What Millais Made.
At a great dinner party," writes Mrs. Onphant, in her "Autobiography," "the Prince of Wales took it into his head to enquire into people's income. He asked Sir Henry Thompson what a great doctor might make a year. Sir Henry answered fifteen thousand pounds; then he asked (I think) Sir Henry James what a great barrister could do. The reply was twenty thousand pounds. The Prince turned to Millais and asked him what a great painter could make. Millais said twenty-five thousand pounds. The Prince took it as a joke, whereupon Millais explained: "For the last ten years," he said, "I should have made forty thousand pounds had I not given myself a holiday of four months in the year; what I did actually make was thirty thousand pounds, so that I gave an estimate considerably under the fact."

KIDNEY POISONS
Sap the Life Spring and Make Putrid the Health Fountain—South American Kidney Cure Cleanses and Purifies.
If the kidneys fail to do their work other organs become involved; poisons generate—circulate through, and violate the whole system. Disease and disaster are as sure as sunrise if neglected. South American Kidney Cure acts on the kidneys like magic. It's a liquid and attacks the ailing parts, quickly stops the spreading of disease, drives out the foreign substance, and brings this important organ back to a healthy normal state. It's a kidney specific.—Sold by Garden Bros.

Don't Believe the Mirror.
A mirror is by no means always a faithful portrayer of likeness, says the Globe, and the statement that the mirror tells the truth is not to be relied upon. As a matter of fact a looking-glass makes one look worse than one really is. The hair is always slightly wrong in tone, and the eyes not correct in color, and the complexion is libelled. In fact, the tone of the complexion is influenced entirely by the hangings of the room, the window shades and the strength of light. Then it is impossible to assume a natural expression when looking into a glass. The eye can be observed in only one position, and the eye controls, for the most part, the facial expression.

BEYOND COMPARISON
There is Nothing in the World to Compare in Curative
Value with Dr. Von
Stan's Pineapple Tablets for Dyspepsia.

Vegetable pepsin is the most valuable constituent in the pineapple. Barring the digestive juices of the human system, no other article or product has the power to digest all kinds of food, except vegetable pepsin. One's general health would be amazingly improved if he could eat a pineapple a day, but hardly one person in a thousand could do so because of the trouble and expense of getting them when out of season.
Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets have all the virtues of the fruit—they are largely made up of the precious pineapple acid. They cure dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Box of 60 Tablets, 35 cents. For sale by Garden Bros.

Sick Headache.
This is often caused by eating too much and too rich food, and too little exercise. Substitute a simple, plain meal and a dessert of fruit for so much meat and so many rich dishes, followed by rich pastries and puddings, gravies and cakes, and earn what you eat "by the sweat of the brow," and you will have less headaches and other disorders. Nature abhors lazy folks, and, still more, laziness accompanied by gormandizing. They whose work is sedentary do not require so much food as hod carriers, and they cannot digest such rich food.

A PITIABLE CRIPPLE
From Rheumatism—Blistered by Doctors
Till He Didn't Know Himself—South American Rheumatic Cure Performs a Wondrous Cure.
D. Desanetels, Peterboro', writes: "For months I was unable to work, had rheumatism in every part of my body. I was blistered by doctors at ten different times. My hands were drawn out of shape, my fingers were distorted, and my wrists and forearm were double their natural size. My leg was encased in a plaster case for four months. I tried South American Rheumatic Cure; I took two bottles. Twenty-four hours after first dose I felt like a new man. One week after I was able to go to work. Now I am as hearty and strong as ever."—Sold by Garden Bros.

Nature Unadorned.
"What we need in this world is nature," she said. "We have too much artificiality. For my part, I simply adore nature. That's why I got my husband to buy a country place."
"But you haven't been there this summer."
"Oh, dear no; certainly not. We won't be able to go there for two or three years yet. It will require all that time for the landscape gardener to get it in shape for us."

THIN GIRLS GET PLUMP

while using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

There comes a critical time in the life of every woman when the bud of girlhood is unfolding into the full blown flower of womanhood. Mothers at this time should carefully guard their daughters' health, for this is a time when many a girl falls victim to insidious diseases which make life a misery.
Loss of flesh, headaches, pains in back and side, nervousness, irritability, dull eyes and a pale, sallow complexion, these are the symptoms that warn you to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.
The blood is impoverished and the nerves require nutrition. Nature must have assistance and there is no better way to help nature than by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. It is a food for blood and nerves, and creates rich, red blood, solid flesh and new nerve tissue. The color will return to the cheek, the brightness to the eye, and increase in weight will tell of solid advance in health.

Telegraph Line to Dawson City.
We have previously stated that work has been in progress toward the construction of a telegraph line from Skagway to Dawson City, in the Klondike region. The work has now been completed, the first message between the two points named having been sent on September 28. The part of the line now in operation extends from Skagway to Dawson City, a distance of a little more than 600 miles. Forty-one miles of this line is formed by the wire of the White Pass & Yukon Ry., from Skagway to Lake Bennett, and the remainder has been built by the Canadian government. It is said that preparations are being made to run a long-distance telephone line from Dawson City to points along the Yukon river, Circle City being one of the points which it is desired to reach ultimately. The nearest point to Skagway reached by telegraph is Cumberland or Comax, British Columbia. It is stated that arrangements will be made for steamers to call at Comax to deliver messages brought from Skagway and on their north-bound trips, for messages to be delivered at Skagway. This places Dawson within about 2½ days by telegraph.—Railway Review.

CHILDREN WILL GO SLEIGHING. They return covered with snow. Half a teaspoonful of Pain-Killer in hot water will prevent ill effects. Avoid substitutes, there's out one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. 25c. and 50c.

Cause to Remember.
I remember as well as if it only happened yesterday that in my younger days I once walked twenty miles at a stretch for the purpose of thrashing a hated rival.
And did you return on foot?
No; they brought me back in an ambulance.—London Tit-Bits.

"It's the devil for any one to tell me a secret, for it is sure to come out in print."—HAZLITT.

I am preparing a series of lectures on how to be rich without money. Any clown can be rich if he has money, but money is very vulgar. It requires the skill of a genius to be rich without the filthy stuff. One wants some of the sweet self-deception of the Christian scientist, so as to persuade one's self that a certain number of horrible realities are mere illusions. When it rains one must sav that the country really needs a good drenching. When a drouth strikes, one must persuade one's self that the farmers are suffering for dry weather. One must cultivate a sweet disposition, always look for the sterling silver lining to the clouds and when clouds are very thick and black he must swear that they are lined with 25 karat gold. If a fellow will follow these directions he will always feel rich and that is a good deal better than merely being it.

The King of Siam has a bodyguard of female warriors—400 girls chosen from among the strongest and handsomest of all the ladies in the land. I'll bet ten dollars that "talking in the ranks" is not against the rules of the Siamese army. If it was that bodyguard would have been disbanded before it was recruited.

An Interesting Case.

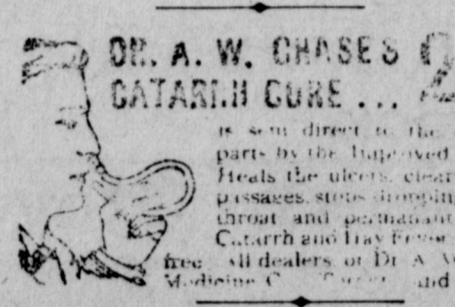

Mr W G Phyll, proprietor Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington street, East Toronto, says:—"While living in Chicago I was in a terrible shape with itching and bleeding piles. I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in various ways by their treatments to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr Chase's Ointment. I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since."

Trials of Authorship.

Again the difficulty of controlling the characters we have created in our story!
We are marrying Eeustus Throckmorton's only daughter to an adventurer. Naturally Throckmorton is angry.
"Caramba!" we manage to induce him to hiss, although he much prefers his native tongue, but further than this he will concede nothing.
For instance, when the time comes for his daughter to elope, Throckmorton is very bullheaded. He persists in discovering the perfidy of his child the first thing, compelling us thereby to hurry the action and to omit anything like an adequate description of the young girl's running away gown

Why do fashion plates always represent young a beautiful persons? There is a large fortune awaiting the darling artist who will clothe Madam Middle-age and her grandmother in garments of modish cut. We're not all beautiful, and we can't remain young forever no matter how desperately we try. Yet behold your tall, slender, graceful fashion-plate girl in the clingingest of gowns and most turklike turbans. Grandma can't go about in a toque and a sheath-skirt. But nobody thinks about grandma. No fashion plates are got up for her. Nor for the fat matron, nor the girl with one shoulder higher than the other, nor she of the round back and flat chest. Neither is there a toque exploited for the poor, plain soul whose facial outlines are not harmonious, or a hat for her whose nose is turned up. And these must wear clothes. And they would like to look stylish. And consider the number of plain girls and elderly women there are always everywhere.

Screamed... WITH... Agony

From the Terrible
Itching, Burning
Tortures of...
Eczema on the Scalp
Some of the cures effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment are more like miracles than anything else. The case recorded here was one of the worst ever brought to the attention of Toronto's best physicians, and when doctors gave up all hope of recovery Dr. Chase's Ointment was successful in producing a perfect cure.
Mr. James Scott, 136 Wright Ave., Toronto, says: "My boy Tom, aged ten, was for three years afflicted with a bad form of Eczema of the scalp, which was very unsightly and resisted all kinds of remedies and doctor's treatment. His head was in a terrible state. We had to keep him from school, and at times his head would bleed, and the child would scream with agony. For two and a half years we battled with it in vain, but at last found a cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment. About five boxes were used. The original sores dried up, leaving the skin in its normal condition. To say it is a pleasure to testify to the wonderful merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment is putting it very mildly."
