HELPED THE STRANGER.
The Surprise That Was in Store for a Newspaper Man.

A northern newspaper man happened to be in Atlanta, a stranger, on business connected with his profession. The city was crowded at the time, his accommodations were poor, and he had some difficulty in finding a suitable place to prepare his copy.

In this emergency he was courteously invited to make such use of the office of the Atlanta Constitution as he might desire, and he was not slow to take advantage of the opportune invitation.

On his first visit there a quiet, retiring fellow promptly surrendered his desk to him and modestly asked if he could be of any service. The visitor had a good deal to do and little time to do it in, and he found several ways of making the Atlanta man useful.

He had little hesitation in doing this because he was a man of some importance in his home office and was accustomed to have other members of the staff give way to him and perform little services when he needed such help.

The quiet man proved most obliging, not only on this occasion, but also on the following day, when the northerner had occasion to make use of the office again. He furnished some bits of information, accepted with becoming humility the rather brusque instructions of the visitor and attended to getting the copy to the telegraph office. The visitor, of course, thanked him, and the better to show his appreciation offered him a cigar.

Later, when about to leave the city, the visitor commented to another member of the Constitution staff on the extreme courtesy with which he had been treated and expressed a regret that he had not met Joel Chandler Harris.

"Harris!" exclaimed the local newspaper man. "Why, you were sitting at Harris' desk, and Harris was the man who filed your copy for you?"

"Great Scott," cried the visitor, "you don't mean Joel Chandler Harris?"

"Yes," was the reply; "that's who it was."
"Have I had 'Uncle Remus' running errands for me? Why, I'd have written my stuff on the floor rather than disturb him if I'd known who he was!"

THAT HACKING COUGH is a warning not to be lightly treated. Pny-Balm cures with absolute certainty all recent coughs and colds.

prietors of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.

The Charms of "Monte-Christo."

Lord Salisbury once told the following interesting and amusing incident at a meeting of a certain literary club. "One book," said Lord Salisbury, "has always fascinated me and on more than one occasion has drawn me out of bed very early in the morning.
This is Dumas' 'Monte-Christo.' A few months ago I was staying at Sandringham. I had my favorite with me, and about half past four in the morning I got up and went into the beautiful grounds and sat down for an hour or two to be 'carried away' by the book.
"I had been reading for about half an hour when I heard some one say. 'What! Are a prime minister's duties so heavy that he must needs be up so early in order to study?' I turned and saw the Prince of Wales. I showed him the book that had drawn me out so early, and he said laughingly that he would read such an apparently fascinating book.

"Three months afterward he said to me:
"Monte-Christo" drew you out of bed at half past four in the morning. I may say that it drew me out of bed at four in the morning."—London Gem.

Dorothy wordsworth to Coleridge.

Yes, do you send me a book for my birthday. Not a bargain book bought from a haberdasher, but a beautiful book, a book to caress—peculiar, distinctive, individual: a book that hath first caught your eye and then pleased your fancy, written by an author with a tender whim, all right out of his heart. We will read it together in the gloaming and when the gathering dusk doth blur the page, we'll sit with hearts too full for speech and think it over.

Cultivate poise.
Talk less and listen more.
Reserve your best thoughts for the select few.

Be gentle and keep your voice low.
Blessed is that man who has found his work.

We are not punished for our sins but by them.

Good people are only half as good and bad people only half as bad as others regard them.

If ever a new religion is able to impose new festivals and fast days on the human race, it is to be hoped that a SOLEMN WEEK OF RETURNING BOOKS TO THEIR OWNERS will every year precede the FEAST OF PROPERTY.

Truth is within ourselves; and "to know" Rather consists in opening out a way Whence the imprisoned splendor may escape Than in effecting entry for a light Supposed to be without.

politician is one who stays bought."

Nervous Debility.

A Sufferer From Weak Blood and Exhausted Nerves Tells of His Cure by Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. A. T. P. Lalame, railway agent at Clarenceville, Que., writes:—"For twelve years I have been run down with nervous debility. I suffered much, and consulted doctors, and used medicines in vain. Some months ago I heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, used two boxes, and my health improved so rapidly that I ordered twelve more.

"I can say, frankly, that this treatment has no equal in the medical world.
While using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I could feel my system being built up until now I am strong and healthy. I cannot recommend it too highly for weak, nervous people."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a tonic and restorative of inestimable worth.
It makes the blood rich, the nerves strong, it increases the weight, and cures all weaknesses and diseases of the nerves and blood. In pill form, 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Hates and Co., Toronto.

A Hard Slap.

"We're going to live in a better neighborhood hereafter," said Mrs. Uppish, the objectionable next door woman.

"Oh, so are we!" replied Mrs. Pepprey.

"Oh, are you going to move too?"

"No. We're going to stay right here."

Croup, the dread of every mother, is instantly relieved by Bentley's Liniment.

Force of Habit

"I saw you take some money out of one pocket and put it in another," said one of the delegates at a convention.

"Yes," answered the cold blooded politician. "It's force of habit. I just voted for myself."

A Terrible Cough.

If people would only treat coughs and colds in time with the Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, there would be fewer homes desolate.

The severest coughs and colds, bronchitis and croup, and the first stages of consumption yield readily to this powerful, lung-healing remedy.

Read what Mrs. Thos. Carter, Northport, Ont., says: "I caught a severe cold, which settled on my throat and lungs, so that I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I also had a terrible cough which my friends thought would send me to my grave. I tried different remedies but all failed to do me any good until I took Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and the contents of one bottle completely cured me."

LORD KITCHENER.

The Iron Man of the British Army.
LONDON, Oct. 19.—Mr. Alfred G. Hales, the famous war correspondent of the 'Daily News,' who has returned to London, has in an interview with a representative of that paper given the following impressions of Lord Kitchener:

'I have seen men,' he said, 'go into Kitchener's quarters swaggering and laughing, and come out looking like plucked birds.'

'All the fine feathers gone?'
'My word! I've asked more than once what happened. "Well," came the answer, 'one look is enough for me. It makes your blood run cold.'"

'And do you think that such a man is likely to inspire confidence? Lord Roberts is loved by his army.'

'A man might disobey Lord Roberts, but Kitchener—!'

'Well, did Kitchener come into touch with these men?'

'Yes; and when he did their jaws fell, I promise you. Why, he told some of them one day he wondered they didn't bring ladies' maids to curl their hair for them. He went down to Capetown and found dozens of them having a good time in a swell hotel there, full of rank and fashion. "Well, gentlemen, what are you doing here?" "On leave, my lord, and this is the—haw—only good hotel in Africa—haw—haw—"

"On leave, eh?" "Yes, my lord. There's nothing—haw—haw—doing just now." "Oh, well, gentlemen, you'll either take the next train back to the front—there's one in two hours, I believe—or—the next boat to England."

'You can always spot one of Kitchener's men. They mind their business and don't care for anything else. They are soldiers, and their duty is to fight, and to win. If not, to die. I believe that this war would have been over months since if Kitchener had been in command.'

'Good heavens! surely Roberts has done splendidly?'

'A magnificent soldier, but I think Kitchener would have done the work quicker.'

'How's that?'

'Those brilliant flanking movements are slow. Kitchener believes in frontal attacks.'

'But what slaughter!'

'Well, there wouldn't have been thousands of deaths from enteric fever, anyway.'

'This is Mr. Hales's view. The war, in his opinion, teaches this lesson.'

'And Lord Kitchener—?'

'I think he is another Wellington. Terrible —a man without bowels—without a friend—hated by many—feared by all—but a man who will put things through—a man who believes that it is a soldier's work to fight and win—or die. Now the sight of our transports crawling, lumbering along used to make my blood boil. Kitchener would have cut the baggage down by half. Half of the waggons laden with officers' luxuries—Tommy never got any. He did cut them down when he had the chance. Mind, these are no hasty conclusions. I was there for nine months, and I didn't go about with my eyes shut.
He's a fine judge of men, too. Do you think he'd let his officers go loafing about cities and towns? No fear.'

Kidney Disease and Backache

Mr Patrick J McLaughlan, Beauharnois, Que., states: "I was troubled with kidney disease and dyspepsia for 20 years and have been that bad I could not sleep at nights and suffered terrible agony. I tried all sorts of medicines but got no relief until I began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They made a new man of me and the old troubles seem to be driven out of my system." One pill a dose, 25 cents a box.

Care of Rings.

"Don't wear your rings under gloves unless you remember to have them thoroughly examined twice a year," is the advice given by a jeweller. The constant friction wears out the tiny gold points that hold the stones in place, and unless strict attention is paid to them they become loose in a very short time. Small purses of suede leather are made on purpose for rings, or any soft pouch of skin or chamois may be used to place the rings in when desiring to carry them about with one. They should never be put into the ordinary pocket-book, as the rubbing against coins is also bad for them. Diamonds can be cleaned at home to look as well as when done by a jeweller, if only a little trouble is taken. They should be thoroughly cleaned in alcohol and then polished with boxwood sawdust.

Italy's new king, according to Europe's political gossips, is going to set a notable example for other crown wearers in the way of improving the conditions in his country. He is said to have declared that "all of Italy's troubles are due to want of principle in her official life," and he promises to drive out this spirit. Every public officer, he says, shall do his duty so long as he, the present king, is on the throne. Speaking for himself, he declares, "I love work, and I am willing to be the public's first servant, but I insist that those under me work as much as I do. As to my Ministers, they shall no longer promise things they cannot fulfil. The people must regain faith with the government. Hence, we must keep faith with the people."

Torpid Liver Headache

And Biliousness Made Life Miserable for Three Years—Health Restored by Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Having a direct action on the liver, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are invariably successful in curing liver complaint, torpid liver, and the headaches and stomach troubles resulting therefrom.

Mrs. Faulkner, 8 Gilderleeve place, Toronto, says:—"After doctoring without success for biliousness, liver complaint, and sick headache for over three years, I am glad to testify to my appreciation of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. At first they seemed a little strong, but being both searching and thorough in their action, amply repay any inconvenience by after results. I am feeling better in every way, and my headaches have entirely disappeared.
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are certainly the best I have ever used, and I freely recommend them."

The liver is responsible for very many ills of the human body. It is always made healthy, active, and vigorous by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.
