ARTHURETTE.

The agitation that pervaded this place regarding the Dominion election has suddenly subsided since Nomination day.

Geo. Wright, A. Giberson and G. H. Finamore went on a hunting trip last week and returned with a fine moose head.

Miss Edith Murphy, Messrs. V. Camber, and B. Giberson have been calling at Geo. Wright's this week.

Oren Wright, who has been at Fort Fairfield since last April, has returned home.

The ball at Tweedale's hall last Monday was a complete success. Music for the occasion was rendered by Miss Bessie, Larlee of Perth Centre, and Wm. Wortman, of Red Rapids, in a manner that did them credit.

Miss Beatrice Wright is at present visiting friends at Perth Centre.

Soup suppers and oyster stews interspersed with raffles, seem to be the order of the day.

RED RAPIDS.

Mass was celebrated in the Catholic church Sunday by Rev. M. A. O'Keeffe, of Grand Falls. Ulla Langer spent the latter part of last week with her friend, Miss Hattie Roberts.

Many of the people are looking forward to a great horse hauling match which is to take place here Thursday the 15th.

Our farmers seem to be taking advantage of the favourable weather for plowing.

The young folks of Arthurette gave a surprise party at Chas. Roberts last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Price, of Presque Isle, are visiting relatives in this place.

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by a few of the young folks on Holloway's at Chas. Willet's.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boyer spent last Sunday with friends in Florenceville.

Mrs. H. MacLeary, of Andover, spent a few days with her parents.

C. H. Knapp, who has been spending a few weeks in Presque Isle, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. C. Leonard made a flying trip to Fort Fairfield Saturday.

F. Estey and W. Saddler stopped here on their way to Perth last week.

Many of our friends took advantage of the cheap excursion to attend the nomination at Grand Falls.

Ernest James is starting a new shop for the purpose of black-smithing, we understand, which will be quite convenient for the people of this place. All wish him success.

Miss Hitty Merrithew has gone to Lowell where she intends spending the winter.

Fish wardens are relieved, we understand, and think that after such a faithful time spent in their work they deserve a vacation.

Marshall Armstrong, of Perth, spent last Sunday in this place.

Mr. Fisher, of Birch Ridge, took a walk out on Sunday, and he being feeble got strayed in the woods and is stated lost. Many are in search of him.

Miss Annie DeYone spent a few days last week in Lower Perth with her friend Miss Cassie Stewart. They went on a fishing trip with J. Stewart to the Muniac and caught five dozen trout. Before getting home they spent a delightful evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. Mavor.

AVONDALE.

I am well pleased to say that C. C. Shaw our new merchant is doing a thriving business.

The farm work for the fall is now over and the young men are beginning to think of the woods.

The wood-working factory of J. E. Barter & Co. has a good steady run of work for the time of year.

The school here did not open the first of the term on account of the school house being out of repair, but the necessary repairs being now complete our school is running under the direction of Miss Bessie Carvell, of Lakeville, who is well liked by all.

The election is now over and it is to be regretted that the majority of Avondale's voters lost their votes by the defeat of Mr. Carvell. Nevertheless the general result was very satisfactory.

On Thursday evening the few supporters of Mr. Hale in this place gathered themselves together and celebrated his victory by building a bonfire in the centre of the public square. Some of those present acted in a very ungentlemanly manner.

Some references to Mr. Carvell and his family were unseemly and Mr. Hale himself (gentleman that he is) would certainly have disapproved of them.

The Golfer's Rubalvat.

Myself when young did eagerly frequent
The links and hear the players' argument—
Oh that I were a freckled caddie still,
Absolved from doctored scores, and innocent!
Earth's nothing but a nine-hole course at best;
The ball by king and peasant is adrest;
We have to start by teeing off, and each
Or soon or late holes down and is at rest.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—General Buller, accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived here this morning and reported to the War Office. Large crowds which had assembled at the Waterloo street station and in Pall Mall cheered the returning general, who received an ovation.

The War office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts:

JOHANNESBURG, Nov. 10.—Methuen surprised Commandants Snyman and Bermass near Lichtenburg yesterday. Three dead Boers were found and thirty prisoners and several waggons were captured. There were no casualties among the British.

Kelly Kenny reports that Major Macintosh of the Seaforth Highlanders occupied Philipopolis Nov. 4. The Boers fled in all directions. Three wounded were brought to our hospital. Surgeon Hartley and seven men were wounded.

Lyttleton reports that Kitchener successfully surprised the Boers during the night of Nov. 7. A mounted party of the 19th Hussars and the Manchester mounted infantry under Capt. Chetwode managed to pass the Boer outposts and while the latter engaged the picket the Hussars charged the Boers in the moonlight, sabring many. Chetwode and several non-commissioned officers behaved with great gallantry, but the Hussars would probably have suffered severely, as they got into bad ground, had not they been supported by the mounted infantry. In the morning artillery and infantry joined Chetwode in force, and completed the Boer route, who are said to have lost heavily.

Plaster Rock.

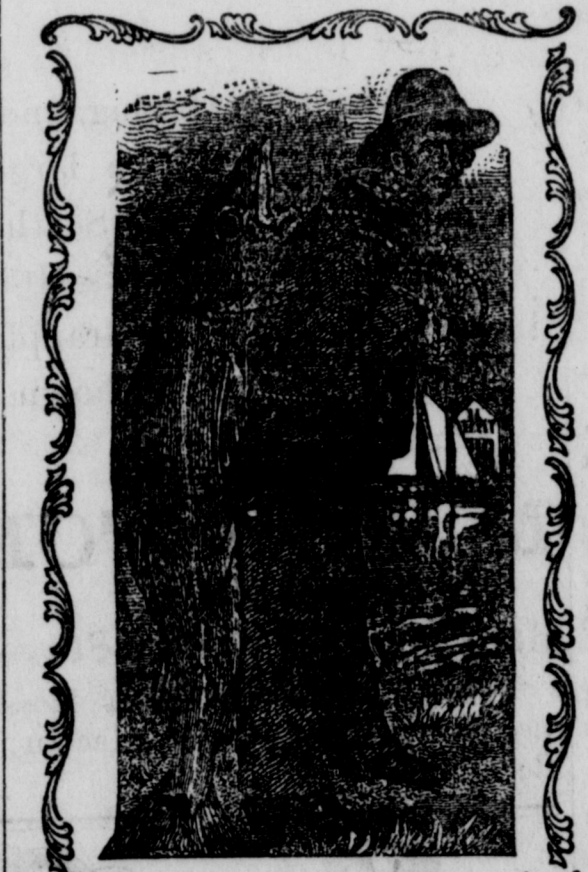

The parlor of W. Boyer's palatial hotel, Plaster Rock, was the scene of a pleasant social function one evening last week, when the many friends of Charles Brown presented him with a charming shaving mug, hand painted, and a wide open self-sharpening razor, 146 gear, Massey Harris model. These gorgeous presents were accompanied by an eloquent address, richly illuminated. The presentation was made by M. Courtenay, Esq., of the shingle mill. Rudyard Kipling McLean broke into verse on the occasion and wrote a poem of 167,000 lines on the event. The first two verses read as follows:—

Charles Brown you're the king of the buck-saw,
Dispersia you have at its best,
You diet yourself too much Charles,
You worry about your chest.

Your voice is as clear as a fog-horn,
The music you play is good,
But still 'tis generally admitted Charles,
You are better at piling wood.

Mr. Brown is a candidate for Mayor of Plaster Rock.

Robt. Hughes, son of John Hughes, who is in South Africa with the second Canadian contingent, had not been heard from for two or three weeks until yesterday, when his mother received a letter from him and one from Lieut. G. Good announcing that he was in the hospital at Kimberley and was recovering rapidly. Robt. sent a photograph of himself, Harry McLean and some other soldiers.

This picture is the trade mark of SCOTT'S EMULSION, and is on every bottle of SCOTT'S EMULSION in the World, which now amounts to many millions yearly. This great business has grown to such vast proportions,

First:—Because the proprietors have always been most careful in selecting the various ingredients used in its composition, namely; the finest Cod Liver Oil, and the purest Hypophosphites.

Second:—Because they have so skillfully combined the various ingredients that the best possible results are obtained by its use.

Third:—Because it has made so many sickly, delicate children strong and healthy, given health and rosy cheeks to so many pale, anaemic girls, and healed the lungs and restored to full health, so many thousands in the first stages of Consumption.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Married at Menominee.

Dr. W. H. Morse and Miss Emma G. LaLonde, both of this city, were wedded at the Stephenson Hotel, Menominee, Wednesday afternoon, October 31st. The Menominee Evening Leader has the following to say of the nuptials:

"The Stephenson Hotel was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon. Dr. William Hahburton Morse and Miss Emma G. LaLonde both of Marquette, were married in the parlor of the hotel at 2 p. m., the Rev. Henry J. Burdick officiating. The parlor was darkened and the effect of an evening wedding was perfect. The decorations were palms, roses and carnations. The bride carried a large cluster of carnations. She wore a light green travelling suit. The groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Morse, of Marquette, attended the wedding. The groom is a popular young dentist of Marquette. The bride is a young lady of beauty and culture. The couple left Thursday noon for their future home at Marquette."

Following the ceremony Hon. Sam Stephenson took the bridal party in charge and entertained it in grand style. Dr. and Mrs. Morse reside with their parents on Hewitt Ave."—Daily Mining Journal, Marquette, Mich., Nov. 5th.

Dr. Morse is well known in Woodstock where he at one time resided.

Miss Leona McIntyre is visiting her parents at present.

From Sea to Sea.

The Fit-Reform name stands at the top of the Canadian clothing business—not because we were the first to introduce the new system of making and selling (though we were—1897) but because we were not satisfied when giving you BETTER clothing it must be BEST—and by long odds best. It is this continual striving after something better that has made Fit-Reform what it is today.

The result is a stylishness of cut, a goodness of material and perfection of workmanship that you have never seen in ready-to-wear clothing unless you have seen it here.

Sixteen retail stores stretched from SEA to SEA emphasize Canada's appreciation of the reliability of Fit-Reform.

Suits and Overcoats $10, $12, $15.

SAVES TIME and TEMPER

The look of pain herein depicted,
The ragged collar that's indicated,
Reveals a story oftentimes told
Of collars NEW made to look old.

Now, if this man our laundry tried,
His collars all would be his pride;
No jagged edge would pierce his neck
And leave his nerves a shattered wreck.

LOOK HERE FRIEND!

Do you have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back? Do you feel dull and sleepy? Does your mouth have a bad taste, especially in the morning? Is your appetite poor? Is there a feeling like a heavy load upon the stomach? Sometimes a faint, all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach, which food does not satisfy? Are your eyes sunken? Do your hands and feet become cold and feel clammy? Is there a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly? Are the whites of your eyes tinged with yellow? Is your urine scanty and high colored? Does it deposit a sediment after standing? If you suffer from any of these symptoms,
