Every effort is being made by the St. John Exhibition Association to avoid a clash of dates between their show and that at Halifax, and it is hoped that the latter will meet the St. John advances in a friendly spirit. The dates of opening for St. John had been named for the tenth of September, that of Halifax for the twelfth. St. John has offered to either precede or follow Halifax if the latter will open either on the 14th Sept., or the 1st. The public await the Halifax reply with much interest.

C. M. SHERWOOD, Centreville, has just received another lot of furniture from N. S., including cheap lounges, good centre tables and stands and eleven different kinds of chairs, some beauties. Another lot of good couches and lounges from Toronto, of exceptional value just in. About a week later he expects a general assortment of choice furniture in a special furniture car from Upper Provinces. Ready made clothing and furniture seem to be his specialties.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Holyoke were called to Decease by the death of Mrs. Holyoke's sister, which occurred last Saturday.—Pioneer.

COLONEL H. H. McLEAN, acting for the Militia department, filed plans of the properties it is proposed to take from the late Joshua Corkery estate, Count R. V. deBury and the Turnbull Real Estate Company for the new rifle range. There will be a thirty foot right of way to the property along the side of the Shamrock Athletic grounds and the property will start from the rear fence of these grounds and extend 1,200 yards. It will be 100 yards wide at the end and 300 yards wide at the extreme northern end, where there is a hill one hundred and sixty feet high, forming a natural stop. The filling of these plans giving the government immediate possession, and it is understood that the architects of the department will at once prepare plans of the butts, etc., and work will be pushed, so that in about a month's time the range will be ready for use. There will be room for ten targets, and the range will be finest city range in Canada.—St. John Globe.

On Saturday night the steamer Aberdeen landed at her wharf here one hundred and twenty barrels of granulated sugar for C. M. Sherwoods Woodstock store. This was bought before the recent advance in the price of sugar and so long as it lasts will be sold at the old prices.

THE JOURNAL OF COMMERCE SAYS:—"The Temperance and General Life Assurance Co., is in such a position as to attract those who desire life insurance under conditions that obviate all risk of its finances being manipulated to enrich a few stockholders at the sacrifice of the policyholders."

WOODSTOCK was rejoiced over the news, which announced the fall of Pretoria, last Wednesday, (premature though it was). Flags were soon put out, and in the evening the band turned out and played a number of patriotic airs, big fire crackers were set off, and two large bon-fires burned.

R. W. Bulloch is showing this week, children's white cloaks at reasonable prices, girls' big, cle gloves, belt-buckle, ribbons, veiling, laces, blouse waists, hosiery and corsets in all sizes from 18 to 36, also curtain nets, bunting in plain colours red white and blue at 6cts per yd, and a fine assortment of prints and figured muslins.

J. S. Eagles of Woodstock, representing Merritt Bros. & Co. St. John, was on the north shore of New Brunswick this week. He returned home Saturday. Merritt Bros. & Co. have a large warehouse at Woodstock and carry a large stock of groceries there. Mr Eagles looks after it and reports business increasing.—Railway News.

KEYS BROS. of St. Stephen sold their famous little pacing mare Ray Wilkes to A. E. Morgan of Pembroke for a good price. This speedy little beauty is by Lumps out of Hattie Clay, is eight years old, and has a record of 2.21. It is understood that she is bought for Boston parties, but she will start in the races through Maine and New Brunswick until September.—Ex.

ON FRIDAY evening June 8th in Scholey's Hall, the young people of Centreville intend giving the operetta, "Grandfather's Birthday." The chorus will consist of about fifty voices, and it is hoped that many will avail themselves of this opportunity to attend an entertainment which has been so great a favorite with the public. Doors open at seven. Curtain rises at eight. Admission, adults 20 cents, children 15 cents. Proceeds for building fund of Baptist church.

THE Improvements on the gaol are proceeding satisfactorily. A sewer has been built with a fall of some twenty feet, a new foundation has been put under the entire building, an annex 18x20 is being built on the west end of the building. The renovating of the interior is not yet commenced. When the council meets more money will be secured and everything will probably be well completed by fall, including the repairs on the Court House. It will be remembered that Chief Justice Tuck urged upon the Grand Jury the need of making improvements in the Court House.

A VERY SAD fatality occurred at Middle Simonds last week. On Monday, Byron Raymond, aged 15, son of Charles Raymond of Simonds was coasting down a hill on his bicycle when the wheel became unmanageable. He ran into a fence, striking his head with considerable force, but the accident was not considered dangerous at the time and the boy seemed to have nearly forgotten the trouble. However on Thursday he suddenly complained of illness, and immediately became delirious. Messengers were at once sent to Hartland for Medical aid but when the doctor arrived the young fellow had died. Concussion or paralysis of the brain was the undoubted cause.—Advertiser.

A WELL-KNOWN Woodstock figure passed away quite suddenly Friday evening in the person of William H. Courtland. He came to Woodstock many years ago and married a Miss Bessie Stevens, who survives. They had no children. Mr. Courtland had been in poor health for a long time past suffering from a disease of the stomach. He was taken seriously ill on Friday and passed away towards evening. For a long time he has been sexton of the Methodist church, and during the celebrations of late victories was always on hand to ring the bell. It was noticed that this bell did not ring on the reported surrender of Pretoria. Few people knew the reason. The faithful old sexton was dying.

For actual value Union Blend Teas appear to have no equal.

DURING last winter there were shipped from St. John, N. B., to trans-Atlantic ports 14,526 standards of deals, or about 29,000,000 feet.

Also a new line for children just in at very low prices.

NEVER IN THE history of C. M. Sherwood's trade has he sold half as much clothing in a given length of time as this spring. Two years ago he lost a little trade which went to Toronto. This caused him to make wide researches, looking very closely into the matter on all lines of goods, the result of which is today he is doing at least 25% better for his patrons than can be done at Eaton's or any where else, save Centreville, and will back up this statement by any sized wager, with competent judge. Wool wanted in exchange for cloth or clothing.

Challenge.

I hear that Josiah R. Murphy is making some cheap talk about my stallion "Speculation." I hereby challenge him to trot his stallion against mine on Woodstock track any time in September, and will meet him at any place he chooses, and deposit $50 as a guarantee of my good faith. This offer is open for thirty day.
