Holyoke won the prize for best handicap score in 133. The Misses Blanche Dibblee and Katherine Rankine and Mrs. Welch were even for the second handicap score in 135. The three latter will play off any day this week over nine holes.

A men's handicap tournament will be played on the links Thursday Oct. 18th in the afternoon. The play will be over twenty-seven holes, three consecutive rounds, and with bogey at 37, the handicap as below will be allowed. The men will play together as follows:—

On the completion of the course the score of the player shall be signed by the person keeping the score and handed to the secretary or to some person designated by the Green Committee.

If a ball be lost the player shall return as nearly as possible to the spot where the ball was struck, tee another ball and lose a stroke. If the lost ball be found before he has struck the other ball the first shall continue in play. A ball may under penalty of two strokes be lifted out of any difficulty and be tee, behind the same. Throughout the Green a competitor can have the other competitor's ball lifted if he finds that it interferes with his stroke. If a ball at rest be caused by any agency outside the match to roll into the hole the ball shall not be considered as holed out in the previous stroke but shall be replaced as nearly as possible in the same position as occupied before it was displaced. If the player's ball strike himself or his clubs or caddie the penalty shall be one stroke.

In the event of bad weather the match will not be played. The suitability of the weather will be decided by the committee.

Letters from Robert Hughes.

Robert Hughes of E. Battery, South Africa, who has been very ill in hospital, wrote letters to his home in Woodstock on August 9th, and they were received by his parents here on Monday, October 15th. He says he has been very ill indeed, practically at death's door, but he is recovering rapidly. He says that the physicians and nurses did everything they could for him. They always treat the Canadians well, he says. He expected at the time the letter was written, to be sent to England in three or four weeks, and thought he would be home by the last of October.

Heavy Rain.

The rains of last week were the heaviest continuous rains in the recollection of the old residents. They might well have made Noah shudder for the safety of his reputation. On Thursday last the downpour was fierce and the damage to the C. P. R. track was not slight. At Deep Creek a couple of miles below Hartland the down express met with an accident. The locomotive got over in safety but the cars went down. The washout at this point took away the highway bridge and the highway road from Hartland south is now impassible.

The Gibson train on Thursday got as far as Millville and had to return to Woodstock next day. John Watt of the Railway mail Service who was coming South on Thursday's express got into Woodstock on Friday with the up river mail. By Friday at noon the track at Deep Creek was rendered passible. Carleton County received the Thursday morning St. John papers on Friday which should have reached here on Thursday at noon. No other St. John mail reached here until Monday night. A special train that left Woodstock for Gibson on Sunday afternoon arrived at its destination on Monday morning.

Political Items.

Hon. A. G. Blair and Col. Tucker will oppose Hon. G. E. Foster and Dr. Stockton in the city and county of St. John.

Papa's Laundry in Use.

The little girl in the family was inclined to answer the doorbell about as soon as it sounded, and some times she gave answers to whoever might be there that were curious. One day the man who collects the packages of laundry was at the door and asked if the laundry was ready. "No," she replied. "Papa has got it on."

A Woodstock Edition.

The Grip Sack, a St. John monthly devoted to trade and travel, devotes eight pages to Woodstock in its last issue. It contains an interior view of the stores of George W. Gibson and W. S. Skillen, an interior view of Dr. Manzer's operating room, pictures of Charles G. Connell's houses on Chapel St., Balmain Bros. warerooms and offices on Connell St., the Maritime Wrapper Factory, and two general views of the town. Among other things Grip Sack says:—Woodstock is well fixed for newspapers. The Carleton Sentinel published here is, perhaps, the oldest paper in the province. The Press is not so old. THE DISPATCH is the newest paper in the field and is one of the brightest country weekly papers in the Maritime Provinces. It is owned and edited by Mr. Charles Appleby, Barrister-at Law. THE DISPATCH is not a political paper, it is a newspaper. It goes after the news, all the news, and it is after it all the time. A glance through its advertising columns proves that the merchants of Carleton County know a good advertising medium when they see one. THE DISPATCH has been in existence something over six years and during that time its business has been constantly increasing until today it has the largest circulation of any paper in the country. Besides a newspaper plant THE DISPATCH has the largest job printing establishment on the St. John river north of Fredericton.

Injured in a Fight.

Bertram Graham, a young man nineteen years old is lying at home with a fractured skull, the result of a scrap in J. D. Dickinson & Son's tannery on Saturday afternoon. Graham and a couple of other hands John Durant and his son Walter had a row in which Frank Dickinson acted as peace maker and arbitrator and the affair was apparently settled. Afterwards Graham went into a dark room to hang up some leather when he was struck on the head from behind. The Durants are in jail awaiting an examination before the Police Magistrate which cannot be held until Graham is able to get out.

Case of Assault.

In the Police Court on Tuesday morning there came up the case of Moses Williams against Hamilton Leith, both of the Parish of Wicklow. Mr. Williams said that Mr. Leith had assaulted him while he was driving Leith's cattle out of his yard. Mr. Leith told a different story and while admitting that there was a little tussle said he did not hurt Williams. The police magistrate fined Leith one dollar and costs.

BATH.

Ferry Boat Episode.—School Meeting.—Jas. Tucker Sick.

On Wednesday last the Hatheway ferry boat made its last trip for some time and many an indignant individual has returned from the ferry boat landings after being informed that the boat was not running. The cause of this unsatisfactory condition of things is that the wire is cut on the Wicklow side of the river and this is the second time within two years that this wire has been cut, so that between the dissatisfaction that has generally prevailed in the management of the ferry and the wire cutting we are a lot better off without that kind of a ferry. The circumstances which led up to the cutting of the wire last week, were, so the story goes, that Rupert Hutchison of Wicklow with a load of hay requested to be put across the river, this request was refused him for two days, when he at last gave up the attempt to get across, but before he left the Wicklow landing a terrific noise like an explosion was heard and the wire dropped into the river. Who did the deed will probably be settled by a jury. But in the meantime this place needs a ferry and somebody who would manage things right, so that if the wire was cut one day it would not take more than a month or so to mend it, and then go look for law afterwards.

On Saturday last School District No. 2, Bath, held its annual meeting, and the attendance was much larger than usual. The trustees reported that the educational and financial condition of the district was much better than it has been for years. Robert Squires was elected trustee, Thos. Bohan retiring. Dr. Commins was re-elected auditor, and Michael Bohan secretary to the trustees and district.

Jas. Tucker made famous by the recent Tucker case of two years ago is at present a very sick man and is liable to die.

Tom O'Donnell, sr., who had his ribs broken last week by a kick from a horse is doing nicely and able to walk around.

On Monday last the express from Presque Isle brought to Bath the body of Percy Green, which was taken to Canaan for burial. His death occurred in Aroostook County by accidentally shooting himself while partridge hunting. His mother's name was Kinney and she was a native of Canaan where the young man has many friends and relatives to mourn their loss.

Supreme Court.

The Supreme Circuit Court opened in the Court House, Upper Woodstock, on Tuesday afternoon, Judge Hannington presiding. Following are the juries:—

Grand Jury, W. W. Hay, Bamford Colpitts, Edward Bailey, Whitfield Ellsworth, Jas. Wilbur, E. B. Manzer, A. E. Jones, H. N. Payson, Jas. McManus, Jeremiah Bragdon, G. L. Holyoke, Wm. Plummer, Solomon Perley, W. R. Wright, Jas. Drysdale, I. E. Sheasgreen, John Carpenter, W. R. Snow, Alex. Henderson, Daniel Brooks, William Balmain, Samuel Jones.

Petit Jury, George W. Gibson, William J. Owens, George Palmer, Patrick Corbett, Ben McIsaac, Odbur Shaw, W. W. Melville, Hamilton Seeley, Chas. R. Carman, Joseph A. Wolverson, Alexander Bell, Chas. Gullivan, Leonard Harding, Chas. Simonds, Chas. Wilkinson, J. R. Tracy, Gideon Phillips, John Cronin, Webster Ross, G. S. Peabody, Uriah Hanson.

There were two cases on the docket. Nodden vs. Scott a trespass case, W. P. Jones representing the plaintiff and A. B. Connell, Q. C., the defendant; and Boune vs. Bradley an action for breach of promise of marriage, A. B. Connell, Q. C., for plaintiff and F. B. Carvell for defendant.

Little Currency in Use.

An illustration of how little real money, gold, silver and bank notes is used in every day business transactions was recently given in a day's clearings of one of the New York city banks. When the day's business amounted to over eleven million dollars was closed, and the checks, drafts, etc., added up, it was found that the amount due the bank was less than sixty dollars. It would be difficult to imagine a more forceful demonstration of the fact that commerce is not carried on by means of actual money, but by credit devices and substitutes for money.—Am Bankers' Journal.
