The Engaged Man's Gifts.
There is nothing that pleases the engaged man more than to shower gifts upon the woman he hopes to marry, but very often it happens that he spends a great deal of money and anxious thought over the purchases and often fails to get what is most suitable or wished for. The engagement ring proper is one of these innocent pitfalls, and it would be far wiser to get a little instruction on that momentous subject before buying it; if not from his fiancée herself, why then from some obliging sister or cousin or aunt in her confidence, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. How disappointing, when one has set one's heart upon rubies, says an eastern commentator, to find he has chosen pearls or amethysts (so becoming to the hands that is white and shapely), and behold a hoop of opals, with their mystic fire and changing hues; and, of course, you have to say you are delighted and you are not.

A FAMILY MEDICINE.

Mrs. D. Williams, Gooderham, P. O., Ont., writes: "I have used Hagar's Yellow Oil for burns, scalds, sprains and bruises, and it has always given satisfaction. It is a splendid family medicine, it can be put to so many different uses." Price 25c.

Mr. Balfour.
The British public has ceased to take any interest in the proceedings of the House of Commons. The man on the street cannot understand why the government with an all powerful majority does not get through a decent programme of useful legislation. That they are not doing so in perhaps largely the fault of Mr. Balfour. With all his fine qualities, which make him the most popular and the best loved leader the House has ever had, he is sadly out of touch with the needs and wishes of the people. He refuses to read the papers, and cares not a straw for vulgar public opinion. "His soul is like a star and dwells apart," and the wonder is that a man with so fine a mind and of such shy and gentle manners is bothered with the leadership of the House, where, as Mr. Balfour said the other day, a leading politician can enjoy only the exquisite felicity of knowing that one-half of the political world abused him to his face while the other half sneered at him behind his back.—Ex.

"Keep the head cool and the bowels open" is sensible advice to follow during the warm weather.
If the bowels do not move regularly once a day use Laxa-Liver Pills. They are easy to take, and do not gripe, weaken or sicken. Price 25c.

Pithy Sayings.
[From the Ram's Horn.]

The counterfeit is often better looking than the genuine.
"Down street" is usually the devil's resort.
The devil does not need to fight those who will not fight him.
Prosperity tests character as a heavy harvest tests the granary.
The greatest mistake in life is seeking to improve the circumstances without regard to the character.
Riches on the heart are a burden; under the feet, a blessing.
Heaven is not in streets of gold, but in hearts of peace and love.
There is no true human fraternity without the divine fatherhood.

Chronic Indigestion

By far the most important part of digestion takes place in the intestines and it is folly to expect stomach medicines to cure a severe case of indigestion or dyspepsia. The Kidneys, Liver and bowels must first be made regular and active and the only remedy which acts directly on these organs is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are purely vegetable act pleasantly and naturally and positively cures dyspepsia, biliousness and stomach troubles. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, take no substitute.

Supercilious.

"This life is a hard grind," said the bill collector, as he seated himself disconsolately on the front step of the office building. "I try to be polite, but I'm half inclined to think I make a mistake in doing so."
"What's the matter?" inquired the messenger boy.
"I just asked a man upstairs what he wanted us to do about the bill he has been owing our firm for the last three months. I thought I'd be mild and considerate and leave it to his sense of propriety, you know."
"Didn't he appreciate your tact?"
"Not a bit. He simply looked hard at me and then said he had troubles of his own, and he wasn't going to help me run my business."—Washington Star.

A Family
Medicine

Of Unusual Merit, Known and Praised the World Over, is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Having a direct and combined action on both the kidneys and liver, Dr.
Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most valuable as a family medicine, and positively cure constipation and all forms of stomach trouble.

Mr. John White, 72 First avenue, Ottawa, writes:—"I used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for deranged liver and pains in the back, with excellent results."

"My wife used them for stomach trouble, and pains about the heart, and is entirely cured. They are invaluable as a family medicine."

Scores of hundreds of families would not think of being without Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in the house. They are purely vegetable in composition and remarkably prompt and effective in action. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box,

Cordiality is a Heart Winner.

There is hardly anything—in fact, I honestly believe there is nothing—that can take the place of cordiality in the home so far as the pleasure of guests is concerned, says the Baltimore Herald. Fittings and furnishings may be elegant, the carpets upon which you tread may have been designed and woven by the most skilled hands in all the world, and the paintings that hang on the walls be genuine old masters, and yet if in the midst of all this beauty and elegance you are not met with a cordial smile and handclasp, you are conscious of something lacking, and the voice must sound cordially. Words alone, no matter how well chosen, are empty unless there is a true ring in the voice. Therefore, cultivate a cordial voice if you care to win a little place in the hearts of those you daily meet.

Baron Almater
32913,

THE fashionably line bred Wilkes-Mambrino Patched Stallion, Standard Bred, Rule 1, American Trotting Register, Vol. 15, with the Double Wilkes cross, three crosses of Mambrino Patchen and dam of the great brood mare Alma Mater, with 8 in the 2.30 list—5 producing sons and 3 producing daughters; being sired by Baron Alexander 28393 (who was destroyed by fire when young) a full brother to Alfonso, with 11 in the 2.30 list at 9 years of age, son of Baron Wilkes 218, and Alma Mater; dam, RACHEL, dam of blackbird 2261, at 5 yrs., and a full sister to Raven 219 and Edna Cook 212, by Alcantara 223, son of George Wilkes and Alma Mater; granddam, Rachel B. 224, by Allie West 225—was the champion 5 year old stallion of his time and considered the best son of Almont.
BARON ALMATER is a young horse, his oldest colts were only 3 years old last season, and in October last one of his colts trialed a mile in 2:18 and sold for $1500.00, and another trialed a mile in 2:22 and sold for $750.00, and a pair of his colts took first prize at Long Island horse show last fall and sold for $1300.00, for a gentleman's double hitch.—BARON ALMATER has got no record, for the reason he never started in a race or started for record, but has gone a mile in his work in 2:23 as a 4 year old. But he is going to be limited to 40 metres in his season and started in the fall for a record. BARON ALMATER has got the double cross of the blood that produced the two champion pacers of 1899. Searchlight 2034, and Lady of the Manor 2041, have the Alcione-Alcantara cross, which Baron Almater gets direct from his dam, so does Coney Wilkes, the fastest and most successful of the green pacers out last season, having won 5 races. A combination of blood which in one sea-son has two champions and carries three green pacers and a green trotter below the 2:10 limit is worth having, and you can get this winning combination from Baron Almater.
BARON ALMATER is a horse of rich breeding, for he has the golden double cross of Wilkes from two of the best sons of that great progenitor of extreme speed. Baron Wilkes is admittedly the most popular stallion of the day, and well he may be—for looking at the race horses sired and the speed that is coming from his sons and daughters. Popular as Baron Wilkes is—Alcantara being an older horse, has a much larger list of winners, and more speed producing sons and daughters. These stallions tie for honors, as do the champion sires of 12 performers, not having the fall for a record. BARON ALMATER has got the same number; but Alcantara leads all stallions as the sire of 2:15 race horses. Baron Wilkes is the paternal, and Alcantara the maternal grandsire of Baron Almater; and Baron Almater's sire is from the dam of Alcantara. There can be no stronger combination of blood lines than this.

It is well known that the great "nick" for the Mambrino Patchen mares was George Wilkes.— These mares have more speed producing stallions sired by other stallions than by Wilkes. But the sons of George Wilkes from Mambrino Patchen mares have sired more 2:15 speed than the others have in 2:30. The Wilkes-Mambrino Patchen union is more fruitful of 2:10 speed than all other lines of blood combined. George Wilkes has 176 descendants in 2:10 and Mambrino Patchen 145. Baron Almater has the three best lines from Mambrino Patchen, including a double cross of Alma Mater, his most successful daughter, and one of the most famous of speed perpetuators.

This magnificent inheritance is further strengthened by the blood of Allie West, through his performing and great speed producing daughter, Rachel B. 224, the granddam of Baron Almater, Allie West 225 was the champion 5 years old stallion of his time and considered the best son of Almont, but died in his six year. The few foals he sired were highly prized, and their speed producing descendants are valued more and more—especially by Kentucky breeders. Baron Almater has the best line from Allie West 225.

Back of all this Baron Almater has a cross to William's Mambrino, who sired the Wikam of that sterling race horse, and sire of game trotters, Santa Claus 217; Ericsson, sire of William's Mambrino, was the champion 4 year old trotter of 1869 and sired the dam of Moquette 210 champion 4 years trotter of 1869.

Alcantara it will be remembered was the fastest 4 year old of 1880; and George Wilkes the champion trotting stallion from 1868 to 1871.

BARON ALMATER'S inheritance is rich as the richest and strong as the strongest both in performing and producing blood. For this call and get the detailed pedigree and the speed table in circular.

This horse is Wilkes on both sides.
This fashionably bred Stallion will make the season of 1900 at owners' Livery Stable Woodstock, N.
B. Service Fee, $20.00.
H. E. & J. W. GALLAGHER, Owners.

If God made the country and man made the town, the devil made the little country town. There is nothing equal to the smallness of a small town.—TENNYSON.

It is more unfortunate than surprising that two of the Canadian soldiers should have been found guilty of gross misconduct toward the Boers, as the papers narrate. In the excitement of dispatching our contingents we went an undue length in the way of hero worship, and each soldier, perhaps, appeared a Roberts to us. The class from whom soldiers must be selected is generally the fighting class, and the fighting class is not by any means the most moral. The percentage of two to two thousand is very small, and the Canadian soldiery as a body really does not suffer by the incident, unpleasant as it is.
The way in which the first contingent have carried themselves, adds glory to Canada, which is not anyway dimmed because a couple of scallawags, of another corps, showed themselves to be scamps.

It is strange to notice the gradual disappearance of certain words, and the coming in of new ones. Words are being coined all the time. 'Treking' for instance, comes into our vocabulary as a result of the late war.
Take the word "meek," who wants to be called meek, nowadays. And who really wishes to be "clothed with humility" even if the good book so directs that the Christian's wardrobe shall be. It is quite possible that in time we may as much object to being called honest as now we object to be called meek. Honesty cuts a small figure in business. A past generation undoubtedly regarded this virtue more than the present race.
On the other hand, while we don't take much stock in honesty—that is in real honesty—we are great on temperance, total abstinence, alcoholism, teetotalism and everything to do with strong drink. Now, there is nothing wrong in having these last mentioned words always before us, but just as sure as a campaign is waged against one vice, alone, others grow up unheeded. If there is any vice particularly characteristic of this age, it is, without doubt, dishonesty. We have committed ourselves to the principle or lack of principle which commends success, and has no mercy on failure. Never was the age of chivalry so completely dead, never was the mercenary spirit so completely in the minds of the people.

The Flaneur in the Mail has this to say, which if somewhat caustic has yet much of truth to commend it:—"I maintain that we have no right to force our religion, our laws, or social or political customs, or our civilization on an unwilling people. If our social, political, and religious systems be so super excellent can we not trust to time to demonstrate this excellence? Of course we are told by ardent Christians that they must preach the gospel to heathens because Christ bade us do so. Very well; but if we are to literally accept this teaching, why not all the rest? To give all we have to the poor and non-resistance to aggression would, if literally acted on, rather interfere with our social and political arrangements. Now, the intelligent heathen is quite able to see the incongruity between our acts and our professions. The truth is we are only nominally Christians, and individually and nationally we directly traverse the doctrines of Him whom we profess to regard as the Divine Teacher of the world. Until our practice conforms a little more closely to our precepts would it not be better if the missionaries confined their labours to their own communities?
In all of them I think they can find much needed work to do."

To Get Rid of Piles.

People in the country who are annoyed by flies should remember that clusters of the fragrant clover, which grows abundantly by nearly every roadside, if put in the room and left to dry and shed its fragrance perfume through the air, will drive away more flies than sticky saucers of molasses and other fly-traps and fly-papers can ever collect.

Dominion Inspector of Steamboats Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

False modesty and fear of the surgeon's knife prevent most people from appealing to their physicians for a cure for piles.

Many people suffer on year after year, robbed of their rest and sleep by the terrible itching, when they could be cured by a single box of Dr.
Chase's Ointment.

Mr. O. P. St. John, Dominion Inspector of steamboats, living at 245 Shaw Street, Toronto, states:—"I suffered for nine years from itching piles, at times being unable to rest on account of the annoyance caused by them.
After trying almost all remedies in vain I began to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, which effected a cure. I cannot speak too highly of it. I have recommended it to several friends, all of whom have been cured by its use."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is recognized by physicians throughout the world, and the ultimate in treatment as the only absolute cure for piles. It is sold at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.
