Fisher of Woodstock died recently in Bartlett, Nebraska, whence he moved from this county several years ago. He was married and his wife survives. There is no issue. Death resulted from an affection of the heart.

GEO SMITH, a conductor on the C. P. railroad, is laid up on account of an accident received at Woodstock Monday. He was assisting in turning an engine on a turntable, when in some manner an iron bar which was lying near the rail flew and hit him just below the right ankle. The accident, though painful and necessitating a forced vacation, is nothing serious.—Ex.

GOES TO BE MARRIED.—Rev. B. T. Gaskin, well known all over the province as an evangelist, who is now residing at Meductic, York County, will leave at the end of this month for Middleboro, Mass, where he will be married to Miss Eliza L. Dougherty, formerly of Woodstock. The marriage will take place on Oct. 15th, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs Wm H Coy, in Middleboro.—Ex.

A BOSTON visitor complimented Woodstock on its fine asphalt sidewalk on Main street, east side. He says it is equal to any sidewalk he saw anywhere. There is certainly a contrast between the two sides of the street above Queen and Connell. The property owners on the east side must feel glad that they put in the curb, and those on the west side must feel as if they were being well punished for their lack of enterprise. On Saturday evenings it is noticeable that the crowd all walk along the east side. It must affect business.

PEEL Parish S. S. Convention will be held at Mount Pleasant on the 26th inst. Sessions beginning at 2 30 and 7 00 p. m. The convention will be made as profitable as the executive can make it. An interesting programme has been prepared consisting of Addresses, Music, Bible Lessons and such topics as pertain to Sunday School Work. As the grand object of these conventions is to incite to greater and more effective work on the part of Sunday Schools, the attendance of every Supt., Teacher and as many pupils as possible is requested in addition to the regular delegations from each school.

J. WOODSIDE LOANE, our hustling merchant, has lately completed a fine store on Main street, opposite the Ashland House. Mr. Loane carries one of the most complete stocks of crockery found north of Bangor. He also has the credit of placing the first plate glass. W. W. Loane, the well-known hardware merchant, has built at the railroad station a most commodious storehouse, it being 25 by 140 feet in diameter. Mr. Loane, besides carrying a full line of hardware and builders' supplies, deals largely in farmers' supplies. . . W. E. Thistle has rented the store formerly occupied by J. Woodside Loane, and will in the future carry on the drug business.—Ashland items in Ex.

THE will of the late Senator Temple was probated. The personal estate was valued in the petition at $23,400, and the real estate at $1,500, exclusive of some bonds in Manitoba, of which petitioner was not able to state the value. Hon. A. F. Randolph and the late Wesley Vanwart were named as executors, and letters testamentary were granted to Mr. Randolph. The testator's daughter, Mrs. Grosvenor, of Canterbury, gets thirty shares of stock in the People's bank; Mrs. Forester of Toronto, another daughter also gets thirty shares, and Mrs. Temple get ten shares. The widow is also given all his "estate in the county of Charlotte." The residue of the estate is to be divided equally amongst the three daughters. Mrs. Grosvenor Mrs. Forester and Mrs. Hilliard.

LAST week the weather was all that could be desired for this time of year, and we understand the Exhibition committee has given a repeat order for a similar supply of good weather for exhibition week.

WANTS TO BE PLANKED.—Complaints are made of the condition of the planking on the river bridge here. It is worn through and one day last week John Hughes' horse stepped clear through. There are holes in many places and it is really unsafe for travelling. This matter should be attended to at once.

ALWAYS JUST RIGHT—You never grumble and growl and say bad things about your tail or when we make the clothes. The kind of clothes we make wear longer too—just the way with everything that is made just right. All the desirable qualities are running over, but the price in comparison is only a drop in the bucket. W. B. Nicholson.

HARVEY MCCOY started to drive to Woodstock yesterday morning with Judge Wilkes, Montrose and Annie T. The latter two horses are entered in several of the classes to be trotted at this place on the 28th and 29th of this month. In view of the fact that the track here not being safe to speed to horse on in order to get him in shape, it was decided to send these horses to Woodstock and work them on that track from now until race day.—Friday's Gleaner.

COURT opened in Houlton yesterday. There are 369 civil, 15 equity and 67 criminal cases on the docket; and there were about 300 civil, and a number of criminal cases to be entered the first day of the term. Although there are a large number of cases on the docket, there are but few civil cases of any great importance that will be tried before a jury. The Ashland murder case will arouse much interest. Capital punishment, it may be remarked, has been abolished in Maine.

TROY'S RESTAURANT.—Don't forget that I opened a first class, up to date Restaurant on Connell street, May 1st, and have had to work night and day to supply my customers since I opened. People who visit the grand exhibition that will be held at Woodstock, the latter part of this month, would do well to call on me, as I have had 15 years experience in the business and know how to use people when they call. Meals or lunches served at all hours. I have fitted up an elegant dining room, upstairs over the Restaurant, and, during the exhibition to accommodate my many customers. Dinner will be served from 11 o'clock a m. to 2 o'clock p m. Supper from 5 to 8 o'clock. Fresh oysters are arriving on Tuesday's and Friday's of each week. I also keep a fine assortment of Domestic and Imported cigars, Confectionary, canned goods and Pastry of all kinds constantly on hand. Thanking my many friends in the county for their patronage since I started in business, and trusting that many others will give me a call during my first year, I remain,

Yours truly,

JOHN J. TROY.

Election Card

To the Electors of the Parish of Wilmot:

GENTLEMEN:—Having been solicited by a large number of my friends to allow myself to be nominated as a candidate in the coming election, I have at last consented to do so, hoping my views relating to parish matters in general will be so in conformity with your own that you will not hesitate to give me a very generous support.

I am not in favor of taxing the county from $25,000 to 25,000 to build a retreat for the criminal classes, which would only be an encouragement for those who violate the laws of our country.

I am in favor of a thorough investigation of all matters which may properly come before the council, and a prompt settlement of any claims due to or by the municipality.

I am also in favor of filling the country and parish offices with persons competent to perform the duties of them and only by persons qualified, otherwise as by law required. My temperance sentiment is too well known to need any comment. If I am elected I shall do my utmost to lower your taxes as much as possible, knowing as I do that the low price of farm produce and the increase of taxes from year to year that the burden that is now carried by those that till the soil may not become so heavy that they may become totally disheartened.

I am yours truly

E. L. WEST.
