Dependable drugs at reasonable prices have made our business grow to its present magnitude.

The character of the this fall. Between twenty-five and thirty assemble regularly ranging in age from 5 to 12 years. The mental and moral development of so many young minds is no light task but "love lightens the labour."

What are we to do with all our turkeys this fall? Keep them till Xmas they'll "eat their heads" off! Isn't there a grand mistake somewhere in the appointment of our Canadian Thanksgiving? Turkeys wan's fat in warm weather.

The character of the drugs and the amount of labor required to prepare them regulate the cost of leach prescription. If any-* thing is to be saved, the customer gets it.

Mrs. Cyrus Kinney, of Florenceville, made a call at her father's S. Fulton's, last evening and expressed her delight with a three weeks visit made to her sister Lizzie, Mrs. Elmer Stairs, in Lowell, Mass. The New England cities seem much nearer to us than twenty years ago, by reason of our friends locating there, and the interchange of visits resulting therefrom.

We note, with interest, the movements of Rev. D. Fiske, and earnestly hope that when he is through with his course of study in Montreal the way may open to procure a continuance of his untiring zeal and faithful devotion to its weltare and progress in the county where much of his work has been done, and which owes so much to of doing.
