DEBEC.

On Tuesday evening June the 12th, a public literary meeting was held under the auspices of the Epworth League at Debec, subject "Local History". The meeting was opened at 8 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Parkins. After singing an appropriate hymn, prayer was offered by Rev. A. Archibald. The following programme was then rendered and much enjoyed.

Introductory address by Rev. W. Parkins. A paper on the history of Elmwood, W. E. Flemming; The history of McKenzie Corner, by Everett Atkinson; The history of Limestone, by Joseph Benn; and of Debec by Robert Flemming; A solo "My Mother's Prayer" by Annie Pickler; Recitation for the Honour of England, by Wilda Henderson; recitation "Brown's Mistake," by Ernest Benn; addresses, by Rev. Father Carney, Rev. A. Archibald and Mr. E. Ross, teacher. Good selections were sung by the choir, Miss Ethel Dickinson presiding at the organ. A very pleasant and profitable evening was spent.

Collection $5.65 in aid of the supernumerary fund. After singing the National Anthem Rev. A. Archibald closed the meeting with the Benediction.

Enoch Lovely of Perth spent Tuesday night in this place.

J. K. Flemming of Peel, Car. Co., gave us a pleasant call today.

Mrs. J. Wark of Sisson Ridge has been very sick, but is better now.

WEST GLASSVILLE.

The weather is clear, the farmers have their crops all in and expect to begin road working very soon.

Four of our young ladies, Misses Lily and Eliza Wilson, Miss McLachlan, and Miss Kate Ronald took a trip to Woodstock on Wednesday last and returned Friday.

Thomas Milton, one of our oldest residents, has taken up his abode with his son-in-law, Harvey Fisher of East Glassville, his farm here having been purchased by Wesley Releeder, one of our enterprising young men.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Perry (not long since), was brightened by the arrival of a little stranger, a boy.

Miss Rose Jones, who has been spending the last few years in Boston and Hudson, Massachusetts has come home to spend the summer with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jones.

Samuel Hugard of Foreston has been visiting friends of this place.

CENTREVILLE.

Mr. Cahill, of Prince William, was in town Wednesday of last week and as a result two hearts were made to beat as one. And if reports are true he will soon be with us again on the same business which speaks very highly of the esteem in which this reverend gentleman is held by the people of this county.

Rev. E. W. Simonson has been sent to this mission, filling the vacancy made by Mr. Flewelling who left some months ago to take charge of a field in York Co. Mr. Simonson and wife are boarding at Mr. Webb's.

The Baptist Quarterly meeting convened at Centerville last week beginning on Friday and ending Sunday 17th. The weather was beautiful and people from all over the county and many from Victoria County availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting old friends as well as attending the meetings. Friday night Mr. Martin, pastor of the Albert street church in Woodstock, preached one of the ablest sermons of the session to a large audience. The subject of his discourse will be found in Matt. 6 chap., 10th verse, "Thy kingdom come." During the service the Albert street quartette composed of Messrs. F. Moore, H. Lockwood, Rev. W. S. Martin and I. W. N. Baker, rendered some very appropriate selections. Also a quintette was given, entitled "Rock of Ages," Mrs. Lockwood taking the obligato. Your correspondent will on behalf of the people of Centerville most heartily thank these people for their kindness in aiding the opening of the session and extend a cordial invitation to them to visit us again in the near future.

S. A. Peckins is pushing the work of repairing the hotel that he purchased lately. He has several men at work and intends renovating the building from cellar to garret. He intends equipping it with all modern improvements and making a first class house of it, so that when the house is opened the travelling public can prepare to be right royally entertained and we shall expect that the commercial trade will make it a point to spend Sunday in our village.

Nicholas Ruggles the popular and hustling representative of C. M. Sherwood was in town Monday fitting up a new line of samples prior to his trip through the northern counties. Mr. Sherwood is very fortunate in securing a man so competent to handle his staple line among the farmers of Carleton and Victoria Counties.

HOLMESVILLE.

Crops are coming on fine, farmers all through with crops, prospects for the future bright. All hands will be called on to make roads next week which is much needed.

J. C. Green and wife, Bath, were the guests of A. T. Ruff on Sunday at Ruff Valley.

William Smith and wife, Bath, were at the Mineral Spring this week for their health.

A. T. Ruff the veteran sewing Machine agent at Ruff Valley was at Woodstock this week.

Evlin Bell, Bristol was in town today on Business.

Rev. Father Bradley, Florenceville, passed through the village Monday.

Frank Doherty and Frank McElroy were to Woodstock on business this week.

Mrs. Esau Holmes who has been confined to the house we are glad to see is able to drive out.

Frank Doherty one of our most prominent young farmers, politician and correspondent of the Hartland Advertiser is about to start a new business under the name of Doherty & Hurley to do general farming, stock raising and nursery business. We wish them success in his new venture.

There is lots of work to do here at the present repairing up and building the barns destroyed by the big gale last spring. James Broad has a new barn to build for James Pearce and one for Stillman Lochart.

Mrs. David Broad has gone to Andover to visit friend.

Don't forget to go the basket social at the Orange Hall on Wednesday the 20th, if you would enjoy a pleasant time.

We were very busy getting in our buck wheat last week, the reason we didn't send in a grist for THE DISPATCH.

James Broad has the new bridge across the Holmes brook nearly completed.

E. Hagerman, and W. Holmes held a very interesting meeting in the Orange Hall last Sabbath.

MEDUCTIC.

The camp meetings began here on Thursday evening, the wet weather made the attendance slight, Friday and Saturday evenings were better attended, but on Sunday morning the teams and bicycles began to arrive. Large numbers were from Woodstock, Benton, Canterbury, Hawkshaw, Campbell Settlement, Southampton, Northampton and all intermediate points, 500 or 600 crowded into the village. Beside the evangelist B. T. Gaskin, Revs. Messrs. Barton, MacDonald and Coy were in attendance. All this week Rev. Mr. Irvine, of Maine, is to be present. Services morning, afternoon and evening will be continued until next Sunday night. A number of other ministers will be present.

A large number of people from Meductic, on Friday attended the parish S. S. convention at Grant's crossing. Both the afternoon and evening sessions were well attended. The next convention will be held in September in either the Dow Baptist church or the Hillman Free Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hatfield are attending the Quarterly meetings at Centerville.

Miss Barton and her brother, of Richmond, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Hatfield.

Mrs. P. S. Marsten and daughter, Violet, and Miss Gibson, of Northampton, are visiting Mrs. I. W. Marsten.

R. A. Sinclair, of St. John, is in the village.

H. F. Grosvenor and P. S. Grosvenor each have a new carriage, fitted with rubber tires.

Miss Margaret Rogers is spending the week with her parents.

FLORENCEVILLE.

Many from this place went to Bristol on Saturday afternoon to witness the raising of the flag over Mr. Brittain's new roller wheat mill, all engross themselves as having enjoyed very much the visit to the mill, the patriotic speeches and the picnicking on the lawn.

Among the students who have recently arrived home to spend vacation are D. W. Hamilton from U. N. B., Jack Hume from Sackville Academy, and Miss Mary McCain from Wolfville Seminary. Miss Edith Wallace spent Sunday in the village.

OUR ANNIVERSARY.

One year ago 15th inst. we re-opened our Jewellery Business on the corner of Main and Queen streets our present quarters and in response to a public invitation our old customers and friends from one end of Carleton County to the other and also from the adjacent counties came in to welcome us back and to renew the patronage they had given us for half a lifetime, while every week since new customers who have been unable to find a satisfactory Jewellery Store in every respect elsewhere have become our regular patrons. This has been very complimentary and also very satisfactory to us and for these evidences of good will and good judgment we publicly thank you one and all. Many of our old friends we will miss whose just lives have been very helpful to us, to their families we extend our sincere sympathy for in their bereavement we too have lost a friend.

We renew our invitations for the future to call and see us, the latch string of our door is always out, you are not only at liberty but welcome to come in our store whether you want to buy or not, we will treat you kindly and give you good advice whether the subject be a pair of Spectacles, a Marriage License, or a job of Hand Engraving.

Yours very truly,
W. B. JEWETT.

"Jewett's Corner."

CLEAR VIEW.

St. Bartholomew's church, Clear View, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday morning June 13th. The contracting parties being Thomas J. McDermott, of Lowell, Mass., and Miss Mary C. Crane, of Clear View, N. B., who of late has been residing in Lowell. Rev. Father Frances Bradley celebrated the nuptial mass and performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was handsomely dressed in a gown of white mull, the bridal veil was fastened with a wreath of forget-me-nots. The bridesmaid was Miss Rose J. Crane, sister of the bride, who also was prettily gowned in white. Patrick Crane acted as best man. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's father, Richard Crane, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of. The Rev. Father Bradley said grace, the immediate friends of the contracting party being present. After a wedding tour to points of interest in Canada and U. S. they will reside in Lowell, Mass., where the groom is connected with the L. & S. branch of the Massachusetts General Electric Company.
