ON Monday afternoon Hose Co. No. 1 was called out to quench a fire, in Gallagher's new livery stable. Some workmen were boiling tar, in the room next the office. They left it for a moment, when the tar boiled over and caught fire. It was put out without wetting hose.

ISAAC A. STRAIGHT, a farmer living back of River de Chure, near the boundary line, celebrated his 75th birthday on August 23rd. Two days before he reaped with a hand reaper, 20 dozen sheaves of wheat double band. This is considered a big days work for a stalwart young man.

MacDonald, (pastor of the Baptist church, Fredericton,) and Mrs. MacDonald, on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of their wedding were given a surprise party by the church members and other friends in the city. The company were laden with innumerable gifts of tinware. Evidently the popularity of Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald is to be as great in Fredericton as it is in Woodstock.

ALL must admit that any of our "Old Line Canadian Life Companies are perfectly safe. This being true it remains for us when insuring to select the company that will pay us the largest returns for money invested. Profits of insurance companies are received from three sources—Low death rates, economical management and good investment of its funds. As in all these respects the "Temperance and General" stands unexcelled it is evidently to our advantage to place our insurance with this company.

Among the Freshmen at the University of New Brunswick this year, are Edmund S. Dibblee, N. D. McKendrick and Miss Mary M. Winslow of Woodstock. In commenting on the class of freshmen the Fredericton Herald says:—It is known for certain that the Carleton county scholarship has been captured by Miss Matilda Winslow, a young colored girl who has decided to take a course at the University. Miss Winslow is a graduate of the Woodstock grammar school and led her class for three successive years. She is said to be an exceptionally bright and promising student, and comes highly recommended by Principal Harrison of the Woodstock Grammar school. Miss Winslow is the second colored student to enter the University since its establishment over a century ago.

THE death of Miss Laura Tracy of Lakeville, N. B., on Thursday of last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Botsford Smith of this village, was unusually sad. Miss Tracy with a younger sister came here a week prior to her death to visit her cousins, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. G. F. Caldwell. Her health had not been good, but she hoped the change might prove beneficial. On Sunday she went to church; Tuesday, though being somewhat indisposed, she took tea with the family as usual, but Wednesday was not so well and they thought possibly she might be able to go home, but before the train left the thought was abandoned and her sister went to send her mother in her stead, to take care of her. The father and mother arrived at midnight, but their daughter was unconscious and finally died at noon Thursday. Everything possible was done by friends here to assist the bereaved ones and much sympathy was manifested for them. The remains were taken by the B & A Thursday afternoon to Robinson and from there to her home at Lakeville for interment.—Ft. Fairfield cor. Aroostook Republican, Oct. 3rd.

NOBLE & TRAFTON have decided to bring their grocery business to a cash basis on the first day of November. After an experience of seven years in business they have decided that they can give their customers much better satisfaction in the way of prices on a cash basis than under the present credit system. By selling for cash they can buy for spot cash and get much closer prices, the benefit of which they can give their customers. The expense of book-keeping is a large item which can entirely be done away with in a cash store and the customers of Noble & Trafton will reap the benefit of this in reduced prices. The members of the firm would like to talk the matter over with their patrons and explain to them the manner in which they propose to effect the change.

PERSONS wishing to have dental work done would do well to call at the office of Dr. Thompson, over the Baird Co. Ltd., drug store, where they will find the doctor, who is prepared to do all kinds of dental operations in the very latest and most modern and best possible manner known to dental science. Dr. Thompson not only is a graduate of the Philadelphia Dental and Garretson Hospital of Oral Surgery but, he also has a diploma for anatomical work which he received Feb. 22nd 1899, from the Philadelphia school of anatomy which is in connection with the Philadelphia Dental College. The fact that Dr. Thompson holds this diploma is a proof that he has come in actual contact with the cadaver on the dissecting table. And he is therefore thoroughly familiar with every part of the body that has any direct bearing on Dental Surgery. With these facts in view there is no doubt but that the doctor will do any dental work in a thoroughly skillful and competent manner. He can be found in his office any time between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m.

G. A. KEITH has always given the people of Woodstock the best and most up-to-date work in photography, and since his return from Boston he is in a position to make a new kind of picture, the thing that is all the rage in the large cities. The name of the picture is "Colloidio Carbon," but this means nothing to the uninitiated. To know what it is one has to see it, and Mr. Keith has several specimens on exhibition at his door and in his studio. The picture cannot be classed with ordinary photographs, but bears an almost perfect likeness to a steel engraving, an effect which photographic experts have been enabled to obtain only within the last few months. This is a class of work that a town of the size of Woodstock rarely has the opportunity of seeing, but Mr. Keith is bound to keep in the fore front of his profession. He will gladly show any specimens of these Colloidio Carbon pictures he may have on hand to visitors.
