Sherwood keeps the business which will in future be in charge of his son-in-law Roy T. Lee. W. T. Sherwood has engaged in a general produce business.

MR. FLEMING, M. P. P., the successful candidate arrived in town on Friday night. He was met by a large crowd of his supporters and carried on their shoulders to the Opera House where he addressed a full house of men who were pleased with the result of the election. Other speeches were made and a good meeting kept open till after 10 o'clock.

TERRY MONAHAN of Houlton has taken the James C. Doherty stand on Connell street, where he has opened a restaurant. Mr. Monahan has large experience as a caterer and he knows how to run a good place. He can supply all the ordinary internal wants of a man and his restaurant is a good place for a hungry man to go. He will have a consignment of shell oysters in tonight.

MRS. WHITE, wife of the Hon. George W. White, Centreville, died at her home on Wednesday last in the 70th year of her age. She was the youngest and only remaining daughter of the late Eben Wiggins, of Queens County. She was married 50 years ago. It is only a few months since Mr. and Mrs. White happily celebrated their golden wedding. She was buried in the Church of England cemetery at Centreville, Rev. J. E. Flewelling officiating at the ceremony. Mrs. White had a large circle of acquaintances and friends who knew her and admired her christian virtues. Mr. White and his family have the sincere sympathy of the community.

THE sudden death of Zephaniah Olmstead occurred at Lowell Mass. on the 10th inst., of heart failure. Deceased went to Lowell in November to spend the winter with his son. He had been in poor health for the past few months and was hopeful the change might benefit him, but death came unexpectedly. Mr. Olmstead was of a kind and genial disposition and to know him was to know a man of honour and uprightness, respected by all. He was born at Scotchtown, Queens Co., N. B., on March 27th, 1828, where he spent the greater part of his life. He was an active christian worker in that community, having in the early part of life professed faith in Christ and was baptized in 1853 by Rev. E. L. Foshay. Deceased was twice married his first wife being Melissa Jane Hendry, of Cambridge Queen's Co., by whom he leaves two children, George T. Olmstead, of Lowell, Mass. and Mrs. Robt. Kennedy, of this town. His last wife who was Elizabeth Balmain, of Canning, Queens Co., two sisters, Mrs. T. L. Purves, of Scotchtown, and Mrs. D. L. Kimball, of St. John, and two brothers William, living in Grafton, Carleton Co., and Thos. J. Olmstead of Boston Mass. survive him.

MAIN STREET, WOODSTOCK.

SMOOTH EDGES.

You'll always know (and that means you'll enjoy) the laundry work we do, by reason of the fine, smooth edges we put on all the collars and cuffs we send out.

We save the new ones, and the old ones we "smooth up" till there are no frayed edges left to irritate you. That is one reason why you should send us your work.

SEND US YOUR NEXT BUNDLE—OR SHALL WE CALL FOR IT?

Telephone 55-4.

QUEEN'S STEAM LAUNDRY,

34 and 36 Connell Street, WOODSTOCK.

WE DON'T SAY

That our Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is better than many others, but we do say that it is as good, and you save 25c. a bottle. Our price is 75c, others charge $1 for same quantity.

GARDEN BROS. Druggists.
