

TEACHERS' TROUBLES.

How Teachers May Prevent the Breakdown of the Nervous System which often Threatens.

The worry and work, the strain and anxiety of a teacher's life are such as to tell severely on the nervous system. Time and again teachers have had to give up good positions on account of run down health and shattered nerves. To such we confidently recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and in doing so we are supported by the testimony of Mrs. Reilly, Colborne Street, Chatham, Ont., who made the following statement:—"Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are, beyond question, the best remedy for nervousness and all exhausted conditions of the system I know of. My daughter, as a result of over study and close application to her duties as school teacher, became much run down and debilitated and was very nervous. Two months ago she began taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They acted quickly and effectually in her case, making her strong and building up her entire system." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Palpitation, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Female Troubles, After Effects of Grippe, Debility, or any condition arising from Disordered Nerves, Weak Heart or Watery Blood. Price 50c. a box.

THE IRISH BRIGADE AT THE BATTLE OF DUNDEE.

Some Rhymes Regarding "How the English Fought the Dutch" in the First Engagement of the South African War.

(From the St. Louis Star.)

I have been reading much about the war between the "English and the Dutch" in South Africa, but lately I have come across a new phase of the conflict. I see by late reports in the daily papers that the Irish Transvaal Brigade in the first engagement at Dundee captured—or "bagged" to use their own words—several hundred of the Royal Irish Fusiliers. Now, sir, the last event has interested me so that I have written a poem on the subject, "a poor thing, 'tis true, but mine own," as the bard of Avon says. It might be called "How the Irish Fight for the Queen," but I have christened it, "The Battle of Dundee," or, "How President Kruger's Irish Took In Her Majesty's Hibernians."
(With apologies to the A. O. H., the Knights of St. Patrick, the Clan-na-Gael, the Fenians and Other Fighters.)

On the mountain's side the battle raged, there was no stop nor stay;
Mackin captured Private Burke and Ensign Michael Shea,
Fitzgerald got Fitzpatrick, Brannigan found O'Rourke;
Finnigan took a man named Fay—and a couple of lads from Cork,
Sudden they heard McManus shout "Hands up or I'll run you through,"
He thought he had a Yorkshire "Tyke"—'twas Corporal Donahue!
McGarry took O'Leary, O'Brien got McNamee,
That's how the "English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

Then someone brought in Casey, O'Connor took O'Neill;
Riley captured Kavanaugh, while trying to make a steal.
Hogan caught McFadden, Corrigan found McBride,
And Brennan made a handsome touch when Kelly tried to slide.
Dacey took a lad named Walsh; Dooley got McGuirk;
Gilligan turned in Fahey's boy—for his father he used to work,
They had marched to fight the English—but Irish were all they could see—
That's how the "English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

Spillane then took O'Madigan; Shannahan took Magee,
While chasing Jerry Donovan Clancey got shot in the knee.
He cursed the Queen's whole army, he cursed the English race,
Then found the man who fired the shot, 'twas a cousin—Martin Grace.
Then McGinnis caught an A. O. H. who came from Limerick town,
But Sullivan got an Orangeman from somewhere in County Down.
Hennessey took O'Hara—Hennigan took McFee,
That's how the "English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

The sun was sinking slowly, the battle rolled along;
The man that Murphy "handed in" was a cousin of Maud Gonne.
Then Flannigan dropped his rifle, shook hands with Bill McGuire,
For both had carried a piece of turf to light the schoolroom fire.
Then Rafferty took in Flaherty; O'Connell got Major McGue;
O'Keefe got hold of Sergeant Joyce and a Belfast lad or two.
Some swore that "Old Man Kruger" had come down to see the fun;
But the man they thought was "Uncle Paul" was a Galway man named Dunn.
Though war may have worse horrors 'twas a frightful sight to see
The way the "English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

Just when the sound of firing in the distance fainter grew,
Ryan caught McClosky, and Orderly Donegan, too.
O'Toole he found McCarthy; O'Mahony got Malone,
Duffy got a pair of lads from Connaught, near Athlone.
Then Dineen took O'Hagan; Phelan got Kehoe,
Monahan captured McSheffrey, but Gallagher let him go.
You'd have thought the "Belfast Chicken" had tackled the "Dublin Flea"
The way the "English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

Then Powers began to intervene, the Waterford Powers, I mean,
And took a lad named Keenan and a Captain named Mulqueen.
Then Brady captured Noonan; Maher got McIdoo,
McGovern got O'Hanlon and Colonel McLoughlin, too.
'Twas now the hour of sunset, the battle was nearly o'er,
When McCormick came in with Hoolan and Lieutenant Roger Moore.
But 'twas a great day of Ireland, as you can easily see;
That's how the "English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

They marched them all to Kruger's town for supper and a bed,
O'Halloran was the rear guard; the way McNulty led.
When they got them to the race course the Boers were full of glee,
While Kruger never expected "so many English to see,"
They told him they were Irish; it puzzled the old man's head,
For the Irish he'd seen were dressed in green, while these were togged in red.
But 'tis a passing story; on history's page you'll see,
That "Twas the English fought the Dutch" at the Battle of Dundee.

A BIG NAME.

Given to Kidney Disease by a Doctor who Failed Where Dodd's Kidney Pills Succeeded.

Case of Thomas Harrison of St. Marys—Actually Urinated Blood—Three Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills worked a Radical Cure.

ST. MARYS, N. B., Feb. 19.—Mr. Thomas Harrison of this place is a living testimony to the power of that famous remedy Dodd's Kidney Pills. He is in perfect health and strength and says himself that he owes his present state to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Some years ago Mr. Harrison was taken ill. He began to suffer with pain in the back accompanied by a lethargy impossible to overcome. These are the invariable symptoms of kidney disease and Mr. Harrison grew alarmed. He consulted a physician of Fredericton who gave the trouble a very learned name but utterly failed to give Mr. Harrison any relief. In spite of his treatment the patient grew worse. At last the most serious stage possible was reached. Mr. Harrison began to pass bloody urine.

It was at this time Mr. Harrison was told of Dodd's Kidney Pills. An anxious friend who had heard of this remedy and knew personally of cures made by it, advised him to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Harrison was skeptical of patent medicines, but was, however, finally prevailed upon to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's Kidney Pills have the reputation of curing all diseases of, and resulting from the kidneys. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Bladder and Urinary Complaints, Women's Weakness and Impurities of the Blood all come under the head of Dodd's Kidney Pills and Dodd's Kidney Pills cure each and all of these complaints invariably.

Mr. Harrison had only used one box when he passed an immense stone which had formed in the bladder. This stone is at present in the possession of a doctor who had interested himself in observing the working of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Harrison felt relief at once after passing the stone. The blood ceased to come with the urine and the pain in the back grew less severe. After three boxes of the pills Mr. Harrison was completely cured.

"Judge of my gratitude for my escape thus promptly and safely," he writes. "Having taken only three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I am most happy to say that I am completely cured with no sign of any return of the trouble."

Beating the Railroad.

There was a man in town recently who told of a scheme he worked to beat a railroad. "A friend and myself wanted to come from Omaha to Kansas City. He said to me, 'You buy a ticket only to the first station, and I will show you a good trick.' I bought a ticket as requested, while my friend bought a ticket for the full distance at the regular fare. We took a seat together in the train. The conductor came around, took up the tickets and put a punched train check in my friend's hat, indicating that he was ticketed through to Kansas City. When the conductor got out of sight, my friend took his knife and split the card. He put half into my hat and the other half into his own. Both splits looked like a regular check, and I came right on through without paying any more fare. We divided the saving, which was more than $2 each."—Kansas City Times.

Dreading an Operation

Wary of experimenting with salves, suppositories and ointments and dreading a surgical operation, scores and hundreds have turned to Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment and found in it an absolute cure for piles. The first application brings relief from the terrible itching, and it is very seldom that more than one box is required to effect a permanent cure.

The Glass of Fashion.

Silk finished corduroy, velvet and cloth are made up into very gorgeous skating costumes. The debutante's dancing frock is made of crepe de chine, silk muslin or liberty tissue in tints so pale that they are merely a suggestion of color.

The warmest things in skirts not flannel are made of a soft elastic silk material, a sort of matelasse cloth, and edged with embroidered silk ruffles. They are very pretty, but in the French underwear they are not inexpensive.

A pretty bow for the hair is made of white lace insertion with a scalloped, irregular edge and a little more than an inch wide. It is wired in the center and arranged in two loops spreading each way from a close knot and bent in a waved effect.

Pretty little bodice effects are seen in a great many gowns, soft broad bands of silk drawn tightly around the waist, with two points in front, and they are very pretty and a pleasant change from the narrow line of stitched silk and velvet that has been worn so much.

The old fashioned box plaits are to be seen.

In these days of imitations it is well for everyone to be careful what he buys. Especially is this necessary when a matter of health is involved.

There are so many imitations of Doan's Kidney Pills on the market—some of them absolutely worthless—that we ask you to be particular to see that the full name and the trade mark of the Maple Leaf are on every box you buy. Without this you are not getting the original Kidney Pill, which has cured so many severe cases of kidney complaint in the United States, Australia and England, as well as here in Canada. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto.

as the trimming of underskirts. A box plaited ruffle is four or five inches wide. There are one or two inch wide plaits separated by an equal space, and the plaiting is stitched on an inch or so below the upper edge, and the top of each plait is caught down.

Nothing can be much daintier than the boas of marabout feathers in pale gray. They are round and as soft as down and are made with a series of feather tails tipped with white, which gives them a very fluffy unusual look. Brown trimmed with white are very pretty, and they are indeed a charming novelty.

Conquered the Professor.

The mighty Jowett of Oxford invited a student to walk with him. After they had been on the road for about 30 minutes the pupil finally spunked up courage and remarked, "Nice day, professor."

"Do you think so?" was the faraway answer of Jowett.

Another half hour passed, and the boy stammered out:

"Nice road, professor."
The teacher responded, "Do you really think so?"

The matriculate began to boil in his bones and to get even more frightened but he managed to again blurt out, "Clouds seem to be filling up with rain, professor," to which the answer was:

"Do you really think so?"

The two returned to the college ground, and the professor said, "Well, young man, we have been walking for several hours, and everything you said has been as stupid as it possibly could be."

His companion replied, "Do you really think so?"

The professor looked at the youth a moment. Then he smiled and grasped his hands warmly. From that time on conversation never flagged during their walks.—Saturday Evening Post.
