COUNTY COUNCIL.

the addition of assessors' and collectors' fees, and one quarter of the indebtedness of each parish and that there be added for the support of lunatics $130 to Kent assessment, $65 to Peel and $65 to Brighton.

Mr. Colpitts was heard in regard to a bill of $16 or $17 for men brought from Florenceville to Woodstock as witnesses. They were brought down and kept in town during the trial. It was hotel bills and passage on the train, he explained.

Coun. Kearney—There was $10 for some person going to Bridgewater.

Mr. Colpitts—He was going on a search and had four men with him.

Coun. Kearney—That is satisfactory.

Mr. Colpitt's report was then received and adopted.

Coun. Saunders moved, seconded by Coun. Tompkins, that as a fine of $500.00 stands against Wm. Boyer, if he pay $50, the rest stand on his good behaviour and his refraining from selling liquor.

Coun. Caldwell said this young man would like to come home now and then. He is keeping a good hotel in Mars Hill, and is behaving well. If he wants to come, he can come if this management is carried out.

Coun. Gillmor and Tompkins spoke in favor of the resolution, which was carried.

Coun. Cheney moved that a committee be appointed to look the old gaol over and return at once to the board a report as to repairs necessary on the old gaol.

Coun. Foster seconded the motion.

Coun. Cronkhitte—We have had a committee on this matter. Would it not be better that sanitary improvements be made on the recommendation of that committee.

The motion being carried, Cheney, Carvell and Foster were named the committee.

Coun. Carvell moved that the parish list of Wilnot be confirmed. Carried. The same of the parish of Wakefield, the same of Northampton.

Coun. Kearney spoke of a difficulty between James Lipsett, former commissioner of roads in his parish and Robt. Kirkbride. The latter was appointed after Lipsett went out. Lipsett had nine dollars on hand. He was ordered to pay this over to Kirkbride. He has not done this. Six months afterwards he brought in a bill for running a road machine amounting to about nine dollars. A motion was made that he be paid. It is asked that he pay over the $9 and get his money for the road machine.

The secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Lipsett to hand over the nine dollars.

Coun. Atkinson reported for the committee on the McCanna bill that Mr. McCanna be paid $795 in cash, and that Mr. McCanna becomes owner of the stock on hand; and that this report be accepted as a full settlement.

Mr. McCanna said he was willing to accept $800. This council had to say whether $5 should be a sticker. He was the loser and the victim in this affair.

Coun. Caldwell said the total was $126. Mr. McCanna offered to abandon the interest $106.88. We deducted his estimate of stock from the whole bill. Mr. McCanna would not give us the stock for what he estimated it at.

Mr. McCanna said he would accept the $795, and a motion based on the committee's report was carried.

The parish list of Wicklow was confirmed the same of Woodstock parish. Woodstock parish was assessed $600 for support of the poor, Upper Woodstock district was assessed $150, when collected $75 to go for road purposes and $75 for sidewalks. Palesier Sheppard was refunded $10 over assessment for last year and the same charged to parish of Woodstock.

The committee on the gaol through Coun. Carvell reported that they recommend that a building committee be appointed to carry out the recommendation of the grand jury, giving them power to carry out such work.

Coun. Saunders wanted to know what the recommendation of the grand jury was.

Coun. Foster said the recommendation of the grand jury did not state the amount to be spent. The committee did not mean to do the work till spring.

The sec-treas. read the former resolution of the council that $300 be spent on the gaol.

Coun. Carvell admitted that he did not know what the recommendation was, but it was his opinion that it was to enlarge the gaol, giving more room. $300 would do and would commence to do it.

Coun. Bell (Wakefield) thought that the matter should lay over till June session.

Coun. Phillips (Brighton) said that $300 was nothing. The great thing was to do it up now.

Coun. Gillmore thought the committee had given McCanna too much. When you get through with this cess pool after that will have to build a sewer to the river. I prophesy you will find this to be the case.

Coun. Kearney—only for Mr. Gillmore the hole in the ground in Woodstock would not be there today.

Coun. Gillmore—I believe we were right and if you had let a court of law decide this

NERVOUSNESS

The Disease of this Fast Age which Destroys Beauty, Health and Happiness.

Nothing so hastens old age as nervousness. Beauty fades, wrinkles and care lines disfigure the once beautiful face, the sunny temper becomes soured and irritable; nights of sleeplessness are followed by days of worry and fatigue. The feminine organs become weak and irregular. Everything goes wrong to the victim of nervousness, for the whole system is under the control of the nerves.

The usual result of nervousness is paralysis or nervous prostration, while to others it brings insanity or epilepsy. The waste of nerve force increases at a terrible rate, until life is clouded by gloom and despondency.

As a restorative for nervous men, women and children, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is unrivalled and unapproached. It is a new wonder of medical science which builds up and revitalizes the nerves and puts new life and energy into every movement of the body. It positively cures nervousness in all its forms in the course of a few months' treatment.

matter, you would have found it so.

Coun. Saunders—The council has decided on repairing the old gaol. We would be short sighted to go on, and when the people ask us what we do, we cannot say. Give the committee power to expend $300 and then get plans to be presented in June, and if any special occasion for spending money arise a special meeting of the council be called. He moved to that effect.

Coun. Phillips (Peel) believed in going at once. He moved in amendment to the amendment that a building committee be appointed to put in water and build the annex.

Coun. Atkinson seconded this.

Coun. Foster would go in for fixing up the gaol now.

Coun. Phillips (Brighton) was also in favour of this. It was not fair for those who got us in the hole to keep us there.

Coun. Cheney thought we must do the work right away, or we would have a new gaol in Woodstock yet.

Samuel Jones, gaoler, was heard. He said more prison room was necessary. Using the halls for cells would give much more prison room. 14 feet of an annex that would

AN HONEST EFFORT.

Mr. Meekton Tries Hard to Please His Wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Meekton had been very quiet and amiable for a long time. Both had been reading, and neither had said a word.

"It's beautiful!" she exclaimed.

"Is it?" inquired Mr. Meekton, who seemed to feel that something was expected of him.

"Yes."

"Might I inquire what it is that you consider beautiful?" he continued, with the air of a man who was willing to buy anything in reason.

"The etiquette of a century ago. The courtliness and grace with which men behaved. They knew how to pay compliments in those days."

"People would be complimentary now if they thought you wanted them to, Henrietta."

"Of course—in the clumsy, unoriginal way characteristic of the time."

They returned to their books. After a time he remarks:

"Henrietta, I have changed my mind."

"Indeed!"

"Wouldn't you," he inquired, after a pause, "wouldn't you like to know what I have changed my mind about?"

"I have no objection to hearing."

"I want to give up those islands over in the Pacific ocean; I desire to relinquish all claim to them and withdraw the troops and apologize to Aguinaldo for any trouble they have made him."

"What do you mean?"

"I'm in earnest. You've heard nothing all these years but Uncle Sam. It is a slight to our feminine population. Let us hear about antiexpansion for awhile."

"Leonidas! What on earth are you talking about?"

"Why, don't you see? Uncle Sam—Aunty Expansion—I was trying to say something that would please you, Henrietta—something that was not clumsy and unoriginal, you know. But I guess, maybe—that is to say—"

And his wife simply gazed at him.—Washington Star.

A Good Cure.

THE GRODER DYSPEPSIA CO.'S L.T.D.
ST. JOHN, N. B.

GENTLEMEN,—For over one year I suffered with what the four doctors I consulted in N. H., called dyspepsia. For hours at a time every day I suffered the most excruciating pains. The cramps would double me up so that I would have to groan. I would vomit up everything I ate for days at a time. I was terribly wasted and so weak that I could scarcely raise a teacup to my mouth. Nothing I could get would do me any permanent good. Finally a friend persuaded me to try Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup. I took four bottles and am now able to do a good day's work. It is six weeks since I finished the last bottle. I eat anything I ever was fond of and suffer no inconvenience. I send you this voluntary testimonial, hoping that you may use it and that some one who reads it may be benefited by the use of Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup as I have been.

Yours truly,

The Twanging Pains... of Rheumatism

Are Caused by Uric Acid Being Left in the Blood by Diseased Kidneys.

To suffer the most excruciating pains, lose the use of limbs, and to have the body swollen and disfigured is the lot of a victim of rheumatism.

Uric acid in the blood is the cause of rheumatism. If the kidneys are active they remove the uric acid. That is their work. If, on the other hand, the kidneys are deranged, there is sure to be uric acid in the blood and rheumatic pains through the body.

No amount of liniment will ever cure rheumatism. It sometimes relieves, but cure can only be brought about by setting the kidneys right. The most effective remedy known to man is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They cure rheumatism permanently by making the kidneys active in their work of removing the uric acid from the blood.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively cure backache, lumbago, rheumatism, all disorders of the kidneys and liver. One pill a dose. 25c. a box, at all dealers, Edmansons, Bates & Co., Toronto.
