EAST FLORENCEVILLE

An oyster supper was held at James McIsaac's on Saturday evening, October 27th. A large number of people were present and spent an enjoyable evening.

It is said that Charles M. Burnham will move from Windsor where he is keeping store, back to this place and will occupy the two stores under Burnham's Hall.

KIRKLAND.

Christie McDougall still continues very ill. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and two children from Littleton, Me., have been visiting her father Mr. David Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan McDougall from Amity have been to visit her sister Mrs. C. Carter. The only daughter of Charles Ivey of Golden Ridge, York Co., is very ill. Dr. Saunders from Woodstock was to visit her.

Mrs. Cornelius McGillicuddy had a very large knitting party recently.

Mrs. Thomas Slater jr. had a knitting party a few days ago.

Master James Slater is visiting relatives at Union Corner.

Mrs. Patrick Friel has a young daughter, born Oct. 28.

Mrs. Robert Flemming is teaching the school in Monument Settlement and is well liked by pupils and parents.

ANDOVER.

Mrs. P. G. Fraser, of Grand Falls, died at her home, Saturday evening. Her remains were brought here on the 5th for interment. She was a daughter of the late George E. Jerry and sister of Mrs. J. A. Perley of this place.

The Union Hall in Perth was opened again on the 4th for public service. It has been boarded over the studding and then sheathed, which now makes it a very comfortable and pretty room. The stage has also been nicely fitted up. The committee certainly deserve credit for the way they have carried the work along.

D. Mott, of Queen's Co., was in town over the Sabbath.

Business around here is very good wages are high and it is hard to get men to do the work on hand.

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction about the way that Mr. Richards has served his party. When Mr. Foster spoke here he (Richards) claimed to be of Loyalist stock and held the same principles which his fathers had, and those that landed him to the skies can now only give vent to injured feelings. Sir Charles Tupper said of him: "He possesses exceptional qualifications for public life and Victoria will have in him a representative party will gladly welcome." Hon. Geo. Foster said of him: "In matters of principle where he is today you will find him tomorrow." Is it not wonderful the foresight that these great men have?

BRISTOL.

Rev. A. W. Hayward preached his farewell sermon in the Baptist church on Sunday evening, closing every successful pastorate of ten years. He intends entering upon Home Mission work for the next year. The church deeply regret, that Mr. Hayward decided to resign his charge of this field.

Rev. D. E. Brooks has bought Wm. Rogers new house and will move into the village in a few days.

Donald Foster arrested a suspicious looking character here on Sunday afternoon and took him to Woodstock. He is thought to be one of the burglars connected with the breaking into the Florenceville station.

John Meed spent a day or two on Miramichi last week, and was successful in bringing down a very fine moose.

A number of local politicians went to Woodstock on Wednesday to nomination and all returned confident that their man was sure of his election. This parish has been thoroughly canvassed and each party is counting on a large majority.

A pie social was held in the Egypt school house on Saturday night for the benefit of Rev. A. Giberson, and about $13 was realized.

MIDDLE SOUTHAMPTON

Rev. J. J. Barns has accepted the call from the Free Baptist Church of this place and commenced his yearly pastorate last Sunday evening.

Two tramps were arrested near Shogonook last Saturday morning. They are supposed to be the persons connected with the various sate breaking which has been going on lately.

N. W. Brown is away at present speaking for the liberal party.

MEDUCTIC.

News in this vicinity seems to be at a premium, nothing talked of but politics, and its getting stale. Saturday there was some excitement when it became known that two men supposed to be burglars were in the village in charge of Messrs Foster and Wolverton of Woodstock. On Hallowe'en the boys had their usual frocoes. Mr. Geo. Anderson has the cove bridge so that it can be travelled over. Quite a number from here spent Sunday in Houlton. H. F. Grosvenor is trying to get the use of the creamery for the winter on his own hook. It will otherwise be closed completely.

Sir Robert Hart on the "Yellow Peril."
The London Fortnightly Review publishes an article on China by Sir Robert Hart, director general of the Chinese imperial maritime customs. It is chiefly interesting because of the alarming opinions enunciated regarding the future by an experienced observer, who is probably more familiar with official China than any living foreigner. He declares that the boxer movement, although officially inspired, has taken hold of the popular imagination and will spread throughout the length and breadth of the country. He says it is purely a "patriotic volunteer movement," and that the boxer patriot of the future will possess the best weapons money can buy, and then the "yellow peril" will be beyond ignoring.

Sir Robert refers to the prospective growth of this Chinese movement as threatening the world's future, and says that 20,000,000 or more boxers, armed, drilled, disciplined, and animated by patriotic, if mistaken motives, will make residence in China impossible for foreigners. They will take from the foreigners everything the foreigners have taken from China, will pay old grudges with interest, and will carry the Chinese flag and Chinese arms into many a place that even fancy will not suggest today, thus preparing for future upheavals and disasters. In fifty years there will be millions of armed boxers at the call of the Chinese government. There is not the slightest doubt of that, and if the Chinese government continues to exist it will encourage, and will be quite right to encourage, uphold, and develop this national Chinese movement. It bodes no good to the rest of the world, but China will be acting within its rights and will carry through a national program. Sir Robert fears that the remedies are outside the range of practical politics, and looks to the future full of forebodings. Nothing but partition under certain conditions, or the miraculous spread of Christianity, can, in his opinion, avert the peril, and he does not see how either can be achieved. Failing these, the lawlessness of the present rising must be condoned and the Manchu dynasty supported. To this end it will be made to "lose its face" as little as possible, but the trade in arms will not cease, and our sons and grandsons will reap the whirlwind.

The article attracts much attention in London. The Times and Standard regard Sir Robert's judgment as warped by his long residence in China and by his sympathy with what can almost be called his adopted country. The Times rejoices that there is not is destruction of lung by a growing germ, precisely as mouldy cheese is destruction of cheese by a growing germ.

If you kill the germ, you stop the consumption. You can or can't, according to when you begin.

Take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil: take a little at first.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.

It acts as a food; it is the easiest food. Seems not to be food; makes you hungry; eating is comfortable. You grow stronger. Take more; not too much; enough is as much as you like and agrees with you. Satisfy hunger with usual food; whatever you like and agrees with you.

When you are strong again, have recovered your strength—the germs are dead; you have killed them.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

THE WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Lord Roberts telegraphs from Johannesburg, under date of November 4th, that in the operations in the Belfast district on November 2, Capt. Chalmer, of the Canadian mounted rifles, was killed, and Major Sanders, of the same command, was wounded.

PRETORIA, Oct. 31, via Bloemfontein, Nov. 4.—General French has arrived at the Springs, a few miles from Johannesburg, after a difficult march from Barberton. He has lost 1,500 transport oxen since his advance from Machadodorp. It is believed that the plan of moving large bodies of troops about the country will now be abandoned, and that the complete subjugation of the country will be attempted by means of garrisons in the district towns, which will be well stocked with provisions and made the bases for mounted troops, who will scour the territory round the bases. General Roberts, before starting on his return to England, thanked his bodyguard for their efficient services and presented to each of the men an autograph photograph of himself. The principal members of General Robert's staff will leave tonight for England. Col. Hamilton has been appointed military secretary to General Kitchener, on whom the military command has devolved. The new headquarters staff is being rapidly installed.

The mounted forces are being re-equipped. The New Zealand contingent left for Rustenburg today.

The greatest satisfaction is expressed by the British here because of the refusal of the Queen of the Netherlands to give an official reception to ex President Kruger upon his arrival in that country, and also because of the action of the Brussels authorities in refusing to permit any demonstration when Mr. Kruger reaches Belgium.

The remaining battalion of the Royal Canadian Regiment left for home today.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—A despatch from Paris to the Herald says the exhibition authorities have closed the Transvaal pavilion because Mr. Pierson, the Transvaal commissary general, refused to remove the inscriptions insulting to England, with which the walls are covered.

If God sits apart from nature, as some writers assume, He sits apart from it as the musician sits apart from the grand organ, with his fingers laid lovingly upon the keys, and His soul yearning for expression through nature, as the musicians soul longs to express itself through the infinite tones and moods of his complex instrument.

The Fit-Reform name stands at the top of the Canadian clothing business—not because we were the first to introduce the new system of making and selling (though we were—1897) but because we were not satisfied when giving you BETTER clothing it must be BEST—and by long odds best. It is this continual striving after something better that has made Fit-Reform what it is today.

The result is a stylishness of cut, a goodness of material and perfection of workmanship that you have never seen in ready-to-wear clothing unless you have seen it here.

Sixteen retail stores stretched from SEA to SEA emphasize Canada's appreciation of the reliability of Fit-Reform.

Joe Jefferson was asked what he considered the most amusing experience of his stage career, particularly in connection with his famous "Rip Van Winkle." "The most amusing incident connected with his play," he said, "was the receipt of a letter from a citizen in a small town where we had played the night before. He said he had enjoyed the performance exceedingly, and would not have missed it for anything in the world. It might be unusual, he said, for a stranger like him to write his thanks to so distinguished an actor—those are his words, not mine—in appreciation of the smiles and tears of a whole evening, but that, while he was thoroughly disinterested in the matter, he felt under an obligation, and would like to make some reparation and some return for the favor he had received as an auditor. 'I am an inventor,' he wrote, 'of a patent spring bed, and I would like to send you one of the spring beds as a present; all I would ask of you is just simply, when you walk up in a fifth act, you would say you wouldn't have felt so bad if you had been sleeping in Dunk's patent spring bed.'"
