

LOCAL TOPICS.

TO LET.—The Baird House. Consult Mr. L. E. Young.

ELLA McGRATH, daughter of Michael McGrath Lindsay had to have her right leg amputated above the ankle on Wednesday last. The little girl is only ten years old.

AT R. W. Balloch's, boys' extra-wearing quality winter suits, sizes only 22 to 25 inch bust measure, at $1.60 per suit. Also small boys fleeced-lined shirts and drawers.

D. FRED THOMPSON, of Woodstock, and Miss Abbey Griffin, of Houlton, were married at the latter place this morning. The young couple have many friends in this city.—Fenton Herald.

TAPPAN ADNEY left last week for New York, where he is superintending the passage through the press of Harper Brothers, of his book on the Klondike. Mr. Adney's book will be out about Christmas.

THE GREEN FRONT STORE.—George Gray will open a feed store in the Brown building, Connell street about the 1st of November, where he will keep on hand a fresh stock of hay, oats, feed, and all kinds of farm produce.

ALL parties who intend building will find it to their advantage to call and inspect our large stock of doors, sashes and house finish of every variety. Latest designs best material and workmanship. The Woodstock Woodworking Co Ltd., Woodstock N. B.

THERE will be a sacred concert in the Opera House under the auspices of the Albert Street Baptist Church on Monday Oct. 30th. Among the singers will be Mrs. Emma Rending Saunders, of Yarmouth, N. S. Other singers from a distance will contribute to the programme.

THE Canada Life Assurance Co., demands no extra premium from its policy holders who enlist in the Canadian Contingent for the Transvaal, and any such policy holder not paying any premium during his absence the company will keep his policy in force during his service abroad, making the premium a loan on his policy.

THAT RIVER BRIDGE.—The floor on the bridge over the river here is in a condition very dangerous to travellers. There is no small number of holes in the floor through which a man or a horse could easily get his foot and where repairs have been made the thing is almost equally dangerous.

THE Harvest Supper held by the ladies of St. John's church on the evening of Thanksgiving Day was very successful. The fine weather allowed all to come and after deducting expenses the sum of $57.00 was found to be on hand. Thanks are returned to the many who were present and so helped to make the financial result so satisfactory.

GARDEN BROS., who have been in business in Woodstock since Aug. 1877—twenty-two years—have the consequence of the public to such an extent that they have only to say, "it's good, we recommend it," and it goes. This is what they are now saying about their own Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It's good, can't be beat. Large bottles 75 cents. Send or get one if you have to use Cod Liver Oil.

HOLMES JONES.—A pretty wedding occurred at 74 Green St., Augusta Me., on Tuesday evening Oct. 17th, when Miss Ethel D. Jones and Mr. Ward G. Holmes were united in marriage by Rev. E. E. Lasher. Mr. Holmes is a son of G. W. Holmes, and was formerly a resident of Woodstock. At present he holds a position as clerk in the wholesale store of N. T. Folsom, and both he and Mrs. Holmes have a large number of friends in Augusta where they will reside.

J. E. Burchill and wife and their daughter Miss Nettie Burchill, of Sidney, C. B., were at the Carlisle last Thursday and Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Burchill are the parents of A. S. Burchill the popular manager of the Merchant Bank of Halifax here. Mr. J. E. Burchill who has been manager of the Merchants Bank at Sidney for 30 years, has had the banking business there entirely to himself, but with the big industrial boom that has struck the town five new banks have moved in.

THE CARLETON CREAMERY COMPANY will probably commence work on their buildings in Woodstock early next month. The site will be near the old station, on the brow of the hill over looking Drysdale's factory. The company has at present eight skimming stations and will establish six more next year. They expect the supply of milk at all the stations to be largely increased next year. It is not likely that they will move into town till spring, but they must have their cold storage building completed this fall so that they can get in their ice for next summer.

MR. THOMAS L. McCAFFREY, clerk in the customs, and Miss Nellie McDade, of South Newbridge, were married in St. Gertrude's church, by Rev. Wm. Chapman, P. P., Wednesday morning last. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Agnes McDade and the groom was supported by Mr. Wm. T. McDonald. There were many valuable and useful presents. The Choir of St. Gertrude's, of which the groom is a member, presented a finely upholstered easy chair and a berry dish. The host of A. O. H. of which he is a charter member, presented a dining table.

MR. MELLISH who was in the Merchant's Bank here, some two or three years ago, and was well known as a cricketer, has turned his attention to tennis according to the following extract from Greetings, Antigonish, N. S. Last Friday afternoon four representative New Glasgow tennis players arrived in town to "do battle." The day was fine and good games were played, resulting in a tie, with two events unfinished. The games were as follows: Doubles—Gregory and Mellish won against Conrad and Musgrave. Mellish and Bernasconi lost to Patterson and Munro. Singles—Mellish won against Conrad. Brough lost to Patterson. Gregory vs. Musgrave, unfinished. Bernasconi vs. Munro, unfinished.

REV. G. D. JRELAND preached in the Northwood church Sunday last. A new organ is soon to be placed in the church.

JOHN TATTERSALL has lost his fireman's badge. Any one finding it would confer a favour by leaving it at this office or handing it to the owner.

A TEA that stands high at home as does Union Blend is always a good thing for outsiders to use. Union Blend is sold by one hundred and seventy retail grocers in St. John alone.

THE election of County Councillors will take place next Tuesday. In Woodstock the candidates are: Alex. Henderson, H. E. Gallagher, Wm. Balmain, Arthur Bailey and W. S. Saunders.

WORD has been received here today of the death of Mrs Samuel E. Jewett of Fort Fairfield. Mr. Jewett is a brother of W. B. Jewett Woodstock. Mrs. Jewett was a sister of Geo. W. Richards Houlton.

THE nature of the investments made by "The Temperance and General" may be judged from the fact—that it has never had to foreclose a mortgage—nor has it had a dollar of interest overdue December 31st, 1894, 95, 96, 97 or 98.

THE 67th Batt. held a meeting at Hartland, last week to consider the sending of some men with the contingent for South Africa. There were present at the meeting, Col. Boyer, Col. Hartley, Captains Williams, Kennedy, Ross and Kirkpatrick, and Lieuts. Ross, Taylor, Bull and Margison.

THE Public meeting called by the mayor for tomorrow evening, to consider a contribution to the fund for our South African Contingent, deserves to be well attended. It gives to those who must stay at home an opportunity to show their sympathy with the sending of a Canadian contingent.

THIS is the time to get a good bargain in millinery. Miss L. E. Fitzgerald's Centreville is showing an immense variety of trimmed and untrimmed hats and bonnets in all the latest styles at prices unheard of in the past. Walking Hats from 50 cents up, Sailors and Rough Riders at the same low rates. Feathers curled and dyed, old hats made to look like new. All business strictly attended to.

ELEGANT new Amazons, Henriettas, Serges, Brilliantines, Plaids, Mixed Goods, etc. at prices to suit everyone at C. M. Sherwood's. His Black Crepon at $1.35, in beautiful large blisters in something rich. Golf Cape cloths and Mantle cloths for ladies and children in best shades and some at very low prices. He has his Ladies' Astrachan Jackets made this year so they cannot rip or tear and has sold more already than two similar seasons in the past. The people's verdict tells.

THE citizens of St. John have started a fund to supplement the pay of the New Brunswick contingent for South Africa. Mayor Sears has asked Mayor Murphy to request the citizens of Woodstock to cooperate with those of St. John in raising such a fund. Mayor Murphy announces that a public meeting will be held at the town hall on Thursday evening the 26th at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of giving the citizens of Woodstock an opportunity of contributing to this fund.

AMONG the Carleton County militiamen who volunteered for service in South Africa are Col. Vince, Lieut. Appleby, Lieut. Vince Sgt. Major Melville, Sgt. Major Lovely, Sgt. H. W. Shaw, Corp. Lee, Corp. John M. Hartt, Hugh Wright, and Robt. Hull, all of the Brighton Engineers. Others who sent in their applications through Col. Vince are Lieut. J. J. Bull, Chap. Sgt. Wetmore, Herb Dennison, Alfred Chapman and John Bolger. Major Good of the Woodstock Field Battery offered his services with 20 men.

Don't swear, if your watch was botched take it to Jewett this time. He is an antidote for botchery.

AT THE FRONT.

That's where the Canadian Troops will soon be.

Our own Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is right to the front now, because it combines excellence of quality, with a liberal quantity, at a low price. A large bottle, as large as dollar ones, of any other make, only costs 75 cents. If you have to use Cod Liver Oil, use our Emulsion. It's pleasant to take, contains 50 per cent. cod liver oil, and only costs 75 cents. Result—25 cents profit to you, and same physical benefits.

Don't forget that we sell all kinds of Patent Medicines.

THE FLEURY STEEL PLOW

Is the best plow in Canada today. They are light in draught, run level on the bottom, and very steady, scarcely requiring holding in straight ahead work. Cut a furrow 10 to 14 inches wide. We have just received fifty of the above plows of three different styles. Be sure to call at our store, and look them over. We can sell you the best plow, and at the right price, as our plows were bought before the advance in steel.
