A MAGNIFICENT SHOW

of Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Poultry, and Farm Produce.

The County Fair at Woodstock was a big success. The entries numbered 1415 as against 1280 at the Fair of 1899. The main building was not so well filled with exhibits as at the last Fair but there was more room to get about and see what there was to be seen.

The exhibition of cattle, sheep, horses, poultry and roots was simply magnificent and according to the testimony of one man who has seen the fairs of other parts of the province, it excelled in these classes anything ever seen in New Brunswick before. Another gentleman did not hesitate to say that in these classes nothing had ever been seen in the Maritime Provinces to equal it. In the products of the farm and live stock there was a bewildering lot of stuff from which the judges had to select the best, but they did their work with as much satisfaction as any judges ever perform their duties. There will always be kickers.

The A. Henderson Furniture Co. had an ornate display of things in their line. Before a rich background of carpets and rugs were grouped several bedroom sets and many other pieces of furniture. Perhaps the most interesting part of their exhibit was two bedroom sets made by them at their factory, one of these was of ash, finished dark; the other was of birch. These were particularly well made, and in the ash set, the grain was brought out beautifully. These are interesting, as showing what can be done with our native woods, when handled with skill. These are more carefully made and present a better appearance than the same class of goods imported into the province.

The Woodstock Carriage Company made an excellent display of waggon and carriages, consisting of two piano box carriages with end springs with rubber cushion ends, one of the carriages having rubber tires; one Bangor buggy with top; one road waggon with rubber tires; two pungs; one sloven waggon and one Eureka gear waggon. This whole display, which attracted a good deal of attention, was very creditable to the company. One of the pungs was particularly comfortable. It had a high dasher, an easy seat and the back board was arranged to raise up and allow a large amount of baggage to go in the rear end of the pung.

Atherton Bros. made a display of carriage rugs, carriage mats and harness. A beautiful set of double harness made by the firm was carefully examined by all the horsemen who passed, and pronounced all right. A set of light driving harness, also home made, was a work of art.

Charles R. Watson made a good display of pianos, organs and sewing machines. This display attracted a large number of visitors, partly, perhaps, on account of the excellent music rendered by Miss Watson.

The Small & Fisher Co., by their exhibit of stoves, showed what Woodstock was doing in this line.

The Baird Company's display occupied a conspicuous corner and was a monument to the taste of Mr. E. W. Mair.

There were other exhibits of manufactured articles made abroad, but the home made things were what attracted the attention of the visitors.

The prizes awarded are printed below, in so far as the list has been completed by the Committee. The rest of the list will be published next week.

Merrithew-Kennedy.

The residence of Abram Merrithew at Mouth Keswick, was the scene of a happy event at five o'clock on Wednesday afternoon last, when his eldest daughter, Bertha, was united in marriage to William Kennedy, a popular employe of the C. P. R., at Woodstock. Rev. George Howard of Macnaquac, tied the nuptial knot in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride was the recipient of a large number of valuable presents. The bridegroom belongs to Millville, but for some time has been a resident of Woodstock, and served in South Africa with E Battery of the Royal Canadian Field Artillery.—Feton Herald.

An Old Offender.

It will be remembered that Charlie Kinney, who broke jail at Upper Woodstock on June 21st, obtained a horse and carriage from C. D. Johnston and went to Houlton, was held by the Houlton police for theft. He was tried at Houlton last week, and as there was not sufficient evidence to convict him, he was handed over to the authorities in Carleton County. He was tried before the police magistrate on Friday, for stealing the team from Mr. Johnston, and he pleaded guilty. He also admitted that he had stolen a bicycle at Bath, and one at Fredericton. The magistrate gave him two years and one month in the penitentiary.

County Councillors.

In addition to the list of County councillors mentioned in our last issue, the following gentlemen have decided to come out for elections:

In the Parish of Northampton.—Rankin Brown.

In the Parish of Wakefield.—A. H. Stewart and Alex. Lindsay.

In the Parish of Wicklow.—Charles A. Simonds.

Card.

One of the most careless acts ever perpetrated in this section of the country was that by which our young son, Claude, aged 13, lost his life, and to the many friends, who, by their kind acts and words of sympathy contributed to our comfort, we desire to return our most sincere and heartfelt thanks.

South Africa.

Pretoria, Sept. 29—A pamphlet has been published here under Lord Kitchener's authority, containing a notice of the permanent banishment of several Boer leaders captured since September 15, and also a long letter from Lord Kitchener, replying to a communication from Acting President Schalkburger, received September 5. Lord Kitchener promises to send the Schalkburger letter to the imperial government, which, he says, reciprocates the Boer statesman's desire for peace.

Lord Kitchener then proceeds to explain that the responsibility for the war rests with the burghers, "whose invasion of unprotected British territory opened the saddest page in South African history." He quotes a letter from a member of the Volksraad to a member of the Cape Colony assembly, declaring that "the time is ripe to drive the English from South Africa."

In conclusion, Lord Kitchener declares that, having annexed the two republics to Great Britain, he cannot break faith with the people who have shown loyalty to the new regime, and, so far as clemency to Cape rebels is concerned, this is the prerogative of the ruler, which must be exercised with unfettered discretion.

A proclamation has been issued, providing for the sale of properties of burghers still in the field, in accordance with the terms of Lord Kitchener's previous proclamation.

London, Sept. 30—The Daily Express publishes a report that Lord Kitchener has asked for 25,000 more seasoned mounted men and for power to hang rebels, traitors and murderers without reference to the home government.

"Immediately on his return from the continent," says the Daily News, "the king summoned a meeting of the council to consider Lord Kitchener's position. It is understood that his majesty assumed a very strong attitude and closely questioned ministers upon their proposals."

One on the Frenchman.

There is a good story going the rounds that serves to show the opinion the Quebec Frenchman has of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's pull in the government of the universe. A commercial traveller met a habitant on the road one day, soon after the Queen's death, and told him that Queen Victoria was dead. "Who's she" asked the Frenchman. "She was the Queen of the British Empire" answered the commercial man. "Who gets the job?" asked the habitant. The commercial man told him that Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, was to have the place. "What a pull he must have with Laurier!" said the Frenchman.
