Mrs. F. D. Tweedie spent a very evening with Mr. and Mrs. Albert on this week.

Maude Gee is still at home with her enjoying their comfortable little home.

Helen Hutchinson is spending the home with her mother.

Centreville.

The winter!
 the glorious robe
 so pure and white,
 my pen from its long abode,
 seems again to write.

The school has recently been organized under the efficient management of Mr. Bourne, having an average attention of 50 pupils.

One of our village, in which is discussing Christmas stock, presents a appearance.

The hotel, owned by S. A. Perkins is completed, and adds much to the our village. We wish the process.

It is glad to report that Margaret S.
 is convalescent.

Linnie Scholey, teacher of the school, spent Sunday at her and also Rex R. Cormier, teacher of school.

Mr. R. Cormier, who has been is improving rapidly under the treatment of H. W. Peppers, B. A., of St. John's, N. B.

Mr. Gordon H. Cormier, who has on account of the severe illness returned to his home, Wick, Maine, on Tuesday.

Mr. Hunter who was very sick is recovering.

Dr. H. W. Peppers in attending.

 the 28th of last month.

Mr. Webber, who played here, in the past week.

Gallagher's hall recently was highly appreciated and drew large houses each night. He gave three entertainments and was good, for full houses, for at least a dozen more. We would like to see him again.

Dr. Commins went to Tobique on Monday last intending to do the shooting grounds of that famous country for two or three weeks.

Andover.

Rev. Mr. McPherson has become the pastor of the Presbyterian church here. He preached his initiatory sermon last Sabbath evening.

We hear rumors of another election.
 Our community has been greatly startled by the suicides of the past week. First at River de Chute a Mr. Flannigan cut his throat with a butcher knife while his hostess was preparing breakfast. On Friday morning a Mr. Franklin from Boston who was stopping at Heb. Larlee's about two miles below Perth Centre, shot himself with a revolver which he had purchased the preceeding day.

 Marster.

Mrs. C. A. Grosevevor is not very well at present.

Mr. Niles has moved into the Marsten house on the hill.

Vox Populi.

At a certain review recently held, a pompous member of a parliament found himself on the outskirts of a huge crowd. Being anxious to obtain a good view for himself and some ladies who accompanied him, and presuming he was well known, he tapped a burly cockney, who was taking a day off, on the shoulder, and said in a peremptory tone,
 "Make way there."

"Who are yer pushin?" replied the cockney.

"Do you know who I am, sir?" said the indignant statesman. "I am a representative of the people."

"Garn!" That ain't nothin," growled the man. We're the bloomin' people themselves."
