of one so pathetic as the death of this friendless lad. He was coming to America, with dreams of wealth before him, perhaps, a strange lad in a strange ship, coming to a strange land. Human nature is far from being all bad and I fancy the heart of many a good woman goes out in sympathy for the sufferings of this lonely boy, who, of all that big passenger list, was alone lost. It is such incidents as that referred to which forbid us to dispute those who call this a sad, sad world.

There was a good attendance at the kinesiograph exhibition of the Fitzsimmons-Jeffries prize fight on Wednesday evening, and many of our most reputable citizens, including myself, were present. The affair was a success from start to finish, and one who had been present at the actual affair in New York said that excepting for hearing the noise the kinesiograph exhibition gave one as good an idea of the fight, as if one had been present in a $5 seat. One could form an idea of the relative merits of the contestants, of their size, weight, and skill. The agility with which they move, the lightning rapidity of the stroke, the parrying, ducking, feinting, etc., was simply marvellous, and one is not surprised that the prize ring has an attraction for the sporting fraternity. Of course prize fighting is brutal, no doubt about that, but men's actions every day of their lives are brutal. An ordinary election contest is as brutal, in a way, as a prize fight, and certainly less manly. The future of the kinesiograph must be assured. They are living pictures, indeed. Every action of the man, every move is reproduced, just as it is made. By this means those who have no opportunity to see great events in great places may have the opportunity of witnessing them years afterwards, just as they occurred. Just as the phonograph reproduces the exact sounds, so does the kinesiograph reproduce actual scenes. It is certainly a wonderful thing.

Mystery of Gray Hair.

That a man's hair sometimes turn gray very suddenly is a fact well known to physiologists. Statistics, however, on this subject are very rare, and for this reason Professor Virchow, the famous German scientist, recently requested a number of physicians to send him full details of all such cases as might come under their observation. As a result Dr. Moritz, the well known authority on diseases of the throat, has just published in the Archive a full account of such a case. The subject, or victim, is a day laborer about 36 years of age. Some time ago he was nearly run over by a railroad train, and naturally he received a severe shock. On the following morning a friend asked him what he had done to his hair, and, looking in the glass, he saw that there were two distinct patches of white on his head, one exactly in the middle and the other just above his right ear. Each patch of white hair covers a space of from three or four square inches. The evident conclusion is that this sudden change of color was caused solely by the fright which the man experienced when the train flashed by him within a few inches of his body.

CAMPERS

Should take with them a supply of Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry.

Those who intend going camping this summer should take with them Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Getting wet, catching cold, drinking water that is not always pure, or eating food that disagrees, may bring on an attack of Colic, Cramps and Diarrhoea. Prompt treatment with Dr. Fowler's Strawberry in such cases relieves the pain, checks the diarrhoea and prevents serious consequences. Don't take chances of spoiling a whole summer's outing through neglect of putting a bottle of this great diarrhoea doctor in with your supplies. But see that it's the genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as most of the imitations are highly dangerous.

St. John Exhibition.

St. John's great annual exhibition will this year open on the 11th of September and close on the 20th. In deference to the wishes of the Live Stock and Agricultural exhibitors, the term has been made shorter than in previous years.

Splendid open air amusements will be a feature of this year's exhibition and a programme of different attractions, for all the different days of exhibition, is being prepared. The various committees, in charge of the different departments, of the St. John Exhibition, are now well along with their work, and the premium lists will soon be issued. The prizes this year will aggregate over $13,000.

Noting the increased interest in fruit growing in the Maritime Provinces, the St. John exhibition management are arranging to extend their prize list for fruits and it is hoped that our horticulturists will do their part and make a display worthy of this great interest.

"Keep the head cool and the bowels open," is sensible advice to follow this warm weather. If the bowels do not move regularly, take Laxa-Liver Pills. They are small in size, easy to take and do not gripe, weaken or sicken.

"Which do you prefer?" asked her indulgent father.

"It is so hard to decide," she answered; "but at the price quoted I think the Duke is a better bargain than the Count. I guess you may buy me the Duke."—Chicago Post.

Dreyfus Seeks no Vengeance.

RENNES, July 10.—In his intense desire to understand his case Dreyfus is sitting up nearly all night reading the numerous documents furnished by his lawyers.

"Why fatigue yourself?" pleaded Mme. Dreyfus.

"I am anxious to read my own romance," replied Dreyfus grimly, showing he had not entirely lost his sense of humour.

The military tailor at Rennes has orders to make a new uniform for Dreyfus, and will take measures of the prisoner this week.

He is passionately interested in the intricacies of the affair, all of which Mme. Dreyfus wants forgotten once the process is ended. Some of her friends tell her to seek vengeance for her wrongs, but neither she nor her husband wish for revenge. Dreyfus' lawyers had prepared a paper to ask the State for damages for illegal imprisonment. Dreyfus refused to be a party, but for forms' sake he told the lawyers he was willing to ask for one franc damages, the lowest the law of France allows. The lawyers hope to persuade Dreyfus to change his mind.

This man must be made of the right sort of stuff, and 20 cents damages for five years of torture is modest, indeed.

Midsummer Health.

Paine's Celery Compound
The Only Medicine That Bestows the Blessings of True Health.

Interesting Testimony from a Cured Man.

If you have entered into the oppressive heat of midsummer and find yourself suffering from dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles, pain in back and side, headache, insomnia and stomach disorders, let us urge you to give Paine's Celery Compound a fair and honest trial if you would be strong, healthy and happy. We fully realize the seriousness of your condition, and with a desire for your physical welfare we recommend Paine's Celery Compound, the medicine that is now doing such a marvellous work for thousands of sufferers in our country. If your doctor is unfettered by professional etiquette, he will advise you to use the great life giver. Your friends and neighbors will be pleased to tell you what it has done for them in their time of distress and agony.

Mr. Charles Comeau, of Neguac, N. B., tells of his terrible sufferings and his cure by Paine's Celery Compound, as follows:

"I can conscientiously recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all who may be suffering from dyspepsia and liver trouble. For years, while living in Black Brook, I suffered from a complication of troubles, and was so bad with dyspepsia that I could not touch a morsel of food. I found it difficult to sleep, and what little I did get was often broken with horrid dreams. Intense sufferings from liver complaint added to my load of agony; I also had dizziness, pains in the back, and was pale, fagged and despondent.

"I kept doctoring and dosing without deriving the slightest benefit, and finally gave up all hope of getting well. One day my daughter, who had read of a wonderful cure by Paine's Celery Compound, begged me to try one bottle of the medicine. I told her it was no use of throwing away money, but she pleaded so hard that to please her I bought a bottle, and before it was used up I felt better. Encouraged so much, I continued with the medicine and improved every day.

"I am now cured, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound. You cannot wonder that I consider Paine's Celery Compound the greatest medical discovery in the world. I urge all who are suffering to try this grade medicine and test its virtues."

Music Killed A Horse.

Music caused the death of a beautiful three-year-old filly at Florence, Ala., the other day. A farmer drove the valuable young mare into town, and as he was driving up the principal street a brass band suddenly struck up its blatant music. The mare had never heard any sound like that before, and so startled was she that she dropped dead in the shafts of the trap. A veterinary surgeon who examined the carcass declared that the mare had died of heart failure, due to excitement caused by the sound of the unaccustomed music of the brass band.

Professor—This eccentricity you speak of in your daughter isn't all, after all, a matter of heredity?

The Mother (severely)—No, sir; I'd have you to know, sir, there never was any heredity in our family.—London Tit-Bits.

Youthful Recklessness.

The natural exuberance of youth often leads to recklessness. Young people don't take care of themselves, get over-heated, catch cold, and allow it to settle on the kidneys. They don't realize the significance of backache—think it will soon pass away—but it doesn't. Urinary Troubles come, then Diabetes, Bright's Disease and shattered health.

A young life has been sacrificed. Any help for it? Yes!

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

These conquerors of Kidney Pills are making the rising generation healthy and strong.

Mrs. G. Grisman, 505 Adelaide St., London, Ont., says: "My daughter, now 13 years old, has had weak kidneys since infancy, and her health as a consequence has always been poor. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills have removed every symptom of kidney trouble, and restored her to perfect health. I am truly thankful for the great benefit they have conferred upon her."

Catching Scorchers.

A great many communications have recently been sent to the London papers saying that the Kingston police always catch the wrong person when they attempt to stop the wheelmen from furious riding. The policemen have contradicted these accusations. There seems to be a mistake somewhere. Possibly the true explanation may be found in what is said to be a "true American story" printed in the London Mail. This story, says the Mail, has a great bearing on the case at hand. There is a certain time when the visions of the officer loses the real offender and he never gets him within the range of his eye again. Here is the story, which is said to "explain matters." "A gentleman was leaning out of a railway carriage window to kiss his wife, who was on the platform bidding him good by. The train, however, moved off, with that celerity for which American trains are famous in anecdote; so fast, indeed, that the chaste salute was bestowed on a porter at the next station. The suggestion is that, as the cyclists travel so fast in Kingston, the police do not catch the scorcher, but the slower rider who is coming up just behind him."

Of Local Interest.

To all who have felt the evil effects of deranged kidneys is the assurance that Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are meeting with enormous sale and unparalleled success in this district.
