NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents must send their names with each week's contribution, or their matter will not be printed. The names will not be published, but The Dispatch must know who is accountable for everything that is inserted in its columns.

GOOD CORNER.

Z. Good has recently moved to this settlement, from his farm in Monticello, Me. Wm. Prior has his new barn near completion.

Our teacher, Miss Evelyn Prior, has been ill from appendicitis. The result of which was, that our school was closed for a few days, until her cousin Miss London returned from Normal School, who then took her place until she was able to resume her duties.

D. L. Gray is improving the appearance of his buildings by the addition of another barn. Miss Metta Prior, who returned from Monticello during the illness of her sister, expects to leave again in a few days.

The hay pressers have been in this vicinity for some time.

C. L. Merrithew has bought a three year old mare to take the place of the one he was so unfortunate as to lose.

Mrs. Willard Lamb is visiting friends and relatives here.

ANDOVER.

Harold Perley and Roy Murphy of the University of New Brunswick and Herb Baird, Miss Laura Hopkins, Miss May Greene and Miss Ethel Harmon of Acadia College are home for the holidays. Miss Greene received the Governor General's gold medal.

Miss Orissa Cole, a graduate of Acadia Seminary, has a music class of twenty-six pupils here.

Rev. R. W. and Mrs. Demmings are visiting in Queens County.

GRAND FALLS.

Miss E. Pauline Johnson the famous Indian poetess is billed to give an entertainment in Wilson's hall on the evening of Dominion Day under the auspices of the local branch of the C. M. B. A. After the entertainment the C. M. B. A. will hold a dance and supper.

Several cases of diphtheria are reported in Grand Falls and vicinity. Dr. Rouleau has introduced the new anti toxin serum hypodermic treatment which has proved efficacious in every case. Hence the fatal disease will be soon stamped out.

Fishing is now the all-engrossing amusement, and every other citizen is the possessor of a reel and a set of artificial flies. Last week, C. L. Merriett landed a nine pound trout from a pond in Salmon River, not a mile from Patterson's mill.

Fred Carr and Esther Sears were brought before Police Magistrate J. P. Kelly on Wednesday charged with assault on the person of Bart Taylor and robbing him of a single harness. J. J. Gallagher was counsel for the prosecution and P. Gordon Fraser represented the prisoners. The further hearing of the matter was adjourned a week in order to allow the prisoners an opportunity of securing counsel from Andover or Woodstock.

Mrs. Arthur McGibbon, Woodstock, is visiting her father, T. A. Estey.

Dr. Kirkpatrick has been in town a week engaged in the practice of his profession.

Mrs. J. J. Gallagher went to Woodstock on Saturday to visit her father, John Kirk, Bedell Settlement, who is seriously ill, his life being despaired of.

Hosea Murray a popular young blacksmith had a desperate encounter with a large skunk on the Drummond road last Sunday. His novel experience is disagreeably palpable to the olfactory nerves of his acquaintances. Those odorous little animals are very numerous and appear to have taken possession of the outskirts of the town.

There is quite a building boom here this summer. W. F. Kertson, Esq., is erecting a large building and store on Broadway; Mr. Legassy has completed the stone foundation for a large double tenement and two stores adjoining the Peoples Bank of Halifax; Wm. Perrie is actively pushing work on his new hotel on Victoria street, Charles Corliss is rapidly finishing the interior of his mammoth hotel.

FLORENCEVILLE.

The weather of late has been extremely hot. This with the timely showers makes ideal growing weather and to some extent offsets the effects of the heavy frost of the 15th and 16th inst.

Haying will soon begin and promises to be but a fair crop. The dry weather in May has reduced the quantity very much.

The Florenceville schools had a successful closing on the 28th. E. B. Ross, principal, and Miss Sinnott, primary, have proven themselves successful teachers of the young. On closing day at 2.30 p. m. a flag raising took place; the flag was presented to the school by F. H. Hale, M. P., J. K. Flemming, M. P., and B. F. Smith, of East Florenceville. An address was read by Miss Grace Peters to the donors of the flag thanking them for their generous gift. Appropriate music followed and addresses were delivered by H. H. McCain, M. P., P. J. K. Flemming, M. P., B. F. Smith, Rev. D. Fiske and A. H. Hayward, after which luncheon was served on the green grass and all seemed happily filled, having spent a very pleasant afternoon.

Charles N. Boyer raised a large barn frame on Thursday.

The Baptist church has a new platform and it is said that the choir and pulpit platforms of the same church have each a new carpet.

All the students who have been studying at the different institutions are now home for vacation.

Rev. R. W. Demmings and wife made Florenceville a pleasant call on Wednesday and Thursday on their way to a visit to Mr. Demmings former home in Queens Co.

Large quantities of milk are being delivered at the skimming station. D. N. Estey is in charge and is giving general satisfaction.

Mrs. Ferguson McCain reached Florenceville on Saturday last from her late home in Edmundston.

Scott Darkis, one of our sturdy blacksmiths, leaves for Colorado next Tuesday. His many friends are sorry to see him go.

The road machine has been quite busy of late spoiling the roads, at least for a time, but we are hoping this will settle down and be better after a while.

Rev. Mr. Freeman, pastor elect of the Centreville Baptist church, passed through the village on Thursday from Wolfville, N. S. He is one of a class of thirty-two which graduated from Acadia University a few days ago. We welcome him to Carleton County.

Rev. Mr. Allen has been away from home attending conference. Rev. D. Fiske took his appointment in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Findley is now preaching very acceptably to the Presbyterian church at Greenfield and Bristol.

In the Florenceville superior school taught by E. B. Ross, there are three young lady students who deserve special mention, not having missed a day during the last term. They are: Miss Grace A. Peters, Miss Annie H. Upton and Miss Mabel Gallepe.

EAST FLORENCEVILLE.

Miss Ada and Miss Laura Tomkins are home visiting their parents.

School stopped Thursday with the glad enjoyment of the children. Mr. Davis, the teacher, treated the scholars to oranges and bananas as a farewell token.

Some of the young folks went over to the flag raising at Florenceville, Friday.

Mrs. T. C. Lee and children and Miss Elliott of St. John, who have been stopping at C. T. Boyer's for a couple of weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. A. Maud Hartley and Miss Ina H. Semple are home to spend their holidays, their schools having closed last Friday.

There was a large crowd went by here on their way to the horse trot at Bristol, Monday. Teams were on the go from half past five in the morning and also bicycles. There was no end to them. There was as large a crowd this year (if not larger) than any year yet.

KINTORE.

Miss Larsin, who has had charge of our school for the past two years, left Saturday for her home in Dover Hill. While her Miss Larsin has made many friends especially in the Sunday school and Bible class where she has taken much interest.

Quite a number from here went to Andover today to attend the celebration.

James Marver is building a new barn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson spent Sunday in Kincardine.

John Curry, of Andover, was in Kintore last week.

Rev. M. Beirsto, of Glassville, will preach in Lower Kintore Sunday morning and afternoon.

Wm. Coutts is putting a wire fence round his garden.

A number from here anticipate going to Fort Fairfield on the 4th.

The boys are trying to organize a base ball team. We sincerely hope they will succeed.

Many of the farmers have suffered considerably from the frost. Beans and potatoes have especially suffered, some field being totally destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar, are visiting friends in Easton.

Crops are looking fine after the recent showers.

MIDDLE SOUTHAMPTON.

On Tuesday the home of Stephen Patterson presented a pleasing appearance, when their daughter, Hessa Lilla, was united in marriage to Waster B. Cronkhite. Rev. J. J. Barnes performed the ceremony in the presence of about a hundred and thirty invited guests. The presents to the bride were numerous and handsome. After spending a few days in St. John and vicinity the happy couple will reside in this place.

A large number attended the closing exercise of the school on Thursday where a interesting program was rendered and all expressed their appreciation of the work done in the last six months by Mr. Richards as teacher and by the pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Blackmer, of Fredericton, spent a few days in this place last week, the guest of Mrs. G. A. Grant.

A banquet in honour of Mr. Richards was held at G. A. Grant's on Friday evening. The sumptuous repast spread spoke well for Mrs. Grant as a hostess. The toasts of the evening were as follows:—The "King" proposed by Mr. Grant and responded to by "God Save the King." The "Governor General of Canada" by Chipman Grant, and responded to by Mr. Richards "The ladies", by Mr. Schriver and responded to by Mr. Richards. The "Tradesmen" by Rev. J. J. Barnes and responded to by Mr. Blackmer. The host and hostess responded to by Mr. Grant, after which the Rev. J. J. Barnes on behalf of the choir of the Free Baptist church presented Mr. Richards with an address of their appreciation of his work in the church and Sunday school, and a nicely bound copy of Byron's poems. Music was rendered by Mrs. Blackmer and Miss Nellie Burden, of Fredericton.

The Orangemen are preparing for a large celebration here for the twelfth. They will be assisted by the lodges of Fredericton and Woodstock, Meductic, Hawkshaw, Canterbury, North Lake, Maple Ridge and of other places. The Woodstock Brass Band will be in attendance. A grand concert in the evening.

The carpenters are making some much needed improvements in the F. B. parsonage. A. J. Way has been making some improvements on his house.

Mr. Carnegie evidently considers two millions a trifling matter. Once Bailie Mackenzie, of Edinburgh, told the great man that if he took to golf he would add ten years to his life. "If you can add ten years to my life I'll make you a present of $2,000,000," Mr Carnegie said earnestly. "Well," replied the bailie on reflection, "I can't do that absolutely, but I'll tell you what I'll do; I'll play you for the $2,000,000 on your own green." Mr Carnegie may still have this wager in his mind's eye, for he plays golf unceasingly while at Skibo, his great ambition being to lower his own record as often as possible.
