A blueberry party consisting of twenty persons stopped here over night en route for their homes at Mars Hill.

The home of Joseph Willet has been made happier by the arrival of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willet have returned home from a visit of several weeks in Quebec, bringing with them Mr. Willet's mother aged 96 years who can sew and knit and seems to have retained her faculties wonderfully. She has been married three times and is the mother of fifteen children.

James Chesley and wife of Boston are visiting the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. John DeYone.

Mr. Hodgdon of New York has returned to this place.

Mrs. Wm. Sprague passed through here Sunday on her way to the Insane Asylum St. John.

Several parties from this place have gone up Tobique blue-berrying this week.

People are all done haying here and are about to begin harvesting.

LAKEVILLE.

The weather has been favourable for the last few weeks.

All the farmers have finished haying and most all have already commenced harvesting.

A great many of our neighbors have been away to Gloverdale picking blueberries. Among the number were Mr. Clifford and family, also Mr. R. Anderson, Miss Anderson, Miss Fowler and Miss Beaisito.

The Roman Catholics of this place held a basket social, the third of the season, at Mr. Sharkey's on the 15th. They had a lovely time, and made over sixty dollars.

A great many of our young men have gone away from the place. Some are away pleasuring and others are gone to work, and quite a number of our young girls are getting ready to go to Normal school. Others have gone to teach school.

Leigh E. Speer who went to California this spring for his health has returned.

A party of young men from here went to New Bridge blue-berrying. They report a good time and plenty of blueberries.

The fishing grounds at Blackies Landing are well patronized. A very merry party from Lower Woodstock an vicinity passed through here on their way there Wednesday. I have not heard what success they had in securing the fish, but if they were as successful in that, as they were in the enjoyment of the trip, the must feel amply rewarded.

The people of Oak Mountain and Speerville send their milk to J. F. Tilley's cheese factory at Ivey's Corner, and seem to be well pleased with the returns, so far. Mr. Wallace G. Blackie carries the milk. He is always in time, and is very accommodating. Don't be too obliging Wallace, or else charge a small fee and perhaps you will not have so many passengers to haul to and fro.

FLORENCEVILLE.

C. T. Hendry, who during nearly twenty-two years has faithfully and successfully taught the Superior School in this place will soon sever his connection with the village. Generally he will be missed by the villagers, especially by the members of the Baptist church and of the Baptist Sunday School, in the latter of which institutions he has been Superintendent for many years. All wish that during the declining years of life he may have that success and happiness which the faithful deserve.

A Matter of Allowances.

Smith—What's the trouble with Brown and his wife? They are always quarrelling.

Jones—Oh, it's the old, old story, each declares the other is at fault.

Smith—Well, perhaps they are both at fault. Each should make some allowance for the other.

Jones—But that's impossible. You see, Brown hasn't got a penny of his own, while his wife is quite wealthy, and she makes him an allowance of $6 dollars a week.

Her Idea.

He—I see the doctors have declared that Slashmen who killed his wife and six children, is not insane.

She—Well, I don't see why a man in his right mind, who would do a thing like that isn't crazy.—Cleveland Leader.

Fond Mother (listening to baby's cries)—What a sweet-toned voice she has, dear. She'll be a splendid singer. We must send her to Italy and have her voice cultivated.

Brutal Father—Send her now.—Tit-Bits.

Unjustly Accused.

"George Ferguson," sharply exclaimed his wife after the visitor had gone, "I wouldn't for worlds be as big a hypocrite as you are!"

"In what way," he demanded, "have I been acting the hypocrite?"

"You know well enough. When Cousin Jerry showed us the picture of the young woman he is going to marry, you said: 'She's as pretty as a picture!' and you know she is homely enough to loosen the paint on a brick wall."

George scratched his chin and reflected a moment.

"Mrs. Ferguson—madam," he said, "don't accuse me of hypocrisy. She is as pretty as a picture—her own picture."

Even then it did not occur to Mrs. Ferguson that this explanation was surely retched. Any opportunity for crushing a husband, once lost, never turns up again.—Chicago Tribune.

The Satisfaction

In well-fitting clothes doesn't end the first time they are tried on. It's a daily and hourly pleasure that one experiences as long as they last. Isn't it worth a little more to have such garments—don't you get more for your money than when you buy the made-by-the-thousand-for-everybody kind? Garments made by us give lasting satisfaction—being properly cut, made and trimmed.
