NEWS FROM THE COUNTY.

THREE BROOKS.

The farmers are having fine weather for harvesting now. Peddlers! McDougal, Shaw, Craig, Hall, Hartley and Doohan all up Tobique this week. A basket supper and sale was held at Sisson Ridge on Thursday evening at which upwards of $40 was raised. Proceeds to go towards finishing the Baptist church.

BURNT LAND BROOK.

Stanley Shaw of Bath passed through this place today en route for his home. Charles Harris has finished burning his lime kiln. Most all of the men around here have commenced harvesting. M. M. Watson of this place went up to Dow Flat this afternoon. Mr. A. Hartley of East Florenceville passed through this place today.

RED RAPIDS.

Miss Minnie Goshine has returned home from visiting friends here. Mr. and Mrs. C. Leonard gave a sumptuous entertainment last Monday to the juveniles of this place on the occasion of Master Harry Leonard's birthday. About twenty-five children were present also Rev. J. R. Hopkins Dr. Weaver Mrs. F. Tweedale Mrs. C. Roberts Mrs. S. T. Shaw Mrs. G. Cronkite Miss M. McLaughlan Mr. S. Crawford and Miss Rollins. Extensive repairs are being made on the I. V. R. track. Mr. E. G. Ross, wife, and son, called on friends in this place on their way to Fort Fairfield last Friday. Mr. Woolhopper of Woodstock, agent for the Life Assurance Company called here on his way down Tobique.

BURNT LAND BROOK.

The weather here continues very hot. Most of our farmers are done haying. The hay crop is very good and the grain is looking fine. Mr. Hilyard, Mr. Burpee, and Mr. Jenkins with their cook Whennan from Red Rapids spent Saturday evening and Sunday here. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ross passed through this place on Friday en route for Fort Fairfield. Wm. Everett was out driving Saturday evening. His horse got frightened and ran away. He was thrown out of the carriage and hurt quite badly but no bones were broken.

NORTHAMPTON.

The farmers are well along with their harvest. Mr. Clifford the field manager of the M. P. F. Co. says the Sirel corn here is good three weeks earlier than in Maine. Miss F. A. Bull left on Wednesday to take a position in the Putnam Hospital Conn. Mr. William Patterson a clever young clergyman now labouring in Vermont is visiting his old home here. Mrs. Geo. E. Phillips was home from St. John a few days last week. She and Mr. Phillips, who is still very poorly will sail for England in a few weeks where they will spend the winter. C. P. Bulls old horse "Tiger" aged 31 years died very suddenly last week. He looked well until the last. Miss Antie Monteith is visiting in Caribou Me. Picnics are the order of the day now on the islands. The Reformed Baptist and Methodist Sunday school of this place had a union picnic recently and had a very enjoyable time.

FLORENCEVILLE.

Everybody is wishing for that which does not come—rain. Miss Gussie McCain, who has been quite ill is now convalescent; and will leave soon for Portland. Col. V. and wife spent Sunday in the village. A. D. McCain left on Saturday for Montreal to superintend the transportation and sale of a carload of live hogs, which was shipped from this station. Miss Robinson who has been spending her vacation in the village left last week for her home at Milltown. Jack Hume purposes attending Sackville Academy, and will leave in a few days to begin his studies at that institution. Miss Mary McCain leaves this week, to continue her studies at Wolfville Seminary. Rev. D. Fiske is attending the Christian Endeavor Convention at Moncton. Licentiate John Glenenden preached a good sermon in the Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon. Charles Upton reaped with his new Self Binder reaping machine, about forty acres of wheat last week.

HARTLAND.

A concert will be given by the 67th Battalion Band on Thursday evening of this week and a good programme may be expected. The leading artists from neighbouring villages and towns are expected to be present.

School opened here again on Aug. 28th with the same staff of teachers as last year.

The new school house is progressing nicely and will be a credit to the place. The steeple which is sixty-four feet high will be adorned by a flag-staff. Only three departments are being finished up at present. The Free Baptist parsonage is nearing completion. It is a fine little dwelling and will be ready for use about the last of this month. Surveyors were up examining the site for the bridge, but it is still a mystery when work will be commenced.

BATH.

On Sept. 30th '98 Frank McElroy of Canaan was married to Ida Ryan of Glassville. The wedding was one of the largest that ever occurred in Bath and hundreds of people recollect with pleasure the gaiety and mirth of that occasion. But the scene has changed and on Sept. 2nd '99 but eleven months and two days afterwards Frank McElroy the happy groom of the above event became a sorrowing, bereaved husband and his charming young wife passed to the world beyond. The funeral was held on Monday the 4th inst. and the large gathering and procession of teams to the Johnville church and grave yard showed that the deceased and her bereaved friends had lost none of the popularity which was exhibited at the time of their marriage. The deceased was ill but a short time and died from Tubercular Meningitis. The bereaved husband and the family of the deceased have the sincere sympathy of a large and sympathizing community of friends.

BRISTOL.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boyer took a trip up the Tobique River last week. M. Welch was in Fredericton last week attending the Crown Land sale. A. F. Lockhart and Mrs. Lockhart, Hartford, were in Bristol on Thursday and Friday. They were driving to the Grand Falls. Mrs. Bliss Morton, Bridgewater, and her mother Mrs. Duncan Buchanan, of Kings Co., are visiting at Dr. Somerville's. Sanford Estabrooks has returned from St. Stephen. W. H. Trecartin who formerly carried on the harness making business here, has been visiting at Mr. Boyer's. Wm. Lamont, of West Glassville, arrived home on Saturday from a visit to his old home in Scotland. He was absent about three months. D. V. Boyer is moving his house, and intends building an addition to it. There was some very good trotting on the park Saturday, when some Centerville, Florenceville and Bristol horses took part in some friendly contests. W. G. Peckham and C. P. Wolcott, Counsellors-at-Law, New York, arrived here on Friday, and proceeded to the Miramichi on a hunting excursion. They were accompanied by Thos. Pringle of St. Marys, who goes as their guide. Issachar Boyer took the party out as far as Bryden's.

HOLMESVILLE.

Farmers are getting well on with their harvesting crops which promise to be above the average. Mrs. Jane MacCarty from the Tobique river is visiting friends at Holmesville. Miss Sarah DeMerchant and Miss Nancy Sweeney have been up the Tobique river on a vacation. Mrs. Richard Wallace of Tobique, is visiting at her brother's, Sherman DeMerchant. Mr. and Mrs. John Kinney's little boy 5 months old died this week. Mrs. James Broad has been on a week's visit among friends at Tilley, Vic. Co. Mr. Norman Grant's wife and child are away on a vacation. There were a large crowd from Bath, at Moose Mountain enjoying an outing this week. John Kinney and Andrew Ruff came into the village with a large drove of cattle this week. Our old friend Thomas Andersen attended the Orange Lodge in the village this week. He has been forty-eight years an orangeman. There will be a basket supper in the Kinney meeting house Saturday eve for the benefit of Rev. John Perry. Rumor says there will be a wedding about Wednesday in the village. Chas. R. Fisher met with an accident by which he cut his toe badly. Miss Ester DeMerchant is home after an extended visit to Bangor and Portland, Me. Charles DeMerchant and Ida Taylor were married Wednesday. Nathan Junson has been on a business trip to Woodstock. Sad news comes to us of the death at Bath of Frank McElroy.

MEDUCTIC.

On Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, the remains of the late Allan D. Brown were interred in the Dow cemetery. Services were held in the Dow church, Rev. A. A. Rutledge of Millville officiating, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. C. N. Barton, and by the uncle of the deceased, Rev. J. W. S. Young. Rev. Mr. Rutledge preached an excellent sermon from James IV, 14. Mr. Brown was 22 years of age, and leaves a widowed mother, one sister and three brothers to mourn their loss. This last few weeks he had been clerking with P. S. McNutt and Co. of Fredericton. Having been seized with a severe attack of appendicitis, he entered Victoria Hospital, where he was operated on, but death claimed him on Thursday last. The deceased was a member of Minto Loyal Orange Lodge at Hawshaw under whose auspices he was buried. Besides the members of the Minto lodge, a large number of representatives were present from (Hippwell) lodge at Southampton, Milburn lodge at Meductic, Jubilee lodge at Woodstock and Maiden City lodge at Canterbury. B. M. Colpitts was director of ceremonies while the pall bearers were Charles G. Stairs, Havelock Stairs, James M. Scott and John Jones. Mrs. (Rev.) H. C. Sanders, of Port Maitland, Nova Scotia, who has been visiting the churches of the Reformed Baptist church in this vicinity, leaves today for Charlotte County. Mrs. Sanders with her husband expects to leave for the East Africa mission field next year, and in the meantime, she is arousing a strong missionary spirit among the members of the church. Rev. W. H. Sherwood has been visiting his old field of labor during the past week. A very interesting ceremony is to be performed in Green Bush Reformed Baptist church on Wednesday evening, Sept. 13th, when the pastor, Geo. B. McDonald will be ordained. His father, Rev. G. W. McDonald will be present, as will also the Revs. W. B. Wiggins, A. B. of Woodstock, S. Greenlaw of Royalton, John Gravinor of Southampton and others. Mrs. William H. Coy of Middleboro, Mass., announces the marriage of her sister, Eliza (L. Dougherty) to Rev. Beecher T. Gaskin on Tuesday October 10th, at home in Meductic after Nov. 1st. Mrs. Hodgson of Malden, Mass., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Edwards, returns home on Saturday, she will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Lela Edwards who expects to remain with Mrs. Hodgson for several months. The young son, ten months old, of Frank Tompkins, of Dow Settlement, was buried at the Dow cemetery on Sunday morning. Rev. C. N. Barton conducted the services at the house, church and grave. The sympathy of the community is with the parents. Mrs. Geo. P. Ols has entered the cyclists ranks. A large number from here attended the Hawshaw picnic last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Tompkins are moving out of the Aberdeen hotel today, and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsten are moving in. Considerable improvements are to be made to the hotel. An interesting law suit for damages is engaging the attention of the parish court commissioner, H. S. Grosvenor. It is Grant v. Gallagher, in which the plaintiff is suing the defendant to recover damages caused by defendant's sheep destroying the plaintiff's grain. Messrs. Jones and Murphy, of Woodstock, are respective counsel in the case.

Last week the grain on the estate of Fred. Moore was threshed, resulting in a yield of 416 bushels from 32 bushels sown. The channel for the wire ferry at this place is being cleared of stones. The water is about thirty feet lower than it was in the middle of April. Chipman Phillips is thoroughly repairing the road on either side leading to the ferry, having received a contract from the government.

What Is It?

That makes a man appear as tailor made at the first glance? He can be told a block away—his clothes fit him perfectly—there is the right cut to his coat—and trousers. The collar and lapels fine and smooth. There isn't too much looseness here and too much tightness there—everything is neatly done. Buttons, button holes, seams—all are firm and true.

Is your tailor perfectly satisfactory? If so, stick to him. If not, try us. Prices are as low as possible for high class tailoring.

Look at your NECK!

If you find that it's appearance is not quite what it should be, think of this:

No feature of a man's dress plays so important a part in his general appearance as does his neck-wear. A well-made, well-fitting shirt, with a collar of the correct size and a becoming shape, and a tie whose harmonious colors and fashionable style will complete the effect—all these go a long way toward making a well dressed man. With our large stock, (just opened) of

English,
Canadian and AmericanShirts,
Collars,
