Shave, Sir?
A bald-headed man, with four days' growth of beard on his chin, went into a barber's shop and sat down in one of the operating chairs. To him presently went the knight of the razor, who remarked, interrogatively,
"Shave, sir?"
"No," growled the man in the chair. "I want to be measured for a suit of clothes." This statement seemed to surprise the barber, but he managed to say, "This isn't a tailor's shop, sir."
"Isn't it?"
"No, sir."
"What is it?"
"It's a barber shop."
"What sort of work do you do in this shop?"
"Shave men and cut their hair, sir."
"Do you think a man with no hair on his head would come in here to have his hair cut?"
"No, sir."
"Do I look like a lunatic?" This was replied to by a silent shake of the head, but the barber doubtless thought he was acting like one.
"Then, presuming me to be a sane man, but bald headed, what would you naturally suppose I came here for?"
"For a shave."
"Then, my dear sir, why did you ask me if I wanted a shave, when I took a seat in your chair? Why didn't you go to work at once? If some of you barbers would cultivate a habit of inferring, from easily ascertained data, instead of developing such wonderful conversational and catechetical powers, it would be of material aid in advancing you in your chosen vocation, and of expanding your profits. Do you comprehend?"
"Yes, sir," replied the man, as he began to lather the customer's face in a dazed sort of a way, and he never even asked him if he wanted oil on his hair when the operation was performed.—Tit-Bits.

Itching Piles
Mr. O. P. St. John, Dominion Inspector of Steamboats, 246 Shaw street, Toronto, writes: "I suffered for nine years with itching piles. After trying many remedies in vain, I began to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and it has entirely cured me." More people have been cured of piles by using Dr. Chase's Ointment than by all other treatments combined.
It never fails to cure piles.

Thrift.
The judge looked down over his spectacles at the fair plaintiff.
"Decree is granted with restoration of plaintiff's maiden name," he said.
The plaintiff arose and and thanked the judge. Then in her high, clear soprano, she remarked:
"Might I ask your honor to reserve the last clause of your decision for three months?"
"Which clause do you mean?"
"The one referring to the resumption of my maiden name."
"And why?" inquired his honor, "and why do you ask this?"
"Because," replied the fair one, "because I have quite a quantity of my old calling cards on hand and I hate to see them wasted."—

DIAMOND DYES
The Simplest and Easiest Way of Home Dyeing.

Their Great Superiority over all other ways of Home Dyeing—A Ten Cent package will Color from One to Five Pounds of Goods—Colors that Will Not Wash Out in Strong Soapsuds.

Success in home dyeing depends wholly upon the kind of dyes used. With Diamond Dyes, if the simple directions on the package are followed carefully, and the special dyes for cotton are used for cotton and mixed goods, and the wool dyes used for all-wool goods, there is absolutely no chance of failure.
Diamond Dyes are very simple and easy to use, and by using a stick to lift the goods while in the dye bath, there is no need of soiling the hands. For beauty, brilliancy and fastness, no other dyestuffs, whether for home use or for the dye-shop, equal the Diamond. The latest scientific discoveries are used in their manufacture, they are guaranteed the strongest and fastest of all known dyes, and will not wash out in the strongest soapsuds, nor will they fade when exposed to the sunlight.
Try Diamond Dyes once, and see how easy it is to make old and faded dresses, waists, ribbons, capes, jackets, etc., look like new.

He Didn't Like London.
An Irishman was one day in the last century passing Newgate Prison, London, when he saw a man being hanged. "What is that man being hanged for?" exclaimed Pat. "For having to much too say," said a bystander.
"If that's the case," said Pat, "I won't speak at all." So with that he put his hat up to his mouth and marched off. As he was passing St. Bartholomew's Hospital, a student asked him if he had toothache. Pat did not answer, so the student took him aside, sat him in a chair, and asked which was the tooth affected. No answer came from Pat, so the student pulled out the one which he thought was the bad one. When Pat got Too Nervous to Sleep, and Daily Grew

Mrs. E. McLaughlin, 95 Parliament street, Toronto, states:—"My daughter was pale, weak, languid, and very nervous. Her appetite was poor and changeable. She could scarcely drag herself about the house, and her nerves were completely unstrung. She could not sleep for more than half an hour at a time without starting up and crying out in excitement.
"As she was growing weaker and weaker I became alarmed, and obtained a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
She used this treatment for several weeks, and from the first we noticed a decided improvement. Her appetite became better, she gained in weight, the colour returned to her face, and she gradually became strong and well. I cannot say too much in favour of this wonderful treatment, since it has proven such a blessing to my daughter."

don't speak they pull your teeth out."

Kidney Disease and Backache Mr. Patrick J. McLaughlin, Beauharnois, Que., states: "I was troubled with kidney disease and dyspepsia for 20 years and have been that bad I could not sleep at nights and suffered terrible agony. I tried all sorts of medicines but got no re-

Hats Off!
Mr. Spurgeon on one occasion was much annoyed by three young men persisting in wearing their hats in the tabernacle. He appeared for the time not to notice them, but proceeded to tell his audience of a visit he paid to a Jewish synagogue.

"When I entered," he said, "I took off my hat, but was informed that the great mark of respect was to keep it on. I did so, though I can assure you that I felt very strange wearing my hat in a place of worship. And now, as I paid this mark of respect to the synagogue, may I ask those three Jews in the gallery to conform equally to our rules and kindly uncover their heads?"
The young men "collapsed."

N. B.—P. S.
During a heavy shower a business man, placing his umbrella to drain, he wrote upon a piece of paper and pinned it to the umbrella: "N. B.—This umbrella belongs to a man who strikes a two-hundred-and-fifty-pound blow. Back in five minutes."

He went up-stairs, and after an absence of

She Vouched for the Quality.

The following is a pretty story of the Princess of Wales and one of the wounded soldiers now lying in Netley Hospital. The Prince and Princess not long ago visited Netley Hospital, in which some of the earlier victims of the war are now under treatment.
The Princess, in the course of her tour, kept exclaiming: "Oh, this terrible war—this terrible war!" One of the men had been shot through the right cheek, the bullet carrying away with it the teeth, the greater portion of the jaw. The tender-hearted Princess was much moved at the man's suffering, and she said to him: "Poor fellow! Can you manage to smoke at all?" The man said: "Yes, your Royal Highness."
The Princess immediately turned to the Prince of Wales, and putting her hand on his shoulder, said: "Will you let me have your cigarette case?"
The Prince smilingly gave it to the Princess, who, taking out all the cigarettes, handed them to the delighted wounded man, saying, "Smoke these, my fine fellow. I think they are good ones; at least I know the Prince enjoys them. May you do the same."

HOW ARE YOUR NERVES?
THEIR CONDITION DETER-MINES THE STATE OF
YOUR HEALTH.
Paine's Celery Compound is a Nerve Medicine and Nerve Food.
IT MAKES SICK PEOPLE WELL.

Too many people are ignorant of the fact that the nerves regulate the blood supply through the body. The condition of the nerves should therefore claim our best attention.
If the nerves are out of repair the result is, loss of sleep, irritability, depression of spirits and lassitude, all of which are the beginning of serious ailments and diseases.
Paine's Celery Compound is a nerve medicine and a nerve food as well as a purifier of the blood. When used, it removes from the nerve centres all irritability, and by supplying abundant nutrition to the nerve tissue secures healthy action throughout the nervous system.
When men and women are worried and overworked in the home, workshop, store or office, and find it hard to get sleep at night —when the used up brain gets no time for repair, nothing so refreshes, strengthens and gives vigorous life as Paine's Celery Compound. It is the food for brain and nerves.
Paine's Celery Compound is the acknowledged chief of all medicines for the cure of diseases due to nervous weakness or to a foul condition of the blood. It is the one real remedy known today that never fails to benefit. Get Paine's Celery Compound and only "Paine's" if you would be well and strong.

London's New Drink.
Half a dozen London clubs of importance have complained bitterly that their bar receipts are falling off discouragingly since their members came to accept as the proper beverage for summer what is now the popular London drink. This is made of barley water, properly mixed with lemon, sugar and ice, and it originated in the guards' club house. Its fame spread from that headquarters, and other clubs were not slow in borrowing the recipe. The barley water combination gained favor wherever it was introduced, and this is not believed to be wholly due to the fact that it is distributed gratuitously. None of the clubs which offer their members this refreshment charges anything for it. The consequence is that Scotch and soda, brandy with the same combination and all similar heating alcoholic and more expensive drinks have ceased to be called for —

A Spurgeon Pun.
Once when C. H. Spurgeon fell down a teeth in his descent, he humorously described the whole transaction as "painless dentistry, with money to boot!"

will turn, you know."—Philadelphia Press.

Would Itch and Burn until the Child Screamed with Agony—A Wonderful Cure Effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The case recorded here is one of the worst ever brought to the attention of Toronto's best physicians, and when doctors gave up all hope of recovery, Dr. Chase's Ointment was successful in producing a perfect cure.
Mr. James Scott, 135 Wright avenue, Toronto, states:—"My boy, Tom, aged ten, was for nearly three years afflicted with a bad form of Eczema of the scalp, which was very unsightly and resisted all kinds of remedies and doctor's treatment. His head was in a terrible state. We had to keep him from school, and at times his head would bleed, and the child would scream with agony. For two and a half years we battled with it in vain, but at last found a cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment.
About five boxes were used. The original sores dried up, leaving the skin in its normal condition. To say it is a pleasure to testify to the wonderful merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment is putting it very mildly."
