Wedding rings, all sizes and solid gold, at Jewett's

REV. MR. SPARGO, Centreville, will preach in the Orange Hall Sunday afternoon at four o'clock.

Don't let ignorant people monkey with your eyes, go to Jewett, cor. Main and Queen Sts.

R. W. BALLOCH is expecting some fur coats for men which may arrive a little late, but it will pay you to wait and see them.

TO THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—Deputy Sheriff Foster took Thomas O'Connor, of Johnville, to the Provincial Lunatic Asylum last Thursday.

THE LONG DROUTH has dried up many of the wells in this part of the province and many farmers are compelled to haul water for their stock a long distance.

MAURICE C. KNOWLES, of Fort Fairfield, is to be leader of the 67th Batt. Band at Hartland. He will make a trip to Hartland once a week to instruct the members of the band.

P. GILLIN, King St. has sent THE DISPATCH some samples of a very fine coffee he is selling. When prepared it makes a beautiful beverage, and can be recommended to the public.

THE GREEN FRONT STORE.—George Gray will open a feed store in the Brown building, Connell street about the 1st of November, where he will keep on hand a fresh stock of hay, oats, feed, and all kinds of farm produce.

ALL parties who intend building will find it to their advantage to call and inspect our large stock of doors, sashes and house finish of every variety. Latest designs best material and workmanship. The Woodstock Woodworking Co Ltd., Woodstock N. B.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The Sacrament of the Lord's supper will be dispensed in St. Paul's Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. There will be a preparatory service in the church on Friday evening at 7.30. There will be no midweek meeting on Wednesday evening.

G. A. WHITE, A. B. Connell, J. S. Creighton and John Donnelly, of Woodstock, and Geo. W. Upham, of Fredericton, apply for incorporation as the Meduxnick Lumber Co., Ltd., with a capital of $10,000 in one hundred dollar shares. The office of the company is to be at Woodstock.—Royal Gazette.

FLORENCEVILLE MARKET PRICES.—Loose Hay $4.00 to $5.00; Oats 25c. to 26c.; Buckwheat Meal $1.00; Choice Butter 14c.; Dressed Pork 5c.; Beans $1.25. The decrease in the amount of butter offered since the Carleton Creamery Company have established skimming stations at Florenceville and at Tracy's Mills, is noticeable. Produce of all kinds is coming in slowly. The farmers are holding for better prices.

THIS is the time to get a good bargain in millinery. Miss L. E. Fitzgerald's Centreville is showing an immense variety of trimmed and untrimmed hats and bonnets in all the latest styles at prices unheard of in the past. Walking Hats from 50 cents up. Sailors and Rough Riders at the same low rates. Feathers curled and dyed, old hats made to look like new. All business strictly attended to.

AT the annual meeting of the Grand Division S. of T., held in St. John, last week, the following officers were elected: Rev. James Crisp, Jacksonville, G. U. P.; S. P. McLavour, St. John, G. U. A.; A. J. Armstrong, St. John, G. U. A.; Thos. H. Lawson, St. John, G. Treasurer; Rev. Job Shenton, Fairville, G. Chop; George Stottard, Chatham, G. Conductor; J. J. Kierstead, Colina, G. Sentinel; Mrs. E. S. Henniga, Supt. Y. P. Work.

ELEGANT new Amazons, Henriettas, Serges, Brilliantines, Plaids, Mixed Goods, etc. at prices to suit everyone at C. M. Sherwood's. His Black Crepon at $1.35, in beautiful large blisters in something rich. Golf Cape cloths and Mantle cloths for ladies and children in best shades and some at very low prices. He has his Ladies' Astrachan Jackets made this year so they cannot rip or tear and has sold more already than two similar seasons in the past. The people's verdict tells.

ANDREW HOLMES, a native of New Brunswick, who was released from Woodstock, N. B., jail Sunday morning on condition that he would leave the country, showed up in Houlton yesterday, was arrested and is getting board for thirty days at the expense of Arrostook County. Before falling into the tender hands of Houlton's officers he worked the deaf and dumb racket. After being assigned to a cozy room in the jail he recognized the voice of a party who was a room mate of his in Bangor jail.—Pioneer.

OLMSTEAD DAVIDSON.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred on the 25th inst. at 10 o'clock in the Baptist church at Forest Glen, V. Co., when Miss Annie Davidson of that place and C. L. Olmstead, of Perth Centre, son of William Olmstead, Grafton, were united in marriage by the Rev. A. H. Hayward. The church which was decorated with arches of evergreens and flowers was filled with spectators. As the wedding march was being played by Miss Helen Donoghue the bride entered the church wearing a dress of white organdie trimmed with lace and was attended by Miss Olmstead sister of the groom who wore a dress of white muslin with satin trimmings. The groom was supported by J. W. Niles, of Centreville. After the ceremony the party drove to the home of the bride where dinner was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead took the down express on their wedding trip. The many handsome and costly presents told of the high esteem in which the bride was held by her many friends.

Don't swear, if your watch was botched take it to Jewett this time. He is an antidote for botchery.

The largest and most varied stock of rings in Northern New Brunswick at Jewett's

PREPARE FOR WAR.—Lime, Brick, Cement and Calcine Plaster, at A. E. Jones, King Street.

THE attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of Carr & Gibson in this issue.

No old stock, that was sold at Auction at a fraction of cost everything new and up to date at Jewett's.

THE progress of Union Blend Tea continues to attract universal attention in Tea circles and a large share of attention from consumers and the public; you see it everywhere.

AFTER A COLD DRIVE a teaspoonful of Pain Killer mixed with a glass of hot water and sugar will be found a better stimulant than whiskey. Avoid substitutes, there's is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. 25c and 50c.

THE nature of the investments made by "The Temperance and General" may be judged from the fact—that it has never had to foreclose a mortgage—nor has it had a dollar of interest overdue December 31st, 1894, 95, 96, 97 or 98.

MRS. J. FARLEY, Bristol, has opened a millinery establishment in the post office building, and is showing a good variety of trimmed and untrimmed hats and bonnets, stylish and up-to-date in shape and color. Also a good assortment of ladies and children's underwear. Prices as low as the lowest.

AT THE home of Letchmer Weade, Royalton, Oct. 18th, by Pastor S. Greenlaw, in the presence of fifty guests, Miss May C. Weade to Mr. Hanford Greene, of Greenfield. After the ceremony a well prepared and sumptuous supper was served. The presents were numerous and valuable. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

ON Sunday morning next, a memorial service will be held in the Free Baptist Church, in commemoration of the organizing of it 65 years ago. A marble tablet to the memory of the organizers will be unveiled. Rev. Joseph Noble the only surviving original member, will preach the sermon. At this service Rev. J. U. Clarke will be formally inducted to the pastorate of the church.

A GREAT treat is in store for the people of Woodstock and vicinity on Nov. 11th and 12th when Commissioner Eva Booth and Major Pickering will pay their first visit to this town and conduct meetings in the Opera House and Town Hall. They will be accompanied by a number of Officers also little Pearl and Willie who will delight the people with their singing.

THE concert given in the opera house, Tuesday evening last under the auspices of the Albert street Baptist church, was fairly well attended. The attraction of the evening was Mrs. Reding Saunders, of Yarmouth, N. S. She sang three solos and had to respond to as many encores. Mrs. Saunders has a voice of great sweetness, and her selections were well chosen. The following is the program: Male Quartette, Messrs Mooers, Lockwood, Mitchell and Williams; violin solo, Mr. Williams; vocal solo, Mrs. Emma Reding Saunders; reading, Miss Clara Leighton; vocal duet, Mrs. Good and Mrs. Lockwood; vocal solo, Mrs. Emma Reding Saunders; violin solo, Mr. Williams; male quartette, Messrs Mooers, Lockwood, Mitchell and Williams; vocal duet, Mrs. Good and Mrs. Lockwood; recitation, Miss Faye Camber; vocal solo, Mrs. Emma Reding Saunders. God Save the Queen.
