

COVERED WITH SORES.

B.B.S. cured little Harvey Deline nine years ago and he has never had a spot on him since.

It is practically impossible to heal up sores or ulcers, especially the old chronic kind, with ordinary remedies. No matter how large or of how long standing they may be, however, they heal up readily and stay healed permanently when Burdock Blood Bitters is used.

HARVEY DELINE.

Mrs. E. Deline, Arden, Ont., proves this in the following account she gave of her little boy's case: "When my little son Harvey was one year old he broke out in sores all over his body. They would heal up for a time, then break out again about twice a year, till he was past four; then he seemed to get worse and was completely prostrated. When doctors failed to cure him I gave him Burdock Blood Bitters, and besides bathed the sores with it.

"It is nine years ago since this happened and I must say that in all this time he has never had a spot on his body or any sign of the old trouble returning."

GROWING CRANBERRIES.

No Other Crop Brings Quite as Profitable Results for the Labor.

At a recent meeting of Canadian fruit growers the question of growing cranberries was discussed and one of the leading growers offered some testimony from which the following is digested. The land for planting cranberries should be worked up and sanded, the sand to be from three to six inches deep. The irrigation is important—in fact, is essential to cranberry growing. The land should always be kept damp. Before the frost comes the patch should be flooded and kept so until the first of May. The berries do not thrive well when exposed to the winter's frost. If a long spell of dry weather takes place in summer, irrigation should be repeated. One speaker said:

"I grow the Cherry Bell variety and I realized $300 net for what I grew on one acre last year. I would like to know if there is anything else one would put an acre to that would bring the same returns. Sand will correct all weeds. I now have 15 acres under cultivation, and all my neighbors have taken up the industry, although they laughed at me when I started mine. I can recommend the cultivation of cranberries as a profitable business, from the experience I have had."

A RECONSTRUCTANT FOR WOMEN.

Paine's Celery Compound
Rebuilds and Strengthens

the Disease-Injured

System.

It Bestows on Women What They Most Require.

Full Nervous Energy and Rich, Nourishing Blood.

The System is Perfectly and Permanently Built Up.

The healthy, vigorous and ruddy-cheeked woman with bright and sparkling eyes is a joy to all around her. At home and abroad she attracts the young and old, and her influence is all-powerful.

The half-sick and invalid woman is a sad sight, and her presence chills the very atmosphere that surrounds her.

Backaches, sideaches, headaches, neuralgia, nervous prostration, irregularities, rheumatism and liver and kidney complaints seem to be the peculiar misfortunes of women of every class.

To the women who suffer from any of the ills mentioned, Paine's Celery Compound comes in as the great reconstructant, bringing to sick women the great essentials of health—full nervous energy and rich, nourishing blood.

Thousands of testimonials from women establish the fact that when Paine's Celery Compound is used the nerves are braced, tissue is built up, poisons are expelled, the blood is made pure, the brain is clear and active, and the cloudless face and beaming eyes proclaim a condition of perfect health.

See that you get the genuine Paine's Celery Compound; see that the name "Paine's" and the Stalk of Celery appear on the wrapper and bottle.

Shooting is a Pastime There.

The shooting of Governor Goebel, of Kentucky, by a Republican antagonist, was not an event out of the ordinary in the Blue Grass State. A few years ago an assassin waylaid and shot the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals dead because the latter had decided a case against him. The murderer was tried two or three times, and finally escaped on grounds of insanity, and was confined for a short time in an asylum. A few years later Mr. Goebel himself, the victim of the latest crime, shot and killed the president of a bank in Covington in a public street of that town, in consequence of a quarrel which had its beginning in a political controversy. Mr. Goebel was acquitted by a jury. That event occurred in 1895.

Itching, Bleeding Piles

Mr. W. G. Phyll, proprietor Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington street, East Toronto, says:—"While living in Chicago I was in a terrible shape with itching and bleeding piles. I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in various ways by their treatments to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment. I used but one box and have not been troubled with pile in any shape or form since."

What John Rustin said about Judas.

In every nation there are, and must always be a certain number of Fiend's servants, who have it principally for the object of their lives to make money. They are always, as I said, more or less stupid, and cannot conceive of anything else so nice as money. Stupidity is always the basis of the Judas bargain. We do great injustice to Iscariot, in thinging him wicked above a common wickedness. He was only a common money-lover, and, like all money-lovers, didn't understand Christ;

—couldn't make out the worth of Him, or meaning of Him. He was horror-struck when he found that Christ would be killed; threw his money away instantly, and hanged himself. How many of our present money-seekers, think you, would have the grace to hang themselves, whoever was killed? But Judas was a common, selfish, muddle-headed, pilfering fellow; his hand always in the bag of the poor, not caring for them. He didn't understand Christ;—yet believed in Him, much more than most of us do; had seen him do miracles, thought he was quite strong enough to shift for Himself, and he, Judas, might as well make his own little by persquisites out of the affair. Christ would come out of it well enough, and he have his thirty pieces. Now, that is the money-seeker's idea, all over the world. He doesn't hate Christ, but can't understand Him—doesn't care for Him—sees no good in that benevolent business; makes his own little job out of it at all events, come what will. And, thus, out of every mass of men, you have a certain number of bag-men—your 'fee-first' men, whose main object is to make money. And they do make it—make it in all sorts of unfair ways, chiefly by the weight and force of money itself, or what is called the power of capital; that is to say, the power which money, once obtained, has over the labor of the poor, so that the capitalists can take all its produce to himself, except the laborer's food. That is the modern Judas's way of 'carrying the bag,' and bearing what is put therein.

"Your worship," said the wily solicitor, who was defending the stalwart prisoner in the dock, "you cannot possibly convict my client of housebreaking. I submit, sir, with all defence, that neither morally nor legally can you convict him. I will tell you why.

"Mr. Sikes here, as the evidence clearly proves, did not break into any house at all. He found the parlor window open, as the witnesses admit, and all he did was to put in his right arm and remove some unimportant articles. Now, sir, Mr. Sikes's arm is not he himself, and I fail to see how you can punish the whole individual for an offence committed by any one of his limbs."

"Very well, sir," said the cautious Solomon of the bench, "I have heard of a similar defence before today, so I find the prisoner's arm guilty, and sentenced it to six months' imprisonment. The gentleman himself can accompany it or not, as he chooses. Mr. Clark, record the sentence."

Then Mr. Sikes smiled a fourteen inch smile, and the plan of the defence became apparent, as he quietly proceeded to unscrew his guilty cork arm, and leave it in the custody of the court.

Pluck and Wit from the Front

The Boer war is producing the usual crop of epigrams. Here are a few to hand:

"Heavy firing: casualties, one cooking pot injured."—Excerpt from a Kimberley bombardment report.

"A time-expired man."—A Gordon Highlander's dying words at Elandslaagte.

"Those who sup with me will require a devil of a long spoon."—The motto the Blue Jackets have fastened upon their naval gun, of which the range is five miles.

"Come along, boys! This is the hottest business I have ever been in."—Gen. French to his cavalry at Elandslaagte.

"Retire be d—d."—Comment of a Gordon Highlander bugle boy when the fight at Elandslaagte was at its crucial point, and the Boer bugles treacherously blew the British call to "Cease fire," and "Retire." The boy immediately blew the call "Charge," at his own initiative.

"Surrender to avoid bloodshed."—Cronje to Baden-Powell at Mafeking. "When is the bloodshed to begin?"—Baden-Powell to Cronje.

"The English must pay a price that will stagger humanity."—Kruger.

"All well. Enemy shelling us."—Baden-Powell's report.

"Go on. This is your show."—General White to General French, cavalry leader at Elandslaagte.

"Will be with you tomorrow."—A Boer heliograph message to the British at Colenso.

A few replies to the invitations to be present at the Paris Exhibition are appended:—From the Czar:—"I regret that my absence from your showoff, but am compelled to decline your invitations; you so kindly sent, because my new spring steel sutfoff has not come from the tailorvitch." From the King of Italy:—"Shall not be able to be present. Verra sorra, but Longa Toma in South Africa has unsettled my nerves." From the Emperor of Germany:—"Mein grandmutter von bad insult received has and I stay der heim at, to tink it over, don't it?"

Women's Ailments.

Women are coming to understand the Backaches, Headaches, Tired Feelings and Weak Points from which they suffer are due to wrong action of the kidneys.

DOAN'S Kidney Pills

are the most reliable remedy for any form of kidney complaint. They drive away pains and aches, make women healthy and happy—able to enjoy life to the fullest.

Mrs. C. H. Gillespie, 204 Britain Street, St. John N.B., says:

"I had severe kidney trouble for which I doctored with a number of the best physicians in St. John, but received little relief. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I began their use. Before taking them I could not stoop to tie my shoes, and at times suffered such torture that I could not turn over in bed without assistance. Doan's Kidney Pills have rescued me from this terrible condition, and removed every pain and ache."

Six Times Nine are Mary Ann.

I studied my tables over and over, And backward and forward, too, But I couldn't remember six times nine, And I didn't know what to do. Till my sister told me to play with my doll, And not to bother my head; 'If you'll call her 'Fifty-four' for a while 'You'll learn it by heart,' she said.

So I took my favorite Mary Ann,

Though I thought it a dreadful shame

To give such a perfectly lovely child

Such a perfectly horrid name.

And I called her dear little "Fifty-four,"

A hundred times till I knew

The answer of six times nine as well

As the answer of two times two.

At first I thought that wasn't quite fair,

For there was no doll in the books;

But 'twas better far than the teacher's stare

And the children's funny looks.

So, after a while I thought it all out

And believed it was right without shadow of doubt.

Next day Elizabeth Wigglesworth;

Who always acts so proud,

Said "Six times nine is fifty-two,"

And I nearly laughed aloud,

But wish I hadn't, for when teacher said,

"Now, Dorothy, tell if you can,"

I thought of my doll, and—sakes alive!

I answered "Mary Ann!"
