What When a Woman Faints.

"What do you think we would better do now?" asked the pudgy man.

It was what the wide-chested man said that made the accident worth telling. They had gone to a ball at the West side armory. They had brought their wives. A great crowd was present. They sat in the gallery and watched the dancers. Neither had gone out often with his wife. They were prosperous enough in business but a little shy on social amenities. If an insult was to be resented both or either of them would know just what to do at any spot in the road.

When one of the women fainted from suffocating atmosphere of the overheated room, both of them looked as if they didn't know what on earth to do. The pudgy man knew he didn't know what to do under such complicated circumstances, and he turned helplessly to his wide-chested friend.

"What do you think we would better do now?" he asked, plaintively.

A dozen other woman had gathered around the swooning woman and were fanning her and pouring water on her forehead. The wide-chested man knotted his brows in thought and then said:

"Let us go and get a drink."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Woman's Welfare.

Paine's Celery Compound

Gives and Maintains a Perfect Condition of Bodily Health.

The great susceptibility of woman to nervousness and worry is heightened by the fact that, in the majority of cases they lead confined and monotonous lives, narrowed down to the four walls of home the greater part of the day.

Paine's Celery Compound is just what such nervous and depressed women need to restore their nerves to energy and to lift them out of their constipated, dyspeptic habit of body.

No other remedy known to medical men is so rich in flesh forming and energy-producing constituents for woman as Paine's Celery Compound. It is also a true and unerring regulator, keeps the blood pure and rich, and maintains an even condition of good health that makes a woman contented and happy. Mrs. Wilcox, of Creemore, Ont., writes as follows:

"For years I have suffered from constant sick headache and nervousness. At times I have been so bad that I have been unable to sleep two hours a night for weeks. I have tried many medicines and doctored a great deal, but never received a hundredth part of the value from them that I obtained from Paine's Celery Compound. After using three bottles I can sleep well, my headaches have ceased, and I feel healthier and fresher than I have been for years."

Gladstone's Levity.

While Mr. Gladstone interested his audiences immensely by his endless flow of animated remarks and brilliant historical criticisms, he failed altogether to convey to them the sense of greatness. Every one left his society pleased, amused, and perhaps delighted. But I cannot imagine anybody quitting it impressed with reverence. There was indeed a levity sometimes observable about him which was very antagonistic to reverence.

Dr. Martineau himself told me how disappointed he was when, meeting him after his great return to power, he said to him,

"What an opportunity you have for the great work before you—the consolidation of the empire!"

Mr. Gladstone shrugged his shoulders and said: Oh, I don't know about that. The clerks in the colonial office have got too much to do already."—Contemporary Review.

The Weight of a Bee.

Careful weighing shows that an ordinary bee, not loaded, weighs the five thousandth part of a pound, so that it takes 5,000 bees to make a pound. But the loaded bee, when he comes in fresh from the field and flowers freighted with honey or bee bread, weighs nearly three times as much.

A PAINFUL SCALD.

"I shall be glad when I get big enough to wash my own face," muttered little Johnny after his mamma had got through with him, "then I won't wash it."

Eczema on the Scalp

Would Itch and Burn until the Child Screamed with Agony—A Wonderful Cure Effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The case recorded here is one of the worst ever brought to the attention of Toronto's best physicians, and when doctors gave up all hope of recovery, Dr. Chase's Ointment was successful in producing a perfect cure.

Mr. James Scott, 135 Wright avenue, Toronto, states:—"My boy, Tom, aged ten, was for nearly three years afflicted with a bad form of Eczema of the scalp, which was very unsightly and resisted all kinds of remedies and doctor's treatment. His hair was in a terrible state. We had to keep him from school, and at times his head would bleed, and the child would scream with agony. For two and a half years we battled with it in vain, but at last found a cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment. About five boxes were used. The original sores dried up, leaving the skin in its normal condition. To say it is a pleasure to testify to the wonderful merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment is putting it very mildly."

Baron Almater 32913,

THE fashionably bred Wilkes-Mambriero Fainten Stallion, Standard Bred, Rule 1, American Trotting Register, Vol. 11, with Double Wilkes cross, three crosses of Mambriero Patchen and double cross of the great brood mare Alma Mater, with 8 in the 2.30 list—5 producing sons and 3 producing daughters; being sired by Baron Alexander 2833 (who was destroyed by fire when young) a full brother to Alfonso, with 11 in the 2.30 list at 3 years of age, son of Baron Wilkes 218, and Alma Mater; dam, RACHEL, dam of Blackbird 2261, at 5 yrs., and a full sister to Raven 219 and Edna Cook 212 by Alcantara 225, son of George Wilkes and Alma Mater; granddam, Rachel B. 2283, by Allie West 225—was the champion 5 year old stallion of his time and considered the best son of Almont. BARON ALMATER is a young horse, his oldest colts were only 3 years old last season, and in October last one of his colts trialed a mile in 2.18 and sold for $1500.00, and another trialed a mile in 2.29 and sold for $750.00, and a pair of his colts took first prize at Long Island horse show last fall and sold for $1300.00, for a gentleman's double hitch.—BARON ALMATER has got no record for the reason he never started in a race or started for record, but has gone a mile in his work in 2.23 as a 4 year old. But he is going to be limited to 40 mares this season and started in the fall for a record. BARON ALMATER has got the double cross of the blood that produced the two champion pacers of 1892, Soarlight 2.03, and Lady of the Manor 2.04, have the Alcantara cantara cross, which Baron Almater gets direct from his dam; so has Coney 2.07, the fastest and most successful of the green pacers out last season, having won 5 races. A combination of blood which in one season has two champions and carries three green pacers and a green trotter below the 2.10 limit is worth having, and you can get this winning combination from Baron Almater.

BARON ALMATER is a horse of rich breeding, for he has the golden double cross of Wilkes, one of the best sons of that great progenitor of extreme speed. Baron Wilkes is admittedly the most popular stallion of the day, and well he may be—for look at the race horses he sires, and the speed that is coming from his sons and daughters. Popular as Baron Wilkes is—Alcantara being an older sire—has a much larger list of winners, and more speed producing sons and daughters. These stallions tie for honors, as the champion sires of 12 performers, both having the same number; but Alcantara leads all stallions as the sire of 215 race horses. Baron Wilkes is the paternal, and Alcantara the maternal grandsire of Baron Almater; and Baron Almater's sire is from the dam of Alcantara. There can be no stronger combination of blood lines than these.

It is well known that the great "nick" for the Mambriero Patchen mares was George Wilkes.—These mares have more speed producing stallions sired by other stallions than by Wilkes. But the sons of George Wilkes from Mambriero Patchen mares have sired more 2.15 speed than the others have in 2.30. The Wilkes-Mambriero Patchen union is more fruitful of 2.10 speed than all other lines of blood combined. George Wilkes has 176 descendants in 2.10 and Mambriero Patchen 145. Baron Almater has the three best lines from Mambriero Patchen, including a double cross of Alma Mater, his most successful daughter, and one of the most famous of speed perpetuators.

This magnificent inheritance is further strengthened by the blood of Allie West, through his performing and great speed producing daughter Rachel B. 2283 the granddam of Baron Almater, Allie West 225 was the champion 5 years old stallion of his time and considered the best son of Almont, but died in his sixth year. The few foals he left were highly prized, and their speed producing descendants are valued more and more—especially by Kentucky breeders. Baron Almater has the best line from Allie West 225.

Back of all this Baron Almater has a cross to Wilkes's Mambriero, who sired the dam of that sterling race horse, and sire of game trotters, Santa Claus 2.17; Ericsson, sire of William's Mambriero, was the champion 4 year old trotter of 1890 and sired the dam of Moquette 2.10 champion 4 years trotter of 1892.

Alcantara it will be remembered was the fastest 4 year old of 1880; and George Wilkes the champion trotting stallion from 1868 to 1871.

BARON ALMATER'S inheritance is rich as the richest and strong as the strongest both in performing and producing blood. For further details call and get tabulated pedigree and the speed table in circular.

This horse is Wilkes on both sides.

This fashionably bred Stallion will make the season of 1900 an every stable Woodstock, N. B. Service Fee, $20.00.

"It's the devil for any one to tell me a secret, for it is sure to come out unprint."—HAZLITT.

They say that Grand Falls is going to be a big city, and that it is to have the biggest pulp mill in the world, and they said just about the same thing this time last year. While between the two periods they said nothing about it. Is there anything in the month of June that makes people tell big stories. It was in June for several years that we used to be told that the Centreville railway was a sure thing, and about this time each year we learn that the St. John valley is to be built. I hope there may be some truth about the Grand Falls scheme, but the June liar is around.

It is related of Baden-Powell that he never seems to be in a hurry. Quite probably he is rushed at times, like everybody else, but he somehow or other, manages to give others the impression that he is taking everything cool. It is a great advantage to be thus constituted, particularly where such a ticklish job as dealing with Boer strategy is in hand. We often say that such a one has no expression. In going through life the man who can suppress his feelings and the expression of his feelings is likely to be successful. One of the most difficult things is for a person to appear cool when really excited, but persons who possess this quality have often saved their own, and other lives thereby. It is this that makes the officer walk unconcernedly through what is generally described as a "hail of bullets." It is this that enables the statesman to wear a bland like smile under a howl of abuse, that makes the lawyer look calm and cool, while his learned friend is holding him up to the jury in a very poor light. Combine this power—for it is a sign of strength to control the facial expression with the power to keep silence under provocation and you have a man with a temper as well under control, as the restive horse which is so skillfully handled by an expert horseman. There are but few occasions upon which an expression of anger is advisable, no matter how fierce the fire may rage inwardly. THE IMP.

A Suggestion to Advertisers.

A Connecticut advertisement is as follows: F. KOCOUR.

Pants are made for men and not men for pants; women are made for men and not for pants. When a man pants for a woman and a woman pants for a man, they are a pair of pants. Mistakes are often made in such pants. Such mistakes are called "Breaches of Promise." Pants are like molasses, they are thicker in winter and thinner in summer. Men get on a tear in their pants and it is all right; but when the pants get on a tear, it is all wrong. There has been much discussion as to whether pants is singular or plural. Seems when men wear pants they are plural, and when they don't wear any, they are singular.

Don't be singular, try F. KOCOUR, 14 North Main street, South Norwalk.

Why Not Indeed.

She Was Pale and Languid

Too Nervous to Sleep, and Daily Grew Weaker and Weaker—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restored Health and Vigour.

Mrs. E. McLaughlin, 95 Parliament street, Toronto, states:—"My daughter was pale, weak, languid, and very nervous. Her appetite was poor and changeable. She could scarcely drag herself about the house, and her nerves were completely unstrung. She could not sleep for more than half an hour at a time without starting up and crying out in excitement."

"As she was growing weaker and weaker I became alarmed, and obtained a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. She used this treatment for several weeks, and from the first noticed a decided improvement. Her appetite became better, she gained in weight, the colour returned to her face, and she gradually became strong and well. I cannot say too much in favour of this wonderful treatment, since it has proven such a blessing to my daughter."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a blood-builder and nerve vitalizer of most unusual merit. In pill form, 50c. a box, at all dealers; or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.
