BATH.

Thursday last was a rather interesting day for the people of this village. In the first place a great hurricane of wind and dust played havoc nearly all afternoon. In the evening a strawberry festival was to be held on the beautiful grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kinney. A large table was erected and everything in apple pie order when the wind interfered and drove the whole party to Phillips' hall where the festival was completed.
The large and social gathering presided over by Mr. Parkins, netted to the ladies who worked so enthusiastically for the benefit of the Methodist enthusiastically for the benefit of the Methodist denomination something over eighteen dollars. The success of the affair is mainly due to the efforts of Mrs. E. D. R. Phillips, Mrs. Rob Squires and Mrs. Albert Kinney who were the instigators and principally interested. After supper the same evening our popular Conductor Swift assisted by his willing crew were the next to entertain.
